MEDIA GUIDE

In Memory...

COREY SMITH 1979-2009

Defensive End Corey Smith, who joined the Lions in 2006, was lost at sea March 1, 2009. Whether he was forcing sacks, blocking punts or making tackles on special teams, Corey contributed to the team in any way he could. He was a dedicated teammate who represented himself, his family, his team and the game of football with pride and respect.

To honor Corey, Lions President Tom Lewand announced in March that the team will retire #93 for the 2009 season. Additionally, Corey's family established the Corey D. Smith Memorial Scholarship Fund.

RICKY SANDOVAL 1960-2009

Ricky Sandoval, the team's beloved director of security, died July 2, 2009 after a battle with pancreatic cancer. During the past three years, Ricky epitomized courage and determination as he battled pancreatic cancer and showed a tremendous will to fight such a deadly disease every step of the way.

Ricky turned 49 on June 30 and is survived by his loving wife, Gael.

FOREVER LIONS

In June 2009, the Lions indoor practice field was named “Sandoval Field” in honor of Ricky Sandoval, who passed away July 2 after a courageous and extended battle with pancreatic cancer that lasted more than three years.

As a dedicated member of the organization, Sandoval touched virtually every person and every aspect of the team’s operations. He was hired as director of security in June of 2001, and for eight seasons he managed the team’s security operations.

The impact Sandoval had on everyone who knew him was lasting and profound. To recognize and honor his dedication and devotion to the Lions organization, “Sandoval Field” is a fitting tribute given his oversight of security at each and every team practice since 2001.

“Ricky set a new standard for courage as he not only fought this disease, but did so with incredible spirit, dignity and determination.”

-- Lions President Tom Lewand

WILLIAM CLAY FORD

OWNER AND CHAIRMAN

In an age where ownership changes and franchise moves in professional sports have become alarmingly commonplace, William Clay Ford continues to provide the Detroit Lions organization, its fans and the community with unwavering stability and sound leadership.

His commitment to the franchise is imprinted on virtually every aspect of the organization. By combining one of the finest sports and entertainment venues, Ford Field, and a world-class headquarters and training environment with a strong management team, Mr. Ford has instilled the organization with the right mix of fuel that will power the further development of the entire Lions organization.

In September 2008, Mr. Ford put the initial pieces together to form a strong leadership team that will lead this franchise on and off the field. For the first time in franchise history, the team begins the season with a new general manager, new team president and new head coach.

"It was vital to find the right individuals to direct this organization and lead this team so we can compete for a championship each and every year," Mr. Ford said. "I am committed to getting it right and providing a team that we all, especially our loyal fans, deserve so well.

"If there is one thing I am certain about, it is our determination to deliver a championship team to Detroiters, everyone around the state of Michigan and all the steadfast supporters that follow the Lions. We are consumed with that goal.

"Consequently, I needed to form a management team that will do just that from our football to our business operations. Tom (Lewand), Martin (Mayhew) and Jim (Schwartz) are highly intelligent and successful individuals who understand what it takes to win in this league. I believe they have compiled the right plan to do so and now we will all work together to execute it accordingly."

As it's always been with Mr. Ford, the ultimate mission is for the Detroit Lions to win a Super Bowl. Mr. Ford understands that with competitive realities of today's NFL, reaching the game's ultimate prize takes a concerted organizational effort both on and off the field. While everyone appreciates the importance of the coaching staff and the front office staff, you also need the proper infrastructure, such as a new stadium and a state-of-the-art practice facility.

Further evidence of Mr. Ford's commitment can be found in the Lions' return "home" to a new downtown Detroit stadium, Ford Field, in 2002. The $500 million stadium enhances the Lions' ability to compete in several facets of the game. In this NFL age of salary cap and free agency, the revenues produced from Ford Field help level the economic playing field with the Lions' NFL counterparts.

Ford Field has already influenced NFL leadership as it became the overwhelming factor in Detroit being awarded the right to host Super Bowl XL in February 2006. That championship game clearly added to the city's economic landscape in numerous ways, including a $260 million boost to Metro Detroit, and the impact the Ford family had on bringing the Super Bowl to Detroit was apparent.

"We wouldn't be here if it were not for the Ford family, who led the way in developing Ford Field as a catalyst for the redevelopment of downtown Detroit, including the return of the Super Bowl to Detroit," former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue pronounced in 2006 during his annual state of the league press conference held just prior to Super Bowl XL. "And the Ford family's leadership has certainly been a big part, not just of the NFL and NFL history, but of Detroit and our nation's history."

Ford Field is a key cog shaping further revitalized growth in the city of Detroit. The stadium's effect on the city will continue to be comprehensive with its contributions as it hosts several events besides Lions' games.

In May 2003, the Detroit News honored Mr. Ford as a Michigania of the Year, an annual tribute to select citizens who made significant contributions to the state or local community, as he brought the Lions "back home" and opened Ford Field's doors to reap benefits for Detroit. In September 2005, he was inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame.

Additional confirmation of his steadfast dedication to the team was the completion of the team's $36 million Headquarters and Training Facility in Allen Park, Mich., that opened in April 2002 as the NFL's premier training center.

"If there is one thing I am certain about, it is our determination to deliver a championship team to Detroiters, everyone around the state of Michigan and all the steadfast supporters that follow the Lions. We are consumed with that goal. Consequently, I needed to form a management team that will do just that from our football to our business operations. Tom (Lewand), Martin (Mayhew) and Jim (Schwartz) are highly intelligent and successful individuals who understand what it takes to win in this league. I believe they have compiled the right plan to do so and now we will all work together to execute it accordingly," Mr. Ford said.

ADMINISTRATION & COACHING

Thanks to Mr. Ford's addition of the Lions Headquarters and Training Facility, the entire organization is now developing year-round in a world-class environment. Both the short-term and long-term impact are significant as the team trains under conditions second-to-none. This joint venture between the Lions and Ford Land Development Corporation provides state-of-the-art facilities for players' off-season workouts, training camp, and in-season meetings and practices.

Throughout his tenure as owner, William Clay Ford has guided the Detroit Lions organization with a sense of balance, integrity and honest leadership. Never one to seek the limelight, Mr. Ford has not sought public accolades for his many contributions to football, the automotive industry and his community.

Known as Bill Ford to his friends and business associates, his relationship with the Lions began during his childhood when his father, Edsel Ford, took him to the University of Detroit Stadium to see the first Lions' team play in their maiden season in the Motor City in 1934.

He became a club director in 1956 and was asked by then-Lions' President Edwin J. (Andy) Anderson to become the Lions' president in 1961.

In November 1963, Mr. Ford purchased the team outright for $4.5 million and officially took over the club January 10, 1964. The 2008 season will mark the 45th year of Mr. Ford's sole ownership of the club.

2009 marks the beginning of a new era for Detroit Lions football. From everything to the team's management all the way down to the logo on the helmet have changed with the mindset to improve this franchise and compete for championships. This past off-season has brought considerable changes to the organization starting with the promotion of Tom Lewand as team president and Martin Mayhew as general manager. Lewand oversees the direction of the organization, including business operations, and Mayhew is responsible for all football matters. Both set out in January to find the best coach for this team, and they did so when the team hired Jim Schwartz, who most recently served as defensive coordinator for the Tennessee Titans over the past eight years, as the Lions' new head coach.

With Lewand and Mayhew in place, they set forth a plan that will elevate this team to new heights and they haven't wavered from that plan, which forged ahead during free agency and the draft.

"I look forward to 2009, and hopefully this will be the season that will catapult us back on the road to a championship title. Each year we must make progress to achieve our goal of winning a Super Bowl, and I feel that we can get there with the organization and plan we now have in place. I have enjoyed seeing our coaching and player personnel staffs work together efficiently and effectively and make decisions that improve this team. It is not about one player, one coach or one GM, it is about everyone moving forward in concert with our plan and executing it on a daily basis."

Of course, Mr. Ford's other passion in life is the automotive industry, he being the only surviving grandson of inventor and auto pioneer Henry Ford, founder of the Ford Motor Company.

For the entire Ford family, 2003 marked a year of great pride and celebration as Ford Motor Company commemorated its historic 100 years as an icon in American industry.

In May 2005, Mr. Ford retired from the Board of Directors of Ford Motor Company after nearly 57 years of service. He remains director emeritus on the Board of Directors. Mr. Ford most recently served as a member of the Board of Directors and was on the company's Finance Committee, and in years past served on its Governance Committee. He had been a board member since 1948 and was chairman of the company's Design Committee from its inception in 1957 until his retirement as vice chairman in March 1989.

Utilizing his expertise in design, Mr. Ford was also on special assignment as a design consultant focusing on the Jaguar.

During his career with the company, Mr. Ford gained special satisfaction and acclaim as the executive in charge of the design, development and subsequent introduction of the Continental Mark II, the successor to the classic Lincoln Continental that had been developed and introduced by his father Edsel in 1939. In 1973, Mr. Ford was appointed vice president-Product Design.

Mr. Ford was elected to the Board of Directors in 1948 and began his employment at Ford following graduation from Yale University. He served several executive positions before appointment as vice president and general manager of the Continental Division in 1954. In 1956, he assumed responsibility for corporate product planning and design.

When the Design Committee of Ford's Policy and Strategy Committee was formed in 1957, Mr. Ford became the committee's first chairman, a post he held until retirement in 1989.

In 1978, Mr. Ford was elected chairman of the Executive Committee and appointed a member of the Office of the Chief Executive. He was elected vice chairman of the Board in 1980 and chairman of the Finance Committee in 1987. He retired as chairman of the Finance Committee in 1995.

The youngest of Edsel's four children, William Clay Ford was born March 14, 1925. Following a tour of duty with the U.S. Naval Air Corp in World War II, he enrolled at Yale, where he lettered in both tennis and soccer at the Ivy League school. As a collegian, he won league tennis titles in singles and doubles, and he earned All-American honorable mention honors in soccer. In fact, he was a nationally-ranked tennis player until two Achilles tendon surgeries relegated him to the sidelines. Mr. Ford's athletic participation today includes golf, a game in which he became nearly a scratch performer, while registering a remarkable seven (7) holes-in-one over the years.

He graduated from Yale with a bachelor's of science degree in economics and then joined Ford's sales and advertising staff. He later served on the industrial relations staff where he was a member of the committee that negotiated the historic 1949 contract with the UAW-CIO.

Mr. Ford also is chairman emeritus of the Board of Trustees of The Henry Ford. He is an honorary life trustee of the Eisenhower Medical Center, is a national trustee for the Boys' and Girls' Clubs of America and honorary chair of the United Way Community Services. He is also on the Texas Heart Institute National Advisory Council. Mr. Ford received an honorary doctor of science degree from the Art Center College of Design in Pasadena, Calif., in 1981.

Mr. Ford's generosity as a benefactor was again recognized in 1997, as the outdoor courts of the University of Michigan's new tennis center were named in his honor. Also, a new addition to Detroit's Henry Ford Hospital (which bears the name of Mr. Ford's grandfather) opened in 1996 - The William Clay Ford Center for Athletic Medicine - which is one of the leading sports medicine treatment and research institutions in the country.

He is married to the former Martha Firestone of Akron, Ohio. They are the parents of three daughters—Martha, Sheila and Elizabeth—and a son, William Clay Ford, Jr., who serves as the Lions Vice Chairman, in addition to his role as Executive Chairman of Ford Motor Company.

WILLIAM CLAY FORD, JR.

VICE CHAIRMAN

William Clay Ford, Jr. has made a positive and lasting impact on the Detroit Lions since assuming his current post of vice chairman in February 1995. He remains focused not only on creating a winner in the present, but also on ensuring success well into the 21st century, both on and off the field.

Ford shares his father's commitment and devotion to the Lions and also has a burning passion to win. Like his father, he wants nothing less than to see the Lions regarded as one of the premier franchises in the National Football League and to produce a championship for Lions fans everywhere.

"We have re-evaluated every aspect of our organization and we will continue to do everything necessary to have success on and off the field," said Ford. "It is vital that we provide our fan base with a winner and reward their passion for the Lions.

"Our focus is to work every day to improve in every area, and this is consistent in both our football and business operations. We understand that the most important thing we can do for our fans is to win and to do so consistently.

"Over the past several months Tom (Lewand), Martin (Mayhew) and Coach (Jim) Schwartz have improved this team in many areas. I firmly believe that there is an exciting future for this team, and I look forward to seeing the development of this team this year and for several years to come."

To see Ford's influence off the field, one has to look no further than Ford Field in downtown Detroit and the team's headquarters and practice facility in Allen Park. Both are considered among the best respectively in all of sports, and were shaped by Ford's resolve for the Lions to be a leader in the NFL.

Ford's dedication and commitment to the fans was never more evident than when he spearheaded the team's stadium negotiations that led to the 1996 decision and announcement to build Ford Field. Due largely to his determination and perseverance, the Lions struck a deal with the city of Detroit and Wayne County that established the foundation for the Lions to return to downtown Detroit in 2002.

Ford's vision of a downtown stadium had perhaps its finest moment to date when it played host to Super Bowl XL in February 2006. It received extraordinary reviews by the international community.

In addition to developing new homes for the team to practice and play, Ford played a vital role in Detroit's bid for Super Bowl XL. Through his leadership, the Ford Family, the Lions and Ford Motor Company were integral in Detroit's impressive hosting of Super Bowl XL that exceeded expectations. Overall, there was a $260 million economic impact generated by Super Bowl XL, including $100 million in downtown improvements, $10 million in emerging businesses—the most in Super Bowl history—and $6 million in the NFL/Boys & Girls Club Youth Education Town—the largest in the country.

Though satisfied with progress made so far by the development of Ford Field, Ford continues to push for the stadium to become an even greater benefit to the community and its growth.

"Since we opened the doors in 2002, Ford Field has delivered on our vision to provide the City of Detroit with a venue that positively impacts the city's economy. Our initiatives have surpassed that, and the result of the numerous and, many times, record-breaking events we have at Ford Field stimulate the entire Metro Detroit region and even the state. Whether a fan goes to a Lions game, enjoys a concert or attends other events, we want their experience to be positive and leave with a lasting impression of who we are as an organization, a city and state."

Since the decision was made to move to downtown Detroit, Ford also wanted to provide a world-class practice facility to complement the team's stadium project. The $36 million Allen Park facility, which opened in April 2002, has universally been identified as one of the best facilities in the NFL. Its state-of-the-art football facilities, including an indoor practice facility with a regulation-size field, provide the ideal training center for NFL players and coaches.

In Ford's 14 years in his current role, he has helped the Lions take major steps forward on several fronts. Ford has strongly supported an active community outreach program which has been recognized as the best of any team in all of professional sports.

Through Ford's support, Detroit Lions Charities, which has awarded more than $5.2 million in total donations during its 19-year history, continue to serve Detroit and the State of Michigan. In the past five years, Detroit Lions Charities distributed an annual average of nearly $500,000 to various organizations. Featured among the Lions' philanthropic efforts is the collaborative effort with Detroit Public Schools and Communities in Schools of Detroit to open the Detroit Lions Academy. The school, which opens its doors for its eighth year this fall, offers an alternative school environment for approximately 140 sixth, seventh and eighth grade students. Ford has been a significant supporter of the team's contribution in numerous other community programs, such as the sponsorship of the Think Detroit PAL youth football program—one of the nation's largest tackle football leagues.

Involvement in the community does not stop at the team's community outreach and charitable contributions, as Ford also emphasizes the importance in growing the game of football and the development of youth. The Detroit Lions Youth Football program is one the most extensive youth sports programs operated by a professional sports team. From numerous youth camps held statewide to coaching clinics, the goal of the program is to impact children's lives on and off the field through the game. Ford believes it is valuable to grow youth's interest in football and assist in the development of youth coaches.

Under Ford's direction, the team has launched one of the most aggressive business operations in all of sports. Many elements to this are derived primarily from events held at Ford Field and the benefits generated from both Lions games and other ancillary events. Ford ensures that every aspect of the team's business operations ultimately focus on the impact they have on the Lions' ability to win.

ADMINISTRATION & COACHING

Two major changes occurred this spring that illustrate this aggressive approach. In April, the team introduced comprehensive changes to the team's brand that includes a new, fierce-looking logo and other unique branding elements. A month earlier the organization re-vamped the Lions merchandise operations with a strong emphasis on improving customer service, including re-launching the team's retail store at Ford Field, now known as "Lions Pro Shop," and the team's online retail store, Detroitlionsstore.com.

Over the years, Ford's leadership has generated several key business initiatives, including the Lions being one of the first pro sports teams to launch its own website. The club also entered into a partnership with Infinity Broadcasting (now CBS Radio), a relationship it extended in 2005, for the Lions' radio broadcast rights and started production on weekly radio and television shows that air throughout the season.

Beyond football events that range from the NFL all the way down to youth football, Ford Field hosts some of the largest sporting and entertainment events in the nation.

In 2009, Ford Field hosted the NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four, a first for downtown Detroit, which shattered tournament attendance records, provided the Metro Detroit area with a $30-50 million economic boost over the weekend and provided a number of community outreach initiatives that will have a lasting impact on the city of Detroit. An example of those outreaches was the newly-created legacy program that established early learning and literacy centers in the Detroit community. Ford Field was the host site for the Midwest Regional Finals in March 2008, and the event also broke NCAA Regional and preliminary round attendance records with over 57,000 people attending each session.

Next April, the focus will again be back on Ford Field as Detroit hosts the 2010 NCAA Men's Hockey Frozen Four. Like the basketball events, the mid-field configuration is expected to set all-time attendance records for that event. Ford Field will become the first venue in NCAA history to host the Final Four and the Frozen Four in back-to-back years.

In other past roles within the NFL structure, Ford has served on the NFL's Finance Committee and NFL Properties Committee.

Though football remains a passion for Ford, his father and his family, his top priority remains serving as Ford

"We have re-evaluated every aspect of our organization and we will continue to do everything necessary to have success on and off the field. It is vital that we provide our fan base with a winner and reward their passion for the Lions. Our focus is to work every day to improve in every area, and this is consistent in both our football and business operations. We understand that the most important thing we can do for our fans is to win and to do so consistently. Over the past several months Tom (Lewand), Martin (Mayhew) and Coach (Jim) Schwartz have improved this team in many areas. I firmly believe that there is an exciting future for this team, and I look forward to seeing the development of this team this year and for several years to come," said William Clay Ford, Jr.

Motor Company's Executive Chairman. His current role is a professional and personal commitment, as he leads the company founded by his great-grandfather, American automotive pioneer Henry Ford. A member of the Board of Directors since 1988, he assumed the role of Chairman of the Board January 1, 1999. He also served as Chief Executive Officer from October 2001 through September 2006. Additionally, he serves as Chairman of the Board's Finance Committee and as a member of the Environmental and Public Policy Committee.

Among his many outside leadership roles, he serves as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of The Henry Ford, Chairman of the Detroit Economic Club, and Chairman of the Executive Committee of Detroit Renaissance.

Born in Detroit in 1957, he is an avid fly fisherman and car enthusiast, enjoys playing hockey and tennis, and is a black belt in the martial art of Tae Kwon Do. He holds a bachelor of arts degree from Princeton University and a master of science degree in management from Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT).

TOM LEWAND

PRESIDENT

Tom Lewand, who was named team president December 29, 2008, oversees the team's day-to-day operations and reports to Mr. Ford on all business, organizational and NFL matters. Now in his 15th season with the Detroit Lions, he guides the overall direction of the franchise.

Lewand's fundamental principle is to consistently present the Lions as a first-class organization with a clear sense of mission and direction.

Among his responsibilities, Lewand is the chief contract negotiator and architect of the salary cap, and he oversees all day-to-day business operations of both the Detroit Lions and Ford Field entities. This includes the management of finance, football administration, player development, security, equipment operations, medical staff, ticketing, sales and marketing, public/media relations, broadcasting, human resources, Ford Field operations and administration, acquisition of events and the development of Ford Field's lease space in the stadium's progression as a multi-use facility.

An extremely talented, creative and aggressive businessman, Lewand has held a myriad of positions and responsibilities within the front office during his tenure with the Lions, most recently as executive vice president and chief operating officer.

On a league-wide level, Lewand is involved in several key business and labor issues. He serves on the NFL Management Council's Club Executives Committee and was on the Committee on Revenue Sharing Qualifiers and the Special Committee on League Economics. Lewand represents the organization for all league-level business matters.

Lewand's leadership positions every aspect of the Lions' organization, including Ford Field operations, to significantly impact the Lions' drive for a Super Bowl title. For Lewand, everything from football transactions to Ford Field events influences the team's ability to compete and win.

In January 2009, Lewand and General Manager Martin Mayhew completed an exhaustive and thorough search for a head coach that would lead the team on the field. On January 16, they completed that process as the team announced the hiring of Jim Schwartz, one of the most experienced and successful defensive coordinators in the NFL. Schwartz has unique experience having served several years as an assistant under Titans Head Coach Jeff Fisher and worked in player personnel while Bill Belichick was the head coach for the Cleveland Browns. Schwartz's philosophy on the game and how to build a successful team, along with his experience contributing to winning organizations and working under successful coaches, made him the right choice for the Lions new head coach.

During his tenure with the Lions, Lewand has negotiated player contracts totaling more than $1 billion.

On April 25, within just a few hours of the NFL Draft, Lewand completed extensive and complex contract negotiations with QB Matthew Stafford, this year's first overall selection, which involved several challenges given the current realities of the NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement. Despite those complexities, Lewand led the team's efforts to sign the top pick prior to the draft, one of the most important goals that both he and Mayhew set forth for the entire offseason.

Lewand's additional contract highlights include: the Lions' last 17 first-round draft choices, RB Barry Sanders' last NFL contract, the contracts of Pro Bowl players (WR Roy Williams, DT Shaun Rogers, CB Dré Bly, DE Robert Porcher, DT Luther Elliss, LB Stephen Boyd, WR/KR Desmond Howard, K Jason Hanson and TE David Sloan) and recent free agent acquisitions.

On the business side, Lewand constantly evaluates and reviews opportunities to grow the team's business operations, a process that incorporated two major improvements this past offseason.

In April, the Lions announced a new comprehensive brand that launched changes to the team's logo and uniforms, a new team logotype and font and streamlined branding elements. The evolution of the Lions brand is the most complete and all-encompassing modification in franchise history. Though the new brand features the most significant change to the Lions logo since it was first placed on the team's helmet in 1961, the Lions brand now extends beyond the logo on the helmet and presents a consistent visual identity in new, versatile and distinctive ways.

In March, the team partnered with MainGate on a 10-year exclusive retail and merchandising agreement. The new partnership, which focuses on providing greater service to Lions fans and consumers, includes significant improvements to the organization's retail operations. Headlining the overhaul is the re-vamped team store at Ford Field, now known as "Lions Pro Shop," and the re-launch of the Lions' online store, DetroitLionsStore.com.

Under Lewand's guidance and direction, Ford Field has become the crown jewel of downtown Detroit and serves as a cornerstone in the city's urban renewal and revitalization efforts. The facility opened to rave reviews in 2002, with the publisher of the Detroit Free Press stating that Ford Field "tells [Detroiters] who we are and suggests what we can be. Now it's up to the rest of us to create a downtown and a city that matches the vision Ford Field realizes."

Ford Field shined in 2006 when the city of Detroit hosted Super Bowl XL. Lewand served as the point person for the Lions and Ford Field on the Host Committee for Super Bowl XL, and was among the key figures leading the city's hosting of the game and events surrounding Super Bowl XL, which was widely-acclaimed as successful and critical to Detroit's future growth. By hosting the Super Bowl at Ford Field, this offered the injection of a $260 million economic boost to the Metro Detroit region. Previously, Lewand played an instrumental role in developing the strategic bid plan in pursuit of Super Bowl XL.

Behind Lewand's leadership, Ford Field once again stepped to the forefront this past April as Detroit, for the first time, hosted the NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four. The championship culminated six years of planning, that included Lewand representing the organization for a successful bid in 2003, alongside the NCAA to present the Final Four in a way that it has never been done before and one that will impact future sites.

This year's event included a center-stadium configuration that utilized the entire stadium seating structure along with customized risers. Ford Field broke long-standing records, including: attendance for Final Four Friday (nearly 30,000), the National Semifinals (72,456) and National Championship game (72,992). Overall, a record 145,378 fans attended the Final Four.

By hosting the Final Four, Ford Field was the centerpiece for a weekend that had an estimated $30-50 million impact on the city of Detroit. Besides the economic impact, a number of community outreaches took place that will improve the area for years to come, including the newly-created legacy program that established early learning and literacy centers in the Detroit community. Attendance records were not only restricted to inside Ford Field, the ancillary events, such as Hoops City, set their own records as well. All of these events generated a tremendous opportunity for both residents and visitors to enjoy downtown Detroit over a five-day period.

With the Final Four now a tremendous success, Lewand's leadership is guiding the organization to once again work with the NCAA to elevate another one of college sports' most popular championships, the 2010 Men's Frozen Four. Following the success of the center-stadium configuration for the men's basketball championships, the Frozen Four will be played under a similar set-up that will enable more hockey fans than ever before to experience this event growing in popularity.

Ford Field will become the first venue to host the Men's Final Four and the Men's Frozen Four in back-to-back years.

In April 2007 Ford Field hosted WWE's Wrestlemania 23 that set a new Ford Field all-events attendance record (80,103) and had a $25 million impact on the Metro Detroit area.

Additionally, Lewand continues to lead in the development of Ford Field events, including college football (Division I regular season games, MAC Championship and Motor City Bowl), MHSAA high school football, concerts, motorsports and various trade shows.

Lewand possesses a strong educational background, having received a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Michigan in 1991, and completing both a law degree at the University of Michigan Law School and his master's degree in business administration from the University of Michigan Business School in 1996. Lewand aided the Michigan football program in various capacities on a volunteer basis while attending the school. He also worked for the Lions on a part-time basis while completing work on his graduate degrees.

In 1991, Lewand served as an environmental advisor for the Governor of Indiana, Evan Bayh. Following a year in that position, he entered graduate school at Michigan. He spent time working for the law firm of Dickinson Wright in Detroit, and the Chicago law firm of Kirkland and Ellis. In the summer of 1993, he worked in the White House in the Counsel's Office for Presidential Personnel.

Lewand's family history is also entrenched in the Detroit area community. His father, F. Thomas Lewand, works as an attorney and was both the Chief of Staff for former Governor James Blanchard and the Chairman of the Michigan Democratic Party. His late grandfather, Joseph B. Sullivan, was a judge in the Michigan Court of Appeals and was the deputy mayor of Detroit in the 1960s.

Lewand is active in the community, acting as Immediate Past Chairman of the Detroit Metro Convention and Visitors Bureau and serving on the Boards of Directors of the Detroit Zoological Society, the Downtown Detroit Partnership, the Detroit Economic Growth Corporation and the Parade Company. He also is on the Corporate Advisory Board for the University of Michigan's Ross School of Business. Lewand was named as one of Crain's Detroit Business "40 Under 40" in 1998, which honored and recognized 40 top business people in the Detroit area under the age of 40. Lewand has also been recognized nationally twice, in 2003 and 2005, by the Sports Business Journal as one of the top "40 under 40" sports executives in the United States.

He and his wife, Suzanne, have four daughters: Cayleigh, Paige, Shannon and Erin.

LIONS UNVEIL NEW COMPREHENSIVE BRAND Team modifies team logo and uniforms and introduces new branding elements

On April 20, Lions President Tom Lewand unveiled the Detroit Lions' new comprehensive brand that launched changes to the team's logo and uniforms (changes detailed in Uniform History on Page 270), along with streamlined branding elements. The evolution of the Lions brand is the most complete and all-encompassing modification in franchise history.

As part of the new comprehensive brand, the Lions also introduced a new logotype and a new proprietary font, "NFL Lions." The new logotype is additional imagery that presents the Lions brand and will be featured in such prominent places as the endzone marking at Ford Field.

"We will consistently present the Lions as a first-class organization with a clear sense of mission and direction," Lewand said at the team's unveiling this past spring. "We have made several significant changes this offseason in accordance with that commitment. The introduction of this new brand identity is another element of that process. Today is an exciting and historic day for this franchise."

"The new identity retains many important aspects of our history in terms of our primary mark and our colors. However, the evolution allows us to present our Lions brand and visual identity in new, versatile and distinctive ways. We stand firmly committed to improving the team on the field. That success is always the most determinative factor of any NFL brand."

MARTIN MAYHEW

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Martin Mayhew, now in his ninth season with the Lions, was promoted to general manager December 29, 2008 and reports directly to Mr. Ford on all football matters.

Mayhew, the team's executive football decision-maker, is building the Lions through a plan that focuses on developing a physically-tough football team. Mayhew adamantly believes that the players that will lead the Lions will be smart football players, and show great character and work ethic.

The process of improving the Lions success on the field continued this past January with the team's search for a new head coach. Along with President Tom Lewand, Mayhew searched for the right coach who shared his philosophies with the following characteristics: strong communication and leadership skills, a track record of success in the NFL, demonstrated ability to overcome adversity, the right mixture of youth and experience, and a coach with enthusiasm and energy for the challenge ahead.

The search concluded with the hiring of Jim Schwartz, who was the Tennessee Titans defensive coordinator for the past eight years. Schwartz is unique because he brings tremendous experience as a coordinator and position coach in the NFL, but he also previously worked in player personnel when he began his NFL career. These attributes appealed to Mayhew, and both have worked in concert on free agency and the 2009 draft—critical areas that will significantly impact the Lions' future success.

Along with the coaching staff, Mayhew is re-organizing the team's player personnel department. From the beginning, the team set out to add a personnel executive who was successful in overseeing both pro and college scouting in the NFL. That was completed with the hiring of James "Shack" Harris, who has worked 22 years in scouting including the past six seasons as Jacksonville's vice president of player personnel. Along with the hiring of Harris, the Lions' player personnel department, under Mayhew's direction, is undergoing a geographical realignment that will improve the team's scouting operations.

In his role as general manager, Mayhew oversees the player personnel department, including college and pro scouting, and plays an integral role in the coordination of the team's salary cap objectives and negotiation of player contracts.

Mayhew and Lewand collectively work on all team matters pertaining to the NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement and League policies and procedures.

In addition, the coordination of all football operations, managed day-to-day by Vice President of Football Operations Cedric Saunders, is under the direction of Mayhew. This includes team travel, training camp operations, security, medical staff, equipment operations, video department and cafeteria staff. Mayhew also works on many of the Lions' football-related legal matters and human resources.

In February 2001, Mayhew joined the Lions' front office as senior director of football administration/staff counsel. After illustrating his talents and work ethic for two years, Mayhew was promoted February 3, 2003 to senior vice president of football administration/legal affairs. On October 14, 2004, he was appointed senior vice president and assistant general manager.

Throughout his journey leading up to his current post, Mayhew has kept an eye on the future and has always thought one step ahead, as evidenced by his strategic exposure to several jobs and internships while earning his law degree from Georgetown's Law Center (2000). He is one of two Lions' front office executives with law degrees, and he is also a member of the Florida Bar.

During the 1999 NFL season, while attending law school, Mayhew served a nine-month internship in the Washington Redskins' pro personnel department, which exposed him to the responsibilities of an NFL scouting department. While with the Redskins, he scouted NFL players and late NFL cuts and also assisted in the evaluation of college players for the 2000 NFL Draft. Mayhew also had two separate internship stints with the NFL in both the labor operations and legal departments. In labor operations, Mayhew worked closely with NFL executives on issues involving player contracts and the salary cap. With the legal department, Mayhew assisted the NFL's in-house labor counsel by researching legal issues, digesting cases in preparation for arbitration hearings and drafting legal memoranda related to player injury and non-injury grievances. He also was exposed to corporate law while working for Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer and Feld, L.L.P. in Washington D.C., one of the NFL's primary firms used as outside counsel. At Akin Gump, Strauss, Hauer and Feld, he researched legal issues, wrote legal documents and assisted firm associates and partners in preparation for litigation.

Mayhew played nine years in the NFL as a cornerback for Buffalo (1988), Washington (1989-92) and Tampa Bay (1993-96). He was the Bills' 10th-round selection in the 1988 NFL draft and was a starter on the Redskins' Super Bowl XXVI championship team.

Mayhew entered the league after graduating from Florida State with a bachelors of science degree in business management. While at FSU, he was a National Merit and Achievement Scholar and earned GTE CoSida Academic All-America honors. He was also a two-sport athlete, lettering on both the Seminoles' football and track teams. Between graduation and the draft, Mayhew was a corporate trainee at First Union National Bank in Charlotte, N.C.

Mayhew has also been extremely involved within the community throughout his professional career. In 1993, while playing for Tampa Bay, Mayhew was given the Chelo Huerta Community Service Award, and the following year he was a nominee for the True Value Hardware Man of the Year. From 1995-96, Mayhew was the Bucs' United Way Spokesperson. Mayhew is a member of the American Bar Association and the Sports Lawyers Association.

Mayhew and his wife, Sabrina, have a daughter, Sierra, and two sons, Ryan and Justin.

When asked about what attracted Jim Schwartz to the Lions head coaching position, he stated, "You're not going to find a more passionate fan base in the NFL than Detroit. You talk about ownership and a commitment to winning. That's critical. Without those two, I don't think it's an attractive opportunity. I think Detroit offers both of those."

At age 43, Schwartz, hired by the Lions January 16, 2009, brings a unique blend of coaching and player personnel experience to the Lions head coaching position. Schwartz has spent the past 16 seasons in the NFL—13 years as a coach and three in player personnel—working his way up from an entry-level football operations position to a NFL head coach. As a defensive coach, he began as a defensive assistant and quality control coach, progressed to position coach and then succeeded as a defensive coordinator for nearly a decade despite the constant nature of change in today's NFL.

Schwartz begins his tenure in Detroit following 10 seasons with the Tennessee Titans, including the past eight as defensive coordinator. While with the Titans, he worked under Head Coach Jeff Fisher, one of the most successful coaches in the NFL over the past 15 seasons. In 2008, Schwartz's defense guided the Titans to an NFL-best 13-3 record and an AFC South title. The Titans' defense finished the season ranked in the top 10 in several key defensive categories, including: defensive points allowed (third, 14.2), total yards allowed (seventh, 293.6), rushing yards allowed (sixth, 93.9), passing yards allowed (second, 161.0), third down percentage allowed (6th, 35.0) and sacks (fifth, 44).

Tennessee's defense was one of only six teams to finish among the top 10 in the league in both rushing yards and passing yards allowed.

As the Titans' defensive coordinator since 2001, Schwartz's defensive unit held firm in two major categories that factored significantly in the team's overall success: rushing defense and third down conversion. From 2001-08, Tennessee ranks fifth in rushing yards allowed per game (103.5) and sixth in third down conversion (36.1). Through 2008, the Titans allowed just nine rushers over 100 yards during the past 64 home games.

During his tenure as defensive coordinator, the Titans claimed two AFC South titles (2002 and 2008), earned two other AFC Wild Card spots (2003 and 2007), and in four seasons finished with 10 or more wins, including 2002 (11-5), 2003 (12-4), 2007 (10-6) and 2008 (13-3).

Over the past two seasons, the Titans claimed 23 victories and their winning percentage of .719 (23-9) was the third-best in the NFL. They are one of only three teams (New England and Indianapolis) with 23-or-more wins. Since 2006, the Titans overall record is 31-17 (.646), which is tied for the fourth-best record in the league.

The Titans success can be attributed to the team's ability to adapt, and Schwartz did that on defense during his tenure as coordinator. Not known for one specific defensive philosophy, Schwartz tailored his defenses based both on personnel and on particular game strategies.

In 2007, the Titans defense helped rejuvenate the team and led the team's return to the playoffs. Among the NFL's

Jim Schwartz brings a unique blend of coaching and player personnel experience to the Lions head coaching position. Schwartz has spent the past 16 seasons in the NFL—13 years as a coach and three in player personnel—working his way up from an entry-level football operations position to a NFL head coach. As a defensive coach, he began as a defensive assistant and quality control coach, progressed to position coach and then succeeded as a defensive coordinator for nearly a decade despite the constant nature of change in today's NFL.

rankings, Schwartz's defensive unit completed the season among the league best in the following categories: total yards allowed (fifth, 291.6), rushing yards allowed (fifth, 92.4), passing yards allowed (10th 192.2), defensive points allowed (17.3, 7th), first down yards per play allowed (4.34, first), sacks (40, seventh) and takeaways (34, sixth).

The Titans limited three teams in 2007 under 200 total offensive yards, and All-Pro RB LaDainian Tomlinson was held to the lowest rushing total of his career (42) with 20 or more carries in the Titans' playoff game at San Diego.

Schwartz managed a defense that, much like the rest of Tennessee's team, was in transition during the 2005 and 2006 seasons. That unit replaced seven regular starters from the 2004 squad with new and, often younger, talent. Schwartz's defense held their own throughout the process, and one example of that was when Tennessee held the Super Bowl Champion Indianapolis Colts and their high-powered offense in 2006 to a combined 31 points in both games, the lowest tally allowed by a Colts division opponent in the history of the AFC South.

The 2005 Titans defense was one of the youngest defenses in the NFL with their average years of experience being only 3.5 years. That defense included two starting rookie cornerbacks for only the second time in the team's 46-year history, and the unit ranked eighth in third down percentage allowed (35.5), ninth in sacks (41) and second in three-and-out drives (31.3 pct.).

For just the second time in franchise history, and first since 1993, Schwartz put together a defense that finished first in the NFL in rushing defense. Finishing in the top 10 in rush defense extended the team's streak of nine consecutive seasons ranked in the top 10. That nine-year streak was also the longest streak in the league at the time.

As remarkable as it was for the Titans defense to finish first in rushing yards allowed, it was even more remarkable of a feat considering the talented rushers they faced nearly week-in and week-out. That year, the Titans faced eight (total of 10 games) of the NFL's top 13 rushers who combined for 12,018 yards on the season. The Titans' defense dominated the league's leading rusher, Ravens RB Jamal Lewis who rushed for over 2,000 yards that season, in the AFC Wild Card game as the team held Lewis to just 35 yards. It was Lewis' second-lowest career single-game rushing tally as a starter in the NFL through that year.

Combined with the stellar rushing defense was the strong effort by the defense on third down, once again proving a common theme of Schwartz's defense. The Titans led the league in third down defense by allowing an opponent conversion percentage of 27.7. It was the lowest in franchise history and the lowest in the NFL since 1998 (Oakland Raiders, 26.3).

Beyond those two categories the Titans defense ranked fourth in the AFC in red-zone defense (43.9 pct.), fifth in the AFC in takeaways (34) and it recorded the most interceptions (21) by a Titans defense since 1995.

In just his second-year as the Titans defensive coordinator, Schwartz's defense finished in the top 10 as they persevered through a season which they lost All-Pro DE Jevon Kearse to injury and added six new defensive starters. In 2002, the Tennessee defense finished fifth overall in defensive points allowed (282).

Prior to his eight seasons as the Titans defensive coordinator, Schwartz contributed to the Titans defense as the linebackers coach where he also coordinated the team's third down package in 2000. That year, the Titans led the NFL in opponent third down efficiency by allowing a league-low 30.8 percent. He also was instrumental in the integration of newly-acquired linebacker Randall Godfrey into the Titans

As the Titans' defensive coordinator from 2001-08, Schwartz's defensive unit held firm in two major categories that factored significantly in the team's overall success: rushing defense and third down conversion. From 2001-08, Tennessee ranks fifth in rushing yards allowed per game (103.5) and sixth in third down conversion (36.1). During his tenure as defensive coordinator, the Titans claimed two AFC South titles (2002 and 2008), earned two other AFC Wild Card spots (2003 and 2007), and in four seasons finished with 10 or more wins, including 2002 (11-5), 2003 (12-4), 2007 (10-6) and 2008 (13-3).

defensive scheme, as he set career highs in tackles (169) and interceptions (2).

Schwartz originally joined the Titans in 1999 as defensive assistant/quality control. In his first year with the club, the team claimed the AFC Championship and earned a berth in Super Bowl XXXIV.

Before joining the Titans in 1999, he spent three years (1996-98) as a defensive assistant/quality control coach with the Baltimore Ravens. During his tenure in Baltimore, he also coached the team's outside linebackers. After the Cleveland Browns moved to Baltimore following the 1995 season, Schwartz made the transition from player personnel to coaching. From 1993-95, he worked in the Browns' player personnel department, serving as both a college and pro scout. During his time with the Browns, he also assisted the coaching staff, headed by Bill Belichick, on defense with film breakdowns and scouting reports.

In addition to his pro coaching and scouting experience, Schwartz worked on the college level for four years before moving onto the NFL. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Maryland, tutoring the Terrapins' linebackers from 1989-90 and then served as graduate assistant at the University of Minnesota (1990-91). He became a position coach in the secondary at North Carolina Central (1991-92) before moving to Colgate (1992) as linebackers coach.

The Baltimore, Md., native was a four-year letterwinner as a linebacker at Georgetown University, where he earned a degree in economics. He received Distinguished Economics Graduate honors at Georgetown, and in 1989 he earned numerous honors that include Division III CoSIDA/GTE Academic All-America, All-America and team captain.

Schwartz and his wife, Kathy, have twins Christian and Allison along with a younger daughter Maria.

Cunningham is a 40-year coaching veteran on the college and pro levels, including the past 27 seasons in the NFL. He has been a defensive coordinator in the league for 10 seasons and a head coach (Kansas City, 1999-2000) for two. Cunningham has also worked with linebackers and defensive linemen for 16 of his seasons in the pros. As a coach in the NFL, Cunningham has earned the respect of both his peers and players for his intense and straightforward approach to coaching. He is known as a strong motivator who emphasizes the importance of an aggressive and hard-hitting defense. Additionally, Cunningham also brings the elements of being a talented defensive teacher and tactician.

From, 2004-08, Cunningham served as the Kansas City Chiefs defensive coordinator during his second stint with the organization. In 2008, he also coached the team's linebackers as the Chiefs' defense began a transition with six new starters and endured numerous injuries throughout the season. From 2004-07, his imprint on the defense was prevalent in several areas.

In 2007, Cunningham's defense ranked in the top five in nine different defensive categories, including a league-high in third-down defense (30.2 pct.), negative plays forced (121) and 10+ play drives (1). The Chiefs ranked second in allowing touchdowns on defensive possessions (37.2 pct.) and in Red Zone defense (37.2 TD pct.). Kansas City was third in the league by allowing just 28 offensive touchdowns, the lowest tally for the team since 1997. The defense allowed 18.6 offensive points per game, the lowest for the Chiefs since 1999.

Overall, Kansas City's pass defense ranked fifth in the NFL in 2007 allowing only 188.9 yards per game. They also tied for fifth in three-and-outs forced (47) and first downs allowed (278).

After just two seasons following his return to Kansas City, Cunningham improved the Chiefs rushing defense that ranked 30th in the league in 2003 (146.5 yards allowed per game) to seventh in the NFL in 2005 (98.1 yards allowed per game). The 98.1 rushing yards allowed per game was the lowest the Chiefs yielded since 1997. In 2005, the Chiefs were ninth in Red Zone defense (46.7 TD pct.) after ranking 27th the previous season. They also tied for the second highest tally of forced fumbles that year with 33.

In 2004, Cunningham began the process of improving the team's defense as Kansas City tied for seventh in the NFL with 41.0 sacks, the club's best total since 2000, Cunningham's last year as Kansas City's head coach.

Cunningham coached alongside Schwartz at Tennessee (2001-03) under Head Coach Jeff Fisher where he served as the Titans assistant head coach/linebackers. In those three seasons, the Titans defense helped the franchise earn two playoff berths. From 2001-03, the Titans led the league in rushing yards allowed (86.5 yards per game) and were third in opponent's third down percentage (33.6). In 2003, Tennessee's defense led the NFL in both rushing defense (80.9 yards per game) and opponent's third-down percentage (27.7). That year, LB Keith Bullock earned a spot in the Pro Bowl under Cunningham's tutelage as his position coach.

As head coach for the Kansas City Chiefs from 1999-2000, Cunningham compiled a 16-16 (.500) record. In 1999, the Chiefs were 9-7 and tied with the Seattle Seahawks with the best record in the AFC West but lost out on a playoff tie-breaker. Cunningham became the first coach in Chiefs' history to claim nine wins in his first season as Chiefs' head coach. In 1999, the Chiefs led the NFL with a +21 turnover margin and set a team record by scoring nine defensive touchdowns. In his two seasons, his club was 4-0 against Denver and defeated the defending Super Bowl Champion St. Louis Rams October 20, 2000 54-34 in a high-scoring affair.

As defensive coordinator for the Chiefs from 1995-98, the defense was a key cog in Kansas City compiling a 42-22 (.656) record, including a 23-9 record (.719) against the AFC West. In those four seasons, the Chiefs allowed a NFL-low in offensive points (16.4 points per game), and led the league in scoring defense during the 1995 (15.1 points per game) and 1997 (14.5 points per game) seasons. Cunningham's defenses were critical in Kansas City producing an AFC-best +30 turnover margin from 1995-98, as they were responsible for 127 takeaways. They also scored 77 points on 10 touchdowns and four safeties. The Chiefs produced 172.0 sacks over those four years, a total which ranked third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL over that span.

The 232 points allowed by the Chiefs in 1997 was a franchise record for a 16-game season. That season, they set a NFL record, previously held by the 1934 Detroit Lions, by not permitting a second half touchdown in 10 consecutive games. They led the AFC in interceptions (21) and total takeaways (34), and ranked second among NFL team in opponents' third-down percentage (31.6). Kansas City's 54.0 sacks in '97 were the second-highest total in team history, leading the AFC and ranking third in the NFL.

In 1995, Kansas City's defense was even better in terms of actual offensive points allowed as opposing offenses scored an average of just 12.9 point per game, and they were ranked second in the entire league by allowing just 284.3 yards per game. They also ranked third in rushing defense (82.9 yards per game). Additionally, the Chiefs led the league in scoring defense, turnover margin (+12), touchdowns allowed (23) and yards allowed per play (4.3).

Cunningham not only has compiled great defensive units, but he has coached and mentored several Pro Bowl and All-Pro players. He shared a special bond as a mentor to the late, great nine-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas, who concluded his illustrious career as the all-time leading sack artist in Chiefs history with 126.5 QB takedowns. Cunningham served as Thomas' position coach in '97, helping him earn his final Pro Bowl invitation. He also coached DE Neil Smith (second in Chiefs history with 86.5 sacks) and DE Jared Allen, who earned his first spot in the Pro Bowl after the 2007 season when he lead the league in sacks with 15.5. Another defensive linemen who excelled under Cunningham was DT Dan Saleaumua. He was named to the Pro Bowl in 1995 after anchoring the team's defensive front.

In the secondary, CB Dale Carter and CB James Hasty were the most formidable cornerback tandems in Chiefs history, as they combined for six Pro Bowl berths, and each intercepted 21 passes.

Prior to his arrival in Kansas City, Cunningham spent four seasons (1991-94) with the Los Angeles Raiders, as linebackers coach (1991), defensive coordinator (1992-93) and defensive line coach (1994). As the Raiders defensive coordinator, his defense ranked ninth in the NFL both seasons, and they allowed a NFL-low 11 touchdown passes in 1992.

Cunningham was the San Diego Chargers defensive line coach for six seasons (1985-90) after originally being hired by the team's player personnel department. During those six seasons, the chargers led the AFC in sacks three times and garnered a club record 62.0 in 1986. As the defensive line coach, he developed DE Lee Williams and DE Leslie O'Neil into Pro Bowl players.

In 1982, Cunningham entered the NFL coaching ranks when he joined the Baltimore Colts coaching staff, learning from the late Bud Carson. He was the team's defensive line/linebackers coach from 1982-84. Before entering the NFL ranks, his previous pro coaching experience was as the defensive line/linebackers coach for the CFL's Hamilton Tiger-Cats in 1981 with head coach Frank Kush who also hired Cunningham in Baltimore.

As a college coach, Cunningham's last stop was at California. Cunningham coached the Bears defensive line from 1979-80, the linebackers in 1978 and secondary in 1977.

Prior to his stop in Berkeley, Cunningham coached at the Stanford Cardinal from 1973-76. He was hired by Head Coach Jack Christensen, a Hall of Fame defensive back for the Detroit Lions in the 1950s and a member of the Lions 75th Season All-time Team. While at Stanford, he coached the defensive line from 1974-76 and was the assistant offensive line and freshmen coach during his first year in 1973.

Cunningham worked at the University of Arkansas in 1972 on a staff headed by Frank Broyles that included Joe Gibbs and Raymond Berry.

In 1969, Cunningham began his coaching career at the University of Oregon, his alma mater. He was with the Ducks program for three years from 1969-71 where he began his longtime relationship with another noted defensive coach, George Seifert. Cunningham was a graduate of Oregon and was a linebacker and kicker for the Ducks from 1966-68.

Cunningham played his prep football at Lompoc High School in Lompoc, California. He was then recruited to play at Allan Hancock College by Hall of Fame coach John Madden. Madden left the school prior to Cunningham's freshman year and was replaced as head coach by Ernie Zampese.

Cunningham is just one of four foreign-born individuals in league history to ever serve as an NFL head coach, joining Hugo Bezdek (Cleveland Rams, 1937-38), Jock Sutherland (Pittsburgh, 1946-47) and Al Saunders (San Diego, 1986-88). Born in Munich, Germany, he moved to Greenfield, Mass., at the age of 10 in 1956 with his mother Katharina and his adoptive father, Air Force Sergeant Garner Cunningham.

Cunningham and his wife, René, have two children, Nathalie and Adam.

Linehan joins the Lions coaching staff after spending the past three seasons (2006-08) as the head coach of the St. Louis Rams. He is now entering his eighth season as an NFL coach, going on 20 years of coaching experience.

In his first season as a NFL head coach, Linehan quickly put his stamp on the Rams in 2006 via the ground game, giving the ball to RB Steven Jackson 346 times in 2006 – the most by a St. Louis player in 20 seasons. Jackson finished the year with 1,528 rushing yards (3rd, NFC), 105 first downs (1st, NFC) and 2,334 all-purpose yards (1st, NFL), earning his first-career Pro Bowl appearance. Jackson averaged 21.0 carries per game over Linehan's three-year span with the Rams compared with 16.9 carries per game in 2005 and established himself as one of the NFL's big running threats.

Other Rams saw career bests under Linehan. QB Marc Bulger passed for a career-best 4,301 yards in 2006, setting franchise records with a 1.4 interception percentage and 588 passing attempts. His 370 completions for 24 touchdowns were also second in Rams' history. That season, WR Torrey Holt and WR Isaac Bruce finished with 1,188 and 1,098 yards, respectively, combining for 167 pass receptions.

In addition to his three seasons as an NFL head coach, Linehan brings four years of league experience as an offensive coordinator. He spent the 2005 season with the Miami Dolphins, improving the team's total offense from 4,960 yards (29th, NFL) in 2004 to 5,198 yards (14th, NFL) in 2005 and bettering the run game from 402 rush attempts (31st, NFL) in 2004 to 444 (12th, NFL) in 2005.

That year, the Dolphins' two primary running backs – Ronnie Brown and Ricky Williams – combined for 1,650 rushing yards and 10 rushing touchdowns. WR Chris Chambers earned his first-career Pro Bowl appearance under Linehan, finishing with 82 catches for 1,118 yards and 11 touchdowns, marking his only 1,000-yard season.

Linehan broke into the NFL as an offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach with Minnesota in 2002, helping the Vikings to some of its best offensive seasons to date, ranking second, first and fourth from 2002-04. During his tenure, the Vikings compiled a franchise-best 36 consecutive games of 300-yards-or-more of total offense (2002-04) and, in 2004, compiled a franchise-best five games of 400-yards-or more of total offense.

In Vikings history, his offenses also rank first and second in total yards (6,339 yards, 2004; 6,294 yards, 2003), first and second in first downs (351, 2004; 350, 2002), second and third in touchdowns (51, 2003; 50, 2004), second in points (416, 2003), first in passing first downs (225, 2004), first in rushing touchdowns (26, 2002) and second and third in rushing yards (2,507 yards, 2002; 2,343 yards, 2003).

Minnesota's top offensive players had some of their best years under Linehan, including QB Daunte Culpepper and WR Randy Moss, who each had career years while he was with the Vikings. Moss became the team's featured 'big man' in 2002 after the departure of WR Cris Carter, starting 45 games over that span and garnering two Pro Bowl selections (2002, 2003).

Moss finished with 106 catches for 1,347 yards and seven touchdowns in 2002 while his 111 receptions for 1,632 yards in 2003 remain personal bests. He also tied a career high in 2003 with 17 touchdowns, a personal best he held until he brought in 23 in 2007 with New England.

Culpepper also had some of his best seasons with Linehan calling the plays, including a career year in 2004. That year, his second Pro Bowl season, Culpepper finished with a rating of 110.9 for the fourth-highest in NFL history and his 69.2 completion percentage (379-of-548), league-leading 4,717 passing yards, 8.6 yards per play average and 39 touchdowns still mark career bests.

Linehan was able to effectively utilize the Culpepper-Moss tandem over his three seasons with the Vikings, bettering the team's total points to 390, 416 and 405, respectively, after Minnesota scored 290 points in 2001. He maintained the team's solid performance through the air, as the offense ranked 9th, 4th and 2nd, respectively, throughout his three seasons.

But even with the dynamic passing game, Linehan also made significant improvements to the team's running game. Prior to his arrival in 2001, the Vikings finished 25th in the league with 376 rushing plays for 1,609 yards (4.3 average). In 2002, Linehan helped the Vikings to the league's top ground game, finishing with 473 rushing plays for 2,507 yards (5.3 average).

That year, Minnesota's running game was led by Michael Bennett, who earned his first Pro Bowl selection following the 2002 season. He finished the year 11th in the NFL in rushing with a career-best 1,296 yards – his only 1,000-yard performance to date – on 255 attempts. In 2003, Linehan utilized a trio of runners – Moe Williams, Onterio Smith and Bennett – to finish third in the league in rushing with 493 rushing plays for 2,343 attempts.

Linehan coached collegiately for 13 years on teams that played in seven bowl games and won five conference titles: one Pac-10, two Conference USA and two Big Sky. Five of Linehan's quarterbacks were drafted by NFL teams: Louisville's Chris Redman and Dave Ragone, Washington's Broke Huard and Marques Tuiasosopo and Idaho's Doug Nussmeier.

He was the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Louisville from 1999-2001, coaching the team to three bowl games and becoming the first Conference USA team to win consecutive league championships. A Louisville quarterback earned Conference USA Player of the Year honors in each of Linehan's three seasons.

Prior to his time in Louisville, Linehan spent five years at the University of Washington (1994-98), advancing to four bowl games and winning the 1995 Pac-10 title. He also spent four total seasons at Idaho, his alma mater, as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (1992-93) and as the wide receivers coach (1989-90) and Linehan spent one season at Nevada-Las Vegas (1991) as the quarterbacks coach. While a coordinator with Idaho in 1993, the Vandals led the nation in scoring (47.5 points per game) and total offense (532 yards per game).

Linehan was a quarterback for Dennis Erickson's Idaho Vandals from 1982-86, winning the Big Sky title in 1985 and making the Division I-AA playoffs in three straight seasons (1984-86). He signed as a rookie free agent with the Dallas Cowboys in 1987, but a shoulder injury ended his playing career.

Born in Sunnyside Washington, Linehan and his wife, Kristen, have three sons: Matthew, Michael and Marcus.

Stan Kwan is entering his 10th overall season in Detroit and his third as special teams coach. In 2008, his special teams units combined to force a league-high five takeaways, and the plus-four special teams turnover margin topped the NFL as well. The Lions kickoff coverage unit allowed the fourth-lowest average drive start following kickoffs (25.5) last season, and that unit was second in the NFL in the percentage of drives forced inside the 20-yard line following kickoffs (23.81).

Under Kwan's direction in 2008, the trio of K Jason Hanson, P Nick Harris and LS Don Muhlbach lived up to their reputation as one of the best groups of specialists in the NFL.

Hanson kicked a league-high eight 50+-yard field goals in 2008 which was a career- and franchise-high, also becoming the oldest kicker in NFL history to have eight 50-yards in a season. With 41 career 50+-yard field goals, he has the most in NFL history and is tied for first all-time for most 50+-yard field goals in a season. In the nine previous years Kwan has worked with the Lions' special teams, Hanson has kicked 26 of his record 41 50+-yard field goals, including 11 the past two seasons.

Harris was strong again with 24 punts inside the 20-yard line in 2008, and both kickers relied on Muhlbach whose long-snaps are among the fastest and most accurate in the league.

Kwan first joined the Lions coaching staff in 1997 as an offense and special teams assistant. He returned to Detroit in 2004 as the assistant special teams coach after spending three seasons (2001-03) with the Arizona Cardinals as special teams assistant/defensive quality control. His career in the NFL originally began in 1991 in the Chargers organization.

Kwan has served in a variety of support roles including designing computer diagrams of plays, compiling both offensive and defensive playbooks, breaking down special teams film, providing statistical analysis on the NFL and combine testing.

For three years, Kwan played baseball at San Diego State University where he earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice. During that span, the nationally-ranked Aztecs won one regular season WAC title, one WAC tournament title and earned two NCAA tournament berths.

Prior to attending San Diego State, Kwan spent one year at South Mountain Community College in Phoenix where he was the first freshman to be named captain of the baseball team.

He attended Phoenix Camelback High School where he set school career records for batting average, runs scored, stolen bases, on-base percentage and walks. In his junior year, Camelback was the top-ranked team in the state and was ranked 16th in the nation. He earned all-state honors twice as a shortstop and doubled as the school's quarterback where he set the school single-game passing record (327 yards).

Jason Arapoff enters his ninth season directing the Lions' strength and conditioning program. His primary role is to oversee the physical fitness of all Lions' players.

Focusing equally on the off-season regimen and the regular season program, Arapoff utilizes high-end cardiovascular strength training and free weight equipment in the team's state-of-the-art facility. His hands-on training techniques emphasize a balance of muscular strength and cardiovascular fitness, and are underscored by a comprehensive, personalized approach to each athlete. He also has introduced a shift toward more football-specific activities that encompass high-intensity protocols to train the entire body.

Arapoff arrived in Detroit prior to the 2001 season with 13 years of experience with the Washington Redskins. While serving as the team's conditioning director for nine years, he was instrumental in computerizing and implementing the team's strength and conditioning and nutritional programs.

A frequently published author, Arapoff has been a monthly columnist for Scholastic Coach magazine and is a frequent speaker for industry events, schools, universities and football camps. He has also served as a content expert for area media, including guest spots on a variety of television and radio programs.

During his playing career as a collegian, Arapoff was a four-year letter-winning defensive back at Springfield (Mass.) College, where he earned his undergraduate degree in health fitness. He went on to obtain his master's degree in exercise physiology from American University in Washington, D.C.

Arapoff and his wife, Jennifer, have three daughters: Julia, and twins, Anna and Alexa.

Bradford Banta, a former Lion, enters his second season as the assistant special teams coach. He returned to Detroit in 2008 after spending the previous season as a tight ends coach for the University of Tennessee Chattanooga. He played three of his 11 NFL seasons with the Lions (2001-03) primarily as a longsnapper.

After being drafted by Indianapolis in the fourth-round of the 1994 NFL Draft, Banta spent six seasons with the Colts and established himself as one of the league's best longsnappers. He joined the New York Jets for the 2000 season before coming to Detroit in 2001. He finished his career with Buffalo in 2004.

Upon his retirement from the NFL, Banta worked for Chase's home financial division for nearly two years in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Banta was a two-year starter at tight end at the University of Southern California (1989-93) as well as a four-time letterwinner. He earned Honorable Mention All-Pac 10 Conference honors as a junior and senior and received his bachelor's degree in communications with a minor in sociology in 1993.

A native of Baton Rouge, La., Banta was a Parade All-American as a senior at University High School and helped them to the state championship (1988) while playing tight end and linebacker. He and his wife, Amy, have three children.

Asst. Special Teams/Asst. Running Backs	2005-06

Sam Gash enters his third season with the Lions, his second as running backs coach. He came to Detroit prior to the 2007 season as assistant special teams coach. In his first season as running backs coach, he helped Lions rookie RB Kevin Smith average 4.1 yards-per-carry while rushing for 976 yards on 238 attempts.

Before joining the Lions, Gash spent two seasons (2005-06) as the New York Jets' assistant running backs and assistant special teams coach. He entered the NFL coaching ranks following a 12-year playing career with the New England Patriots (1992-97), Buffalo Bills (1998-99, 2003) and Baltimore Ravens (2000-02).

As a player, Gash earned a reputation as one of the most physical fullbacks in the league and was named to two Pro Bowls (1999-2000). In 1999, he became the first back ever selected to the Pro Bowl without recording a rushing attempt.

Gash was an eighth-round draft choice (205th overall) of the New England Patriots in the 1992 NFL Draft out of Penn State. He recorded 177 regular season games and also appeared in 11 postseason games. Gash carried the ball 121 times, scored two rushing touchdowns and added 169 receptions for 1,347 yards for an 8.0 average and 13 touchdowns. He was also active on various protection and coverage units throughout his career.

At Penn State, Gash was the top fullback as a junior and senior. He served as offensive captain as a senior and had a career-high 391 rushing yards and three touchdowns on 87 carries. As a junior, Gash started every game and posted 315 yards and five scores on 95 carries. He earned his undergraduate degree in liberal arts with an emphasis in speech communication, marketing and management. He and his wife, Alicia, have a daughter, Samantha, and sons Kolby, Elijah, Isaiah, Caleb, Samson and Gideon.

Jeff Horton joins the Lions after three seasons (2006-08) as the St. Louis Rams' special assistant/offense and assistant offensive line coach (2008) where he worked under head coach Scott Linehan (offensive coordinator) assisting with special assignments and administrative duties. Prior to St. Louis, Horton spent 22 years in the college coaching ranks, including seven years as quarterbacks coach at the University of Wisconsin (1999-2005).

During Horton's seven years at Wisconsin, the Badgers won the 1999 Big Ten Championship and the 2000 Rose Bowl. Horton was instrumental in the development of QB Brooks Bollinger, who led the team to a 30-12 record over four seasons, and was the school's all-time winningest quarterback. Horton's quarterbacks hold the first-, second- and fourth-best career passing totals in school history.

From 1994-98, Horton was the head coach at Nevada-Las Vegas, where he earned Big West Coach of the Year honors in 1994 after the Rebels won the 1994 conference title and the Las Vegas Bowl. In 1993, he was head coach at Nevada where the Wolfpack had the nation's top-ranked offense that season. He also served as the Wolfpack's wide receivers coach in 1992 after serving as the assistant head coach at UNLV from 1990-91.

Horton headed to his alma mater, Nevada, and served as an assistant coach from 1985-89 and helped lead the Wolfpack to Big Sky Championships in 1985 and 1986. In 1984, Horton began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Minnesota.

A native of Arlington, Texas, Horton graduated from Nevada and earned a master's degree in educational administration from the University of San Francisco in 1993. He lives with his wife Teri.

Shawn Jefferson is in his fifth season coaching with the Lions. He was named wide receivers coach for the 2008 season after working with the team's wide receivers the previous three seasons as a coaching intern in 2005, an offensive assistant in 2006 and as the assistant wide receivers coach in 2007. Jefferson spent the 2003 season with the Lions as a player and brings 13 years of NFL playing experience to the club.

Jefferson helped Lions WR Calvin Johnson establish himself as one of the NFL's best receivers in 2008 as he tied for first in touchdown receptions (12), fifth in receiving yards (1,331), second in yards per catch among receivers with 60 receptions (17.1), tied for second in 20+-yard receptions (21), tied for second in 40+-yard receptions (7) and tied for first in 25+-yard touchdown catches (6). Johnson was also named an alternate to the 2009 NFC Pro Bowl squad.

In the Lions record books, Johnson became only the second player in team history (WR Herman Moore in 1995) to record 70 receptions, 1,200 yards and 10 touchdowns in a single season. He is the only player in Lions' history to record 1,300 yards with less than 80 catches. His 12 touchdowns tied for the most touchdown grabs (Leon Hart in 1951) by a first or second year player with the Lions and his 1,331 receiving yards are the second-most in team history by a first or second year player.

In 2007, the Detroit Lions were the only team in the NFL and the first in franchise history to have four different players finish with more than 650 receiving yards (Shaun McDonald, 943; Roy Williams, 836; Calvin Johnson, 756; Mike Furrey, 664). Detroit's wide receiving unit was also second in the NFL in receptions (268) and receiving yards (3,370).

While working as an offensive assistant in 2006, Jefferson helped WR Roy Williams to a NFC-leading and career-high 1,310 receiving yards. He also worked with the NFC's receptions leader Mike Furrey (98 receptions for 1,082 yards). It was the first time since 1999 that two Lions receivers finished with more than 1,000 yards.

In addition to his time with the Lions as a player, Jefferson spent five seasons with San Diego, four with New England and three with Atlanta, accumulating over 7,000 yards receiving and 29 touchdowns. Jefferson also played in Super Bowl XXIX with the Chargers and Super Bowl XXXI with the Patriots.

Jumping right into the coaching ranks following his playing career, Jefferson spent the 2004 season as a volunteer coach with his high school alma mater, William Raines H.S. During his tenure at William Raines, he spent the month of June with the Jacksonville Jaguars as part of the team's Scouting Seminar.

Jefferson attended Central Florida where he starred as a wide receiver and kick returner. Jefferson finished with 67 catches, 1,087 yards and 11 touchdowns. As a returner, Jefferson returned 39 kickoffs for 782 yards (20.1 avg.).

Jefferson and his wife Marla, have two daughters, Paige and Faith, and a son, Shawn Jr.

Bob Karmelowicz is entering his 18th season as a coach in the NFL. He has spent the previous 17 seasons in the NFL working with the defensive line. For the past 34 years, Karmelowicz has worked every season as a coach focusing on the play at the line of scrimmage, with 26 years coaching defensive line units and eight years as an offensive line coach.

Karmelowicz joins the Lions after spending the past three seasons with the Houston Texas. While with the Texans, he was instrumental in the development DE Mario Williams, the first overall pick in the 2006 NFL Draft. In Williams' second season (2007), he exploded as a pass rusher when he jumped from 4.5 sacks as a rookie to 14 sacks the following year.

From 1997-2005, Karmelowicz was the defensive line coach for the Kansas City Chiefs where he worked under Lions Defensive Coordinator Gunther Cunningham. Most recently, Karmelowicz helped develop Pro Bowl DE Jared Allen after he was selected in the fourth round of the 2004 NFL Draft. During Allen's first two NFL seasons (2004-05), he registered 20 sacks (nine in 2004 as a rookie and 11 in 2005) under Karmelowicz tutelage.

Prior to his nine-year tenure with the Chiefs, Karmelowicz worked two seasons as the defensive line coach with the Washington Redskins (1994-96), and his first stop in the NFL was with Cincinnati as the Bengals' defensive line coach from 1992-93.

Karmelowicz entered the pro ranks following a three-year coaching stint as the defensive line coach for the Miami Hurricanes. He was a member of the Hurricanes' coaching staff that led the Hurricanes to a 33-3 record over those three seasons and claimed two National Championships. As the Hurricanes' defensive line coach, he developed All-Americans DT Cortez Kennedy (third overall selection in 1990 NFL Draft) and DT Russell Maryland (first overall selection in 1991 NFL Draft).

Before joining the Hurricanes coaching staff, he coached on the college level at Washington State (1987-88), Illinois (1983-86) as both a defensive line and offensive line coach, UNLV (1982), Texas-El Paso (1981), Massachusetts (1980) and his first five years as a coach at Arizona State (1975-79). He served as an offensive line coach at UTEP, Massachusetts and Arizona State.

Karmelowicz was a three-year starter and consensus Little All-America nose tackle at the University of Bridgeport, where he earned his bachelor's degree in 1972. He received a master's degree from Arizona State in 1977.

A native of Plainville, Conn., Karmelowicz and his wife Olga have three children: daughters, Liz and Marissa and son Dave.

Kris Kocurek comes to Detroit as the assistant defensive line coach. Prior to joining the Lions' coaching staff, Kocurek spent the 2008 season coaching defensive line at Stephen F. Austin State.

Among Kocurek's defensive linemen for the Lumberjacks was Tim Knicky, who received first-team Southland Conference and third-team AP-All American after finishing with 12.5 sacks and 20 tackles-for-loss.

In 2007, Kocurek served as the assistant head coach and defensive line coach at West Texas A&M where he helped coach the Buffaloes to the 2007 Lone Star Conference title as well as the second round of the NCAA Division II playoffs. The Buffaloes became one of the top defensive units in the LSC and led the conference in scoring defense.

Under Kocurek's guidance, Brandon Swain became one of the top defensive players at the Division II level and was a 2007 First-Team Daktronics, AFCA and AP Little All-American and conference defensive lineman of the year after recording 24.5 tackles for losses and 14 sacks.

Kocurek served as the defensive line coach at Texas A&M-Commerce in 2006 and helped guide the Lions' top-ranked defensive unit which finished with No. 1 in total and scoring defense.

For two seasons (2004-05) Kocurek served as a graduate assistant at Texas A&M-Kingsville and coached the Havelina's defensive line where he was active in the development of Wilbert Martin, who was twice selected as first team All-LSC and was a free agent signee of the Baltimore Ravens.

Kocurek began his coaching career in 2003 as a student assistant at Texas Tech. While in Lubbock, he assisted with the defensive linemen and helped coach the Red Raiders to a 2003 Houston Bowl win over Navy.

Prior to coaching, Kocurek spent two years in the NFL with the Tennessee Titans (2002) and the Seattle Seahawks (2001) after being selected in the seventh round (237th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft by Seattle.

Kocurek played collegiate football at Texas Tech and was a three-time All-Big 12 selection. As a senior, he was selected as team captain and named defensive player of the year.

Tim Lappano comes to Detroit to coach the Lions' tight ends after serving the past four seasons (2005-08) as the offensive coordinator at the University of Washington. He is entering his 27th season as a coach and his fourth in the NFL.

Lappano's last pro-coaching opportunity was with San Francisco where he was the running backs coach. In his first season with the 49ers, their running game was third in the NFC with 2,279 yards as FB Fred Beasley made his first Pro Bowl appearance and RB Kevan Barlow rushed for a career-high 1,024 yards despite starting only four games.

In 1998, Lappano made his NFL coaching debut as the running backs coach for the Seahawks. There he helped Ricky Watters rush for 1,239 yards and nine touchdowns, earning team Offensive Player of the Year honors.

In between, Lappano was the offensive coordinator at Oregon State (2000-02) and contributed heavily to the resurgence of the Beavers program. OSU led the Pac-10 in rushing yards (1,933) and in rushing offense, averaging 148.7 yards per game in 2002. Current St. Louis Rams RB Steven Jackson led the conference with 1,690 yards while earning first-team All-Pac-10 honors.

Lappano began his coaching career as the running backs coach at the University of Idaho where he was a four-year letterman after finishing his collegiate career as the school's second all-time leading rusher with 2,196 yards. In 1985, he helped the Vandals to a Big Sky Conference championship before leaving to coach running backs for Wyoming (1986). He then served as running backs coach at Washington State (1987-88) before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 1989. In his first season as offensive coordinator, he led the Cougars to a top-10 finish with former NFL Pro Bowl quarterback Drew Bledsoe and Pac-10 Offensive Player-of-the-Year, running back Steve Broussard.

Lappano moved on to the University of California in 1992 as assistant head coach and running backs coach. While in Berkeley, Lappano coached Heisman Trophy candidate Russell White and helped lead Cal to an Alamo Bowl victory over Iowa in 1993. He returned to Wyoming in 1996 as receivers coach, helping the Cowboys to an WAC Championship while coaching

Tim Walton joins the Lions as secondary coach and brings 14 years of coaching experience to the position. He spent the 2008 season as the defensive coordinator at the University of Memphis and had additional responsibilities coaching the safeties. Throughout his collegiate coaching career, Walton coached 13 players who were eventually drafted into the NFL, including five first round picks (Patriots S Brandon Merriweather, Seahawks CB Kelly Jennings, Giants CB Kenny Phillips, Redskins S LaRon Landry and Cardinals S Antrel Rolle) and three second round picks (S Idrees Bashir, WR/KR Devin Hester and S Michael Stone).

Before joining the Tigers, Walton spent the previous four seasons (2004-07) with the Miami Hurricanes. He was promoted to defensive coordinator in February of 2007 and helped propel the defense to a national ranking of 33rd in total defense. In his first three seasons at Miami, he coached the defensive backs and the Miami secondary ranked in the top 10 nationally in pass defense in 2004 (ninth) and 2005 (first).

In 2005, Walton's pass defense led the nation, allowing only 152.17 yards per game, and featured All-Americans safety Brandon Meriweather and cornerback Kelly Jennings as well as Freshman All-American Kenny Phillips.

Walton was at LSU in 2003 and his defensive backs were a key factor in the Tigers earning the 2003 BCS National Championship and a Southeastern Conference title. The LSU defense ranked among the nation's top three in four-of-five major defensive statistical categories: total defense (first, 252.0 yards per game), scoring defense (first, 11.0 ppg), pass efficiency defense (second, 89.8 rating) and rushing defense (third, 67.0 yards per game). Additionally, LSU ranked 18th nationally in passing yardage defense (185.0 ypg) while leading the SEC in four of the five defensive categories, including a No. 2 ranking in the league in pass defense.

In his first stint with Memphis (2000-01), Walton coached defensive backs. In 2000, the Tigers ranked fifth in the nation in total defense (first in rush defense), allowing only 275 yards per game and placed in the top 15 nationally in passing and scoring defense. He left Memphis to coach defensive backs at Syracuse for the 2002 season.

Walton began his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant at Bowling Green in 1995. He was promoted to running backs coach in 1996 and then moved to coach the defensive backs in 1999.

In addition to his collegiate coaching experience, Walton has had three summer internships with NFL teams. He spent the summer of 1998 serving as a defensive intern with the Chicago Bears, the summer of 2001 as a defensive intern for the Green Bay Packers and in 2004 with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers under current Pittsburgh Steelers Head Coach Mike Tomlin.

As a defensive back at Ohio State, Walton lettered four seasons and served as co-captain for the Big Ten champions in 1993. During his time with the Buckeyes, OSU went to four bowl games, including the Liberty Bowl in 1990. He earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from OSU in 1994.

Walton and his wife, Tracy, have three children: Trei, Timia and Tyler.

George Yarno will coach the offensive line in his second season in the professional coaching ranks. Prior to joining the Lions' coaching staff, Yarno spent the 2008 season as the assistant offensive line coach with Tampa Bay after spending 17 years at the college level working with the offensive line.

From 2003-07, Yarno worked at his alma mater, Washington State, in his second stint as the school's offensive line coach. During the 2003 season, he guided All-Pac-10 selections Josh Parrish (first team) and Calvin Armstrong (honorable mention) to become 2003 Holiday Bowl champions. Yarno began his coaching career with the Cougars from 1991-94.

Over the course of his 17-year college coaching career, Yarno served as an offensive line coach at both LSU (2001-02), helping the team win an SEC title (2001) and at Arizona State (2000). Yarno also served as an assistant head coach/offensive line coach at Houston (1998-99) and as an offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at Idaho (1995-97).

In 1979 Yarno signed as a free agent with Tampa Bay where he played for five years (1979-1983). Yarno later joined the Denver Gold of the upstart USFL (1984-85) before returning to the Buccaneers (1985-87). Yarno finished out his NFL playing career with Atlanta (1988), Houston (1989) and Green Bay (1990). He was a two-time Pac-10 conference honoree as a defensive lineman at Washington State (1975-79).

Born August 12, 1957, Yarno and his wife, Cindy, have three children, Josh, Adrienne and George.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

JAMES HARRIS
SENIOR PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE

Years with Lions: 1

James Harris joins the Lions player personnel department after spending the past six seasons (2003-08) as the Jacksonville Jaguars vice president of player personnel. While directing the Jaguars player personnel area, he oversaw all player acquisitions, including: college draft, free agency, undrafted player signings and the scouting of players in other professional leagues.

Known affectionately as "Shack," Harris brings 34 years of NFL experience to the Lions' front office, with the past 22 years working in player personnel and scouting.

Harris originally began his front office career in 1987 when he joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a scout, a position he would hold for six years (1987-92). He then moved on to the New York Jets and served as the team's assistant general manager from 1993-96. In 1997, Harris was named the director of pro personnel for the Baltimore Ravens. He was a member of the Ravens' player personnel department from 1997-2002, and he earned a Super Bowl ring with the Ravens as the team claimed a world championship with a victory in Super Bowl XXXV.

In 1969, Harris was drafted by Buffalo in the eighth round of the draft—an achievement of its own right since he was just one of a few blacks ever drafted at quarterback at the time. He would play for the Bills from 1969-71, and he would become the first black in NFL history to open the season as a starting quarterback. Harris then played for Los Angeles from 1973-76. While with the Rams, he was the Pro Bowl MVP in 1975 after throwing two touchdowns in a 14-13 win over the AFC. In 1976, he led the NFC with an 89.8 passer rating, which included a 436-yard outing against the Miami Dolphins. He concluded his career in San Diego where he played for the Chargers from 1977-81.

Harris has also impacted the community through the Shack Harris Doug Williams Foundation, which is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization dedicated to creating opportunities for economically disadvantaged youth. The foundation, established in 2005 with fellow NFL quarterback pioneer and Grambling State alumnus Doug Williams, provides grants for after-school initiatives, leadership development, mentoring programs and minority higher education assistance.

Harris' front office work has been recognized by numerous organizations. For two years in a row (2003 and 2004), he was one of the top-50 most influential minorities in sports by Sports Illustrated, and in 2005 he received recognition as one of "the most powerful African Americans in sports" by Black Enterprise. In March 2006, he was awarded the Fritz Pollard Alliance's Paul "Tank" Younger Award that recognized his efforts to level the playing field and improve life for minorities. In February 2007, William Rhoden featured Harris as a member of the Field Generals in ESPN's "Third and a Mile: The Trials and Triumphs of the Black Quarterback." Last year, Harris received the Onyx Awards Achievement in Sports by Onyx Magazine.

Prior to being drafted in 1969, Harris played for one of college football's most legendary coaches, Eddie Robinson, at Grambling State. During each of his four seasons (1965-68), the Tigers won or shared the SWAC title. He was named MVP of the 1967 Orange Blossom Classic and was named Pittsburgh Courier Player of the Year in 1968. As a legendary athlete and quarterback at Carroll High School in his hometown of Monroe, La., Harris received two-time All-State honors as he led Carroll to two unbeaten seasons and a state title.

Harris, 61, and his wife, Vickie, have two sons, James and Aaron, and two daughters, Felicia and Ashley.

SHELDON
PRO PERSONNEL

Years with Lions: 13

Sheldon White was promoted to vice president of pro personnel following the 2009 NFL Draft. He had previously served as the team's director of pro personnel since 2000.

White is entering his 13th season with the Lions. During his first three years in the Lions' personnel department, White fulfilled a myriad of roles: in 1997 as the team's BLESTO area scout, in 1998 as an area scout and in 1999 working in both the college and pro scouting areas.

In his current capacity, White heads a team of personnel scouts that are responsible for evaluating all of the players in the National Football League as well as the current Lions players. He plays a key role in free agency and assists in the draft. White is also involved in some salary cap issues, negotiating contracts for selected draft choices from Rounds 2-7 and selected free agents, and he handles the budgeting for the pro scouting department. Additionally, he is responsible for official daily personnel transactions and ensures that the team is in compliance with the NFL Player Personnel rules and regulations.

In 2004, White completed the NFL's career development program at Stanford's Graduate School of Business.

White, a Lions' defensive back from 1990-92, initially re-joined the organization in '97 as a BLESTO scout after coaching wide receivers at his alma mater, Miami (Ohio) from 1994-96. That post followed a six-year NFL playing career in which White also saw action for the New York Giants in 1988-89 and the Cincinnati Bengals in 1993.

A native of Dayton, Ohio, White was a four-year starter at Miami (Ohio) from 1984-87, and was named to their first team All-Century team. He earned first-team All-MAC honors in 1986-87 and served as a key contributor to the school's MAC title in '86.

In 1988, he was selected by the Giants in the third round of the NFL Draft, and was named to the All-NFL Rookie team by College & Pro Football Weekly. White was also named the team's Rookie of the Year after leading the club with four interceptions. Following a two-year stint in New York, White signed with the Lions. He played three seasons in Detroit and was a member of the 1991 team that won the NFC Central title and advanced to the NFC Championship game. White then signed as an unrestricted free agent with the Bengals, where he spent the '93 campaign, before entering the coaching ranks at Miami (Ohio) in 1994.

In July 2004, White began serving as a member of the Business Advisory Council Executive Committee of the Richard T. Farmer School of Business at his alma mater, Miami University.

White is a graduate of Miami with a bachelor's degree in business administration, majoring in finance. He and his wife, Amy, have four children: sons, Sheldon II, Jordan and Cody, and a daughter, Lacy.

SCOTT
McEWEN
DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Years with Lions: 23

Scott McEwen is now in his 23rd season working in the Lions' personnel department. He manages the college side of the team's scouting department, and he is a key cog in the team's evaluation of college players throughout the country. McEwen plays an integral role in the team's planning and preparation for the annual college selection meeting.

McEwen is the team's elder statesman among the members of the player personnel department, having been a member of the scouting staff for the longest period of time. He originally joined the organization in 1987.

A 1980 graduate of West Liberty State (W.V.), McEwen began his tenure with the Lions as an area scout after spending two seasons working for the BLESTO Scouting Service. Prior to his scouting career, the East McKeesport, Pa., native served as the defensive line coach at his alma mater from 1980-81, and later coached four seasons at Duquesne University (Pittsburgh, Pa.).

McEwen and his wife, Colleen, reside in Pittsburgh, Pa., and have four sons: Scott Jr., Matthew, Patrick and Michael.

MILLER McCALMON
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR

Years with Lions: 1

Miller McCalmon joins the Lions player personnel department, and he brings 30 years of experience in the NFL as a scout, coach and administrator. From May 2000-May 2007, McCalmon was the Houston Texans' associate director of pro scouting. McCalmon previously was a college scout with the Washington Redskins for 10 years, and during the 1999 season he worked with General Manager Martin Mayhew who was an intern in the Redskins scouting department.

From 1988-89, McCalmon served as a scout for BLESTO, the national scouting combine that represents 12 NFL teams.

Prior to his stints as a scout in the NFL, McCalmon served in several coaching capacities. From 1986-87, he was an assistant coach with the Houston Oilers and was in charge of special teams and tight ends. Before spending a year (1985) in private business, he worked with the Buffalo Bills from 1980-84. For three years (1980-82), he was on special assignment with the Bills under Head Coach Chuck Knox before working as special team's coach under Kay Stephenson (1983-84). From 1978-79, he was an administrative assistant for defensive planning for Head Coach Ted Marchibroda and the Baltimore Colts. He originally broke into the NFL as a personnel scout for Head Coach George Allen and the Redskins from 1976-77.

Before entering the pro ranks, McCalmon was the head coach at Erie (Colo.) High School from 1973-75. McCalmon was a graduate assistant at Colorado State from 1971-72. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Tulsa in 1970 while he earned his master's degree in educational administration.

CHARLIE SANDERS
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF

Years with Lions: 21

Long-time Lions' player and coach, Charlie Sanders re-joined the club in a scouting role February 18, 1998. He was promoted to Assistant Director of Pro Personnel March 1, 2000 after serving the previous two seasons as a pro scout. Sanders compiles reports and evaluations on upcoming Lions' opponents and players throughout the league and aids in preparation for the NFL Draft.

Sanders is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Class of 2007 and is only the seventh tight end in NFL history to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Overall, Sanders has spent 36 years affiliated with the Detroit Lions organization, including 10 years as a player (1968-77), seven as a broadcaster (1983-88, 1997), eight as a coach (1989-96) and the last 11 as a player personnel scout (1998-07).

After eight years on the Lions' coaching staff (tight ends in 1989-90 and wide receivers in 1991-96), Sanders spent the 1997 season as a radio broadcaster on the team's flagship station, WXYT. That assignment added to a radio broadcast resume that includes time as the club's color commentator from 1983-88.

One of the best tight ends of his era, Sanders caught 336 passes (fifth on team's all-time list) during 10-year career (1968-77) for 4,817 yards. He appeared in seven Pro Bowls, was twice named All-Pro and missed only 12 games during his career.

Drafted by the Lions in the third round from the University of Minnesota in 1968, Sanders was the only rookie that season selected to play in the Pro Bowl and he finished second to then-teammate Earl McCullough for NFL Rookie of the Year honors. He was inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame in 1990, the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame, his native state, in 1997 and the Guilford County Sports Hall of Fame in 2005.

Sanders and his wife, Georgianna, have nine children -- Mia, Charese, Mary Jo, Georgianna, Charlie Jr., Nathalie, Tallisa, Wayne and Jordan. Daughter Mary Jo is a professional boxer and a six-time world champion. She is 25-1 in 26 career professional fights. Son Wayne is a junior and plays linebacker for the Saginaw Valley State University football program.

LANCE NEWMARK
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF
COLLEGE SCOUTING/NATIONAL SCOUT

Years with Lions: 11

Lance Newmark enters his 11th year in the Lions player personnel department and his second as Assistant Director of College Scouting. Newmark, 33, continues to evaluate prospects as a National Scout, and has added responsibilities within the club's college scouting effort.

Newmark's time with the Lions began in 1998, assisting the player personnel department with various pro and college scouting assignments during the season and in preparation for the 1999 draft. Newmark was officially hired as a personnel scout on May 1, 1999. Newmark worked six seasons in that role before being promoted to National Scout in 2005.

Raised in La Mesa, California, Newmark played wide receiver for two years at San Diego Mesa College, before transferring to the University of San Diego for one year, where injuries ended his playing career. Newmark holds a degree in Social Sciences.

Prior to his time with the Lions, Newmark worked two years for the San Diego Chargers as a staff assistant.

Newmark, and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Commerce Township, Michigan with their daughters, Laci, Kendall and Ava.

CONKLIN
REGIONAL

Years with Lions: 1

Cary Conklin, who will serve at the team's West Coast regional scout, brings both scouting and coaching experience to the team's player personnel department. From 2006-08, Conklin was a scout for the St. Louis Rams and was a scout for the Washington Redskins in 2003. As a coach, Conklin coached quarterbacks at Eastern Michigan from 2000-01 and was the wide receivers coach at the University of Washington in 1998. He began his coaching career at Washington where he was a student assistant and worked with quarterbacks from 1996-98.

In 1990, Conklin was a fourth-round pick at quarterback by the Washington Redskins in the NFL Draft. He played for the Redskins from 1990-94 and with the San Francisco 49ers in 1995. Conklin was a teammate of Mayhew with the Redskins during the 1990-92 seasons.

In college, Conklin set numerous passing records for the Washington Huskies. He was recruited to play for the Huskies after being named Washington's Gatorade Player of the Year while attending Eisenhower High School in Yakima, Wash.

Conklin is married to wife, Demetra, and has two daughters—Cosette and Violet.

GENTRY
BLESTO
SCOUT

Years with Lions: 9

Dennis Gentry, now in his ninth season, joined the Lions as a scout in 2001 and will work as the team's BLESTO scout.

Gentry previously worked for the XFL's Chicago Enforcers in various scouting and coaching capacities (both scout and running backs coach) in August 2000. In his role, he concentrated heavily on offensive quality control and was responsible for analyzing the computerized breakdown of all games for the team's offense.

Prior to his stint in the XFL, he worked the 1998-99 seasons as a high school coach in the state of Texas.

Gentry's first exposure to the NFL after his playing career came in 1997 when he was hired during training camp to serve as an intern wide receivers coach for the Arizona Cardinals as part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Internship program.

From 1982-93, Gentry played 11 seasons as a running back, wide receiver and kick returner for the Chicago Bears, and was a member of the Bears' Super Bowl XX championship team.

Gentry was originally drafted by Chicago in the fourth round of the 1982 NFL Draft out of Baylor.

He graduated from Baylor University with a bachelor's degree in health and mathematics. Gentry and his wife, Jaye, reside in McGregor, Texas.

CHAD
REGIONAL

Years with Lions: 12

Chad Henry, one of the team's regional scouts who evaluates college talent throughout the year, enters his 12th year working full-time in the Lions' player personnel department and 13th year overall in the organization. He originally served as the team's BLESTO scout before being promoted to area scout in 2000.

Henry possesses a variety of experience, both in coaching and scouting at all levels of football. Before being hired full-time in 1998, he spent a year as an intern in the Lions' personnel department and assisted in numerous capacities in both college and pro scouting. He also served as a personnel and coaching staff assistant for the San Diego Chargers during training camp in 1996. Among Henry's coaching stops were at his alma mater, Indiana (Pa.) Area Senior High School in the Fall of '97, and as a scholastic level summer league baseball coach in 1996-97.

Although side effects from a bout with cancer during high school ended Henry's playing career prematurely, he continued in football as a student assistant at Penn State from 1991-93. He was also an undergraduate assistant coach and recruiting assistant at Indiana University of Pennsylvania upon transferring there in the spring of 1994.

Henry received his bachelor's degree from Indiana University of Pennsylvania in English (May 1996). He completed his master's work in labor and industrial relations from IUP (May 1998).

Henry, and his wife, Holly, reside in Pittsburgh, Pa. Henry's father, Jack, coached the Lions' offensive line from 1997-99, and is the offensive line coach for the San Diego Chargers.

ROB LOHMAN
COLLEGE SCOUTING
COORDINATOR/
REGIONAL SCOUT

Years with Lions: 3

Rob Lohman enters his third season with the Lions. He serves as the team's college scouting coordinator, handling various administrative duties within the college scouting department, and is also a regional scout.

He originally joined the player personnel staff in May 2007 and had a variety of responsibilities in both college and pro scouting, including serving as the team's advance scout during his first season.

Previously, Lohman spent six years with the Houston Texans, and was a member of the organization before it began play in the NFL in 2002. From 2004-06, he served as the northeast regional scout, and was the team's pro administrator from 2002-03. Additionally in 2003, he handled all the team advance scouting duties. Lohman joined the Texans in 2001 as a scouting intern.

Before entering the NFL ranks in 2001, he was a graduate assistant at Syracuse University, where he earned his master's degree in higher education. In 1998, Lohman was a special teams and recruiting assistant at Hofstra.

Lohman, the Oceanside, N.Y., native, graduated from the University of South Carolina, where he earned a bachelor's degree in sports management and worked with the Gamecocks' football program as an undergraduate recruiting assistant.

SILAS MCKINNIE
REGIONAL SCOUT

Years with Lions: 7

Silas McKinnie is in his seventh year as a scout with the Lions. Prior to joining the club in 2003, McKinnie spent five seasons (1997-2002) as a regional scout with the Minnesota Vikings.

Before joining the Vikings, McKinnie concluded a 20-year career as a college basketball coach, including a three-year stint as an assistant coach for the University of Miami (1994-96).

McKinnie played football at the University of Iowa from 1965-67, where he earned All-Big 10 honors as a running back. He graduated in 1968 with a bachelor's degree in speech and dramatic arts. Following graduation, McKinnie played five seasons of professional football with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders of the Canadian Football League (1968-71, '73). He signed with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1972, but played the season with the Atlanta Falcons and the Kansas City Chiefs.

Silas Anthony McKinnie was born in Detroit. He attended Robichaud High School in Dearborn, Mich., where he earned all-state honors in both football and basketball. He has a daughter, Ixchel, and a son, Lance.

REGIONAL
SCOUT

Years with Lions: 3

Dave Sears joined the team as a regional scout in May 2007 after spending seven seasons with the Houston Texans organization. He joined the Texans' personnel department in May 2000 to scout the central region.

Sears spent three seasons (1997-2000) working with Washington's scouting department. He started with the Redskins as an intern in January 1997 and was hired as their scouting administrator in May. Sears was promoted as the Redskins' BLESTO scout in May of 1998. He also spent time interning for the Springfield Falcons in the American Hockey League.

Sears earned a bachelor's degree in sports management from Springfield (Mass.) College and was a four-year linebacker for Springfield's football team. He attended Hauppauge High School in his hometown (Hauppauge, N.Y.) and lettered in football, basketball and lacrosse.

Sears is married to wife, Nancy.

DAVE UYRUS
SCOUT

Years with Lions: 10

Dave Uyrus joined the Lions' personnel department as an area scout in June 2000, and 2008 marks his 10th season with the club. Prior to joining the club's scouting staff, Uyrus spent seven years (1994-2000) with New England. He started as their assistant director of pro scouting (1994-96) and then was director of pro scouting for three years (1997-99). Uyrus worked as a national scout for the Patriots in 2000.

Uyrus has been coaching and scouting in the collegiate and professional ranks for the past 29 years, beginning with his first job in 1974 as freshman coach of his alma mater, Middlebury College. In 1975 he coached the varsity tight ends at Brown University and the following year he was an assistant coach at Lee High School in Lee, Massachusetts. He then joined Dick MacPherson's staff at Massachusetts as a graduate assistant in 1977-78 before moving on to American International in 1979 and Merchant Marine Academy in 1980.

Following those stints, Uyrus then re-joined MacPherson's staff at Syracuse in 1981. He spent 10 seasons (1981-90) with the Orangeman, six as the tight ends and special teams coach (1985-90). He moved into the professional ranks after MacPherson was named the head coach of the Patriots in 1991. He spent the 1991-92 campaigns as the Patriots' assistant defensive line and special teams coach before coaching the tight ends and special teams at Cornell in 1993.

As a player, Uyrus earned honorable mention Little All-American, All-ECAC and All-New England Small College honors as a junior at Middlebury.

He and his wife, Heidi, have two daughters: Haley and Gwendolyn.

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

CEDRIC

Years with Lions: 4

Cedric Saunders is in his fourth year with the Lions and was named vice president of football operations September 24, 2008. In 2007, Saunders was promoted to director of football operations in his second season with the club. He came to Detroit after spending the previous five seasons with Tampa Bay.

Saunders works closely with General Manager Martin Mayhew and oversees the team's football operations, including the coordination of the year-round football calendar. Among his football operations duties, Saunders oversees the Lions' player development department, video department, equipment operations, team travel, athletic training staff, strength and conditioning, cafeteria operations and human resources. Along with the coordination of those departments, he handles the annual budgets for the coaching staff, coaching support staff and player personnel department.

He also assists with player personnel, including the development of the team's roster, college scouting and on-campus visits and pro talent evaluation. Saunders plays a role in the coordination of the team's free agency and draft agenda, including free agent and draft eligible visits.

Each season, Saunders is responsible for interviewing and hiring coaching interns as part of the NFL Minority Coaching Program.

In addition to his various football operations responsibilities, he also assists with contract negotiation.

While directing the player development department in Tampa Bay, Saunders helped get players involved in continuing education programs, off-season internships and jobs to prepare for possible post-NFL careers. He was also the main contact between the players and the club's community relations department and encouraged player involvement in charities and community activities.

ADMINISTRATION & COACHING

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Saunders spent the previous two seasons as an area scout for the Kansas City Chiefs, evaluating college talent in the Midwest. A native of Sarasota, Fla., Saunders was in training camp for three seasons with Tampa Bay (1994-96), and saw action on both the practice squad and active roster in 1995 as a tight end and special teams player. He also played with the Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe in 1997.

A four-year starter at Ohio State, Saunders posted 68 career receptions for 853 yards for the Buckeyes. He recorded 27 catches and earned second-team All-Big 10 honors as a senior in 1993 and was an honorable mention selection as a junior.

Saunders and his wife, Bashi, have two daughters, Reegan and Charlie Bleu, and two sons, Cayden and Kai.

ATHLETIC TRAINING

DEAN
KLEINSCHMIDT
COORDINATOR OF ATHLETIC MEDICINE/
ATHLETIC TRAINER
Years with Lions: 3

Dean Kleinschmidt, who was hired in April 2007, brings over three decades of work in the athletic medicine field, most of which occurred on the NFL level. Kleinschmidt oversees the team's athletic training and medical operations.

Kleinschmidt joins the Lions with a distinguished career as an athletic trainer that includes 35 years in the NFL and three seasons in Division I college athletics. Most recently, he completed three seasons (2004-06) as the head athletic trainer for Indiana University's football program.

Previous to his stint at Indiana, Kleinschmidt was head athletic trainer for the Washington Redskins (2002-03). For a two-year period, he worked as the administrative director at East Jefferson Hospital Wellness Center in Metairie, La. (2001-02).

For 31 years, Kleinschmidt served as an assistant (1969-70) and head athletic trainer (1971-99) for the New Orleans Saints. He was promoted to head athletic trainer in 1971, becoming the NFL's youngest ever head athletic trainer at the age of 24.

Kleinschmidt is a 1970 graduate from Indiana University where he earned a bachelor's degree in health and safety and a major in athletic training. His work has been well-recognized throughout his career, and he is an inductee in the Senior Bowl Hall of Fame (2008), Southeastern Athletic Trainers Association (National Athletic Trainers Association District IX) Hall of Fame (2007), New Orleans Saints Hall of Fame (2002), National Athletic Trainers Association Hall of Fame (1994) and the Louisiana Athletic Trainers Association Hall of Fame (1990).

In 2003, Kleinschmidt was awarded the National College Football Foundation Athletic Trainer of the Year, and he has received distinguished awards from Indiana University and the U.S. Sports Academy.

In 1986, he directed the Saints athletic training department that was named the NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year.

In addition to his duties over the years, Kleinschmidt has coordinated all sports medicine efforts at the Senior Bowl All-Star Game in Mobile, Ala., since 1971. He also has served on the board of directors and as president, including three terms, of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society. During his career, Kleinschmidt has been a member of two NFL advisory committees to the Commissioner: Drugs of Abuse & Alcohol and Anabolic Steroids & Related Substances.

Dean and his wife, Marlene, have a son, Rhett, who played wide receiver at Indiana University, and a daughter, Morgan.

AL
ATHLETIC

Years with Lions: 9

Al Bellamy enters his ninth season as athletic trainer. In his role, Bellamy manages the team's athletic training staff and works closely with the team's physicians.

Bellamy arrived in Detroit following 13 years as assistant trainer with the Washington Redskins. Bellamy began working with the Redskins in 1988 and was a member of the team's medical staff when Washington won Super Bowl XXVI.

Prior to joining the Redskins, he served a two-year stint as an assistant athletic trainer with the University of Miami (Fla.) football team (1986-87). He worked with the Hurricanes' program that claimed the 1987 National Championship and included former Lions' safety Bennie Blades and wide receiver Brett Perriman. That assignment was his first full-time job and came after he had earned his master's degree in physical education (emphasis on sports medicine) from Syracuse.

Before obtaining his master's from Syracuse, Bellamy attended Michigan State as an undergraduate and received his bachelor's degree in health education in 1984. While at MSU, he began working in the NFL when he served training camp internships with both the St. Louis Cardinals and San Francisco 49ers.

In 2009, Bellamy is serving on Gatorade's Advisory Board.

Prior to attending Michigan State, Bellamy attended Archbishop John Carroll High School in Washington, DC. In recognition of Bellamy's career in athletic training, the school's annual Student Athletic Trainer and Manager of the Year Award is named in his honor.

He and his wife, Sharon, reside in Northville, Mich., with their son, Chase, and daughter, Ashley.

EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT

SR. VICE PRESIDENT OF

Years with Lions: 25

Bill Keenist embarks upon his 25th year within the Lions' organization. In 2001, he was promoted to the post of senior vice president of communications. He works closely with the club's following departments: communications, community affairs, new media, broadcasting, marketing, sales and tickets. Keenist also serves as the team's chief spokesman on organizational matters.

For seven years prior, Keenist served as a team vice-president supervising the areas of communications, broadcasting and marketing. In 1994-95, Keenist directed the team's launch of several in-house media programs, including: a team television show, radio shows, a state-wide preseason TV and highlight show network, team newspaper, magazine and Internet site. Many of those entities are still in operation today.

Keenist has over the years assisted in the negotiations of broadcast contracts for local radio and TV, most recently including the Lions' radio deal in 2005 when the Lions renewed their relationship with Infinity Broadcasting by inking a new five-year deal that includes greater presence on the team's flagship station, 97.1 FM, and other auxiliary programming.

In 1997, Keenist directed a restructuring of the Lions' ticket office, which included the establishment of both telemarketing and group sales departments. In the season prior to these changes, the season ticket base had fallen to near 30,000. In 2002, the first year at Ford Field, the Lions sold out their regular season ticket packages and, for the first time, have a waiting list for prospective season ticket buyers.

Keenist has been with the Lions since 1985 when he was hired as assistant public relations director. In 1987 he was named director of public relations, a position he held until his appointment as director of marketing, broadcasting and communications in 1991. He held that position until 1994 when he was promoted to vice president for administration and communications.

In 1981, Keenist's NFL career began when he worked for the Washington Redskins as a public relations assistant. He was a member of the Redskins staff when the team won Super Bowl XVII in 1983 over Miami. He also served as the Redskins' director of promotions in 1983.

After leaving the Redskins, Keenist returned home to the Pittsburgh area where he was the public relations director for the Pittsburgh Maulers of the United States Football League in 1984. After the Maulers' one season in the USFL, Keenist served as the sports public relations director for the Pittsburgh Civic Arena, where he worked primarily with the Pittsburgh Penguins.

Keenist's talents have been recognized around the NFL. For Super Bowls XXIV through XXVIII he had the honor of being selected a public relations co-captain, which involves the coordination of all media-related activities at the Super Bowl. In all, he has worked a total of 17 Super Bowls for the NFL. In the past, he has served on the following NFL PR/Marketing Committees: Broadcasting; Governmental Affairs and Insider Magazine. Keenist has been the P.R. Chairman of the NFC Central division and Chairman of the Public Relations Special Projects Committee.

In 2002, Keenist was honored by the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association with the "Best of the Best" award, which annually honors the top sports public relations person in the Detroit media market. In 2003, the Lions' 2002 club seat ticket commercial, produced by Keenist, was nominated for an EMMY, a first for any Lions' production.

Also among Keenist's accomplishments, he served as a member of Detroit's Super Bowl XL Communications Task Force Committee, and played a key role in the organization's public relations efforts during several Super Bowl XL related events.

Keenist holds a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University. He also received his bachelor's degree in journalism from Ohio and was a recipient of a Sports Administration Scholarship from the NFL in 1981. As sports editor of The Ohio University Post in 1980, his sports section was named the Best College Sports Section in America by a national panel of sportswriters and columnists, an honor for which he received a post-graduate scholarship.

He then served a graduate internship at Duke University where he worked in the athletic department.

In 2004, Keenist was inducted into the Elizabeth Forward High School Hall of Fame in his hometown of Elizabeth, Pa., and was a member of the school's Class of 1976.

In 2006, Keenist was awarded a medal of merit by Ohio's Alumni Association, which annually honors alumni who have distinguished themselves in their respective professions.

Keenist, 51, lives in Oxford with his wife Cindy and their three children: sons, Billy and Christopher, and daughter, Lindsay. He is an active member of Oxford High School's Athletic Boosters, a member of the Oxford School District Strategic Planning Committee and he will serve on Oxford's School Board this fall.

His oldest son Billy is a senior at Adrian College and plays quarterback for the school's football team, and Christopher will be a sophomore and will play alongside his brother when he joins the Adrian football program in the fall.

TOM LESNAU
Sr. Vice President of Finance & Chief Financial Officer
Years with Lions: 32

Tom Lesnau is entering his 32nd season with the Lions organization. Prior to the 2003 season he was promoted to senior vice president in conjunction with the restructuring of the Lions front office, and he is one of the senior members of the Lions management staff. His role consists of overseeing the club and stadium's financial, insurance, banking, information technology, business systems, retail store and purchasing operations. Lesnau reports directly to President Tom Lewand.

During the last several years, Lesnau has been involved in assisting Lewand with the initial start-up and on-going development of Ford Field and the adjoining commercial and parking complex that has been recognized as one of the premiere venues in the NFL. Lesnau's involvement with the stadium development has spanned all the way from 1996, when a new state of the art stadium was proposed for downtown Detroit. He has also coordinated a long-term financing arrangement for the stadium and warehouse projects, and the implementation, upgrade and standardization of accounting and reporting systems for the new ventures in order to facilitate an integrated financial system for team and stadium operations.

This past off-season, Lesnau and his finance group, in conjunction with the organization's business operations, revamped the team's entire retail operations and entered into a 10-year agreement with MainGate to become the exclusive retail and merchandising company for the organization. This agreement involved a complete re-launch of the team's official team store, now known as "Lions Pro Shop," e-commerce operations and is now the team's internal merchandise department.

Over the past six years, Lesnau was instrumental in the development and implementation of a new combined budget strategy and process for the Lions and Ford Field, thus allowing the organization to strategically plan the direction of the two entities.

In his prior role, Lesnau established reporting controls to more effectively monitor the overall performance of the organization. He also revamped all computer operations of the team and implemented a new system for both financial operations and administrative areas of the club.

Lesnau gained five years of business and accounting experience with the international accounting firm of Ernst & Young from 1973 to 1978. He joined the Lions in 1978 as an accountant, took on the additional duties as travel coordinator in 1980, and was promoted to controller in 1991. He was promoted to the position of vice president of finance and chief financial officer in 1996. Prior to the team's relocation to Detroit, Lesnau was the primary contact with the City of Pontiac and the Pontiac Silverdome.

Lesnau graduated with honors from Michigan State University in 1973 with a degree in business administration/accounting and is a Certified Public Accountant. Lesnau is a member of the American Institute of CPAs, the Michigan Association of CPAs, and the Financial Executives Institute of America.

Lesnau's involvement with local charities includes positions as treasurer of Detroit Lions Charities and member of Board of Directors of Detroit Lions Courage House, Kolo Charities the Russ Thomas Scholarship Fund and numerous other charitable organizations. He also serves as a trustee on several local community organizations and governmental boards.

Lesnau is married to wife, Liz, and currently resides in Waterford. The native of the Detroit area has lived substantially all of his life in the Detroit metropolitan area.

2009 DETROIT LIONS

PLAYER PROFILES

IKAIKA ALAMA-FRANCIS

Defensive Tackle

Hawaii

Ht: 6-5

Born: 12/4/84

Draft: '07, R2 (58)-Det

3rd Year

Wt: 290

Oahu, Hawaii

97

MANE FACTS

- Alama-Francis' father, Joseph, was a backup to Packers legendary quarterback Bart Starr in the late 1950s and early 1960s, and he played for Vince Lombardi.
- First began his athletic career at Hawaii as a walk-on for the school's basketball program, playing hoops for the 2002-03 season. He was noticed by the Rainbow Warriors Head Football Coach June Jones and was asked to join the football program due to his tremendous combination of size and athleticism.
- As a member of the basketball team in 2002-03, he appeared in nine games.
- Helped deliver thousands of pounds of food to numerous Metro Detroit relief agencies at the Lift Up America event, September 25, 2007 at Ford Field.
- Participated in the 9th annual United Way Hometown Huddle helping to build a $65,000 fitness trail at the NFL/Youth Education Town - Boys & Girls Club in Detroit.
- Did not grow up a fan of football, but did enjoy basketball and was a big fan of Michael Jordan.
- His favorite actor is Arnold Schwarzenegger and is a huge movie guy. His favorite movie of all time is Predator.
- Prior to every game, Alama-Francis has to have his war paint (eye black) on his face, which is a ritual he's done since college. When he has it on, he feels ready to go.
- Two places in particular that he'd love to visit are Hong Kong and Italy.
- Once his football career is over, he would like to become a counselor and help troubled teens and kids which is something he's always wanted to do and feels he can make a difference.

PRO: Ikaika (ee-KY-kah) Alama (ah-LA-mah)-Francis was tabbed "the most talented defensive lineman I've ever coached," by former Hawaii defensive coordinator and former NFL head coach Jerry Glanville. After grinding through injuries during a tough rookies season, Alama-Francis rebounded to become a regular contributor in his second pro season, playing 13 games with two starts. His versatility will allow him to compete at defensive tackle where he'll bring power, speed and athleticism to the position.

2008: Moved into regular defensive end rotation and recorded 38 tackles (19 solo) on the season.

- Inactive for season opener at Atlanta (9/7).
- Posted three tackles vs. Green Bay (9/14).
- Posted four tackles (two solo) and half a sack (career first) at Houston (10/19).
- Tallied a career high six tackles (two solo, including a tackle for loss) vs. Washington (10/26).
- Recorded first career start at Carolina (11/16) in place of an injured Jared DeVries at the left defensive end position.

PERSONAL: Son of Rolenda Alama-Francis and Joseph Francis. After father's NFL playing days, he later served as the long-time head football coach at Pearl City High School in Hawaii.

- Born December 4, 1984.
- Attended Kalaheo High School in Kailua, Oahu, Hawaii where he lettered in basketball, volleyball and baseball.
- Did not play football in high school.
- Member of the state championship basketball team as a junior.
- First-team all-state selection in volleyball and basketball.
- Two-time league player of the year in volleyball and basketball.
- Four-time all-league performer in basketball.

PLAYER PROFILES

CLIFF AVRIL

Defensive End

Purdue

Ht: 6-3

Born: 4/8/86

Draft: '08, R3c (92)-Det

2nd Year

Wt: 260

Green Cove Springs, Fla.

92

MANE FACTS

- Having not started playing football until the 11th grade, Avril looked up to RB Barry Sanders and RB Emmitt Smith. When he started playing football, he'd pay attention to LB DeMarcus Ware, LB Julian Peterson and guys that played in the 3-4 scheme.
- Avril loves watching television shows Martin and The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air.
- Avril enjoys playing basketball, but has slowed down a little with that now that he dedicates much of his time to football. He also likes to sit at home and play video games.
- During offseason Avril likes chill out at home with his family since he doesn't see them much for half of the year.
- After football, Avril would like to own a couple of businesses. Being into clothing, he wouldn't mind owning a few clothing stores, or a few stores in the mall back at home.

PRO: It didn't take long for Avril to prove himself as a pro during his rookie season as he quickly emerged as a regular contributor in the defensive end rotation. Among all rookie pass rushers, he finished tied for first with 5.0 sacks and was first with four forced fumbles. Avril ended his first season with 42 tackles, having playing 15 games, including the final four as a starter. He was drafted by the Lions in the third round (92nd overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft from Purdue. Avril moved to defensive end in his final two seasons for the Boilermakers and registered 30 of his 35.5 tackles behind the line of scrimmage and 12.5 of his 13 sacks from the left end position.

2008: Regular contributor in defensive end rotation. He was among the best rookie pass rushers last season, and is tied for first among rookies with 5.0 sacks and first among rookies with 4 forced fumbles. He ended the season with 42 tackles (28 solo).

- Posted first stats of the season vs. Chicago (10/5) recording 5 tackles (four solo, including one tackle-for-loss).
- Recorded his first career sack-fumble for a loss of four yards vs. Washington (10/26) and added five tackles (four solo, including one tackle for loss).
- Talled third sack-fumble of the season for a loss of 17 yards and a fumble recovery vs. Tennessee (11/27). Play set up Lions TD on a drive that started at the Titans 2-yard line.
- Made first career start vs. Minnesota (12/7) and recorded his fourth sack of the season for a loss of seven yards. Sack against the Vikings game him a sack in three consecutive games.
- Forced his fourth career fumble vs. New Orleans (12/21).
- Recorded three solo tackles and a sack at Green Bay (12/28).

COLLEGE: In 40 games at Purdue, he started in 35 contests, with 12 starts coming at strong-side linebacker and the other 23 at left defensive end. He ranks 12th in school history with 13 sacks for minus-79 yards in a season and finished 11th in Purdue annals with 35.5 stops for losses of 137 yards.

- Named All-Big Ten Conference by the NFL Draft Report and second-team by the league's media in 2007 after starting all 13 games at left defensive end, where he led the team and tied for tenth in the conference with 6.5 sacks and returned an interception for a touchdown
 - Started the first four games at strong-side linebacker in 2006 before shifting to left defensive end for the final 10 games.
 - Played in 10 games as a sophomore in 2005 before a midseason back fracture forced him to sit out for the rest of the year and limited him in drills the following spring.
 - Saw considerable action as true freshman in 2004 while appearing in 12 games, starting four contests at strong-side linebacker.
- PERSONAL: Attended Clay High School (Fla.) where he earned second-team All-State honors as a defensive end as a senior and was rated the 37th best outside linebacker in the nation by Rivals.com
- Named to the Florida Times-Union Super 24 team and twice earned All-Conference accolades.
 - As a senior led the team to an 11-2 record and registered 80 tackles, 9.0 sacks, 11 TFLs and four passes defended.
 - Named to Class 3A All-State team by the Florida Sports Writers Association in his senior year.
 - Lettered in basketball, track and field and weight lifting.

JEFF BACKUS

Tackle
Michigan
Ht: 6-5
Born: 9/21/77
Draft: '01, R1 (18)-Det

9th Year
Wt: 305
Norcross, Ga.

76

MANE FACTS

- Backus is only the second player out of the University of Michigan to be taken in the first round by the Lions, and the first since Bob Westfall in 1942.
- With 128 consecutive starts, he has the second longest active streak among offensive linemen in the NFL.
- Although he spent most of his childhood in suburban Atlanta, Backus was born in Midland, Mich.
- Photographed with his pets for the sixth straight year in the 2009 Lions Pet Calendar which helps to raise money for the Dearborn Animal Shelter.
- Donated Lions' tickets for each home game to C.S. Mott Children's Hospital through the Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- Works with University of Michigan's Mott Children's Hospital on numerous fundraisers throughout the season.
- Participated in annual Detroit Lions Invitational golf outing at TPC Michigan that raises funds for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Helped host a holiday party at the Ronald McDonald House in Detroit on December 4, 2007 to pass out gifts to the children and host dinner for the families.

PRO: Backus has been the Lions' mainstay at left tackle since being drafted in the first round (18th overall) in the 2001 NFL Draft, and has never missed a game or start (128 consecutive starts) in his career. He is one of two offensive linemen in the NFL with a streak of 128 consecutive starts, and he is the only player drafted in 2001 who has started every game as a pro. Backus and teammate C Dominic Raiola had started more consecutive games (104) than any active offensive line pair in the NFL until Raiola missed his first career game vs. Jacksonville (11/9/08). A well-rounded competitor who battles with aggression and shows good initial quickness off the snap to gain advantage on the defender, Backus was the first Lions' first-round selection to start all 16 games as a rookie since Luther Elliss in 1995. He was also the first Lions' offensive player selected in the first round to start all 16 games as a rookie since Lomas Brown in 1985.

2008: Team's starting left tackle. He started all 16 games for the eighth-consecutive season.

- Started in his 113th consecutive career game in season opener at Atlanta (9/7), and moved his current start streak to 126 games.
- Offensive line unit helped garner season-high 130 yards rushing at Carolina 11/16, which included rookie RB Kevin Smith's first career 100-yard effort (112 yards).
- Matched up well against Colts defense, primarily blocked DE Dwight Freeney in pass rush situations at Indianapolis (12/14) as the unit did not allow any sacks on the day.

- Teamed with Seattle Seahawks 2001 first-round pick, guard Steve Hutchinson, to man the left side of Michigan's offensive line in every campaign since their freshman year.
- Earned All-Big Ten honors four-straight years and was an All-American second-team selection by College Football News and ABC Sports, earning honorable mention from CNN/Sports Illustrated and consensus All-Big Ten first-team pick as a senior, as well as being a candidate for both the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Awards.
- Co-recipient of the Hugh H. Rader Award for his junior and senior years, given to the team's top offensive lineman.
- In 1999, he was an All-Big Ten first-team selection by the media, and earned University of Michigan Athletic Academic Achievement honors after starting every game at left tackle.

- Started at left tackle during Michigan's march to the 1997 Rose Bowl and had a hand in Wolverines winning a piece of the National Championship (Associated Press).
- General studies major. Earned degree in December 2000.

PERSONAL: Born Jeffrey Carl Backus on September 21, 1977 in Midland, Mich. Selected to first-team All-USA squad by USA Today at Norcross (Ga.) High. Was picked to the Atlanta Journal-Constitution Super 11 and the Super Seven of the Macon Touchdown Club and was chosen as the Gwinnett Touchdown Club Lineman of the Year.

- Named All-American by Scholastic Coach, Schutt Sports, Reebok, Prep Football Report, Super Prep and was a member of Blue Chip Illustrated's Dream Team.
- Started four years of baseball, playing first base and pitcher.
- His mother, uncle and grandfather all graduated from Michigan.

MANE FACTS

- Enrolled in the NFL Business Management and Entrepreneurial Program at the Harvard Business School and at the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University during the 2007 offseason.
- As a youth, Buchanan enjoyed any team that had CB Deion Sanders and RB Bo Jackson. He also enjoyed watching the San Francisco 49ers and the Oakland Raiders.
- Some of Buchanan's favorite television shows include: Entourage, 24 and The Game on BET.
- On game days Buchanan likes to incorporate some meditation prior to taking the field. He also thinks about the things that he worked on at practice and make sure that he gets his keys and see the same looks during the game.
- Once Buchanan leaves the football field he turns into an entrepreneur and is currently trying to learn a lot about business.
- During the offseason, Buchanan is working on a lot of real estate projects and also loves being around kids, with a passion for high school sports. His younger brother just committed to the University of Miami and he looks forward to attending games down there as well.
- After his football career, Buchanan would like to have a couple of businesses and would want to coach high school football and maybe mess around with college sports to learn a little bit more about the game from a coaching perspective and try to help kids out, help them understand that there's a lot of things that some kids might not be prepared for.
- Cousin, Jevon Kearse, plays for the Tennessee Titans (1999-2003, 2008) and played for the Philadelphia Eagles (2004-07).

PRO: Entering his eighth season, Buchanan signed as an unrestricted free agent with Detroit March 5, 2009. The athletic cornerback, who most recently spent two seasons with Tampa Bay (2007-08), will compete for a starting role in the Lions' defensive backfield. In 2008 Buchanan started in all 16 games played for the first time in his career and amassed 48 tackles, two interceptions (including a 26-yard touchdown return), six passes defended, one forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Buchanan saw action in a total of 42 games (33 starts) for the Bucs and recorded 137 tackles, seven interceptions (45 yards), 16 passes defended, two forced fumbles, a fumble recovery and a touchdown. In 2006, Buchanan played in 10 games for the Buccaneers and in four with the Texans prior being released by Houston October 16, 2006. Buchanan played in 10 games with four starts for the Texans in 2005 after being traded to the club by Oakland April 20, 2005 for second and third-round draft picks in the 2005 draft. Originally entered the league as a first-round pick (17th overall) by the Raiders in the 2002 NFL Draft and spent the first three seasons (2002-04) of his career in Oakland recording 113 tackles, 11 interceptions (326 yards), four touchdowns, 24 passes defended, two forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries in 36 games played with 26 starts.

2008: Started in all 16 games played. Finished season with 48 tackles, two interceptions (33 yards), including a 26-yard return for a touchdown, six passes defended, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.

COLLEGE: Lettered three seasons at Miami, amassing 88 tackles and seven interceptions in 32 career games. Also returned 32 punts for 477 yards (14.9 avg.) and two touchdowns.

- Collected 23 tackles and five picks as a senior. Also led the Big East with a 15-yard punt-return average with two scores.
- Earned All-American honors as a returner and was a finalist for the Mosi Tatupu Award for the nation's most outstanding special teams player.
- Had three tackles and one sack in Rose Bowl win over Nebraska, helping Miami capture fifth national title in school history.

- Posted career-high 44 tackles as a sophomore, adding two interceptions, returning one 78 yards for a touchdown against Pittsburgh.
- Returned a fumble against West Virginia 77 yards for a touchdown.
- Recorded 21 tackles as a freshman.

PERSONAL: All-State selection as a senior at Lehigh High School in Ft. Myers, Fla. Racking up 102 tackles and seven picks. Also rushed for 928 yards and 13 touchdowns.

- Added All-State honors in baseball, hitting .463 as a senior.
- Also lettered in basketball and track.
- Member of school's honor roll.
- Born Phillip Buchanan in Ft. Myers, Fla., September 19, 1980.

DANIEL BULLOCKS

Safety
Nebraska
Ht: 6-0
Born: 2/28/83
Draft: '06, R2 (40)-Det

4th Year
Wt: 212
Chattanooga, Tenn.

27

MANE FACTS

- Former teammate of his twin brother, Josh, who started alongside Daniel as a free safety for Nebraska (2001-04). Josh, who is the younger of the twins by one minute, was selected in the second round (40th overall) of the 2005 NFL Draft by the New Orleans Saints and signed a free agent contract with the Chicago Bears this past offseason.
- Josh and Daniel are cousins of former track star and Olympic gold medalist Evelyn Ashford (100 m champion in 1984).
- Donated Lions home game tickets to MI-COPS through Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- Drinks pickle juice before each game, and pre-game routine includes always tying right shoe before left, putting on pants and then shoulder pads.
- Loves antique cars and owns two '72 Chevelle SSs.

PRO: Bullocks rebounded from season-ending knee injury in 2007 to set a career-high with 121 tackles last season, which was the third-most on the team and the most among Lions defensive backs. He enters his fourth NFL season looking to breakout as one of the league's best young safeties as he brings athleticism and intensity to the defensive backfield. Bullocks was Detroit's second round pick (40th overall) in the 2006 NFL Draft, and finished his rookie season with 70 tackles (52 solo), seven special teams tackles and seven pass defenses. He was slated as the starter at free safety prior to his injury during the 2007 preseason after making seven starts at strong safety during his rookie season in 2006.

2008: Third on the team with 121 tackles (74 solo). Named the Detroit Lions' 2008 recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award, which recognizes men of courage in the NFL. Award honored Bullocks for his battle back from a serious knee injury in 2007.

- Posted a team leading 14 tackles (11 solo) vs. Green Bay (9/14). It marked his first start since suffering a knee injury in the 2007

PLAYER PROFILES

- Preseason that ended his season.
- Forced fumble vs. Chicago (10/5) on WR Devin Hester punt return attempt. It marked the second forced fumble of his career.
 - Led team in tackles with 13 (11 solo) and forced one fumble at Minnesota (10/12).
 - Tallied a team-best 13 tackles (six solo) vs. Jacksonville (11/9).
 - Led the team in tackles with 12 (eight solo) at Carolina (11/16).
 - Returned a fumble recovery 44 yards for a touchdown vs. Tampa Bay (11/23). It was his first career touchdown and the first defensive touchdown for the Lions since 2007 vs. Kansas City (12/23) when LB Paris Lenon had a 61-yard interception return.

COLLEGE: Consensus second-team All-Big 12 Conference choice and All-American Dream Team selection by The NFL Draft Report.

- Served as team co-captain, pacing a defense that led nation in quarterback sacks (46) and tackles for losses (115).
- In 2004, he was All-Big 12 Conference second-team pick by Dallas Morning News and honorable mention from Big-12 coaches and AP. Led Nebraska and ranked second in conference (12th nationally) with five interceptions (187 yards). Also had nine pass defenses.
- All-Big 12 Conference honorable mention as a sophomore. Played in every game, starting nine contests at strong safety.

PERSONAL: Attended Hixson (Chattanooga, Tenn.) H.S. where he played quarterback, teaming in backfield with brother, Josh. Took over starting QB duties as sophomore, without previously playing the position and totaled more than 50 career touchdowns.

- As a senior, Bullocks was Player of the Year in Chattanooga by the Times Free Press and was Mr. Tennessee for football in Class 4A.
- Earned Class 4A first-team All-State honors, and both he and Josh were named to the Associated Press Tennessee All-Star Team.
- The twins both played in the Tennessee vs. Kentucky All-Star Game, and Daniel earned MVP honors after returning an interception 104 yards for a touchdown in Tennessee's 30-20 victory.
- Graduated December 2005 with a degree in sociology.

- Attended the 14th annual Detroit Lions Courage House Dinner to help benefit HAVEN, Oakland County's premier center for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse.
- Made special visits to area children's hospitals during the season.
- Participated in the 2009 Lions Bocce Ball Tournament that generated over $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Looked up to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a youth and admired Doug Williams. He was also a fan of Walter Payton.
- Loves Martin Lawrence, and owns most of his DVDs like You

So Crazy, Runteldat and Martin.

- Game superstition includes always having to wear wristbands on his biceps instead of on wrists. He also writes Psalm 91 on wrists for protection before each game.
- Co-owner of three car washes in Illinois called "Pal Car Wash"
- Wants to get involved in college coaching after career.
- In June 2007, he kicked off his first youth football camp, the Aveion Cason Football Camp in St. Petersburg, Fla.
- Was also a gymnast as a youth and events included high bar, pommel horse and floor exercise.

PRO: Cason returned to the team November 11 after being placed on the Reserve/Injured list (August 30) and then released (September 4). He boosted the Lions' return game down the stretch, returning 32 kickoffs for 746 yards (23.3), including a long of 46. Cason had his most productive season as a return man in 2007, going for over 1,000 kickoff return yards on the season despite missing four games. He was re-signed by the Lions September 12, 2007 to serve as a backup running back and on special teams after being released by the club September 1, 2007. After joining the Lions in mid-season (November 9, 2006), Cason contributed immediately to the offense and special teams. He was then re-signed by the Lions March 7, 2007. Cason entered the league with the Rams as undrafted rookie free agent.

2008: Placed on Reserve/Injured list August 30 and then released September 4. He re-signed with Detroit November 11. Returned 32 kickoffs for 746 yards (23.3 avg.).

- Returned three kickoffs for 72 yards (24.0 avg) at Carolina (11/16).
- Had highest kickoff return average of 27.4 yards per return (5-137) at Indianapolis (12/14) and had his second longest kickoff return of the season (33 yards).

COLLEGE: Played two seasons at Illinois State. Did not play in 2000.

- As sophomore in 1999, rushed for 345 yards on 78 carries with six TDs, adding 34 receptions for 278 yards and two TDs.
- Ranked sixth in nation with 28.1-yard average on kickoff returns, including two 100-yard touchdown returns.
- Named Football Gazette all-America and all-Gateway first team.
- As freshman, named all-Gateway second team, and all-Gateway Newcomer Team.
- 124 rushes for 728 yards and eight touchdowns, added 33 receptions for 230 yards and averaged 19.0 yards on 16 kickoff returns.
- Graduated with degree in industrial technology.

PERSONAL: Born Aveion Marquel Cason in St. Petersburg, FL.

- As junior at Lakewood High in St. Petersburg, rushed for 980 yards and averaged 38.0 yards per kickoff return. Did not play senior season after transferring schools.

MANE FACTS

- While growing up in South Carolina, Cohen was a fan of the Carolina Panthers. His favorite player was RB Stephen Davis, who incidentally was a graduate of Cohen's high school.
- Cohen is a fan of all types of music, from country to hip-hop rap. His current favorite is Sam Cooke.
- During college, Cohen couldn't help but watch the movie, Gladiator a few times a week. He also was a big fan of the movie Training Day.
- Currently, one of Cohen's primary interests outside of football is technology as he tries to keep up on all of the latest gadgetry.
- Cohen has a degree in public relations and social services management and would like to be a sports broadcaster or analyst after his playing career.

PRO: Cohen is looking to continue his climb towards becoming a regular along the defensive line. After being designated inactive for the first nine games, Cohen played in six of the last seven contests and had an opportunity to contribute on defense and special teams. He was drafted by the Lions with their seventh round (216th overall) draft choice in the 2008 NFL Draft and was the 27th Ohio player to be drafted in the program's history.

2008: Saw action in six of the team's final seven games and recorded six tackles (three solo).

- Saw first playing time of the season at Carolina (11/16).
- Recorded a season high four tackles at Indianapolis (12/14).

COLLEGE: Cohen closed out his four-year career amassing 144 career tackles with 39.5 tackles for loss, which tied him for fourth in school history with linebacker Matt Muncy. He also started a team-high 37 consecutive games over the course of his sophomore, junior and senior year (tied with running back Kalvin McRae).

- Started 12 games in 2007 and finished with a career-high 59 tackles in addition to notching 1.5 sacks for 21 yards, a forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and 12.5 tackles for a loss of 47 yards.
- In 2006, Cohen started in all 14 games, including the MAC Championship game and the GMAC bowl, and recorded 40 total tackles. He was named second-team All-MAC after leading all defensive linemen with 14.0 tackles for loss, which was a career best and ranked tied for 10th on the Ohio single-season list.
- As a sophomore, he started in all 11 games played and recorded 28 tackles (16 solo) and two quarterback pressures on the season and recorded at least one tackle for loss in seven of the last eight games played.

- One of only three true freshman to play in all 12 games in 2004, despite battling a nagging ankle injury during second half of season. Started three times while sharing reps at nose guard

PERSONAL: Earned all-state, all-area and all-region honors and was a member of the Spartanburg Herald-Journal Fantastic 50.

- Collected 107 tackles, 28 quarterback pressures and 6.0 sacks during his senior year.
- Helped the Vikings win the state championship during sophomore season.
- Participated in the Service Learning Program.
- Also a four-year letterman in track.
- Son of Charles and Carolyn Ragin.

- Wants Can see himself mentoring high school football players and helping them on and off the field.
- Holds a great deal of pride for his University of Southern California roots and has a collection of photos of him and each player from USC that he has ever played with or against in the NFL.

PRO: Signed with the Lions December 1, 2008 and saw playing time in the final four games of the season recording five catches for 64 yards. Prior to coming to Detroit Colbert most recently spent time with the Seattle Seahawks (2008) and Denver Broncos (2008). Colbert signed with Denver March 1, 2008 to a three-year contract, seeing time in two games during the 2008 season and was later acquired by Seattle September 16, 2008 for a conditional fifth-round pick in the 2009 NFL Draft. Colbert was released by the Seahawks November 11, 2008 after playing in seven games with four starts and recording seven catches for 52 yards and a touchdown. Originally drafted in the second round of the 2004 NFL Draft by the Carolina Panthers, Colbert spent the first four years of his career with the Panthers (2004-07). Colbert stepped into the second receiver spot during his rookie campaign in 2004 when Steve Smith was injured and caught 47 receptions for 754 yards and five touchdowns.

2008: Signed to the Lions' active roster December 1 after spending the first two games of the season with Denver and seven games with Seattle. Registered 5 catches for 64 yards (12.8 avg) through the final four games of the season with Detroit.

- Two grabs (32 yds) in first game with club vs. Minnesota (12/7).

COLLEGE: Finished career at Southern California as its all-time leader in receptions (207) and ranked third in school annals in career receiving yards (2,964). Became the third player in USC history to post two 1,000-yard receiving seasons.

- Twice receiving second-team All-Pacific-10 Conference honors.
- Earned second-team all-conference accolades and finished second on USC with 69 receptions for 1,013 yards (14.6 avg.) with nine touchdowns as a senior.

PERSONAL: Totaled 65 catches for 1,520 yards (24.4 avg.) with 24 touchdowns during his final two seasons at Hueneme High School in Oxnard, California.

- Earned second-team All-Ventura County accolades as a senior after registering 25 catches for 600 yards (24.0 avg.) with 10 touchdowns.

MANE FACTS

- As part of the "Be Seen with the Coolest Guy in School" presented by Pepsi/Aquafina, Culpepper visited the Detroit Academy of Arts & Sciences in Detroit March 25, 2009.
- Participated in the 6th annual Detroit Lions Tony Filippis Memorial Bocce Ball tournament that raised funds for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Growing up Culpepper's favorite team was the Dallas Cowboys and his favorite player was Cowboy's QB Troy Aikman. He also liked QB Joe Montana, but Aikman was his favorite because, in his opinion, he optimized the complete quarterback. Culpepper grew up keeping up with the sports news in the newspapers and tried to take positive parts of everybody's game and incorporate them into his own.
- When it comes to television, Culpepper is a fan of the classic show Sanford and Son and also enjoys watching Jeopardy with his oldest daughter everyday at seven o'clock.
- Before each game Culpepper makes sure to look like a professional, wearing a suit, to show that he's ready to go to work.
- Culpepper enjoys playing with his four-wheelers and his jet skis for fun.
- After his football career, Culpepper wants to focus on raising his two sons and two daughters and be active in his sons' sports lives. He'd also like to get into some type of coaching at the high school level, but not collegiate or pro because he feels it's too much of a business. He aspires to be a mentor to the kids.
- During the 2003 season, cousin, WR Kenny Clark, was his teammate with the Vikings. He was also a teammate of Culpepper at Ocala Vanguard and Central Florida.
- Claimed the 2003 EA Sports Madden Bowl title among NFL players.
- While with the Vikings, his charity outreach included working with the African American Adoption Agency and serving as a keynote speaker at the United Way Reason To Be Thankful celebration.
- In 2003, He was honored with the NFL's Extra Effort award for his work with the African American Adoption Agency.

PRO: Signed by the Lions November 4, 2008, Culpepper was thrown right into the mix as he played and started in five games with Detroit in 2008 completing 60-of-115 passes for 786 yards and six touchdowns before suffering a shoulder injury that sidelined him for the remaining three games of the season. As a three-time Pro Bowler (2001, 2004 and 2005), Culpepper arrives in Detroit after spending the 2007 season with Oakland, 2006 with Miami and the first seven season of his career with Minnesota. Overall, he has completed 1,867-of-2,927 passes for 22,422 yards and 142 touchdowns, and he has registered a career passer rating of 89.9. Among passers with 1,500 career attempts, he ranks sixth all-time in completion percentage (63.8) and seventh all-time in passer rating (89.9). Culpepper has 20 career 300-yard passing games, and he has thrown for two-or-more touchdowns 41 times and three-or-more touchdowns 20 times. He was originally drafted in the first-round (11th overall) in the 1999 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings..

2008: Completed 60-of-115 passes (52.2 pct.) for 786 yards and six touchdowns in his five starts after signing with the Lions. Missed final three games of season due to shoulder injury.

- Debuted as Lions' starter vs. Jacksonville (11/9) and split time with Drew Stanton. Completed 5-of-10 passes for 104 yards. Launched a 51-yard bomb to WR Calvin Johnson that set up the Lions first touchdown drive of the game.
- Connected on 20-of-35 passes for 207 yards and a touchdown and carried the ball five times for 13 yards and a touchdown at Carolina (11/16). TD pass occurred on Lions opening drive as he scrambled and found WR Calvin Johnson in the endzone.

- Connected on 13-of-26 passes for 134 yards, a touchdown and an interception vs. Tennessee (11/27).
- Connected on 14-of-24 passes for 220 yards and a touchdown (70-yarder to Calvin Johnson) and recorded highest quarterback rating as a Lion with 102.8 vs. Minnesota (12/7).

COLLEGE: Started 44 games for the Golden Knights from 1995-98, became only the third quarterback in NCAA history to throw for 10,000 yards and rush for 1,000 yards and set more than 30 school records.

- During his career at UCF, he completed 889-of-1,391 passes for 11,412 yards and 82 touchdowns.
- As a senior, he completed 296-of-402 passes (73.6) for 3,690 yards and 28 touchdowns, and he finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy balloting that year.
- His 73.6 completion percentage also set a new NCAA single-season record..

PERSONAL: Attended Vanguard High School in Ocala, Fla. Earned All-America honors and named Florida's Mr. Football by the Florida Athletic Coaches Association.

- Led Vanguard to undefeated regular season and to the Class 5A state championship game as a senior.
- Lettered in basketball, baseball and weightlifting.
- High school coach, Alex Castaneda, was one of five finalists for NFL High School Football Coach of the Year Award in 2000.
- Drafted by the NY Yankees in the 26th round of the 1995 MLB Draft.

MANE FACTS

- Admired Warren Sapp, John Randall and Robert Porcher and credits them as playing a big part in his career. Darby even had the opportunity to play alongside Sapp in his years with Tampa Bay and learned a lot from him.
- Darby collects model cars, coins and loves to fish in his free time.
- During the offseason Darby works on a couple of business projects, including real estate. He usually heads down to South Carolina to work with his dad who is a logger to help him cut down trees and sell.
- After his football career, Darby is looking forward to taking one day at a time and spending time with his family. One of the biggest things he'd like to accomplish is to become a high school football coach.

PRO: Darby is entering his second season with Detroit and his ninth in the NFL. He set a new single-season career-high in 2008 with 59 tackles while playing and starting in 15 games. Prior to joining the Lions, Darby spent three seasons with Seattle (2005-2007) after spending his first four seasons (2001-04) with Tampa Bay. He was a regular contributor to the Buccaneers defense as he played in 61 games (23 starts) and started at nose tackle in the Bucs' Super Bowl XXXVII victory. He was originally signed as an undrafted free agent in 2000 and spent his rookie season on the Buccaneers practice squad.

2008: Team's starting nose-tackle. Garnered 56 tackles (35 solo) and 1.5 sacks on the season.

- Posted six solo stops (one tackle for loss) vs. Green Bay (9/14).
- Inactive at Houston (10/19) due to a calf injury.
- Recorded a career-best seven tackles vs. Chicago (10/5).
- Tallied first sack of the season for a loss of two yards vs. Tampa Bay (11/23). Also added two tackles and a fumble recovery.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman at South Carolina State, where he holds the school record with 45.5 sacks. Finished with 258 career tackles, 55 tackles-for-loss and seven fumble recoveries.

- Named the Bulldogs' outstanding defensive lineman for three consecutive seasons (1995-97).
- Earned first-team All-MEAC honors junior and senior seasons.
- Played all 12 games as a senior. Named the team's Co-Most Valuable Player after posting career-highs in tackles (103), sacks (22), tackles-for-loss (26) and fumble recoveries (four).
- Finished as the runner-up for the MEAC Defensive Player of the Year.
- Played in 10 games as a junior and posted 64 tackles, 9.0 sacks and 13 tackles-for-loss.
- Earned All-MEAC honorable mention as a sophomore after racking up 80 tackles, 12.0 sacks and three fumble recoveries.
- Had 11 tackles and 2.5 sacks as a freshman.
- Majored in business.

PAPER LION

Filming of the George Plimpton book, "Paper Lion," began in early 1968. Alan Alda starred as Plimpton, the Sports Illustrated feature writer who masqueraded as a quarterback with the Lions during training camp. The world premier was held Thursday, October 3, 1968, at the Adams Theatre. The film introduced Lauren Hutton to the silver screen, and featured actual members of the Detroit Lions, including coach Joe Schmidt, Alex Karras, John Gordy, Mike Lucci, Pat Studstill and Roger Brown.

The 2003 season marked the 40th anniversary of George Plimpton's visit to Lions' training camp when he began writing the original script for his book. Last year was also the 35th anniversary of the "Paper Lion" movie release.

The Detroit Lions reunited most of the cast in 2003 with a "Paper Lion" reunion that was held in September. Forty players, including Plimpton and Karras, rekindled friendships that formed during their experience together in the 1960s. The reunion turned out to be the final chapter of Plimpton's life as he passed away days later (September 26, 2003) at the age of 76.

MANE FACTS

- DeVries is one of four players out of Aplington-Parkersburg (Iowa) High School to be currently playing in the NFL despite the fact that the school's enrollment is only 200 students. The other three in the league are Casey Wiegmann (KC), Aaron Kampman (GB) and Brad Meester (Jax).
- All four Aplington-Parkersburg products spearheaded an NFL effort to provide assistance to tornado victims this past spring, including help to rebuild the school's football field.
- Nominated high school coach Ed Thomas (Aplington-Parkersburg H.S.; Parkersburg, Iowa) who was named the 2005 NFL High School Football Coach of the Year by the NFL. Thomas died tragically this past offseason.
- Attended the annual Lions Courage House Dinner to help benefit HAVEN, Oakland County's premier center for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse.
- Participated in the Lions annual Tony Filippis Memorial Bocce Ball Tournament which raised funds for Detroit Lions Charities
- Participated in the 9th annual United Way Hometown Huddle helping to build a $65,000 fitness trail at the NFL/Youth Education Town - Boys & Girls Club in Detroit.
- Donated home game tickets to Children's Hospital of Michigan through Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- Has participated in the Lions Pet Calendar that helps to raise money for the Dearborn Animal Shelter.
- Helped to purchase and shop for emergency relief supplies for Hurricane Katrina victims in 2005.
- Honored as the Lions 2004 recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award, which recognizes men of courage in the NFL.

PRO: DeVries embarks upon his 11th NFL season and figures to be a key contributor at defensive end this season. He had a career-high 6.5 sacks in 2007 and followed up with a career-high 45 tackles as a starter in 2008 before an injury forced him onto the Reserve/Injured list after nine games. DeVries brings toughness to the position and is a dual threat as a run-stopper and a pass rusher. He signed a five-year deal with the Lions on March 22, 2006 and continues to be a vital part of the team's rotation on the defensive line. Detroit selected DeVries in the third round (70th overall) in the 1999 NFL Draft after a standout career at Iowa.

2008: Batted down a career high 4 passes last season. Started 9 games (9 solo) and recorded 45 tackles (22 solo). Had 2 sacks and 1 forced fumble.

- Posted six tackles (four solo) at Atlanta (9/7).
- Notched four tackles vs. Green Bay (9/14).
- Recorded first sack of year vs. Chicago (10/5) and had four tackles (two solo).
- Posted second sack of year at Minnesota (10/12) and added seven tackles (three solo) and one pass defense.
- Recorded six tackles and a career high three passes defended at Chicago (11/2).
- Missed game at Carolina (11/16) with a hand injury.

COLLEGE: Holds Iowa's career record with 43 sacks and 79 tackles for loss. All-Big Ten first-team honors as a senior for third-straight season.

- AP and Football News All-American second-team pick as a junior in 1997 as well as the team's Co-Most Valuable Player.
- Earned Big Ten and ESPN Player-of-the-Week honors for effort vs. Michigan (11 tackles, 3 sacks and an INT).
- Football News All-American third-team pick as a sophomore in - 1996 as his 22 tackles for loss tied the school season record.

- Started every game as freshman in 1995 (54 tackles, 12 sacks and 19 TFLs, and earned MVP honors in 1995 Sun Bowl vs. Washington).

PERSONAL: Blue Chip Illustrated All-American and All-Midwest high school pick as a senior in 1993, adding all-state Class 1A honors as a senior and junior defensive end at Aplington-Parkersburg (Iowa) High.

- Also competed as a fullback, gaining over 4,000 yards.
- He and his wife, Jamie, have two sons: Jaylen and Easton.

MANE FACTS

- Dizon credits RB Emmitt Smith as his all-time favorite player and wore his jersey all throughout high school and intermediate football.
- When watching television, Dizon watches Two and a Half Men religiously and also catches American Idol.
- When he gets time to go back home to Hawaii during the offseason, Dizon enjoys spending time with his family, deep sea spear diving and has done motor cross for nine years.
- After his football career, Dizon hopes to get into trading and economics and is currently learning more about those fields in his spare time.

PRO: Dizon enters his second season with the Lions as an outside linebacker where he finished last season after previously taking reps at middle linebacker. He played in 12 games during his rookie campaign and was a steady contributor on special teams, finishing sixth on the team with 14 special teams tackles, while seeing limited action on defense. The Lions drafted Dizon in the second round (45th overall) in the 2008 NFL Draft after a standout career at Colorado where he garnered 463 career tackles which ranks as the eighth-most in NCAA major college history.

2008: Saw time as a backup at MLB and SLB. Played in 12 games and had 17 tackles (10 solo), along with 14 special teams tackles.

- Saw time at middle linebacker in place of an injured Paris Lenon and posted three tackles at Atlanta (9/7).
- Missed game at San Francisco due to neck injury (9/21). Inactive (hamstring) vs. Washington (10/26) and at Chicago (11/2).
- Recorded a season high 5 tackles (three solo, including one tackle for loss) vs. New Orleans (12/21).

COLLEGE: Including three postseason bowl games, Dizon registered 463 tackles during his career at Colorado, the eight-best total in NCAA major college history.

- In 2007, ranked first nationally in tackles (173) and average tackles per game (13.31). Became the first Buffalo defensive player to win the Big 12 Conference Player of the Year honors and first to garner league player of the year honors among Colorado defenders since Deon Figures earned the nod in 1992.
- In 48 games, Dizon started 46 times, averaging 9.17 tackles per game, as he collected 440 hits (293 solos) with 12 sacks for minus-97 yards, 35 stops for losses of 137 yards and 15 quarterback pressures. He caused three fumbles, recovered two others and posted nine passes defended while participating in 2,547 regular-season snaps. He gained 79 yards with a score on two interceptions and posted 48 third-down stops, the second-most in school history.

PERSONAL: Attended Waimea (Kauai, Hawaii) High School, the westernmost high school in the United States, where he played running back and linebacker.

- Earned Prep Football Report and Prep Star All-West honors, earning second-team All-State and Kauai Interscholastic Federation (KIF) All-Star accolades.
- t nine passes for 250 yards and three scores in just two games.
- As a junior rushed 150 times for 1,157 yards and 12 touchdowns, caught 15 passes for 175 yards and also started at linebacker and was in on 75 tackles.
- Lettered four times in basketball (forward), where he was a three-time Player of the Year/Island (KIF), as well as a three-time honorable mention All-State performer.
- Lettered three times in track (sprints, 100-meter KIF champions as a junior) and once in soccer.
- Honor roll member every quarter in high school, with a grade point average always at 3.5 or higher.

MANE FACTS

- Mother, Sabrina Felton-Curtis, is a native of Germany and former professional gymnast presently serving as a science teacher at Hiwassee College (Madisonville, Tenn.).

- 17-year-old brother, Eamon, has already graduated from Hiwassee Junior College and is currently enrolled at Maryville College as a premed student. Other brother, Simon, is in the Army and has served in both Iraq and Afghanistan.
- Professionally trained scuba diver and rescuer.

- Growing up, Felton was a big Pittsburgh Steelers fan and especially admired RB Jerome Bettis. He also looked up to Steeler's players such as QB Kordell Stewart, RB Jerome Bettis, LB Levon Kirkland and WR Hines Ward.
- Current favorite television shows are: The Game, on BET and he's a huge fan of the show 24. Felton also enjoys the late entertainer, Bernie Mac and one of his favorite actors of all-time is Denzel Washington.
- During the offseason Felton enjoys going back home to Tennessee to spend time with his family while also continuing his training throughout the offseason.
- With his love for the game and ability to talk about football all day long, Felton would like to pursue a career in broadcasting when his playing career is over.

PRO: Felton played in 12 games with six starts at fullback as a rookie after being drafted by the team in the fifth-round (146th overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft. He is looking to contribute more on offense after being primarily a ball carrier during his college football career during which he had 63 rushing touchdowns.

2008: Played in 12 games (six starts) during his rookie season. Had 2 rushing attempts for 4 yards and 9 receptions for 52 yards. Also had 2 special teams tackles.

- Made first professional career start in season opener at Atlanta (9/7).
- Made first catch of professional career for a gain of three yards vs. Green Bay (9/14).
- Caught season-high two passes vs. Chicago (10/5) for 12 yards.
- Recorded career-long 11-yard reception at Houston (10/19).
- Inactive at Chicago (11/2), vs. Jacksonville (11/9) and at Carolina (11/16) due to ankle injury.
- Did not play vs. Tampa Bay (11/23).
- Caught career-high 2 passes for 17 yards vs. Minnesota (12/7).

COLLEGE: Felton was only tackled behind the line of scrimmage 15 times during his career for minus 22 yards on 575 rushing attempts while scoring 63 times on the ground and establishing himself as Furman's all-time record holder in scoring with 414 points.

- Started all 11 games at fullback as a senior, leading the team with 165 carries for 705 yards (4.2 avg) and twelve touchdowns.
- Invited to play in the East-West Shrine Game after the 2007 season.
- Felton also excelled in the classroom, twice earning Southern Conference academic accolades with a 3.25 grade point average in Political Science.
- As a junior in 2006, he was an All-Southern Conference first-team choice after playing in 11 games and finished second on the team with 707 yards on 162 carries, setting a school season-record with 23 touchdowns on the ground.

- Shared Freshman of the Year honors with strong safety Andrew Thacker in 2004 having appeared in every game, starting in the last seven contests.

PERSONAL: Attended Sequoyah (Madisonville, Tenn.) and excelled as a fullback and middle linebacker, earning team Offensive Most Valuable Player honors three times.

CASEY FITZSIMMONS

Tight End
Carroll College (Mont.)
Ht: 6-4
Born: 10/10/80
Draft: '03, FA-Det

6th Year
Wt: 260
Helena, Mont.

MANE FACTS:

- Became a fan favorite with his rise from NAIA football to the NFL. FitzSimmons' high school in Montana was so small that the football team played eight-man football. He played four positions—wide receiver, tight end, defensive end and linebacker.
- Prior to his junior year in high school, he was injured in a motorbike accident and missed the season. He was close to not playing his senior year, but was talked into it by some friends.
- Took part for the sixth straight year in the 2009 Lions Pet Calendar that helps to raise money for the Dearborn Animal Shelter.
- Donated Lions home game tickets to Big Family of Michigan through the Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.

- Has made special visits to area children's hospitals throughout his career.
- Helped host a holiday party at the Ronald McDonald House in Detroit on December 4, 2007 to pass out gifts to the children and host dinner for the families.
- Helped deliver thousands of pounds of food and supplies to more than 30 Metro Detroit relief agencies at the United Way Hometown Huddle/Lift Up America event, December 5, 2006 at Ford Field.

PLAYER PROFILES

PRO: Fitzsimmons is a versatile tight end who can block and consistently catch the ball as well as play fullback. He is also a key contributor on special teams, having recorded 86 special teams tackles in his first six NFL seasons. As an undrafted rookie out of Carroll College (Mont.) FitzSimmons started 11 games for Detroit after impressing coaches with his blocking abilities and work ethic, which had led him to become one of two undrafted free agents to make the 2003 53-man roster.

2008: Fourth on the team with 16 special teams tackles on the season. Caught 12 passes for 85 yards and one TD.

- Posted one catch for one yard and a touchdown at Atlanta (9/7).
- Recorded three receptions for 32 yards vs. Green Bay (9/14).
- Left game early vs. Washington (10/26) due to rib injury. Inactive at Chicago (11/2) and vs. Jacksonville (11/9) due to rib injury.
- Recorded a tackle and fumble recovery on special teams vs. Tampa Bay (11/23).
- Had one catch for eight yards and converted a two-point try on a pass from QB Dan Orlovsky to tie the game 21-21 at Indianapolis (12/14) with 12:52 left in the fourth quarter. Also had a forced fumble on special teams and one had special teams solo stop.

COLLEGE: Finished with 244 receptions for 2,698 yards and 21 TDs. Led the Fighting Saints to 2002 NAIA National Championship with a 28-7 win over two-time defending Champion Georgetown (Ky.).

- During senior championship run, earned first-team All-American honors and was named the Frontier Conference MVP and finalist for NAIA Player of the Year Award while catching 79 passes for 971 yards and six touchdowns.
- In 2000 and 2001, earned second-team NAIA All-American honors and was a first-team All-Conference selection all four seasons at Carroll College (Mont.). His 2001 totals included 78 receptions for 812 yards and five touchdowns and his 2000 totals included 70 catches for 686 yards and eight touchdowns.

PERSONAL: Born October 10, 1980 in Wolf Point, Mont.

- All-state and all-conference at Chester (Mont.) High.

MANE FACTS

- Growing up, Fluellen was a big fan of DT Warren Sapp and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.
- Fluellen's favorite actor of all time is the late Bernie Mac and he thinks Soul Man is the funniest movie he's ever seen. He's also a fan of the Bernie Mac Show.
- Does not listen to music prior to game time because he feels that sometimes he can get overly hyped before the game.
- Enjoys music and has a couple of programs in his homemade studio that consists of a TV and a keyboard.
- During the offseason Fluellen works on his marketing company that he recently started and hopes that when his career is over it will be an easy carry over into the business world.
- After his playing career, Fluellen hopes to be some type of sportscaster or a news journalist writing sports stories. After being an English major in college, he'd like to apply that in some aspect to his career.

PRO: Fluellen progressed for the Lions as a rookie and emerged as a regular in the defensive line rotation, including time at the left end position. He played in eight games in his first season after being drafted by the Lions with their second choice in the third round (87th overall) of the NFL Draft. As a collegian at Florida State, Fluellen proved to be a defensive force as opponents averaged just 1.74 yards per carry on plays directed at him his final two seasons.

2008: Became more involved in regular defensive line rotation, at both defensive tackle and the left end position, the second half of the season. Finished rookie campaign with 11 tackles (3 solo) in eight games played with two starts.

- First playing time of season at Houston (10/19). Posted one solo stop.
- Served as backup end and under-tackle at Carolina (11/16).
- Recorded first career start at left end vs. Tennessee (11/27).

COLLEGE: Closed out Florida State career with 81 tackles (38 solo), 5.0 sacks, 18 tackles for loss and 5 pass defenses.

- As a junior in 2006, Fluellen started 11-of-13 games at the nose guard position and two at the defensive tackle position and finished seventh on the team in tackles, and first among all defensive linemen, with a career-high 28 stops.

- In first season as a regular on the defensive line in 2005, Fluellen started 12-of-13 games at the defensive tackle spot and tied for second on the team in tackles by a defensive lineman with 26 and his 7.5 tackles for loss ranked sixth on a Florida State team that ranked led the nation in that category with 126.
- Appeared in all 12 games as redshirt freshman and finished with six tackles, including one for loss and two passes defended.
- Recorded two tackles in a game twice (Miami and Duke).

PERSONAL: Graduated from Cartersville in 2003 and named a three-star player by Rivals.com and the 28th rated defensive tackle in the country. Rated to Rivals.com Georgia Top 50.

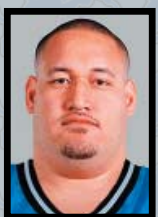

- Recorded 93 tackles and 11.0 sacks his senior season.
- As a junior he had 88 tackles, 10.0 sacks, six forced fumbles and scored two touchdowns.
- Played on both the offensive and defensive lines in high school.

PRO: Signed as a free agent with Detroit April 3, 2009, Gandy upgraded the competition at guard. He enjoyed his most successful season in 2006 for Indianapolis when he started in a career-high 11 games at left guard and appeared in all 16 contests for the Colts who went on to win Super Bowl XLII. Gandy helped Indianapolis post the highest third-down success rate (56.1 percent/105-of-187) in the NFL since the 1970 merger and allow the fewest sacks (15) in the league while averaging an AFC best 379.4 yards per game. In 2008, Gandy was released from Indianapolis May 4 and signed with Denver May 16 before being released again August 31. Gandy was on and off the Broncos' roster throughout the first month of the 2008 season. He then signed with Oakland November 26, but was released December 4. Gandy was originally drafted by the Colts in the fourth round (129th overall) of the 2005 NFL Draft.

2008: Spent several stints on Denver's roster before being ultimately released October 6. Signed with Oakland November 26 before being cut December 4.

COLLEGE: Started 20 career games during four seasons at Texas Tech. Spent most of his first three seasons at guard before starting 12 games at center during his senior year.

MANE FACTS:

- Foote was an Oakland/Los Angeles Raiders' fan as a youth and his favorite player was defensive back Jack Tatum. He read and enjoyed Tatum's autobiography, They Call me Assassin.
- Foote's favorite entertainer is Martin Lawrence. He watches the Martin in syndication at least once a week and owns all of Lawrence's DVDs.
- Off the field, Foote is establishing a prison ministry. With the help of his church pastor, he travels throughout the country and visits juvenile facilities to share the gospel with troubled youth. After his playing career, he would like to build his own juvenile facility in Detroit where the emphasis is on connecting and relating with the youths.

PRO: A native of Detroit, Foote signed with the Lions May 6, 2009 after spending the previous seven years (2002-08) with the Pittsburgh Steelers. In 2008, Foote recorded 86 tackles (56 solo), and was part of a Pittsburgh defense that ranked fourth in the NFL in total defense allowing only 1,020 yards. As a five-year starter at inside linebacker (2004-08), Foote ranked among the team leaders in tackles for his final four seasons and led the team in tackles in both the 2005 regular season (123) and postseason (24). Over the span of his seven-year career Foote has played in 110 games (83 starts) and has amassed 513 tackles (344 solo), 14.5 sacks (101.5 yards), three interceptions (26 yards), 14 passes defended, six forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. Originally drafted by Pittsburgh in the fourth round (128th overall) of the 2002 NFL Draft.

2008: Started in all 16 games played for the fifth consecutive year. Recorded 86 tackles (56 solo), 1.5 sacks (8.5 yards) and two passes defended.

- Played in his 86th consecutive game and made his 65th consecutive start at inside linebacker vs. Houston (9/7). Finished with six tackles (four solo).
- Started 66th consecutive game at ILB and tied with James Farrior for team lead with nine tackles (six solo) at Cleveland (9/14).
- Finished with four tackles (one solo) and a career-high 1.5 sacks for 8.5 yards at Philadelphia (9/21).
- Helped limit the Jaguars to only 38 yards rushing on 19 attempts (2.0 avg.) at Jacksonville (10/5).
- Played in his 100th career game and 70th career start at Cincinnati (10/19). Finished with five tackles (four solo).

COLLEGE: Started in 28-of-48 games he appeared in for the Wolverines. Finished career with 212 tackles (145 solo), 11.0 sacks (81 yards) and 44 stops for losses of 155 yards.

THE ORIGINAL DETROIT LIONS OFFICES

Where were the first offices of the Detroit Lions located? Shortly after the club's move from Portsmouth, Ohio, Lions owner G.A. Richards, who also owned radio station WJR, set up Head Coach George "Potsy" Clark with a temporary office in room 2107 of the Fisher Building, in downtown Detroit. The Lions now operate primarily from their new headquarters in Allen Park, and some portions of the organization are housed in the warehouse portion of Ford Field.

PRO: The 18-year veteran, and one of the NFL's most productive kickers, is the Lions' all-time scoring leader with 1,747 points as well as the all-time leader in field goals (406) and extra points (529). Hanson is only the sixth player in NFL history to connect on 400 career field goals. With a 51-yarder at Indianapolis (12/14/08) Hanson recorded his 41st 50+-yard field goal and set the all-time record for 50+-yard field goals in his career by surpassing Morten Andersen. Hanson is also the first kicker in NFL history to go 8-for-8 on 50+-yard field goals in a single season. In 2008, he was recently named to the Lions 75th Season All-Time Team. Hanson became only the eighth player in NFL history to surpass the 1,700-point mark in 2008, and with 1,747 career points he ranks fourth in all-time scoring amongst active players and seventh all-time. Hanson ranks first in every statistical category for a place kicker in Lions history with longest field goal (56), field goals made (406), field goals attempted (494), points scored (1,747), extra points made (529) and extra points attempted (537). He is also the franchise leader in games played with 271 and is the franchise's all-time leader in seasons played with 17. Hanson, who made consecutive Pro Bowl appearances following the 1997 and 1999 seasons, has led the Lions in scoring in each of his 17 pro seasons, one of four active players to lead his team in scoring for at least 17 seasons. He is the only player in NFL history to lead the same team in scoring for the first 17 years of their career. He is a four-time winner of the Lions' Yale Lary Special Teams Player of the Year Award (1993, '99, '03 and '06). He has connected on 365-of-419 (.871) career field goal attempts inside the 50-yard line and is a remarkable 258-of-271 (.952) from inside the 40-yard line for his career. Hanson has proved to be a valuable asset to the Lions as the team is 68-56 (.557) in his career when he kicks two-or-more field goals in a game, 39-17 (.722) when he makes three-or-more and 17-4 (.810) when he converts four field goals in a contest. In addition, Hanson has made 17 game-winning, fourth quarter or overtime kicks during his career (10 in regulation; seven in overtime). The Spokane, Wash., native has only missed eight extra points in his career (522-of-530) and has been perfect in PAT tries in 10 different seasons (1992-93, 1995-96 and 2000-02, 2004-06).

Hanson has been quite accurate at Ford Field since the Lions began play there in 2002, going 103-for-116 (.888) on field goal attempts, which include five fourth-quarter or overtime game-winners and a long of 54 yards. He has made the second-most field goals at home in the NFL since 2002. The Lions originally selected Hanson in the second round of the 1992 NFL Draft (56th overall). Hanson signed a long-term contract extension prior to the 2004 season (through 2008).

2008: Named special teams' captain for second consecutive year. Was named a Pro Bowl alternate. On the season, Hanson's eight 50-yard field goals surpass Morten Andersen (1995) to become the first player in NFL history to go eight-for-eight on 50+-yard field goals in a single season.. His 8 50-yarders are also a career and franchise single-season high. On Thanksgiving vs. Tennessee (11/27), he became the second player in NFL history to kick 7 50-yard field goals in a single season. He is 21-of-22 (.955) on field goal attempts and is ranked first in the NFL in field goal percentage. He has nailed field goals of 53, 51, 54, 54, 52, 56, 53 and 51 yards.

- Against Green Bay (9/14), Hanson connected on three field goals from 38, 49 and 53 yards out. His 53-yarder marked his 34th career 50-yard field goal.
- Nailed a 51-yard field goal in the third quarter at San Francisco (9/21) marking his 35th career 50-yarder field goal and second this season. He tied Panthers K John Kasay for third on the NFL's all-time list of 50-yard field goals made.
- Hit two 54-yard field goals at Houston (10/19) and moved into sole possession of third place among kickers in NFL history. It was also the third time in his career that he connected on two 50-yard field goals in a game. He became the eighth player in NFL history to kick two 50-yard field goals in a game three times.
- Connected on a 52-yard field goal and two PATs at Chicago (11/2). With five points he moved his career total to 1,702 and he moved past Hall of Fame K Jan Stenerud for ninth place on the NFL's all-time career scoring list. He is also the ninth player with 1,700 points. The 52-yarder he nailed against the Bears was his 38th career 50-yarder that moved him into a tie for second-place for the most career 50-yard field goals in NFL history. It also marked Hanson's fifth 50-yarder this season, a career-high and franchise-high. Hanson is the oldest kicker in NFL History with five 50-yarders in a season.
- At Carolina (11/16) Hanson's day included a 56-yard field goal, which tied his own franchise record for longest field goal in team history that was set vs. Cleveland (10/8/95) at the Silverdome. The 56-yarder is a franchise record for the longest field goal made on the road and during an outdoor game. Hanson now has 39 career 50-yard field goals, which moved him in sole possession of second place on the all-time career 50-yard field goals list.
- He also became the oldest kicker (age: 38, 152 days) in NFL history to make a field goal of 56+ yards, surpassing Morten Andersen (59 yards at age 35 and 127 days).
- With his 56-yarder, Hanson moved his season output to 6-for-6 this season on 50-yard attempts. By making 6 50-yard field goals in a season, Hanson became the eighth player in NFL history to register 6 50-yard field goals in a single season.
- By recording 10 points against the Panthers, he moved past Nick Lowery (1,711) for eighth place on the NFL's career scoring list.

PLAYER PROFILES

- Hanson moved his career scoring totals to 1,714 career points.
- Connected on two field goals of 38 and 40 yards respectively vs. Tampa Bay (11/23). Became only the sixth player in NFL history to connect on 400 career field goals.
- Nailed a 53-yard field goal in the first quarter vs. Tennessee (11/27), his 40th career 50-yard field goal. The 53-yarder tied Hanson with K Morten Andersen, also with 40, for the most career 50-yard field goals in NFL history.
- The 53-yard field goal on Thanksgiving vs. Tennessee was his seventh 50-yard field goal on the season, and he became just the second player in NFL history to kick 7 50-yard field goals in a single season (other was Morten Andersen, 8, in 1995 with Atlanta).
- Connected on three field goals (25, 23 and 29) vs. Minnesota (12/7/08). Also recorded one special teams tackle.
- Connected on a 51-yard field goal in the first quarter at Indianapolis (12/14), marking his 41st 50+-yard career field goal and set the all-time record for 50+-yard field goals in his career by surpassing Morten Andersen.
- Hanson became first kicker in NFL history to go 8-for-8 on 50+-yard field goals in a single season. Hanson also connected on a 30-yard field goal in the third quarter.
- Recorded an extra point and a one special teams stop vs. New Orleans (12/21).

COLLEGE: Considered one of the finest kicking specialists in the history of college football. Made 57.1 percent of his field goal tries (20-of-35) from 50 yards-or-longer, setting Washington State and Pac 10 records.

- His 20 field goals from 50 yards-or-longer set an NCAA mark, topping the previous career mark of 16 by Tony Franklin (Texas A&M, 38 attempts, 1975-78), and his 39 field goals of 40 yards-or-more surpassed Russell Erxleben of Texas' NCAA career record of 32.
- Holds the school record with 328 points, topping the old mark of 248 points by Steve Broussard (1986-89).
- Kicked at least two field goals in a game 20 times, surpassing Kevin Butler of Georgia's NCAA record (17, 1981-84).
- Holds WSU's all-time records with 63 FGs and 139 PATs.
- All-Pac-10 first-team punter and second-team kicker as senior.
- Kicked a 62-yard field goal that year, setting the record for the longest field goal without a tee in NCAA history.
- Set conference record by making 7-of-9 50+-yard field goals in 1991 as well, one shy of the NCAA season mark.
- All-American choice as a punter by ESPN his junior year in 1990.
- Unanimous All-American first-team pick as sophomore in 1989.
- GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-American pick who received a Bachelor of Science degree in premed from Washington State, possessing a 3.8 grade point average.

PERSONAL: Born Jason Douglas Hanson in Spokane, Wash.

PLAYER PROFILES

PRO: Harris continues his progress as one of the league's most productive and punters. He is valuable asset in terms of the battle for field position. In his first four full seasons with the Lions (signed for last 11 games in 2003), Harris increased his gross punting average—40.9 in 2004, 43.5 in 2005 and 45.0 in 2006, and he registered his second highest punting average in 2007 with 44.3. Harris also increased his net punting average from 2004-06 with 34.2 in 2004, 36.9 in 2005 and 38.7 in 2006, and he recorded his third-highest net average of his career in 2007 with 36.4. In 2006, he finished strong with two top-10 rankings amongst NFL punters as he was fifth in gross punting (45.0 avg) and tied for eighth in net punting (38.2 avg). He had one of the best outings in the NFL in 2005 while proving to be one of the league's most accurate punters as he led the NFL with a net differential (punts downed inside the 20-yard line minus the number of touchbacks) of 32. Harris' 34 punts downed inside-the-20 was the highest in the league. The Lions originally signed Harris October 14, 2003. He played the 2001-02 seasons and the first five games of 2003 with the Cincinnati Bengals before being released October 7, 2003. Originally drafted by Denver Broncos in fourth round of 2001 NFL Draft (120th overall) and then was waived on August 28, 2001, but was claimed by the Bengals just one day later.

2008: Had another strong season pinning opponents deep in their own territory with 22 punts inside-the-20 and only 5 touchbacks. His 38.0 net punting average this season is the third-highest tally by a Lions punter since net punting became an official statistic in 1976.

- At Atlanta (9/7), Harris punted six times for 255 yards (42.5 avg.), including 2 inside the 20.
- Against Green Bay (9/14), Harris punted six times for 208 yards (34.7 avg.) with three landing inside the 20.
- His 40.3 net punting average vs. Chicago (10/5) was the second highest average against the Bears since the beginning of 2006, All-Pro KR Devin Hester's first season, by a team that punted at least 8 times, and only the second team to record a net average over 40 yards (minimum 8 punts) in that span.
- Since 1976 (first year that net punting became an official NFL stat), Harris, at Houston (10/19), recorded the best per punt difference between gross punting and net punting in games with at least four punts. Harris registered a per punt net difference of -3.0 between his gross punting average and net punting average.
- Punted the ball a season high nine times for a career high 431 yards, including three kicks inside the 20 vs. Tennessee (11/27). Also added a special teams tackle.
- Recorded a season high long punt of 66 yards and a career best 59.5 average vs. Minnesota (12/7).

COLLEGE: Regarded by many as the premier punter in college football during his Cal career where he averaged 42.3 yards per punt, and his 13,621 total yards broke previous NCAA mark of 12,947 by TCU's Cameron Young.

- Placed 92 of punts (28.6 pct.) inside-20 and held for place kicks.
- Earned consensus All-American honors in 2000.
- Had his best season average, 44.7 yards, as a junior in 1999.
- Well-conditioned athlete who had Cal's fastest 10-yard dash (1.77) and second-best 20-yard shuttle time (4.17).

PERSONAL: Attended Westview (Ariz.) High School where he earned National Coaches' Association All-America honors as a senior with 42.3-yard punting average. Also earned prep all-state honors as a linebacker and saw action on offense as a receiver and a rusher.

- All-state prep soccer player as well.
- Holds a bachelor's degree in American studies and a master's degree in education from the University of California.
- Married to wife, Heather, and they have twins, Drew and Halle.
- Full name is Nicholas John Harris.

Ht: 6-6
Born: 2/28/1981
Draft: '03, FA-TB

8th Year
Wt: 275
Dunwoody, Ga.
Acquired: '09, UFA-Sea

MANE FACTS

- While Heller wasn't a big football fan growing up, he was a huge Duke basketball fan, his father's alma mater. The 1992 team with Bobby Hurley and Grant Hill were some of his favorite players that he watched growing up.
- In the offseason Heller enjoys relaxing and playing golf and enjoys fishing in Tampa, Florida.
- After career, he would like to utilize his civil engineering degree and get into the construction industry close to home.

PRO:Heller joined the Lions as an unrestricted free agent March 16, 2009 and adds another strong blocking presence to the offense. He had spent the past three seasons (2006-08) with Seattle after signing with the club March 24, 2006. Prior to playing in Seattle, Heller spent two seasons with Tampa Bay (2003-04), before being waived at the end of the 2005 preseason and claimed by Miami. He played in the first seven games for the Dolphins, recording one catch for a 1-yard score at Buffalo (10/9), but was released November 5. Heller re-signed with Tampa Bay December 20, 2005 and finished the season on their inactive list. Over the span of his seven-year career, he has played in 70 games with nine starts and has recorded 36 catches for 257 yards and seven touchdowns. Heller originally signed as an undrafted rookie free agent with Tampa Bay April 28, 2003.

2008: Played in 12 games and was inactive for four with a knee injury. Recorded four catches for 29 yards (7.3 avg.).

COLLEGE: Played in 39 games with 10 starts at Georgia Tech. Had 17 career receptions for 185 yards (10.9 avg.) with one touchdown. Started seven of 11 games his senior year and was used primarily as a blocker with six catches for 49 yards.

PERSONAL: Earned All-DeKalb County honors at Marist High. Played tight end, split end and defensive back.

Also lettered in basketball. Majored in civil engineering.

NAMING THE LIONS

When the team moved to Detroit from Portsmouth, Ohio in 1934, the organization settled on the name that would be uttered in Detroit and all around the league to this very day. After deciding to be known as the Lions, (staying consistent with the jungle cat image of the city's baseball team, the Tigers) two Lion cubs were given to the team by John Millen of the Detroit Zoo. Their names were "Grid" and "Iron." They accompanied the team to all of their games. The previous Detroit professional football teams were known as the Heralds, Panthers and the Wolverines.

MANE FACTS

- Growing up, Henry was a fan of several players including: CB Deion Sanders, also from Fort Myers, and CB Ronnie Lott because he admired watching them play in his position.
- Henry especially likes the television show Martin and actors Jamie Foxx, Denzel Washington and the late Heath Ledger.
- Before every game Henry has to brush his teeth before heading out to the field to warm-up. It's something he always has to do.
- Henry loves music, and working with music and also loves watching comedies and playing basketball, when he gets the time to play.
- During the offseason, Henry is currently working on a recording studio, which is still in the works. He also works with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, giving back to Lee County in Fort Myers.
- After football Henry would like to focus on his recording studio and be closer to his family which he says is his number one priority after retiring.

PRO: A big, physical player at the corner position, Henry was acquired by the Lions through a trade with Dallas for QB Jon Kitna March 2, 2009. Henry spent the past four seasons (2005-08) with Dallas playing in 57 games (51 starts) and recorded 244 tackles (210 solo), 2.0 sacks (19 yards), 57 passes defended, nine interceptions (122 yards) four fumble recoveries and one forced fumble. Henry enjoyed one of the most productive seasons of his career in 2007 as he led the Cowboys with six interceptions which tied for fifth in the NFL and third in the NFC. Prior to joining Dallas, Henry spent the first four seasons of his career (2001-04) with Cleveland. During his rookie campaign in 2001, Henry played in all 16 games with two starts and collected a career-high 10 interceptions (177 yards) for the Browns and ranked first in the AFC and tied for first in the NFL. He is one of nine players since 1985 to record 10 interceptions in a season. Henry also became the first player in Browns history to have three interceptions in a game twice in a season (against Detroit, 9/23/01 and at Baltimore, 11/18/01). Originally selected by Cleveland in the fourth round (97th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft.

2008: Played in all 16 games for the Cowboys with 15 starts and recorded 55 tackles (35 solo), 2.0 sacks (19 yards) and seven passes defended.

- Recorded his 2.0 sacks of the season at Green Bay (9/21).
- Collected a season-high eight tackles (six solo) at NY Giants (11/2).

COLLEGE: A four-year starter for the University of South Florida, played free safety his first three years before playing cornerback his senior year. The late Andre Waters, a former Philadelphia Eagles safety, was his position coach at USF.

- Finished his career with 256 tackles, nine tackles for a loss, six fumble recoveries and 22 passes defended.
- Also had school record 10 career interceptions for 126 yards,
- As a senior, started all year at cornerback but also played at free safety and receiver. Finished with 40 tackles and tied the school's single-season record of five interceptions and 88 return yards. Also had a team-high eight passes defended and caught one pass for eight yards.
- As a junior, started eight-of-nine games at free safety and finished fourth on the team with 62 tackles. Also intercepted three passes and recovered two fumbles.
- As a sophomore, started all year at free safety but also played quarterback for one series against Valparaiso. Ranked third on the team with 79 tackles.
- As freshman, earned second-second-team All-Independent honors at free safety (73 tackles, two fumble recoveries, and two interceptions).

- Did not play in 1996 because of NCAA Proposition 48 and still had a year of eligibility in 2000 upon his graduation.
- In the 2001 NFL Draft, was one of three South Florida players drafted consecutively with the first three picks in of the fourth round: guard Kenyatta Jones (New England 96th), Henry (97th), and kicker Bill Gramatica (Arizona 98th).

PERSONAL: Anthony Danel Henry attended Estero High School in his hometown of Fort Myers, Florida. Was named Lee County Athlete of the Year and District Player of the Year as a senior.

- In the spring of 2004, his No. 3 jersey was retired by the school, where he lettered as a free safety, cornerback, quarterback, and punter.
- Was named team MVP in basketball.
- As the District Most Valuable Performer in track, setting school records in the high jump (6'6") and triple jump (44'1").
- Earned his bachelor's degree in communications from South Florida.

MANE FACTS

- Growing up in Northwestern Pennsylvania, Hicks grew up as a hardcore Steelers fan and stayed a loyal fan up until he entered the league.
- Currently, Hicks is a fan of American Idol, House, Lost and Fringe.
- For the first three years Hicks was in the league he would throw-up prior to each game. Now, he just walks around the locker room and gets ready to go before game time.
- During the offseason Hicks has been getting into more radio work. He's done some analysis at Kansas City Chiefs games in the past. Hicks has been told that he has the perfect deep, loud voice for radio broadcasting and would like to get into that field post-football.
- Hicks' daughter, Shayla, had numerous heart surgeries when she was a baby and after doing a lot of work with the American Heart Association, Hicks and his wife founded the Hicks for Hearts Association. The foundation was formed in 2001 and supports children and the families of children with congenital heart defects, which affected his daughter.
- Shayla, at the age of three months in 1999, fought for her life in the intensive care unit of a Kansas City hospital while undergoing two surgeries to repair heart defects. After spending several months at Children's Mercy Hospital in 1999, she has been healthy and her prognosis is good. Shayla was featured on a CBS special that announced the Phil Simms All-Iron Team in 2002, a squad that included her father.
- Was a spokesman for the Midwest Transplant Network and the March of Dimes, and has hosted a golf tournament to raise money for his foundation.
- Hicks would also like to get into coaching at the high school level because, "that's where everything starts."

PRO: Hicks signed with the Lions as a free agent May 5, 2009 after taking a hiatus from football during the 2008 season. In 2007, Hicks saw action in 11 games with the New York Jets after signing with the club as an unrestricted free agent May 2, 2007. Through 11 games, he recorded 23 tackles (15 solo) and was released by the Jets December 16. Prior to New York, Hicks spent nine seasons with Kansas City (1998-2006). In 2000, Hicks played in 13 games with 11 starts for the Chiefs and was selected to USA Today's All-Joe team and was a second team All-Pro pick of Football Digest as he led the team and was third in the AFC (sixth in the NFL) with a career-best 14.0 sacks with five multi-sack games in the season. Hicks became just one of four players in team history to record 14.0 or more sacks in a season, joining the late Derrick Thomas, Neil Smith and Art Still. Over the span of his 10-year career Hicks has played in 139 games with 104 starts and has recorded 595 tackles (288 solo), 44.5 sacks, 15 passes defended, nine forced fumbles and five fumble recoveries. Originally signed as an undrafted rookie free agent with the Chiefs April 25, 1998.

2008: Was not in the league.

COLLEGE: Played in 41 career games at the University of Maryland, starting 22 of those contests and posted 147 tackles (107 solo), 9.5 sacks, 26 tackles for loss, three forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and three passes defended.

- Saw action in all 11 contests with seven starts as a senior in 1997, opening six games at right defensive end and one at left end. Concluded year with 42 tackles (31 solo), 1.5 sacks, five tackles for loss, a fumble recovery a forced fumble and one pass break-up.
- Played in all 11 games with five starts as a junior in 1996 and finished the year with 43 tackles (29 solo). Added 4.0 sacks and 15 stops behind the line of scrimmage.
- Started in 10 games as a sophomore and recorded 44 tackles

(35 solo), 3.0 sacks, six tackles for loss, three passes defended and a fumble recovery.

- Played in eight games with one start as a true freshman in 1994. Collected 18 tackles (12 solo), 1.0 sack and two forced fumbles.

PERSONAL: Recorded a team-high 68 tackles and 6.0 sacks as a senior at Mercyhurst High School in Erie, Pennsylvania.

- Would like to someday pursue a career as a U.S. Marshal.
- Married to wife Erica, has a daughter, Shayla, and son, Rocco.

MANE FACTS

- As a youth in Mississippi, Hicks was a fan of the 49ers and Jerry Rice – who also hailed from Mississippi.
- One of Hicks' passions is making his own music, primarily beat music. He has all of his own equipment in a home studio. Hicks describes his music as hip hop and R&B; all rhythmic, not vocal.
- Hicks would like to work in the music industry after his playing career, but if not, would like to be a college football coach.

PRO: Hicks played in seven games for Detroit in 2008 and saw limited action on defense and special teams. He was originally signed by the Lions as an undrafted free agent May 4, 2006 but was released September 2, 2006 following training camp. Re-signed with the Lions January 1, 2007.

2008: Elevated from practice squad October 15, 2008. Released November 3 and re-signed to the Lions' practice squad November 5. Was elevated from practice squad November 8. Released from active roster November 17 and signed to practice squad November 18.

COLLEGE: Had 100 tackles (66 solo) and six interceptions in two seasons at Iowa State.

- Tied for the Big 12 lead with five interceptions and was named first-team all-Big 12 (conference coaches) and second-team all-Big 12 (Associated Press and Dallas Morning News) as a senior
- Two-time SBC Big 12 Defensive Player of Week in final season for the Cyclones. Returned an INT 28 yards for a TB vs. rival Iowa
- Transferred to Iowa State after redshirting at Southern Miss (2001) and playing at Coahoma CC (2002-03).

PERSONAL: Three-year letterwinner at Clarksdale (Miss.) H.S. Helped lead team to a combined 36-6 his final three seasons, reaching the Class 4A championship game all three years and taking the title once. All-state selection in Class 4A. First-team all-district

- Played in the Bernard Blackwell North-South All-Star Classic
- Earned school's Hoss Bennet Award, given to outstanding student-athlete on field and in classroom. Participated in track.
- Born in Clarksdale, Miss. Son of Eddie and Belinda Hicks.

MANE FACTS

- As a youth, Jackson enjoyed watching the Oakland Raiders and the San Francisco 49ers. He enjoyed watching WR Jerry Rice and finds it really special that he got the opportunity to play with him. He also finds it humorous that he used to play guys like Rice and WR Tim Brown and CB Eric Allen on Atari and Nintendo and now he has players that tell him they've played him on Madden.
- Jackson enjoys some of the older television shows like Sanford and Son and Martin.
- Before every game Jackson needs to listen to his rap music and then for the last 20 minutes before the game he listens to gospel music.
- During his down time, Jackson enjoys fishing, playing basketball, shooting pool and bowling.
- Back in Atlanta Jackson owns a barber shop and a nightclub, which he works with during the offseason.
- After football, Jackson aspires to go into coaching little kids at the YMCA and at the pop Warner level.

PRO: Jackson signed as an unrestricted free agent with Detroit March 4, 2009, bringing size and experience to the middle of the defensive front. Jackson spent the 2008 season, seven games in the 2007, and the 2006 season with the Falcons after first signing with the club as an unrestricted free agent August 22, 2006. Jackson was waived by Atlanta October 23, 2007 and signed with the Jacksonville October 31 where he played the remaining nine games of the season for the Jaguars. Entering his 13th season, Jackson has also seen time with Green Bay (2003-05), New Orleans (2002-03) and Oakland (1997-2000). Over the span of his 12-year career he has played in 170 games (116 starts) and recorded 470 tackles (360 solo), 35.5 sacks and 17 passes defended. Jackson was originally drafted by the Oakland Raiders in the sixth round (193rd overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft.

2008: Played in 15 games for the Falcons, starting in 14 and recorded 28 tackles (23 solo) and 2.0 sacks.

COLLEGE: Spent the 1996 season at Knoxville (Tenn.) College, where he broke the Bulldogs' single-game sacks record with five.

- Initially had played two seasons (1994-95) at Hinds Community College in Raymond, Mississippi.
- Was a two-time Junior College All-America selection at Hinds.
- Also was named a team MVP for the Eagles and National Junior College 'Defensive Player of the Year' following the 1994-95 seasons.

PERSONAL: Was an all-state, all-league and All-West Alabama selection in football at Greensboro (AL) East High School, where he lettered in football and basketball.

- Was named MVP of the basketball team his junior year.
- Born Grady O'Neal Jackson in Greensboro, Alabama.

MANE FACTS

- Jansen enjoyed watching and respected the late DT Reggie White and got the opportunity to play again him during his third-year in the league, which he acknowledges as one of the highlights of his career.
- A big country music fan, Jansen enjoys listening to Kenny Chesney, George Strait and Willie Nelson.
- One of Jansen's biggest hobbies is fishing which he enjoys doing with his wife. This year he looks forward to taking his two- and three-year old daughters out for the first time. He also enjoys hunting.
- When he's done playing football, Jansen would like to get into broadcasting. Jansen already has some previous experience in the spotlight after doing work with ESPN, NFL Network and in Washington D.C., with Comcast. It's something that he enjoys and looks forward to being involved with his alma mater Michigan and the Lions now that he's back near his hometown of Clawson, Michigan.

PRO: Jansen, who is entering his 11th year in the NFL, signed with the Lions as a free agent June 1, 2009. He comes to Detroit after spending his entire 10-year career with the Washington Redskins where he played 126 games with 123 starts. In 2008, Jansen played in 14 games, with 11 starts, while missing two games due to a left MCL sprain. When healthy, he was part of an offensive line that cleared the way for RB Clinton Portis who had the second-most rushing yards (1,487) in a single-season in Redskins history. Jansen also opened up running lanes for Portis to post more than 120 yards rushing in five consecutive contests and become only the second player in NFL history with with 120 rushing yards in five consecutive games twice in a career (O.J. Simpson in 1973 and 1975). Over that five-game span (Week 3-8), he helped pave the way for Washington to average 174.6 rushing yards per game, the most in the NFL. Jansen was drafted by the Redskins in the second round (37th overall) of the 1999 NFL Draft out of Michigan where he played with Lions' left tackle Jeff Backus.

2008: Saw action in 14 games with 11 starts and was inactive for two with a left MCL sprain (at Cincinnati, 12/14 and Philadelphia 12/21). Jansen blocked for RB Clinton Portis to become only the second player in NFL history with 120 rushing yards in five consecutive games twice in a career (O.J. Simpson in 1973 and 1975). Also led way for Portis to tie a club record for most consecutive 100-yard rushing games in five straight contests, a record shared by Rob Goode (1951), Portis (2005) and Ladell Betts (2006). Over the five-game span he helped pave the way for the Redskins to average 174.6 rushing yards per game, the most over that five-game stretch in the NFL.

- Paved the way for Portis to rush for more than 120 yards rushing in five consecutive contests (121 at Dallas, 9/28; 145 at Philadelphia, 10/5; vs. St. Louis, 10/12; 175 vs. Cleveland, 10/19 and 126 at Detroit, 10/26).

COLLEGE: A two-time first-team All-Big Ten selection at Michigan and set a school record with 50 straight starts, all at right tackle, earning the nickname "Rock."

- As a senior in 1998, was named a First-Team All-American by the Burger King American Football Coaches Association. He paced Michigan's down linemen with 106 knockdowns on an offense that gained 4,955 yards.
- Was Michigan's co-captain as a senior and junior and fortified an offense that posted 4,652 yards en route to the National championship.

PERSONAL: Earned All-Midwest and Detroit News Blue Chip honors as a tight end at Clawson High (Mich.).

- Posted 68 career catches and made 202 tackles, 4.0 sacks and four interceptions at linebacker to earn Oakland County Defensive MVP honors.
- Jansen is married to wife, Martha, and has two daughters, Lucy and Ruby. Also has four dogs, Rocket, Roscoe, Diesel and Tug.
- Was a guest host on the Redskins' pregame show on Comcast SportsNet in 2007.
- Was a contributing writer previously for SportingNews' NFL Draft coverage.

MANE FACTS

- Due in part to his uncle's influence, Jennings was a fan of the Dallas Cowboys while growing up and was a big fan of Cowboys' RB Emmitt Smith. He actually played running back in high school but wasn't considered big enough to play that position in college.
- During games, Jennings wears a single black band around his left arm as a tribute too personal to share.
- Jennings participated in NFL's business seminars the past two years at Wharton and Stanford.
- After his playing career, Jennings would like to get into real estate with an emphasis in flipping houses. Naturally, he's an avid fan of the show: Flip This House.

PRO: Jennings was claimed off waivers from Atlanta November 12, 2008 after spending the previous two and a half seasons (2006-08) with the Falcons. In 2008, Jennings played through the first seven games of the season with Atlanta and recorded 23 punt returns for 151 yards. He had one punt return for the Lions and added six tackles on special teams. During his time in Atlanta, Jennings recorded 53 punt returns for 337 yards and 17 kick returns for 428 yards while adding six receptions for 62 yards and a touchdown. He was originally selected by the Falcons in the sixth round (184th overall) of the 2006 NFL Draft.

2008: Spent the first seven games of the season with the Falcons before being claimed by Detroit November 12. Jennings added a punt return and six special teams tackles through the final seven games.

COLLEGE: Started 16 of 52 games at Fresno State, closing out his career with 89 receptions for 1,265 yards with 12 touchdowns, adding 337 yards and three scores on 48 carries (7.0 avg.).

- Returned 70 kickoffs for 1,731 yards and 95 punt returns for 781 yards with two scores.
- Fifth player in school history to go over 4,000 all-purpose yards.
- All-Western Conference first-team selection as kickoff return as a senior. Ranked seventh in nation with 590 yards on 20 kickoff returns.

PERSONAL: Attended Granite Bay (CA) High School, where he returned three punts and one kickoff for touchdowns as a senior.

- Health Science major at Fresno State, earning Academic All-Western honors in each of his last four seasons.
- Born Adam Jennings on November 17, 1982 in Granite Bay, California.

BRYANT JOHNSON

Wide Receiver

Penn State

Ht: 6-3

Born: 3/7/1981

Draft: '03-R1 (17)-Arz

7th Year

Wt: 215

Baltimore City, MD

Acquired: '09, UFA-SF

80

MANE FACTS

- Growing up, Johnson enjoyed watching WR Jerry Rice and the San Francisco 49ers. He thought Rice was a great role model and a guy that he could one day be like.
- Johnson likes to watch classic television shows like Good Times, The Cosby Show, Martin and The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air.
- He owns a collection of watches that he labels as exquisite time pieces.
- The first thing Johnson likes to do in the offseason is to try and take a vacation out of the country. It allows him to get away for awhile and put the previous football season and his personal performance in perspective.
- Johnson is currently in the process of starting a home preservation company.
- After his playing career, Johnson wants to help youth who excel in sports that are in the same situation that he was. His goal would be to teach them that school is very important and help them prepare for college and the rest of their life.

PRO: Signed with the Lions March 2, 2009 as an unrestricted free agent after spending the 2008 season with the 49ers. Johnson played in all 16 games last season, starting in 12, and finished second on the team with 45 receptions for 546 yards (12.1 avg.) and three touchdowns. Prior to his stint in San Francisco Johnson spent the first six years of his career with the Cardinals (2003-07). While in Arizona Johnson saw action in 77 games (39 starts) and recorded 210 receptions for 2,675 yards (12.7 avg.) and 9 touchdowns. Originally a first round (17th overall) draft choice by Arizona in 2003.

2008: Played in all 16 games with 12 starts. Was second on the team in receiving with 546 yards on 46 receptions and three touchdowns.

- Started at Seattle (9/14) and led team with six receptions (78 yards), which included a three-yard touchdown score in the second quarter to mark his first with the 49ers.
- Started his second game of the season replacing WR Josh Morgan (groin injury) and recorded his second touchdown of the season on a two-yard pass from QB Shaun Hill vs. St. Louis (11/16).
- Registered six catches for 49 yards, including a 3-yard touchdown pass in fourth quarter to seal 24-14 victory vs. the Jets (12/7).
- Caught 24-yard pass with 0:31 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter vs. Washington (12/28) which moved the 49ers into range for K Joe Nedney's game-winning field goal in a 27-24 win.

COLLEGE: Only sixth player in Penn State history to catch over 100 career passes, ranking fourth in school annals in receptions (110) and second in reception yardage (2,008) for an 18.3-yard average and 10 touchdowns. Only Bobby Engram (3,026 yards, 1991, 93-95) garnered more yards for the Nittany Lions.

- Led team in receptions final two years.

- Returned 41 punts for a single season school record of 528 yards (12.9 avg.), topping Branch's 464-yard 1999 effort.

PERSONAL: Attended Baltimore City (MD) College High School, where he was named first-team all-metro, all-city, all-county and all-Maryland after posting career totals of 97 receptions for 2,297 yards with 31 scores, 54 carries for 378 yards with four scores and 38 kickoff returns for 950 yards with five scores. Added 165 tackles, 12 sacks and three interceptions during career.

- Voted 1998 Baltimore Touchdown Club's offensive player of the year after recording 37 catches for 834 yards with 11 touchdowns at wide receiver and registering 77 tackles, six sacks and one interception as a defensive back during senior season.
- Lettered two years in basketball, serving as team captain.
- Lettered three years in track, anchoring school's winning relay teams at 1998 Penn Relays, posted 10.65 time in 100 meters.
- Returned to school and earned sociology degree in 2005
- Born Bryant Andrew Johnson (3-7-81) in Baltimore, Md.

MANE FACTS

- Participated in the Lions annual Tony Filippis Memorial Bocce Ball Tournament which raised over $85,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Growing up in Atlanta, Johnson was a big Deion Sanders fan. But on Sundays, he was a Denver Broncos fan, mostly because he loved to watch Terrell Davis.
- When Johnson first started playing football, he was a defensive back and running back. He started playing receiver when he got to high school.
- Johnson enjoys drawing and wants to finish his degree in management and eventually buy a business franchise.

PRO: Entering his third pro season, Johnson is continuing his climb towards emerging as an elite NFL receiver. Last season, he led Detroit with 78 receptions for 1,331 yards (17.1 avg) and 12 touchdowns. Johnson finished the 2008 season with some of the top offensive statistics in the NFL: tied for first in touchdown receptions (12), fifth in receiving yards (1,331), second in yards per catch among receivers with 60 receptions (17.1), tied for second in 20+-yard receptions (21), tied for second in 40+-yard receptions (7) and tied for first in 25+-yard touchdown catches (6). He was also named an alternate to the 2009 NFC Pro Bowl squad. Johnson was a two-time All-American who claimed the 2006 Biletnikoff Award (nation's top receiver) and 2006 ACC Conference Player of the Year. He was named first team All-ACC three-straight years (2004-06), and was the first player in Georgia Tech history to earn that honor. He was also named ACC Rookie of the Year in 2004 and First-Team Freshman All-America. In 38 games, he set school records with 2,927 yards receiving and 28 touchdown receptions. Caught 178 passes to rank second in Georgia Tech history in career receptions.

- 2008: Named Pro Bowl alternate. Led team in receptions (78), receiving yards (1,331), touchdowns (12) and yards per catch (17.1). Johnson is now second all-time amongst Lions leaders for the most receiving yards in their first or second year and second in receiving average with 60+ receptions. He is fifth in the NFL in receiving yards (1,331), tied for first in receiving touchdowns (12), sixth in yards per reception (17.1) among receivers with 45 receptions, tied for second in 20+-yard receptions (21) and tied for second in 40+-yard receptions (7) and first in 25+-yard touchdown receptions (6).
- Led receivers with 7 catches for 107 yards at Atlanta (9/7).
 - Notched six receptions for 129 yards to lead receivers vs. Green Bay (9/14) and posted two touchdowns for 38 and 47 yards, marking his first career multi-touchdown game. The 47-yarder was his second longest career reception.
 - Led receivers with 4 catches for 85 yards, including a 12-yard touchdown reception at Minnesota (10/13).
 - Had a season-high two catches for 154 yards and a touchdown at Houston (10/19). Johnson had two catches of 58 and 96 yards on the day. His 96-yarder was the longest reception since QB Charlie Batch connected with WR Johnny Morton at Chicago (10/4/98), and fourth longest in team history. The 96-yard touchdown pass is tied for fourth amongst Lions leaders for the longest play from scrimmage and is the fourth longest pass play.
 - 154 receiving yards rank third out of NFL all-time leaders for the most receiving yards in a game with two-or-fewer receptions.
 - Caught four passes for 57 yards and a touchdown vs. Washington (10/26). Added one carry for seven yards.
 - Recorded a career high eight receptions for 94 yards at Chicago (11/2).
 - Recorded two catches for 92 yards (46.0 avg) vs. Jacksonville (11/9), a 51-yarder from QB Daunte Culpepper and a 41-yarder from QB Drew Stanton.
 - Led the receivers with six catches for 65 yards (10.8 avg.) and a touchdown at Carolina (11/16).

- Led receivers with three catches for 66 yards (22.0 avg) and a touchdown vs. Tampa Bay (11/23).
- Caught three passes for 84 yards, including a long of 70 for a touchdown vs. Minnesota (12/7). With 84 yards Johnson reached 1,055 yards on the season marking the 21st time in team history that a player has recorded 1,000 receiving yards in a single season. He is also the fifth player in Lions history to record 1,000 receiving yards in either their first or second year in the league. Johnson's nine touchdowns on the season are the most by a Lions receiver since WR Herman Moore had nine in 1996.
- Caught a career high nine catches at Indianapolis (12/14) for 110 yards and a touchdown. The touchdown catch was Johnson's sixth 25+-yard reception for a touchdown this season (NFL high). Johnson has 10 touchdowns on the season, the most by a Lions' receiver since Herman Moore recorded 14 in 1995. He is also now tied for seventh with Gail Cogdill for touchdowns in a season.
- Johnson recorded his second career multi reception game at Green Bay (12/28) and now has 12 touchdowns on the season, which is tied for fifth with WR Cloyce Box and WR Herman Moore amongst Lions' touchdown leaders in a single-season. Johnson is also the first player to score 12 touchdowns in a season since WR James Stewart scored 11 (10 rush, 1 receiving) in 2000.
- Johnson also became the second receiver in Lions' history with 70 receptions, 1,200 yards and 10 touchdowns in a single season. The first to do so was WR Herman Moore in 1995 (123 receptions, 1,686 yards and 14 touchdowns).

COLLEGE: Joined quarterback Joe Hamilton as the only Yellow Jacket to be named ACC Player of the Year, and was just the second junior (the other was Florida State's Charlie Ward in 1992) in the last 25 years to win the ACC Player of the Year award.

- Also joins Hamilton, the 1999 Davey O'Brien Award winner, as the only Tech players to win a national award.
- As a senior, tied for second in the nation with a 15 touchdown catches, a Georgia Tech record, and only two players in ACC history have caught more (Clarkston Hines, Duke with 17 in 1989 and Torry Holt, NC State with 16 in 1997). Caught 15 of Tech's 25 touchdown passes.
- In 2005, first-team all-America by AFCA. Also earned second-team all-America honors from Associated Press and Walter Camp, as well as first-team accolades from Rivals.com. The first Tech receiver to earn all-America recognition of any kind since Billy Martin in 1963.
- Unanimous first-team all-ACC selection, earning all-ACC honors for the second straight year. Semifinalist for Biletnikoff Award as nation's top receiver as a sophomore.
- Named first-team all-ACC, just the second true freshman in school history, and the 11th in league history, to earn first-team all-ACC honors. Becomes the sixth Tech player so honored.
- First-team Freshman All-America by The Sporting News and Rivals.com.

PERSONAL: Born September 25, 1985, and parents are Calvin and Arica Johnson. One of Georgia Tech's most highly publicized signees in recent years. Rated among the nation's top 10 wide receivers and top 100 players by virtually every recruiting analyst.

- Tabbed the No. 4 wideout and No. 15 player in the nation by TheInsiders.com, and named to the Super Southern 100 by the Atlanta Journal-Constitution, the Rivals 100 by Rivals.com, TheInsiders.com Hot 100, the SuperPrep All-America 275 and the Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team.
- First-team all-state selection (Class AAAA) by the Atlanta Journal-Constitution, and was Tabbed to the AJC's preseason Super 11.
- Coached by Rodney Walker at Sandy Creek High.

MANE FACTS

- Growing up in Baltimore, King was a fan of the Ravens.
- Enjoys rap music, especially Jay-Z, T.I and Lil' Wayne. He also likes war movies such as Braveheart and Underworld.
- Prior to taking the field on game days, King likes to pray and stay relaxed. He doesn't credit himself with being a 'rah-rah' guy and prefers to stay calm.
- Likes to collect socks and wears different color socks to each practice going by his saying, "if you look good, you play good."
- Currently working on his scholarship foundation that he'd like to get started, as well as football camp.
- After his playing career is done, King wants to get more into the foundation that he's starting. He went to a private school in Baltimore and wants to help kids that are artistic, athletically or academically gifted with financial backing to help them get into good schools.

PRO: Entering his fifth NFL season, King signed with the Lions as an unrestricted free agent February 28, 2009 after spending the previous three seasons in Tennessee (2006-08). Last season King played in 10 games before being placed on the injured reserve list November 22, 2008. In 2007, King played in 15 games with one start and recorded seven tackles, a tackle for loss and 11 special teams stops before being placed on injured reserve with a forearm injury December 26, 2007. King joined the Titans September 3, 2006 after being claimed off of waivers from the Bills. Originally selected by Buffalo in the fifth round (156th overall) of the 2005 NFL Draft.

2008: Saw action in 10 games with one start before being placed on injured reserve November 22, 2008.

- Saw significant playing time at cornerback after Nick Harper left game with injury vs. Houston (9/21). Registered three solo tackles, a pass defended and a TFL in the Titans' 31-12 victory.
- Recorded two passes defended in the Titans' 21-14 win at Chicago (11/9). Also forced Bears to attempt a long field goal that was blocked by breaking up a third-and-12 pass in the fourth quarter and broke up a third-and-four pass during the Bears' final drive in the fourth quarter.

- Started at cornerback and posted three solo tackles in the Titans' 24-14 come-from-behind victory at Jacksonville (11/16).

COLLEGE: While at Wake Forest, started 42 of 46 games, recorded 217 tackles (175 solo) with two sacks and 11 stops for losses of 47 yards and deflected 39 passes, while also recovering six fumbles.

- As a senior, earned second-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors when he registered 40 tackles (29 solo) with two sacks, six stops for losses and 11 passes defended.
- As a junior, became the school's first defensive back since 1987 to earn first-team All-ACC honors, registering 59 tackles (49 solo) and led the conference with 18 passes defended (15 pass breakups, three interceptions) while also recovering three fumbles.
- Graduated with degree in communications.

PERSONAL: A multi-sport standout at McDonogh (Woodstock, Md.) High School, where he played defensive back for the Eagles, earning first-team, all-state, all-metro and all-county honors.

- Was a part of six conference championship teams – three in football and three in basketball.
- Was local private school track champion in both 100-meter and long jump events.
- Born Eric David Kin Jr., on May 10, 1982 in Baltimore, Maryland.
- Has one daughter, Saniyah.

MANE FACTS

- Attended the annual Lions Courage House Dinner to help benefit HAVEN, Oakland County's premier center for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse.
- Participated in the 9th annual United Way Hometown Huddle helping to build a $65,000 fitness trail at the NFL/Youth Education Town - Boys & Girls Club in Detroit.
- Helped deliver thousands of pounds of food to numerous Metro Detroit relief agencies at the Lift Up America event, September 25, 2007 at Ford Field.
- Has made special visits to area children's hospitals during his career.
- Volunteered time to Give the Gift of Sight, a family of charitable vision care programs, by visiting Detroit's Vision Van clinic as students selected new eyeglasses and received free eye exams.
- Visited Detroit Lions Academy, an alternative middle school, talking to students about the importance of school.
- Helped host a holiday party at the Ronald McDonald House in Detroit on December 4, 2007 to pass out gifts to the children and host dinner for the families.
- When he was growing up he idolized Jerry Rice because of his great work ethic and also Joe Montana and Ricky Watters.
- When his football career is over he wants to work with kids, be active in community service, and may get into ministry.

PRO: Lewis' speed and playmaking abilities were showcased in 2007 on both the defense and special teams units. His athleticism adds depth to the corps of linebackers. He started the 2005 opener vs. Green Bay but an ankle injury early in the game ended his season. He made an immediate impact as a rookie, both on special teams and at linebacker, playing in 15 games (one start). He exhibited playmaking ability with a sack, two interceptions and four pass defenses. The speedy linebacker started 23-of-27 games at Wisconsin after joining the Badgers as a junior, playing his first two seasons at SUNY-Morrisville.

2008: Led team, according to coaches' film review, with 23 special team tackles. At the time he was placed on Reserve/Injured, he was credited (according to pressbox stats) with 21 special teams tackles which led the NFL in special teams tackles. Had recorded a special teams tackle in 10 of 11 games he was active.

- Recorded three special teams tackles in opener at Atlanta (9/7).
- Recorded five tackles in three games (vs. GB 9/14, at SF 9/21 and vs. Chi 10/5).
- Forced a fumble and recorded a fumble recovery on All-Pro WR Devin Hester at Chicago (11/2).
- Tied career high with 4 special teams stops vs. Jacksonville (11/9).

COLLEGE: All-American third-team selection by The NFL Draft Report and listed as the most underrated defensive player in the Big Ten, and All-Big Ten Conference first-team pick by the league's coaches, earning second-team honors from the media as a senior.

- Named National Defensive Player of the Week by The NFL Draft Report as he collected five (39 yards) of the team's eight sacks against Purdue and also registered nine tackles (seven solo) with 6.5 stops for minus-42 yards.
- Named Northeast Football Conference Defensive Player of Year, as he recorded 101 tackles (62 solo) with 11 sacks (98 yards), 32 stops for losses (167 yards) and 20 QB pressures as a sophomore.
- Also excelled in track, garnering All-American accolades in the discus, shot put and javelin as a sophomore.

PERSONAL: Two-time All-League gridiron pick at Delran (N.J.) High.

PLAYER PROFILES

Also excelled in track, twice winning the state Group II title in the discus (competed in the Penn Relays) and won the district wrestling title. Team captain in both football and track.

➤ Son of Belva Lewis-Taylor. Born June 11, 1981.

PRO: Muhlbach's velocity and accuracy places him among the best in the league in his specialty, and he is a critical part of the snap-hold-kick trio that includes P Nick Harris and K Jason Hanson. A deep-snapping specialist who has a crisp and consistent delivery, Muhlbach spent 2004 training camp with Baltimore. He emerged as the Lions longsnapper prior to 2005 as he joined the team midway through the 2004 campaign due to injuries and finished the season as the team's snapper. Muhlbach served as Texas A&M's snapper in 2003, and filled in as the punter during his sophomore season with the Aggies in 2002.

2008: Recorded seven special teams tackles on the season, tying a career single-season high. Remained very accurate on both long and short snaps.

COLLEGE: Served as Texas A&M's snapper in 2003.

➤ Filled in as punter during sophomore season with the Aggies.

PERSONAL: Don Lynn Muhlbach, Jr., is the son of Sally and Don

DENNIS NORTHCUTT

Wide Receiver

Arizona

MANE FACTS

- Attended same high school as former NFL players Keyshawn Johnson and Na'il Diggs.
- Over the years, Northcutt has been involved in the community wherever he has played, assisting charities such as Habitat for Humanity and Make-A-Wish Foundation.
- Enjoys giving motivational talks to students about making the key choices in life and the outcome of those choices.
- Likes to visits elementary schools to read to students.

PRO: Northcutt was acquired by Detroit via trade June 30, 2009. The speedy receiver and punt returner is entering his 10th NFL season. Northcutt spent the past two seasons in Jacksonville and totaled 44 receptions in each of his two seasons with the club and recorded 100-plus receiving yards in back-to-back games in 2008 for the first time in his career. He spent his first seven NFL seasons with Cleveland where he was a second round (32nd overall) draft pick in 2000. Northcutt has played in 128 games with 58 starts and has 364 receptions for 4,584 yards and 17 touchdowns. Northcutt also holds the Browns franchise record for career punt returns and career punt return yardage. He played collegiately at Arizona where he still holds 12 school records, including the school's record for all-purpose yards (5,392).

2008: Saw action in 14 games with two starts and ranked third on the team with 44 receptions for 545 yards (12.4 avg.) with two TDs and two 100-yard receiving games. Also had five punt returns for 14 yards.

- Finished with three receptions for 36 yards vs. Buffalo (9/14).
- Left games at Indianapolis (9/21) with a hip injury and consequently was inactive/injured the next two weeks, vs. Houston (9/28) and vs. Pittsburgh (10/5).
- Returned to action and served as the primary punt returner and finished with three receptions for 42 yards at Denver (10/12).
- Made first start of the season vs. Green Bay (12/14) and led team with five receptions for 127 yards and one touchdown with a season-long of 41 yards. He had three receptions for 30-plus yards including a 30-yard touchdown reception on the opening drive. It marked first 100-yard receiving game as a Jaguar (5th of career) and the 127 receiving yards were the most by a Jaguar in 2008.
- Started vs. Indianapolis (12/18) and led team in receiving for second-straight week. Finished with eight grabs for 101 yards, and had 28-yard TD reception on the club's opening drive.
- Led team with five catches for 35 yards (third consecutive game with five-plus receptions) in finale at Baltimore (12/28).

COLLEGE: Holds 12 school records as he finished with 223 career receptions for 3,252 yards and ranks second on the Pac-10 Conference career record lists for receptions and receiving yards. Set school record with 5,392 career all-purpose yards. Started career as cornerback.

- As senior, he set school record with 88 receptions for 1,422 yards (16.8 avg.) and 8 TDs. Led PAC-10 and ranked second in nation with 23 punt returns for 436 yards (19.0 avg.) and 2 touchdowns.
- Earned All-America first-team honors as an all-purpose back after averaging 187.4 all-purpose yards per game.
- As junior, led team with 63 grabs for 916 yards (15.8 avg.) and 9 TDs. Returned 38 punts for 437 yards; 11 kickoffs for 219 yards.
- Earned a bachelor's degree in communications.

PERSONAL: Full name is Dennis Northcutt. Attended Dorsey (Los Angeles) High and was All-City and All-Conference selection and lettered twice in both football and track.

- Named City Offensive Player of the Year as a senior as he rushed for 900 yards on 74 carries, averaged 34.2 yards per kickoff return and set a school-record with 23 touchdowns.

MANE FACTS

- As a youth, Pearson was a big Chicago Bears fan and especially enjoyed watching Walter Payton.
- Pearson's favorite TV show is the medical drama "House".
- Likes to bowl and consistently rolls about 170.
- Co-owner of a bank in Birmingham, Ala., Oakworth Capital.
- For each of the past four years, Pearson has done a football camp in his hometown of Town Creek, Ala.
- After playing career, Pearson would like to be a defensive coordinator of a high school football team as well as work in the community.

PRO: Pearson was one of the best and most consistent players for Detroit's defense in 2008. He was named the Lem Barney Defensive MVP and Mike Utley Spirit Award winner as voted by his teammates after the season. Pearson, who joined the Lions as a restricted free agent March 13, 2008, set career-highs with 92 tackles and three forced fumbles while playing in all 16 games with 10 starts. He also was a key contributor on Detroit's special teams, tying for second on the team with 17 tackles. Pearson had led the Buccaneers in special teams tackles (21) in two of his last three seasons (2005, 2007) in Tampa Bay. He originally entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with Cleveland on April 26, 2002 and played in five games for the Browns as a rookie.

2008: Named Lions Defensive MVP by teammates. Played in all 16 games with 10 starts and showed he can play multiple positions in defensive secondary. Proved to be ace on special teams after finishing second on team with 17 tackles (according to coaches' film review).

- Recorded a season-high seven tackles (four solo and one tackle for loss), one pass defense and a sack for a loss of 11 yards at Minnesota (10/12).
- Recorded a season-best 11 stops (8 solo) at Houston (10/19).
- Posted six tackles (three solo) in first start of the season vs. Washington (10/26).
- Recorded a season high 15 tackles (nine solo) at Chicago (11/2).
- Tallied seven tackles (six solo) and a forced fumble at Indianapolis (12/14).
- Recorded a team best 10 tackles (nine solo), a forced fumble and career first fumble recovery at Green Bay (12/28).

COLLEGE: As senior at Grambling, he had 74 tackles (48 solo), 10 TFLs, four sacks, one pick and three forced fumbles. Recorded nine career picks. Was named SWAC Player of the Week after recording 18 tackles, 2.0 sacks, one forced fumble and one pass defense against Jackson St. during the 2001 season.

- Started college career at Morehouse College.

PERSONAL: Attended Hazelwood High School.

- The cousin of former Browns cornerback Antonio Langham.
- Born Kalvin Pearson October 22, 1978 in Town Creek, Alabama.

MANE FACTS

- Grew up a huge LSU and New Orleans Saints fan. His family had Saints season tickets and he attended every single home Saints game from birth to age 13, and he watched every away game with parents on TV. Proud to say he never missed a game!
- Favorite Saints players include: Ricky Jackson, Pat Swilling, Craig "Ironhead" Heyward, Sam Mills, Bobby Hebert and Dalton Hilliard.
- Participated in annual Detroit Lions Invitational golf outing at TPC Michigan that raises funds for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Participated in the Lions annual Tony Filippis Memorial Bocce Ball Tournament which raised funds for Detroit Lions Charities
- Set-up the Stephen Peterman Foundation to provide aid to disadvantaged children and to enhance the lives of terminally ill children in Louisiana, Mississippi and Texas.
- In the spring of 2005 and 2006, Peterman joined forces with fellow Louisiana State University (LSU) alumnus David Toms, a PGA Tour pro, to host the Stephen Peterman Foundation and David Toms Foundation Fort Worth Dinner in Fort Worth, Texas. Proceeds from the fundraising dinner benefited Happy Hill Farm Academy/Home (a residential school/farm where socially and academically disadvantaged youth are given a second chance to prepare for a productive future) and the David Toms Foundation.
- Shaves head before every game with a Mach 3 Bic razor, something he started as a sophomore at LSU.
- Part owner of restaurant, located in Baton Rouge, La.
- Following football career, he would like to open up restaurants and pursue construction projects.

PRO: Peterman was re-signed to a five-year deal February 17, 2009, solidifying four returning starters on the offensive line from 2008. He is entering his fifth NFL season and third with the Lions. Peterman first signed to Detroit's practice squad in 2006 and was promoted to the active roster for the team's final three games. The following year, he was inserted into the starting lineup at right guard in Week 4 due to injuries and played himself into a full-time starting role and has since started 27 games over the past two seasons. Peterman was originally a 2004 third round draft choice (83rd overall) by the Dallas Cowboys. At LSU, he played in 48 games with 35 starts, playing both left and right guard after switching from defensive end, which he played as a freshman. Was an All-American his senior season and was twice named first-team All-Southeastern Conference in his junior and senior seasons, respectively.

2008: Team's starting right guard. Played in 14 games (14 starts).

- Inactive (hand) vs. Chicago (10/5) and at Minnesota (10/12).
- Returned to starting line-up at Houston (10/19).
- Started at right guard as the team accumulated a season-high 130 yards on the ground, including 112 by rookie RB Kevin Smith (first career 100-yard game).

- Member of unit that did not allow a sack at Indianapolis (12/14).

COLLEGE: An All-America and All-SEC first-team selection as a senior, Peterman was team leader and anchor of offensive line that helped lead the LSU Tigers to the SEC title and a win over Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl to capture the 2003 national title.

- For his career, he appeared in 48 games at LSU, starting 35. He moved to right guard in his senior season, after starting 25 games over the previous two years at left guard, and allowed just one sack while playing a major role in leading an offense that averaged 418.4 yards-per-game.
- A first-team All-SEC pick as a junior, Peterman started the entire season at left guard and allowed only one sack.
- Peterman started his collegiate career as a tight end and spent his freshman season at defensive end.
- He made the switch to offense as a sophomore and started all but one game at left guard during a very successful second season, allowing only one quarterback sack.
- He played a key role in the Tigers 10-3 season that featured a win over second ranked Tennessee in the SEC Championship Game and a 47-34 win over No. 7 Illinois in the Sugar Bowl.

PERSONAL: Peterman attended St. Stanislaus High School in Bay St. Louis, Miss. Was a first-team all-state selection and a two-time all-district choice.

- As a senior, Peterman caught 14 passes for 150 yards and one

MANE FACTS

- Growing up, Peterson's favorite player was DE Dexter Manley.
- In entertainment, Peterson enjoys actors Tom Hanks, Denzel Washington, Eddie Murphy and Martin Lawrence.
- Before taking field on game day, it's mandatory to put two pair of socks on to give his feet some extra cushioning.
- Enjoys spending his time off playing around with his kids. They enjoy rolling around thinking they're the strongest kids in the world and that's the greatest part for him.
- Currently working on his foundation which deals with financial literacy and is also in the process of getting his production company off the ground which he is working on with childhood friends that he's known since age four.
- After football Peterson hopes to start working with the production company and maybe later become a sports agent. Right now his main focus is on his football career.

PRO: Entering his tenth NFL season, Peterson was acquired by Detroit through a trade with Seattle for DT Cory Redding March 17, 2009. Prior to joining the Lions, the five time Pro Bowl linebacker spent three seasons (2006-08) with the Seahawks after signing with the club as an unrestricted free agent March 27, 2006. In 2008, Peterson finished second on the team in total tackles with 86 (65 solo). Peterson spent the first six seasons (2000-05) of his career with the 49ers. Over the span of his nine-year career, he has recorded 714 tackles (499 solo), eight interceptions for 65 yards, 48 passes defended, 15 forced fumbles and 8 fumble recoveries in 127 games with 119 starts. Originally signed by Seattle in the first round (16th overall) of the 2000 NFL Draft.

2008: Finished second on team in total tackles with 86 (65 solo).

- Tied for team lead with eight tackles (five solo) at Buffalo (9/7). Also added a pass defended.
- Had seven solo tackles with a sack and forced fumble leading to a Seattle touchdown vs. Green Bay (10/12).
- At San Francisco (10/26), recorded eight tackles (four solo), a sack and forced fumble that resulted in a 17-yard loss and a 50-yard fumble return by Patrick Kerney.
- Did not start vs. Washington (11/23) when the team opened in a nickel package, but led team with a season-high 10 tackles (eight solo) and had one sack and a pass defended.

COLLEGE: Registered 140 tackles, including 25.0 sacks, in only 23 games at Michigan State.

- Started all 12 games at OLB as senior. Finished with 82 tackles (55 solo) and led team with career-high 15.0 sacks as senior.
- All-America selection by Football News and The Sporting News.
- First-team NJCAA All-America and Seaboard Conference Defensive Player of the Year at Valley Forge Junior College as a sophomore (1997). Amassed 20.5 sacks.
- As a freshman at Valley Forge registered 19.5 sacks.
- Majored in park, recreation and tourism resources.

PERSONAL: Prepped at Crossland (Temple Hills, Md.) High School.

- Ranked among the nation's top defensive linemen in 1995.
- Named Chesapeake Classic MVP in 1996.
- Married to Aimee and has a son, Jayson.

- Participated in the Lions annual Tony Filippis Memorial Bocce Ball Tournament which raised funds for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Participated in annual Detroit Lions Invitational golf outing at TPC Michigan that raises funds for Detroit Lions Charities.
- A big fan of Al Pacino, he owns most of the movies the actor is in including his favorite, "Scarface", which he has watched repeatedly.

PRO: Raiola finished his eighth pro season in Detroit and his seventh as the starting center in 2008. He had played in every game for the Lions since being drafted in the second round (50th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft and made 104 consecutive starts at center since the beginning of the 2002 season before a hand injury forced him to miss his first career game and start vs. Jacksonville (11/9/08). Among centers in the league, he had the second most consecutive starts (104) behind Denver C Casey Wiegman (112) and Atlanta C Todd McClure (112) since 2001. In 2006, Raiola emerged as one of the most effective all-around centers in the league with his ability to get outside and block on the perimeter and to get to the second level. Prior to 2005 season, he signed a five-year contract extension (March 13). In 2004, he centered an offensive line that developed into one of the top run-blocking lines in the NFL as the offensive line led the way for a rushing attack that ranked second in the NFL over the final seven games of the season.

2008: Named an offensive team captain for second consecutive year. Had his consecutive games played streak snapped at 104 games due to hand injury. Played in 12 games (12 starts).

- Started his 100th straight game vs. Chicago (10/5).
- Inactive vs. Jacksonville (11/9) due to a broken hand and snapped his 104-game starting streak.
- Re-entered starting lineup vs. Minnesota (12/7).

- Helped engineer an offensive line unit that was stout against the pass rush at Indianapolis (12/14) and did not allow a sack.

COLLEGE: Turned pro after playing three seasons at Nebraska, but was a four-year collegian (redshirted in 1997). Cornhuskers' first freshman lineman to start a game since Rob Zatechka in 1991.

- The two-time Nebraska Lifter of the Year finalist set a school record with 140 knockdown blocks (11.67/gm) as a sophomore in 1999, only to better that mark as a junior in 2000 with 145 (13.2/gm).

- Garnered Academic All-Big 12 Conference honors the last two years while making the conference's honor roll three times.

- In 2000, he was an All-American first-team selection by the Football Writers Association, Walter Camp, AP and AFCA. Consensus All-Big 12 first-team selection.

- Junior year was first full year as starter and was named a consensus All-Big 12 first-team selection, the first sophomore Nebraska offensive lineman to earn such honors since Dave Rimington in 1980 and was a member of Sports Illustrated's All-Bowl Team.

PERSONAL: Three-year starter for St. Louis High in Honolulu.

- Team went undefeated in each of his last three years and ranked 15th nationally in 1996, winning its 11th straight state championship.

- Earned first-team all-state honors as a junior and senior (1995-96).

- Also a National Honor Society member, a three-year scholar-athlete and ranked sixth in his class of 180.

Texas Tech
Ht: 6-3

Born: 2/13/83
Draft: '07, R4b (117)-Det

3rd Year
Wt: 326
Houston, Texas

63

MANE FACTS

- Participated in the Lions annual Tony Filippis Memorial Bocce Ball Tournament which raised over $85,000 for DLC.
- After he started playing football in high school, Ramirez's teammates nicknamed him 'Munoz,' a reference to former Bengals T Anthony Munoz, who was the first Hispanic American to be inducted to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. At first Ramirez didn't know who he was, but after doing some research on him, he developed a great respect for him as a person and a player.
- Enjoys watching anything with actor/comedian George Lopez.

- Before every game, Ramirez unfailingly eats both spaghetti and mashed potatoes.
- Ramirez plans to finish his degree in Sports Health at Texas Tech. After his playing career he wants to become a college strength and conditioning coach.

PRO: In 2008, Ramirez saw action in four games and had a career-high three starts at guard. As one of the most physical linemen in Texas Tech history and arguably one of the most talented, Ramirez was one of the top offensive linemen in the Big 12. The four-year starter's upper-body strength is off the charts, and was considered one of the strongest college offensive linemen. Tremendous strength and explosion off of the line. He twice set the school bench press record, leaving the school with a 550-pound press in 2005, after first establishing the record with a 525-pound lift in 2004. Part of the most explosive aerial attacks in the nation during his four years at Texas Tech, as the Red Raiders led the nation during that span with 19,947 yards passing, an average of 398.94 yards per game. He was known at Texas Tech for his intelligence and leadership on the field as he called all the blocking schemes the last two years and served as the line's mentor for the younger players--blocking unit reduced the team's total of sacks allowed from 36 in 2005 to 19 in 2006.

2008: Appeared in four games and started three at guard.

- Inactive at Atlanta (9/7), vs. Green Bay (9/14) and at San Francisco (9/21).
- Started first career game at RG in place of an injured Stephen Peterman vs. Chicago (10/5) and at Minnesota (10/12).
- Inactive at Houston (10/19), vs. Washington (10/26) and at Chicago (11/2).
- Did not play vs. Jacksonville (11/9), at Carolina (11/16) and vs. Tampa Bay (11/23).
- Inactive vs. Minnesota (12/7), at Indianapolis (12/14) and vs. New Orleans (12/21).
- Started in final game of the season at Green Bay (12/28).

COLLEGE: Started all but one game as a senior; missed Iowa State game with injury. All-Big 12 Conference first-team pick by The NFL Draft Report and the Austin American Statesman, and added second-team accolades from the Dallas Morning News and honorable mention from the league's coaches.

- Captained offensive line that allowed only 19 sacks, which was 17 better than the 36 allowed in 2005.
- Second-team All-Big 12 Conference selection by the league's coaches as a junior.
- Set a school lifting record with a 550-pound bench press during - spring training, topping his own mark of 525 pounds set in 2004.

- Bench a team-record 525 pounds at the "Night of Champions" in the Spring of 2004.
- Moved into the starting lineup at right guard in the fourth game of the 2003 season vs. Mississippi and would remain there for the final nine contests.
- Allowed only 1.5 sacks and posted 11 TD-resulting blocks.
- The offense was dominant throughout the year, leading the nation with 582.77 yards per game in total offense and 475.31 yards per game in passing. The Red Raiders also ranked fourth nationally with an average of 42.46 points scored per game.
- Redshirted as a true freshman.

- PERSONAL: Born Manuel Ramirez February 19, 1983 in Houston, Texas.
- Son of Rosalinda and Manuel Ramirez. Has two siblings, Angel and Rosalinda.
 - Majored in exercise sport science.
 - Married to wife, Iris.
 - Attended Willowridge High School in Houston, Texas, and played for high school coach David Scurlock.
 - Rated as the No. 95 prospect in the state by Superprep recruiting magazine and was named to Lubbock Avalanche-Journal Top 100 and Fort Worth Star-Telegram Top 100.
 - First-Team All-District 20-5A selection as a junior and senior
 - Sixth-best center in country (Rivals100.com).

MANE FACTS

- As the 255th overall pick and final selection in the 2007 NFL Draft, Robinson was honored in June 2007 as Mr. Irrelevant. He was the honored guest during "Irrelevant Week", a week long celebration, in Newport Beach, Calif., that is headed up by former NFL player Paul Salata.
- Attended the annual Lions Courage House Dinner to help benefit HAVEN, Oakland County's premier center for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse.
- Was a big fan of the Dallas Cowboys as a youth and credits Emmitt Smith as an influence in getting him to play football.
- For every game he has to have his jersey sleeves off of his arms. If his bicep is being covered, he feels that he's in trouble. Robinson also has to have his iPod with him; otherwise he might not make it out on the field.
- Has been collecting Nike Jordan's since the eighth grade.
- During the offseason Robinson continues his education at Eastern Michigan University by taking Sports Management and Administration.
- After his football career, Robinson wants to show others that they can overcome the odds and adversity. He would like to be able to show youths that if he can do it, anyone can.

PRO: In 2008, Robinson saw action in 13 games and made contributions on defense as well as being a standout on special teams, finishing the season tied for second (S Kalvin Pearson) with 17 tackles. At cornerback, Robinson contributed 11 total tackles (10 solo) and a pass defended. Robinson was added to the Lions Practice Squad September 2, 2007 after being released by the club September 1, 2007. He finished the season on the active roster, making contributions on special teams. He had collegiate experience at cornerback, having played four years in the SEC, perhaps the nation's toughest football conference. During his career, he played in 50 games and recorded 146 tackles (100 solo) and 3.5 tackles for loss (11 yards). He intercepted four passes and returned those four picks a total of 96 yards. Added 22 passes defended to his defensive numbers. As the 255th overall pick and final selection in the 2007 NFL Draft, Robinson was honored in June as Mr. Irrelevant. He was the honored guest during "Irrelevant Week", a week long celebration, in Newport Beach, Calif., that is headed up by former NFL player Paul Salata.

2008: Active for 13 games and was third on the team with 17 special teams tackles.

- Recorded a fumble recovery vs. Chicago (10/5) after S Daniel Bullocks forced a fumble on WR Devin Hester.
- Recorded a career-high four solo tackles vs. Washington (10/26).

COLLEGE: Started all 12 games on the season and tallied 40 tackles with 1.5 tackles for a loss, two interceptions, one caused fumble and five pass breakups as a senior.

- Intercepted a pass and returned it 34 yards for his first career touchdown against Florida International.
- Following an outstanding spring practice, Robinson earned the "Mal Moore Leadership" Award.
- As youngest starter in Alabama secondary, tied for team lead in INTs (two) and ranked second on in pass break-ups with seven as a junior.
- Recorded first career interception against Florida in 2005, returning it 21 yards. Combined that with six tackles in helping Crimson Tide upset the fifth-ranked Gators.
- Earned starting LCB slot prior to the 2004 season opener.
- Played in all 13 games and earned first start in the season finale against Hawaii as a redshirt freshman.
- Redshirted in 2002.

PLAYER PROFILES

PERSONAL: Son of Fedetrice and Edward Robinson. Ramzee has two brothers (Sabir and Edward) and two sisters (Fedetrice and Ravonne).

- Earned his undergraduate degree in management in May 2006.
- Played quarterback at Butler High School in Huntsville, Ala., and completed 72 of 114 passes for 1,338 yards and seven touchdowns his senior season.
- All-city and all-district pick as a sophomore, junior and senior, and was an honorable mention all-state pick as a senior.
- Rushed for 466 yards on 85 carries and had six rushing touchdowns.
- Turned in 33 tackles and two interceptions while playing cornerback.

MANE FACTS

- Known for a Super Bowl XLII ad that he did with then Texans teammate Chester Pitts. In the commercial, he narrates a story regarding he and Pitts while he attended San Diego State University. As the story goes, Salaam saw Pitts bagging groceries at a local store and was impressed by his size. He convinced him to try out as a walk-on for the SDSU football team. The commercial ends by pointing out the irony of Pitts ending up as a second-round pick while Salaam was a seventh-round pick.
- Salaam has a strong interest in the entertainment industry and has made appearances on various TV shows. Most recently, he and former teammate Chester Pitts were participants on ABC's Wipeout. Salaam also has been featured on the Ellen DeGeneres Show as a guest and as a correspondent for the 2008 Grammy Awards.
- He and his mother, Dr. Malika Salaam, head up the EMS Foundation, which helps underprivileged children further their education.
- Salaam's brother played on the defensive line for legendary coach Eddie Robinson at Grambling State and his father was a basketball player at South Carolina.

PRO: Signed with Detroit as a free agent May 21, 2009. A smart, physical veteran lineman, Salaam has played in 141 career games with 129 starts and has started at both left and right tackle in his career. He's also played in four career playoff games with three starts, including Super Bowl XXXIII with the Atlanta Falcons. Salaam was four-year starter at right tackle for the Falcons (1998-2001) before signing with Denver April 15, 2002 where he made the transition to left tackle. One of only four player in NFL history to start 19 games in his rookie season (1998), combining the regular season and playoffs. Originally selected in the seventh round (199th overall) of the 1998 NFL Draft by Atlanta.

COLLEGE: Three-year starter as both a right and left tackle at San Diego State, playing in 31 career games.

- Lined up at defensive end as a freshman but was moved to the offensive line as a starter in 1995.
- Averaged 4.4 points per game for the Aztec's basketball team.
- Academic prowess allowed him to skip two grades in elementary school and he enrolled at SDSU as a 16-year old freshman.

PERSONAL: Appeared with former teammate Chester Pitts in a 2008 Super Bowl commercial detailing the pair's college connection that Salaam encouraged Pitts to tryout at San Diego State.

- Two-time all-league and second-team All-Metro choice during his three year career as a two-way lineman at Florin High School in Sacramento, California.
- Also a standout on the basketball team and earned two Bronze Panther academic awards.
- Born Ephraim Mateen Salaam in Chicago, Illinois.

MANE FACTS

- Growing up Schweigert was a fan of the Detroit Lions and RB Barry Sanders.
- Schweigert is a huge fan of the television shows King of Queens and Talk Soup.
- Before every game Schweigert likes to stay consistent with what he does including getting up at the same time, dressing the same way and laying out his stuff in the locker room.
- One of Schweigert's newest hobbies is learning to play the acoustic guitar.
- Currently in the offseason, Schweigert likes to do yard work and keep up with his new house.
- After his playing career, Schweigert aspires to go into some type of broadcasting, whether it be television or radio, just something with sports.

PRO: Signed with the Lions November 19, 2008 after being released by the New York Giants September 31. In 2008, Schweigert saw action in six games for the Lions, mostly contributing on special teams, recording 12 tackles. Schweigert also added a solo tackle and pass defended playing at safety. Schweigert spent the first four years of his career in Oakland (2004-07) before being released March 20, 2008 and signed with the Redskins June 2 before being released August 4. In 2006, Schweigert contributed to a young defense in Oakland that ranked first in the NFL in pass defense and also ranked third on the team with 100 tackles. During his time in Oakland, Schweigert amassed 260 tackles, four interceptions for 45 yards, 20 passes defended, two forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries in 63 games played (42 starts). Originally selected by the Raiders in the third round (67th overall) of the 2004 NFL Draft.

2008: Signed with the Lions November 19. Played in six games and finished with one solo tackle on defense, a pass defended and 12 tackles on special teams.

MANE FACTS

- Served as spokesman for the 2008 Lions Pet Calendar that helps to raise money for the Dearborn Animal Shelter.
- Animal enthusiast who has a special affinity to exotic critters, and has set up quite an elaborate animal kingdom of his own in his home that includes lighted, temperature-controlled cages. His collection of animals includes boas, pythons, lizards and spiders, and he has a huge aquarium that features a lionfish.
- His father, Ernie Jr. gave him a tarantula at the age of 10 and he started collecting reptiles ever since.
- He told the Detroit News in April 2007 that he dreams of owning a Lion one day after a visit to Disney's Animal Kingdom earlier in the year and was fascinated by the pride of Lions he saw there.
- Because of his great interest in animals, his favorite TV station is the Animal Planet.
- After his football career, he wants to become a veterinarian and has a goal to open an animal hospital in Florida.
- Hosted a celebrity weekend fundraiser which benefited his foundation, that included a football camp, slam dunk contest, car show black tie affair and golf tournament.

PRO: Sims, one of the league's best young linebackers, brings speed, talent and intensity to the Lions linebacker corps. In 2008, Sims played and started in all 16 and finished second on the team with 140 (90 solo) tackles according to coaches film review. He was inserted as the team's starter at the weak-side linebacker spot to begin 2006 and has started all 48 games in his first three seasons. According to press box stats, Sims' 257 tackles were the fourth-most in the league over his first two seasons (2006-07). Starting all 16 games in 2006, he was one of the top defensive rookies in the league and was named to the Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association all-rookie team. The Lions selected Sims with their first-round pick (9th overall) in the 2006 NFL Draft.

2008: Named a defensive team captain for second consecutive year. Second on team with 140 (90 solo) tackles on the season. Has recorded over 100 tackles in all three seasons in the NFL.

- Posted a team best 14 tackles (11 solo) at San Francisco (9/21).
- Led team with 12 tackles (nine solo) vs. Chicago (10/5).
- Split a sack with DT Cory Redding and had nine tackles (five solo) at Minnesota (10/12).

COLLEGE: He was regarded as Florida State's finest linebacker since Buccaneers' linebacker Derrick Brooks (1991-94). In 38 games for the Seminoles, Sims started his final 24 and finished his career with 200 tackles (95 solo), 7.0 sacks (61 yards) and 21 tackles-for-loss.

- Started all year at strong-side linebacker in 2005 and finished fourth on the team with 72 tackles (22 solos). He also registered 2.5 sacks (23 yards), 10 tackles for losses of 36 yards, recovered a fumble, deflected four passes and had two interceptions.
- Helped lead a unit that ranked 14th in the nation in total defense (309.23 ypg) and 18th in rush defense (108.38 ypg) and was an All-Atlantic Coast Conference honorable mention.

- In 2004, Sims played in 12 games, starting the final 11 at strong-side linebacker and finished second on the team with a career-high 86 tackles (41 solos). Also had 4.5 sacks (38 yards), nine tackles for loss (43 yards), five pass defenses and a blocked kick.
- Helped the team rank third in the nation in rush defense (83.03 ypg), fourth in scoring defense (14.08 ppg) and seventh in total defense (283.83 ypg).
- Named ACC Defensive Back of the Week in back-to-back games (vs. Virginia and Wake Forest).
- ESPN All-American first-team choice and All-Atlantic Coast Conference second-team pick.
- Played in every game as a reserve linebacker in 2003 to total 42 tackles (32 solos) with two tackles for loss (5 yards) and three pressures; also deflected two passes and caused a fumble.

PERSONAL: At North Florida Christian (Tallahassee, Fla.) High School, Sims was rated the nation's best prep prospect in 2003.

- Earned All-American honors by Parade as the top prep linebacker in the nation and USA Today All-USA second-team accolades.
- Named to top 100 in Florida by the Orlando Sentinel, was a member of the Super 75 team as selected by the Florida Times Union, chosen as the best player in the south and to the All-South Top 20 by the Tampa Tribune.
- Led the Eagles to four state championships (1998-2001) during his five-year career and as a senior rushed for three touchdowns in the Class A state championship game.
- An incredible two-way player, he totaled 133 tackles (73 solos), 15 stops for lost yardage, six forced fumbles, seven fumble recoveries and one blocked field goal attempt from his linebacker position, and ran for 1,081 yards on 115 carries for 23 touchdowns as a running back during his senior season.
- Recorded 180 tackles, 41 stops-for-losses, 12.0 sacks and forced seven fumbles as a linebacker and rushed for over 600 yards and 17 touchdowns as a running back during his junior season.
- Earned five varsity letters, including a varsity spot in 8th grade.
- Father, Ernie Jr., played football at Florida State as a running back for head coach Bobby Bowden (1977-81) while his mother, the former Alice Bennett, was an All-American sprinter on the Seminole track team from 1980-83.
- Brother, Marcus, a standout running back at North Florida Christian High, is a member of the Florida State football team.
- Wore jersey No. 34, which was retired in honor of former FSU great Ron Sellers. With Sellers' permission, No. 34 was brought out of retirement at request of Seminole coaching staff.

KEITH SMITH

Cornerback
McNeese State
Ht: 5-11
Born: 3/20/80
Draft: '04, R3 (73)-Det

6th Year
Wt: 191
Leesville, La.

23

MANE FACTS

- Smith is not the only sports figure in Detroit with connections to McNeese State. Joe Dumars, president of basketball operations for the Detroit Pistons, also is an alumni of McNeese State.
- Visited the Detroit Lions Academy, an alternative middle school in Detroit, talking to students about the importance of school.
- Participated in the Lions annual Tony Filippis Memorial Bocce Ball Tournament which raised over $85,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Attended 14th annual Lions Courage House Dinner to help benefit HAVEN, Oakland County's premier center for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse.
- When he was younger, he liked the Raiders, especially CB Charles Woodson; the Dolphins, for the style of defense that they played; and the Rams, for their wide-open offense.
- Watched WR Jerry Rice to try and figure out why he was always so open and what a defender could do to stop him.
- A big fan of Martin Lawrence. He still laughs at the reruns of his show like they are brand new.
- Wants to coach at a younger level after playing in the NFL – most likely Pop Warner and then high school.

PRO: Smith is a valuable contributor at cornerback, especially in nickel and dime situations, and is a solid performer on special teams. Smith played in 10 games last year, serving as a backup cornerback. He had his most productive season in 2007 when he had career highs in tackles (44) and interceptions (3) and matched a career-high with 19 special teams tackles. Smith was selected by the Lions in the third round (73rd overall) to add talent and depth to the team's secondary. At McNeese State, Smith demonstrated great ability as a deep-coverage cornerback, and did not allow a reception in 13 of his last 22 games for the Cowboys.

2008: Played in 10 games and had 14 tackles (10 solo).

- Inactive at Carolina (11/16), vs. Tampa Bay (11/23) and vs. Tennessee (11/27) and vs. Minnesota (12/7) with a groin injury.
- Recorded a special teams forced fumble and two special teams tackles at Indianapolis (12/14).

COLLEGE: All-American first-team selection by The NFL Draft Report, a second-team all-American pick by the Associated Press and The Sports Network and earned All-Southland Football League first-team accolades.

- All-Southland Football League first-team choice after he helped lead the team to the Division I-AA Championship game as a junior.
- Set a school game-record as he deflected six passes against Maine in the NCAA Division I-AA Playoffs as a sophomore.

PERSONAL: All-State defensive back who also played wide receiver and running back at Leesville (La.) High.

- Won the state title in the 400-meter dash and was a member of the state champion 4x400-meter relay team.
- Son of Ramona and Keith Smith.

KEVIN SMITH

Running Back
Central Florida
Ht: 6-1
Born: 12/17/86
Draft: '08, R3a (64)-Det

2nd Year
Wt: 217
Miami, Fla.

34

MANE FACTS

- Grew up as a fan of the Miami Dolphins, though he was a big fan of Dallas Cowboys RB Emmitt Smith, WR Michael Irvin, TE Jay Novacek and CB Deion Sanders (when he was with the Falcons)
- One of Smith's favorite TV programs is America's Best Dance Crew. His favorite actor is Denzel Washington and favorite movie is Training Day.
- On gamedays, Smith relies on the hot tub to relax and loosen himself up before meditating to get focused. He prefers to wear his socks high and, in fact, prefers two pair of socks.
- Collects Air Jordan tennis shoes.
- Among Smith's many post playing career interests are: starting a youth boxing club and opening a line of hair salons, barber shops and restaurants.

PRO: Smith enters his second NFL season looking to improve upon a productive rookie season in which he led the team in rushing attempts (238), rushing yards (976), rushing average (4.2) and rushing touchdowns (8). Detroit selected Smith with their first selection of the third round (64th overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft. He had a tremendous college career becoming Central Florida's all-time leading rusher with 4,864 yards on 905 attempts (5.4 avg) after just three seasons in which he started 34-of-36 games.

2008: Was the team leader in rushing attempts (238), rushing yards (976), rushing average (4.2) and rushing touchdowns (8). Also fourth in the league among rookie rushers in yards and his eight rushing touchdowns were the third-highest tally by a rookie in Lions history.

- Started in professional debut at Atlanta (9/7), posting 16 carries for 48 yards and one touchdown. Also added 4 receptions for 32 yards.
- Started and recorded 10 carries for 40 yards and 4 receptions for 21 yards vs. Green Bay (9/14).
- Scored second career touchdown vs. Chicago (10/5) on 12-yard run.
- Broke for a career-high 50-yard run vs. Minnesota (10/12). It was the first time a Lions' running back has done so since T.J. Duckett ran for a 53-yarder vs. Kansas City (12/23/07).
- Scored third touchdown of season on a 26-yard run. Finished the game with 10 attempts for 61 yards (6.1 avg).

- Rushed four times for 12 yards and caught a team-best seven catches for 50 yards vs. Washington (10/26).
- Had a career best 123 all purpose yards as he carried the ball 23 times for 96 yards and a touchdown and added one reception for 27 yards vs. Jacksonville (11/9/08).
- Recorded first 100-yard game of his career at Carolina (11/6), carrying the ball 24 times for 112 yards (4.7 avg.). Also added two receptions for 23 yards for a career-best 135 all purpose yards.
- 16 rushes for 86 yards (5.4 avg) vs. Tampa Bay (11/23).
- Recorded 119 all purpose yards (88 rushing, 31 receiving) including a 1-yard touchdown run at Indianapolis (12/14).
- Recorded second career 100+-yard game vs. New Orleans (12/21) on 24 carries for 111 yards and a touchdown. Smith now has seven touchdowns on the season, the third most by a Lions' rookie in team history.

COLLEGE: Established new school career rushing records with 905 carries for 4,864 yards (5.37 avg) and 45 touchdowns. His 4,864 yards rank second in Conference USA history; his 180 points scored in 2007 rank fourth on the NCAA season-record chart. During junior campaign, he set a major college record of 450 rushing attempts, topping the old mark of 405 carries by Marcus Allen (USC) in 1981 and falling just 62 yards shy of setting the NCAA season-rushing record of 2,628 yards set by former Lions great, Barry Sanders (Oklahoma State) in 1988.

- Led the nation in rushing in 2007, becoming the second player in NCAA major college annals to rush for over 2,500 yards in a season as a senior in 2007.
- All-Conference USA first-team choice and named co-Offensive Player of the Year. Set school and league records with 2,567 yards and 29 touchdowns, as his 450 carries (5.7 avg) set another NCAA season-record list. Also ranked third in the nation with 2,809 all-purpose yards, an average of 200.64 yards per game.
- As a sophomore, he was a second-team All-Conference USA selection, despite playing in just nine games.
- Led the team with 206 carries for 934 yards (4.5 avg) and seven touchdowns in 2006.
- As a true freshman, he earned Freshman All-American and Freshman All-Conference USA selection by the Gridiron Report. Set a school rushing record for freshman with 1,178 yards on 249 carries (4.7 avg) and nine touchdowns.

PERSONAL: Lettered three times in football at Southridge High School and was a two-time All-Dade County selection as both a running back and free safety, recording 53 tackles and four interceptions during his senior season.

- As a junior, he rushed for 1,125 yards and 15 touchdowns.
- He was a member of the school's Academic Honor Roll.
- Son of Pam and Mario Smith

MANE FACTS

- As a New York Giants fan growing up, Smith looked up to Giants LB Lawrence Taylor and RB Maurice Taylor because he appreciated the violent manner in which they played.
- Looking forward to an acting career following his playing days. He has played minor roles in several upcoming films (which cannot be named due to production restrictions) and is considering some spot roles on CBS's The Unit.
- While playing in Cleveland, Smith had the opportunity to secure a significant role in a movie project, but the role would have required him to move to Morocco for seven months and due to his football commitments, he had to decline.
- Prior to every game, he takes a moment to reflect on his parents, who both died in recent years, and says a prayer to honor them.
- Smith collects cars and owns six Ford Mustangs. He enjoys buying and restoring them, something he hope to make a career of after his playing days end.

PRO: Entering his 10th NFL season, Smith signed with the Lions as a free agent April 16, 2009 after spending two seasons with Arizona (2007-08). Smith has also played significant years of his career with both Cleveland (2004-06) and New Orleans (2000-03). Over the span of his nine-year career, he has seen action in 138 games with 85 starts and has recorded 85 rushing attempts for 185 yards, while also adding 67 receptions for 354 yards and three touchdowns. Smith has also blocked for a 1,000-yard rusher six times in his nine years in the league, including Edgerrin James' 1,222-yard campaign with Arizona in 2007. Other running backs he has helped lead to 1,000-yard seasons include Deuce McAllister and Ricky Williams in New Orleans and Reuben Droughns in Cleveland. Originally drafted by New Orleans in the fourth round (96th overall) of the 2000 NFL draft.

2008: Played in 15 games with six starts and recorded two receptions for 24 yards for the Cardinals. Played in all four postseason games, including Super Bowl vs. Pittsburgh where he played and started.

COLLEGE: Served as blocking back for J.R. Redmond at Arizona State in 1999 (switched from linebacker). Had 22 carries for 129 yards (5.7 avg.) with one TD, adding 11 receptions for 95 yards.

- Played linebacker in 10 games in 1998, posting six tackles.

PERSONAL: A 1996 graduate of Canyon Springs (Moreno Valley, CA) High School, where he played both running back and linebacker.

- Rushed for 1,236 yards and 19 TDs, and collected 87 solo tackles, caused eight fumbles and had three interceptions as a senior.
- Lettered in football, basketball and track.
- Has four older brothers and a sister.
- Full name Terrelle Vernon Smith. Has four children, Terrelle Jr., Hailey, Jayda and Tylor.

MANE FACTS

- Spencer's older brother, Jeremy, is serving in Iraq as a member of the U.S. Army.
- Growing up in Texas, Spencer was a big Dallas Cowboys fan and especially liked TE Jay Novacek, and attended his football camp every summer.
- Spencer doesn't like to label himself as superstitious, but has caught himself trying to repeat specific things that he's done after having a good game.
- Spent the summers during his childhood on the Gulf of Mexico, where he worked on his grandfather George's shrimping boat, based out of Seadrift, Texas.
- After starting a coin collection as a youth, he's continued to add to it over the years that he'd like to give to one of his kids some day. He also enjoys fishing and hunting.
- During the offseason Spencer spends his time in Dallas where he owns a handy man service called All-Pro Handyman.
- Something he'd like to get into after he's done playing football is working with shows on the Outdoor Channel, including fishing shows and things of that nature that do work with groups like the Paralyzed Veterans Association.
- Would like to coach at the conclusion of his NFL career.

PRO: Signed with the Lions March 9, 2009 as an unrestricted free agent after spending the previous three seasons (2006-08) with the New York Jets. In 2008 Spencer played in 14 games for the Jets and recorded 26 tackles (19 solo). In 2007 Spencer played in the season opener vs. New England and missed the remainder of the season after being placed on the reserve/non-football illness list (10/2/07). During his first season in New York (2006) Spencer played in 12 games, amassing 13 tackles (10 solo). Spencer spent the first two years of his career (2004-05) in Tennessee where he played in 23 games and recorded 27 tackles (24 solo). Originally drafted by Oakland in the sixth round (182nd overall) of the 2004 NFL Draft and was later waived September 5, 2004.

2008: Played in 14 games and garnered 26 tackles (19 solo).

COLLEGE: Three-year starter for North Texas and two-time all-conference first-team selection.

- Three-time winner of Byron Gross Award, presented to team's outstanding linebacker, who started 33-of-41 games during college career and totaled 297 tackles (154 solo), 7.0 sacks, 22 tackles for loss, one forced fumble, seven interceptions and eight passes defended.

- As senior, led Mean Green with 121 tackles and added 2.0 sacks, five tackles-for-loss and three pass breakups.
- Earned All-Sun Belt Conference honors.
- Attended Grapevine High School, where he was named first-team All-District TE and second-team All-District at OLB as a senior.
- Led Grapevine to a Class 4A Texas state title his junior year.

PERSONAL: Married to wife, Kristin and they have a son, Gage.

- Full name is Thomas Cody Spencer.

MANE FACTS

- Attended 14th annual Lions Courage House Dinner to help benefit HAVEN, Oakland County's premier center for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse.
- Participated in the 19th annual Detroit Lions Invitational golf outing and annual Tony Filippis Memorial Bocce Ball Tournament that raised more than $100,000 for Detroit Lions Charities.
- Took part in the 2008 Lions Pet Calendar which helps to raise money for the Dearborn Animal Shelter.
- Teamed up with former Harrison High grad Mill Coleman for a passing and receiving camp, called the C & S Air Assault QBR Academy.
- Growing up in Michigan, Stanton has always been a Lions' fan especially a fan of Barry Sanders, Herman Moore and Scott Mitchell.
- For each game, Stanton wears a long wrist band on his left elbow and goes around five times with tape on his right wrist for each one of his family members.
- Collects wine and has a wine cellar in his basement.
- Wants to coach college football after playing career.

PRO: Stanton saw his first game action during the regular season in 2008. He threw a touchdown pass on his first ever pass attempt while being featured in a goal-line package. After being drafted by Detroit in the second round (43rd overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft, Stanton's rookie season ended before it really began as he was placed on Reserve/Injured on August 3, 2007 after undergoing arthroscopic knee surgery during training camp. Coming out of college, he was regarded as an outstanding all-around athlete who combines accuracy as a passer with superb scrambling and running ability. In 45 games at Michigan State, Stanton appeared in 36 contests as a quarterback, starting 29 times. His pass completion percentage of 64.18 is a school career-record—only Chuck Long of Iowa (65.0%, 782 of 1,203 passes from 1981-85) has a better pass completion percentage in Big Ten Conference annals, and he boasts two of the school's three best season completion percentage marks (64.1% in 2004 and 66.7% in 2005).

2008: Served as backup. Saw action in four games. Was 9-17 for 119 yards and 1 TD.

- Inactive (third quarterback) for season opener at Atlanta (9/7), vs. Green Bay (9/14), at San Francisco (9/21) and vs. Chicago (10/5).

- Elevated to back-up quarterback at Minnesota (10/12).
- Saw extended playing time vs. Jacksonville (11/9). Completed 6-of-8 for 94 yards and his first career touchdown pass. Completed a 1-yard TD pass to TE John Owens on his first career pass attempt. He became only the third quarterback in the NFL in the past 10 years (Matt Ryan in 2008 and Michael Bishop in 2000) whose first career pass attempt was a TD pass. The only Lion to do this in team history was QB Chuck Long when he hit Leonard Thompson on a 37-yard pass on his first career attempt at Tampa Bay (11/23/86).
- Saw limited playing time in third quarter vs. Tampa Bay (11/23). Completed 2-of-6 passes for 13 yards. Left game with injury.
- Inactive vs. Tennessee (11/27) due to a concussion.
- COLLEGE: An All-American and All-Big Ten Conference preseason selection, Stanton started the first 11 games for the Spartans, completing 164-of-269 throws for 1,807 yards and 12 touchdowns and 10 interceptions as a senior.
- Earned All-Big Ten Conference honorable mention from the league's media as a junior. Started every game, ranking eighth in the nation in total offense (310.5 ypg), 10th in passing efficiency (153.4), 11th in points responsible for (15.64 ppg) and 13th in passing yardage per game (279.73).
- Semifinalist for 2005 Davey O'Brien National QB Award.
- Earned Academic All-American honors as junior at MSU and was three-time Academic All-Big Ten.
- In 2004, he was honorable mention All-Big Ten (coaches and media) and was presented Governor's Award as team's MVP.
- Redshirted as a freshman in 2002.

PERSONAL: Son of Christine and Gaylord Stanton. Born May 7, 1984 Attended Harrison (Farmington Hills, Mich.) High School, playing football for Head Coach John Herrington, a former Detroit Lions High School Coach of the Year.

- Led Harrison to back-to-back state titles in 2000-01. Named to Detroit News and Detroit Free Press Dream teams.
- the 2,822 yards and 31 touchdowns he ammasses as a senior, marked the fifth-best single-season tally in state history.
- Accounted for 259 total yards and three touchdowns in the 2001 state Division 3 championship game vs. Fruitport as Harrison capped off its perfect season (14-0) with a 28-6 victory..
- Completed 102 of 161 throws (63.4%) for 2,471 yards and 27 touchdowns as a junior. During that season, he threw for 163 yards and two scores plus ran for another touchdown in a 42-0 win over East Lansing in the 2000 state championship game.
- Also lettered in baseball as a shortstop/pitcher, batting .561 as a junior, including three homers and four triples.

MANE FACTS

- Wynn's mother was in Air Force, so they moved frequently. He was born in South Carolina, moved to Guam where he lived for two years before moving to Valdosta, Ga. where he lived for almost seven years before moving to Colorado Springs, Co. where he went to high school. He credits his Georgia roots for being an Atlanta Falcons' fan growing up.
- Big fan of Jamie Foxx, and appreciates Foxx's versatility as an entertainer.
- Wynn values the calls he makes to his daughter and mother more than any of his other game preparations.
- Wynn loves to play video games and does to unwind. His favorite is Call of Duty.
- Following his playing days, Wynn would like to stay around football and sees himself as a coach. He has already been contacted by his college coaches about working with them after his career.

PRO: Signed with Detroit December 9, 2008 and saw time in the final two games of the season for the Lions. Wynn had spent nine games in 2006 and the 2007 season with Houston after being claimed off waivers from Philadelphia November 1, 2006. In 2007 Wynn saw time in eight games and made his first career start. Wynn finished the season with five tackles (four solo) and four passes defended. He also served as a kickoff returner early in the season and finished with 22 returns for 523 yards and a long of 39 yards. Wynn was originally drafted by the Eagles in the sixth round (192nd overall) of the 2004 NFL Draft and spent three seasons (2004-06) with the club primarily as a return specialist. Wynn closed out his career in Philadelphia with 28 games played, 35 kickoff returns (667 yards), 53 punt returns (435 yards), 15 tackles (14 solo), nine passes defended, five fumble recoveries and a sack (six yards).

2008: Signed to the Lions' active roster December 9. Saw time in the final two games of the season and posted one special teams tackle.

COLLEGE: A three-year starter at cornerback who was also a dangerous returner, becoming only the second player in NCAA Division 1-A history to gain over 1,250 yards on both punt and kickoff returns in a career.

- Started 26 games and had 175 tackles, five sacks and four INTs.

PERSONAL: Grew up in Valdosta, Georgia until the age of 13 when he moved to Colorado Springs, Colo. Led Rampart High School in Colorado Springs to the Class 4A state title in 1998.

- Scored five touchdowns in that game as a senior and was featured in Sports Illustrated's "Faces in the Crowd" page.

- Full name Dexter Maurice Wynn.

As the new pro football franchise took root in Detroit, owner G.A. Richards called for an original fight song to be written for the Lions. In the late 1930s, Wayne State University director of bands Graham T. Overgard, who was also the Lions' director of entertainment, penned the lyrics and music for "Gridiron Heroes-The Victory Song of the Detroit Lions." The sound of "Gridiron Heroes" has become one of the NFL's oldest and most popular songs today, and it is still played after each Lions' score.

*(Verse) Hail the colors Blue and Silver let them wave.
Sing the song and cheer the Gridiron Heroes brave,
Fighting for fame, winning the game.
Dashing to victory as they go.
(Chorus) Forward down the field,
A charging team that will not yield.
And when the Blue and Silver wave,
Stand and cheer the brave.
Rah, Rah, Rah!
Go hard win the game.
With honor you will keep your fame
Down the field and gain, A Lion victory!*

BRANDON PETTIGREW

Tight End
Oklahoma State
Ht: 6-5
Born: 2/23/85
Draft: '09, R1b (20)-Det

Rookie
Wt: 265
Tyler, Texas

84

COLLEGE: Regarded by many as the most complete tight end to enter the 2009 NFL Draft draft, the Lions selected Pettigrew in the first round (20th overall) to become just the second tight end in school history to hear his name called in the first round of the draft, joining Reuben Gant (1974, Buffalo). Pettigrew ended his collegiate career ranked ninth overall on the school's receiving yardage record list with 1,450 and averaged more than 54 knockdown blocks per season for the Cowboys. Pettigrew has not only proven to be a clutch short-area receiver, but an outstanding blocker. A physical open-field runner, he has gained more than 40 percent of his yardage after the catch. He also proved to be an excellent pass catcher, becoming the first tight end in school history to amass more than 100 receptions (112) in a career. Pettigrew enrolled at Oklahoma State in 2004, spending the season as a red-shirt after turning down offers from Texas A&M, Texas Christian, Southern Methodist and Arkansas. In 2005, he started nine games, including the last seven, for the Cowboys. He gained 128 yards with a touchdown on 11 catches (11.6 avg). He delivered 30 knockdowns and also recorded a solo tackle.

2008: Had just eleven receptions through the team's first seven games, but finished with a career-high 42 catches for 472 yards (11.2 avg), despite not finding the end zone. 23 of his receptions produced first downs (54.76%), as he converted 4-of-9 third-down (44.44%) and 1-of-2 fourth-down plays.

- All-American Dream Team and All-Big Twelve Conference selection by The NFL Draft Report.
- Rated the best tight end prospect in the country by that scouting information service.
- Finalist for John Mackey Award, given to nation's top tight end.
- Three of his catches were for 20 yards or longer, as he also had key receptions to set up five scoring drives.
- 11 catches came in red zone, including eight on goal-line plays.
- 43 knockdowns, including eight touchdown-resulting blocks.

2007: Started all thirteen games, ranking third on the team with 35 receptions for 540 yards (15.4 avg) and four touchdowns. Added one solo tackle in the Oklahoma clash and led the conference's tight ends. Also paced the Cowboys with ten touchdown-resulting blocks, as his 72 knockdowns were a league-high for tight ends.

- All-Big Twelve Conference first-team selection.

2006: Started all thirteen games, ranking third on the team with 24 receptions for 310 yards (12.9 avg), including four touchdowns. Also recorded six tackles (3 solos) and recovered a fumble. Registered 71 knockdowns that included eight touchdown-resulting blocks..

- All-Big Twelve Conference honorable mention.

2005: Played in every game, starting nine contests, including the final seven. Finished fifth on the team with eleven receptions for 128 yards (11.6 avg).

- Scored his only touchdown on a 3-yard reception vs. Baylor.

- Posted 30 knockdowns and four touchdown-resulting blocks.

2004: Redshirted as a freshman.

HIGH SCHOOL: Attended Robert E. Lee (Tyler, Tex.) High School, earning All-State honors in 2003.

- Despite playing primarily as a blocker, he was rated as the best tight end in Texas by numerous recruiting services.
- All-District and All-East Texas pick. Also played defensive line.

PERSONAL: Son of Elaine and Henry Pettigrew. Born February 23, 1985. Hometown is Tyler, Texas.

- Education major at Oklahoma State.

DEEP IN THE HEART OF TEXAS

The Detroit Lions have a deep history of outstanding players who have Texas roots. Five of the teams All-Time team played college football in the Lone Star State, including : QB Bobby Layne (Texas), S Yale Lary (Texas A&M), RB Doak Walker (Southern Methodist), G Harley Sewell (Texas) and DT Doug English (Texas). Lane, Lary and Walker are all members of the pro Football Hall of Fame. Joining those stars on the franchise's all-time team are Texas prepsters CB Dick Lane (Austin) and RB Billy Sims (Hooks).

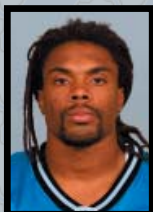

In fact, those roots go back even deeper with Layne and Walker who grew up only a few blocks apart in Dallas, Texas, and were friends as children. Both players started in the backfield at Highland Park High School in 1943. After stints in the military during World War II, Layne went to Texas University while Walker played for rival Southern Methodist University. The two were reunited when they joined the Lions in 1950.

That connection has been revisited with the Lions drafting QB Matthew Stafford with the first overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft. Stafford also is from Highland Park, Texas and went to the same high school as Layne and Walker. He was joined in the first round of this year's draft by another Texas prep star when the Lions drafted TE Brandon Pettigrew who is from Tyler, Texas.

The Lions' current roster with connections to the Lonestar State:

- Texas Tech: C Dylan Gandy (Harlingen), G Manny Ramirez (Houston), G Daniel Loper (Houston)
- Texas A&M: LS Don Muhlbach (Lufkin)
- Texas Christian: RB Aaron Brown (Katy)
- North Texas: LB Cody Spencer (Port Lavaca)
- Others Texas prepsters: TE Brandon Pettigrew (Tyler), QB Matthew Stafford (Highland Park)

COLLEGE: A good athlete with outstanding size and bulk and long arms that will look to be a large presence on the Lions defensive front. One of the best small college prospects from his year's draft class. Quick and agile. Stout at the point of attack. Jolts blockers with good hand punch, breaks down well, and easily redirects to the action. Moves well on his feet, quickly changes direction, and strings plays out to the flanks. Fights throughout the play, flashes power, and works to get involved in the action. Was a four-year starter for the Tigers, and he set the school record with 44.5 tackles for loss. During his freshman and sophomore seasons, he played defensive tackle and then was moved to defensive end for his final two seasons at Stillman. Named first-team All-SIAC in 2007 and 2008. Hails from the same program that produced Brian Witherspoon (signed by Jacksonville) in 2008.

2008: In his second year at defensive end, he earned first-team all SIAC honors. During his senior season, he played in 11 games and registered career highs with 59 tackles for loss, 15.5 sacks and 7.5 sacks.

- Scored on a two-point pass play.
- Knocked down seven passes and recorded three fumble recoveries.

2007: Was moved to defensive end as a junior by new head coach Greg Thompson. In his first season at defensive end, he was a first-team all-SIAC selection after collecting 52 tackles, 4.5 sacks and 14 tackles for loss.

- Also caused four fumbles.
- Took an interception back 38 yards for a touchdown after dropping back into coverage as a giant middle linebacker.

2006: As a sophomore, he played in 10 games and garnered 41 tackles, two sacks and nine tackles for loss.

2005: Following a red-shirt season, Hill was a defensive tackle and made a splash with 39 tackles, 3.5 sacks and 6 tackles for loss in the nine games he played.

- He also caught a pass as a tight end for a 16-yard touchdown.

HIGH SCHOOL: Graduated from West Blockton (Ala.) High School where he was selected all-Conference and All-area.

- He was a versatile player as a prepster, playing both offensive defensive line along with tight end, linebacker and even place kicker.

- Was recruited by some schools to play basketball, and he was a catcher on the school's baseball team.

PERSONAL: Born November 8, 1986.

- He and two college teammates were heroic in their efforts to save a man from a burning house. COLLEGE: Selected in the sixth round (162nd overall), Brown joins the Lions after closing out an impressive four-year collegiate career at TCU with 487 rushing attempts for 2,596 yards and 20 touchdowns, while also adding 81 receptions for 857 yards and five touchdowns. As a senior in 2008, Brown was placed second on TCU with 445 yards rushing, moving him into 10th place on the Horned Frogs' career list with 2,494 yards. Brown topped TCU with 1,042 all purpose yards despite sitting out the opening three games. Despite being plagued with injuries in 2007, Brown was still placed second on the Frogs with 490 yard rushing (4.6 per carry) while ranking fourth with 24 receptions. Also averaged 24.6 yards on 14 kickoff returns for the year. In 2006, Brown was TCU's top rusher with 801 yards and placed third in the league (66.8 yards per game). His 5.2 per carry average was the best among the MWC's top-eight ground gainers. As a freshman in 2005, Brown was named the Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year and an honorable-mention Freshman All-American as a true Freshman. Posted the highest per carry average (5.9) among the MWC's top 10 rushers. Closed the year with a 7-yard scoring run in the Houston Bowl win over Iowa State. Placed eighth in the league with his 758 yards, all coming in the last 10 contests (75.8 avg.). Ranked 12th nationally among true freshmen in rushing yards and in a tie for sixth with his three 100-yard games.

2008: Placed second on TCU with 445 yards rushing, moving him into 10th place on the Horned Frogs' career list with 2,494 yards. Topped TCU with 1,042 all-purpose yards despite sitting out the opening three games. Returned a kickoff 85 yards for a touchdown against Wyoming for TCU's first kick return for a score since.

- Honorable-mention All-Mountain West Conference as a return specialist.
- Ranked second in the nation with his 31.9 kickoff return average.
- Had 75- and 56-yard kickoff returns against Oklahoma and BYU, respectively.
- Posted his sixth career 100-yard rushing game with 106 yards on 15 carries at Utah. Included in that total was a season-best 41-yard carry for his longest run from scrimmage since a 45-yard effort at Colorado State on Nov. 25, 2006.
- Had a season-best four receptions for 60 yards in the 48-7 win at SMU.
- Added 51 yards on the ground against the Mustangs in his first game of the season.
- Rushed for 66 and 60 yards, respectively, in victories over San Diego State and UNLV. Scored on a 23-yard carry versus the Rebels.
- Had a 6-yard touchdown run in the 13-7 win at Colorado State.
- Tied for seventh on the Frogs with 10 receptions on the year.

2007: Was hampered by injuries throughout the campaign. Still placed second on the Frogs with 490 yards rushing (4.6 per carry) while ranking fourth with 24 receptions. Also averaged 24.6 yards on 14 kickoff returns for the year. Had season-long efforts of 42 and 43 yards against BYU and UNLV, respectively. Totaled 995 all-purpose yards on the season.

- Preseason Mountain West Conference Player of the Year who saw his season come to a close with an injury against UNLV in the next-to-last regular-season contest.
- Became the 12th player in TCU history to rush for over 2,000 career yards. Sidelined in the first quarter of the season-opening 27-0 win over Baylor.
- Earned MWC Offensive Player of the Week honors the following game when he ran for 124 yards, his fifth career 100-yard game, to go with three receptions in a 24-12 victory over Colorado State.
- Rushed for 91 yards while totaling a season-best five receptions and two key touchdowns as TCU rallied from a 14-point deficit for a 38-36 win at Stanford. His 2-yard scoring reception on a fourth-and-goal with less than 10 minutes to play evened the game.
- Equaled a season-best with five receptions to go with 59 yards rushing against Utah.
- Posted four catches at Wyoming.
- Had at least one reception in eight of his nine games, the lone exception being the UNLV contest when he exited early due to injury. Did score on a 10-yard run versus the Rebels.

2006: TCU's top rusher (801 yards) while placing third in the league (66.8 yards per game). His 5.2 per carry average was the best among the MWC's top-eight ground gainers. His team-high nine rushing touchdowns ranked first among the league's top-10 rushers. Had a team-best 10 touchdowns overall. Second on the Frogs in receptions (34) and receiving yards (455). The 34 catches were the most by a Horned Frog running back since Basil Mitchell totaled 40 in 1996.

- Had at least one reception in all but one game.
- Third in the MWC in all-purpose yards per game (116.8).
- Totaled 285 all-purpose yards in 45-14 win at Colorado State.
- Rushed for career-high 166 yards and three TDs, while adding three catches for 48 yards and two kickoff returns for 71 yards.

- Third-quarter 84-yard touchdown reception from Marcus Jackson provided the go-ahead points in the 17-7 win at Baylor. It also enabled him to become the first TCU running back since 1994 (Andre Davis, 109 yards, vs. Tulane) to go over 100 yards receiving.

2005: Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year and an honorable-mention Freshman All-American as a true Freshman. Posted the highest per carry average (5.9) among the MWC's top 10 rushers. Closed the year with a 7-yard scoring run in the Houston Bowl win over Iowa State. Averaged 80.0 yards on the ground in the final four games. Placed eighth in the league with his 758 yards, all coming in the last 10 contests (75.8 avg.). Ranked 12th nationally among true freshmen in rushing yards and in a tie for sixth with his three 100-yard games.

- MWC Offensive Player of the Week after bursting on the scene with a season-high 163 yards on 17 carries in a nationally-televised Thursday night 23-20 overtime win versus Utah.

- Rushed for 129 yards versus New Mexico and 105 with three touchdowns against UNLV. His 73-yard carry against the Lobos gave the Frogs their longest run from scrimmage since 2001. His three receiving touchdowns were second on the team. All six of his rushing touchdowns on the year came in the last five contests.

HIGH SCHOOL: Played in one game as a senior at Mayde Creek High School. Coached in football by Joe Sheffy. Ran a 4.440-yard dash and recorded a 10.45 100-meter dash time on the track, one of the fastest prep times in the nation in 2004.

LYDON MURTHA

Tackle
Nebraska

Ht: 6-7

Born: 11/13/85

Draft: '09, R7a (228)-Det

Rookie

Wt: 325

Hutchinson, Minn.

78

COLLEGE: As a fixture on the Husker offensive line for all four seasons in 40 games played with 23 starts, Murtha adds bulk and toughness to the Lions' offensive line. In 2009, Murtha was a large part of Nebraska's success despite injuries limiting him to eight starts. He helped propel the Huskers to top 20 national rankings in total offense and passing. Murtha and his line mates also allowed quarterback Joe Ganz to set Nebraska school records for season passing yards and total offense. Despite missing four games, Murtha's play was recognized as an honorable-mention All-Big 12 choice by the Associated Press.

2008: Was instrumental in Nebraska's success of averaging better than 210 rushing yards per game over the second half of the regular season and scored 30 or more points 10 times in 2008. Quarterback Joe Ganz also set Nebraska school records for season passing yards and total offense.

- All-Big 12 choice by the Associated Press.

2007: Started the first eight games at right tackle before being sidelined by injury for the final four games.

- Nebraska averaged 468.2 yards per game, its best offensive total in 10 seasons, while averaging a school-record 323.8 passing yards per contest.

2006: Played in all 14 games, and drew starting assignments at left tackle against Missouri, Colorado and Auburn. He was part of a Nebraska offensive line that made major improvements and helped the Huskers rank 14th nationally in total offense and in the top 25 in all four major offensive statistical categories.

- In addition to his play at tackle, Murtha also was a member of the Huskers' PAT and field goal units.

2005: Murtha played in nine games, including three starts at left tackle. Provided depth before moving into the starting lineup against Oklahoma. The play of the offensive line helped Nebraska post the then top two passing efforts in school history in 2005.

2004: Murtha was looked at to possibly play as a true freshman, but suffered a leg injury early in fall camp and subsequently redshirted.

HIGH SCHOOL: Murtha joined high school teammate Nate Swift in becoming the first players from Minnesota to sign with Nebraska since 1995.

- In 2003, Murtha helped Hutchinson High School and Coach Andy Rostberg to a 9-4 record and a state runner-up finish in Class 4A.

- Murtha was a first-team all-state selection by several outlets, including the Associated Press. He was an all-metro pick in the Minneapolis area each of his final two seasons and was named the Minnesota Gatorade Player of the Year in 2003.

- A three-year starter, he helped Hutchinson to the state semifinals as a junior in 2002, after making a trip to the playoffs as a sophomore in 2001.

- Was one of three 2004 Husker recruits who participated in the U.S. Army All-American Game.

- Also one of Minnesota's top shot putters. In his first year of track competition in 2003, he finished third at the state meet with a throw of 57-6, before finishing fifth in 2004.

PERSONAL: Son of Bill and Kim Murtha, Lydon was born in Homestead, Fla., on Nov. 13, 1985.

- Majored in economics, and was a first-team academic All-Big 12 pick in 2007. Also a four-time Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll selection.

- Murtha has volunteered his time with local hospital visits and at the Legacy Retirement Center.

SUMMARY

The Lions dropped their first decision of the season, 34-21, at Atlanta. The Falcons opened up strong in the first quarter as rookie QB Matt Ryan orchestrated a 3-play, 74-yard drive, capped by a 62-yard touchdown strike to WR Michael Jenkins for the early 7-0 lead, and the first of three consecutive Falcons scoring drives. On the following Atlanta drive, RB Michael Turner broke down the field for a 66-yard touchdown run to put the Falcons up 14-0. Turner increased the lead, 21-0, two drives later as he ran in for a 5-yard touchdown with 3:25 remaining in the first quarter. The Lions' responded in the second quarter as QB Jon Kitna and RB Kevin Smith led the offense down the field in a 12-play, 59-yard drive. Kitna connected on 4-of-4 passes for 49 yards and Smith rushed five times for 16 yards, including a 3-yard touchdown scamper, marking the first touchdown of his NFL career: and to make the score 21-7. On the following drive the Lions' defense forced an Atlanta three-and-out as DE Dewayne White sacked Ryan for a loss of five yards on third-and-ten at the Falcons 38-yard line. With 0:55 remaining in the second quarter, the Lions' produced an offensive spark in a 4-play, 67-yard drive, including a 38-yard pass completion from Kitna to WR Calvin Johnson to set up a 21-yard touchdown strike in the corner of the end zone to WR Roy Williams ending the first half, 21-14. In Detroit's first possession of the third quarter, the Falcons defense put a halt to the Lions' potential scoring drive as a Kitna pass intended for Williams was intercepted by S Lawyer Milloy at the Atlanta 13-yard line. The Falcons capitalized on the pick with a K Jason Elam 50-yard field goal, giving Atlanta the 24-14 lead. After a Detroit three-and-out, the Falcons offense scored again on a 5-play, 68-yard drive, highlighted by a Ryan 46-yard pass completion to WR Roddy White which set the stage for a RB Jerious Norwood 10-yard touchdown rush and the 31-14 score. The Lions scored their final points of the game on the following drive as Kitna connected with TE Casey FitzSimmons on a 1-yard touchdown pass to cap the 8-play, 75-yard drive. In the first drive of the fourth quarter, Turner rushed three times for 33 yards, including a 7-yard run into the end zone; however, the touchdown was nullified due to an offensive holding penalty. Two plays later Elam hit a 25-yard field goal through the uprights to finalize the score and their 34-21 victory.

SUMMARY

Despite overcoming a 21-point deficit, the Lions fell in their home opener, 48-25, to the Green Bay Packers. In the game's opening drive, the Lions' forced a Packers' three-and-out. The Packers' offense responded with three consecutive touchdown drives. On their first scoring drive, the Packers marched down the field in a 15-play, 86-yard drive capped by a 9-yard QB Aaron Rodgers touchdown pass to WR James Jones for the 7-0 lead. With 11:11 left in the second quarter, the Packers scored again as Rodgers connected with WR Donald Driver on a 2-yard pass for the 14-0 score. After a Lions' three-and-out, Rodgers connected on a 29-yard pass to WR Jordy Nelson for the 21-0 advantage. After forcing a Packers three-and-out, Kitna connected on 8-of-11 passes for 76 yards, including a long 22-yarder to WR Roy Williams to set up the first Lions' score as K Jason Hanson connected on a 38-yarder to end the first half, 21-3. Hanson was able to add to the Lions' score on the first drive of the third quarter as he capped the 10-play, 43-yard drive with a 49-yard field goal. The Lions' defense forced another Packers' three-and-out on the following drive as DE Dewayne White forced a sack-fumble for a loss of five yards and recovered the ball on Green Bay's 30-yard line. Hanson capitalized on the turnover as he nailed a 53-yard field goal to tighten the score, 21-9. Packers' K Mason Crosby then connected on a 25-yard field goal for the 24-9 lead. Kitna opened up the fourth quarter with a 38-yard touchdown pass to WR Calvin Johnson to put the Lions within two scores of the lead. On the next drive, Packers' P Derrick Frost fumbled the ball out of bounds in the end zone for a safety, handing the Lions two points and making the score 24-18. With 7:51 remaining in the quarter, Kitna connected with Johnson on a 47-yard touchdown, and their first lead, 25-24. The Lions' lead was short lived, as Crosby connected on a 39-yard field goal on the following drive. With 5:17 remaining, a Kitna pass intended for Johnson was intercepted by CB Charles Woodson on the Lions' 40-yard line. The Packers capitalized on the pick as RB Brandon Jackson ran in a 19-yard touchdown. Kitna attempted a short pass to WR Mike Furrey on the next drive; however, it was picked off again by Woodson who ran it back 41 yards for the touchdown. With 2:15 left, Kitna threw another interception, this time picked off by S Nick Collins who took it in for a 42-yard touchdown and the final 48-25 score.

SUMMARY

After struggling to get anything going against the San Francisco 49ers, the Detroit Lions fell, 31-13, heading into their bye week. The 49ers opened up the scoring with 2:21 remaining in the first quarter as RB Frank Gore broke for a 33-yard run to the Detroit six-yard line to set up a six-yard QB J.T. O'Sullivan touchdown pass to WR Isaac Bruce for the early 7-0 lead. After a Detroit three-and-out, the 49ers scored again two minutes into the second quarter as Gore carried the ball three times for 11 yards, including a 4-yard touchdown for the 14-0 score. On the following drive Lions' K Jason Hanson gave Detroit its first score of the afternoon on a 44-yard field goal for the 14-3 score with 7:31 remaining in the first half. San Francisco responded to the score in a 3-play, 72-yard drive as O'Sullivan connected with WR Bryant Johnson and WR Josh Morgan for back-to-back long passes of 25 and 18 yards respectively to set up a 24-yard touchdown strike to TE Delanie Walker for the 21-3 lead. After another Detroit three-and-out, neither team was able to score again as they headed off the field at the half. In the Lions' first drive of the third quarter QB Jon Kita tried to get the offense moving as he connected on two consecutive 15-yard passes to TE Michael Gaines and WR Calvin Johnson; however, the drive was cut short as CB Tarell Brown intercepted a Kitna pass intended for WR Mike Furrey at the Detroit 50-yard line. The 49ers attempted to capitalize on the turnover on a K Joe Nedney 43-yard field goal attempt, but the kick went wide right to keep the score 21-3. After back-to-back three-and-outs from both teams, the Lions scored as RB Rudi Johnson broke for a 27-yard run to help set up a Hanson 51-yard field goal with 1:48 remaining in the third quarter for the 21-6 score. San Francisco opened up the fourth quarter with a 12-play, 77-yard drive, capped by a CB Allen Rossum 1-yard touchdown run and the 28-6 score. On the following drive, Kitna orchestrated a 9-play, 78-yard drive highlighted by a 34-yard touchdown strike to R. Johnson for the 31-13 score. On the following drive, Nedney put up the final points of the game on a 25-yard field goal for the 31-13 score. On the final Lions drive Kitna was sacked shortly after the two-minute warning by LB Parys Haralson for a loss of six yards and was injured on the play. QB Dan Orlovsky stepped in with 1:50 remaining in the game; however, the 49ers defense made another big play as DE Justin Smith intercepted a pass intended for R. Johnson to seal San Francisco's 31-13 victory.

SUMMARY

In a lopsided contest, the Detroit Lions dropped their fourth decision of the season to the Chicago Bears, 34-7, at Ford Field. The Bears scored on their first drive of the game as QB Kyle Orton connected on 3-of-3 passes for 21 yards and RB Matt Forte rushed five times for 21 yards; however, DE Jared DeVries slowed their momentum as he sacked Orton on second-and-15 at the Detroit 23-yard line to hold the Bears to a K Robbie Gould 37-yard field goal and the 3-0 lead. The Lions attempted to create an offensive spark at the start of the second quarter as RB Rudi Johnson made a 15-yard run to the Detroit 25-yard line and QB Jon Kitna connected on a 10-yard pass with WR Roy Williams; however, on first-and-10 on the their own 35-yard line, DE Alex Brown forced a sack-fumble on Kitna and DE Mark Anderson came up with the ball at the Detroit 24-yard line. The Bears were unable to capitalize as they went three-and-out on the following drive. Two drives later the Bears found the end zone as Orton connected on a short 9-yard pass to Forte for the touchdown and the 10-0 advantage. On the following drive the Lions' executed the no-huddle offense as Kitna connected with Williams on two consecutive 13-yard passes, but they were unable to get anything going. The Bears scored again shortly after the two-minute warning as Orton connected with WR Devin Hester for two deep passes of 32 and 34 yards respectively before connecting with Hester for the 12-yard touchdown and the 17-0 score at the half. With 11:20 remaining in the third quarter Chicago increased their lead as Orton connected on 4-of-7 passes for 71 yards and Forte ran up the middle for the 1-yard touchdown and the 24-0 score. On the following drive Lions' QB Dan Orlovsky stepped in for Kitna and connected with FB Jerome Felton on a 5-yard pass. On the following play an Orlovsky pass intended for Williams on third-and-three was intercepted by CB Charles Tillman at the Detroit 26-yard line and returned 26 yards for the touchdown, putting the Lions down 31-0 with 10:10 remaining in the third quarter. On the following drive the momentum switched in the Lions' favor as S Daniel Bullocks forced a fumble on Hester on the punt return and CB Ramzee Robinson came up with the recovery at the Chicago 22-yard line. The Lions capitalized on the turnover as RB Kevin Smith ran the ball in 12 yards for the 31-7 score. With 12:02 remaining in the game, Gould connected on a 45-yard field goal to give the Bears' the final 34-7 lead. On the following drive, Orlovsky connected on 4-of-5 passes for 36 yards, including a 25-yard pass to Williams; however, they were unable to make it into the endzone for the remainder of the game and the Bears took the 34-7 victory.

SUMMARY

Despite a strong defensive performance, the Detroit Lions fell in a heartbreaker, 12-10, at Minnesota dropping to 0-5 on the season. The defensive unit recorded four sacks in the first quarter, the first time to do so since the Lions played at Seattle (9/12/93). The first of the four sacks came from DE Dewayne White who sacked QB Gus Frerotte for a loss of nine yards on first-and-10 at the Minnesota 45-yard line. Four drives later LB Ernie Sims and DT Cory Redding recorded a split-sack on Frerotte for a loss of six yards on second-and-third at the Detroit 41-yard line with 3:24 remaining in the first quarter. Five plays after that, the defense came up with another big play as S Daniel Bullocks forced a RB Adrian Peterson fumble and S Dwight Smith came up with the recovery putting Detroit on their own 1-yard line. QB Dan Orlovsky attempted to get something going for the Lions' offense; however, he was sacked out of bounds in the end zone for the safety by DE Jared Allen, handing the Vikings their first points of the game with the 2-0 score. The Lions responded with 0:11 remaining in the first quarter as LB Paris Lenon took Frerotte down for a loss of six yards. The third quarter opened up with back-to-back three-and-outs from Minnesota and Detroit. With 4:48 remaining in the second quarter the Lions attempted to get into the end zone in a 6-play, 48-yard drive highlighted by a RB Kevin Smith 50-yard run, the longest of his professional career, to the Minnesota 12-yard line; however, the Lions were unable to score a touchdown and settled for a K Jason Hanson 40-yard field goal at the two-minute warning. With 8:32 remaining in the third quarter, the Lions scored again as Orlovsky orchestrated a 10-play, 69-yard drive highlighted by a 37-yard pass to WR Calvin Johnson and capped with a 12-yard strike to Johnson in the end zone for the 10-2 Detroit lead. The Vikings attempted to respond to the score on the following drive; however, Lions' CB Leigh Bodden intercepted a Frerotte pass intended for WR Aundrae Allison at the Detroit 45-yard line for a gain of two yards. The Lions attempted to capitalize on the pick, but went three-and-out. Minnesota quickly scored on the following drive as Frerotte connected with WR Bernard Berrian for the 86-yard touchdown to put the game within a point at 10-9. The fourth quarter began with back-to-back turnovers as Lions' DE Corey Smith forced a Peterson fumble and Bodden came up with the recovery at the Detroit 38-yard line. On the first play of the next drive Orlovsky threw a 32-yard pass to Johnson; however, DE Ray Edwards forced the fumble and LB Ben Leber came up with the ball. Detroit challenged the play, but the call was upheld. On the following drive Vikings K Ryan Longwell attempted a 38-yard field goal to gain the lead; however, DE Jared DeVries blocked the kick with 10:09 remaining in the fourth quarter to keep the Detroit 10-9 lead. Minnesota took final possession with 4:41 remaining in the game and drove down to the Detroit 9-yard line for Longwell to kick a 26-yard field goal with 0:12 left securing the 12-10 Vikings victory.

SUMMARY

After a near come-from-behind win, the Detroit Lions dropped a 28-21 loss at the Houston Texans, falling to 0-6 on the season. Houston scored the first of their two first quarter touchdowns in the game's opening drive as QB Matt Schaub connected on 4-of-4 passes for 57 yards and RB Steve Slaton broke for a 37-yard run. Schaub capped the 7-play, 75-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown pass to TE Owen Daniels for the 7-0 lead. After a Lions' three-and-out on the following drive, the Texans scored again as RB Ahman Green ran in for a 1-yard touchdown and the 14-0 score. Houston increased their lead to 21-0 with 12:18 remaining in the second quarter as Schaub connected on 2-of-2 passes for 36 yards and Slaton carried the ball three times for 15 yards, including a 1-yard touchdown run. The Lions put their first points on the board on the following drive as K Jason Hanson connected on a 54-yard field goal setting the score at 21-3. On the ensuing drive the Lions' defense stopped the Texans shortly after the two-minute warning as DE Dewayne White recorded a Schaub sack-fumble for a loss of 1-yard and DE Jared DeVries came up with the recovery at the Detroit 9-yard line. With :04 remaining in the half the QB Dan Orlovsky connected with WR Calvin Johnson on a 58-yard pass to put the Lions at the Houston 8-yard line; however they were unable to capitalize on the turnover and went three-and-out at the start of the third quarter. On the ensuing drive the Texans went three-and-out as DT Cory Redding sacked Schaub for a loss of 12 yards on third-and-10. The Lions' found the end zone on the next drive as RB Kevin Smith rushed twice for 47 yards, including a 26 yard touchdown and the 21-10 score. Houston responded on the following drive as Schaub connected on 8-of-8 passes for 67 yards, including a 1-yard touchdown pass to Daniels and the 28-10 score. The Lions' made a huge play on first-and-10 with 11:56 left in the fourth quarter as Orlovsky connected with C. Johnson on a 96-yard touchdown pass to cap the 1-play, 96-yard drive. After a Lions' failed attempt at a two-point conversion, they got a second chance after a defensive pass interference call and Orlovsky hit C. Johnson for the two-point conversion and the 28-18 score. On the Lions' next drive Hanson nailed his second 54-yard field goal on the day, the third time in his career to do so, narrowing the score to 28-21 with 4:21 remaining on the clock. Despite the Lions' efforts, the Texans were able to keep the ball within their possession for the remainder of the game and came out with the 28-21 victory.

SUMMARY

Despite a first half lead the Detroit Lions ultimately fell, 25-17, to the Redskins at home dropping to 0-7 on the season. The Redskins were first to score in the game's opening drive as QB Jason Campbell connected on 4-of-4 passes for 44 yards to the Detroit 15-yard line. The Lions' defense was able to limit the Redskins to a K Shaun Suisham 25-yard field goal and the 3-0 lead. With 1:42 in the first quarter the Lions were able to score as QB Dan Orlovsky connected with WR Calvin Johnson on a 31-yard pass to the Washington 11-yard line. On the following play RB Rudi Johnson ran in for an 11-yard touchdown and the 7-3 lead. The Lions scored again shortly after as K Jason Hanson connected on a 43-yard field goal with 10:32 remaining in the first half for the 10-3 score. The Redskins attempted to respond to the score on the following drive; however, Suisham's 50-yard attempt went wide right and kept the score at 10-3. After a Lions' three-and-out, the Lions were able to record two sacks on Campbell as DE Dewayne White and DT Cory Redding split a sack for a loss of nine yards on first-and-10 at the Washington 26-yard line. Five plays later with 0:22 remaining in the first half, White recorded the second sack of the drive for a loss of six yards on first-and-20; however, with 0:04 remaining Suisham connected on a 47-yard field goal for the 10-6 score at the half. With 11:07 remaining in the third quarter the Redskins were able to score again as Suisham nailed 45-yarder field goal to make it a one point game, 10-9. The Redskins took their first lead of the game two drives later as Campbell connected with WR Santana Moss on a 50-yard pass for the touchdown and the 16-10 score. The Redskins were able to find the end zone again at the start of the fourth quarter as Moss returned an 8-yard punt for the touchdown. Campbell attempted the two-point conversion on a pass to RB Clinton Portis, but the pass failed and they stayed with the 22-10 lead. On the following drive the Lions scored as Orlovsky connected on 8-of-9 passes for 81 yards, including a 17-yard touchdown pass to Calvin Johnson for the 22-17 score. On the following drive the Lions' attempted to create a turnover as White recorded a sack-fumble on Campbell on third-and-10 for a loss of eight yards; however, it was recovered by T Jon Jansen at the Detroit 24-yard line and Suisham connected on a 42-yard field goal at the two-minute warning for the 25-17 score. The Lions' attempted to score again in the final minutes of the game, but were unable to muster up any final points and the Redskins left with the 25-17 victory.

SUMMARY

Despite entering the second half with a 23-13 lead, the Detroit Lions were unable to hold on as they dropped a 27-23 decision at Chicago. The Bears defense took an early stand as S Mike Brown intercepted a QB Dan Orlovsky pass intended for WR Calvin Johnson. Brown ran the pick back for a 51-yard touchdown; however, the Lions challenged the play and the call was reversed, negating the score. The Bears were still able to capitalize on the turnover as K Robbie Gould was able to connect on a 36-yard field goal for the 3-0 lead. After a Lions' three-and-out the Bears scored again as QB Kyle Orton orchestrated a 10-play, 58-yard drive capped by a 5-yard touchdown run for the Bears' 10-0 lead with 4:40 remaining in the first quarter. The Lions came back in the second quarter as the Lions drove down to the Chicago 1-yard line and rookie RB Kevin Smith ran in for the 1-yard score. K Jason Hanson attempted the PAT; however, due to slippery field conditions he was unable to keep his footing and the kick was blocked. On the ensuing kick, Lions' LB Alex Lewis forced a fumble and a fumble recovery on WR Devin Hester at the Chicago 17 yard-line. The Lions quickly capitalized on the turnover as Orlovsky connected with C. Johnson on a 17-yard touchdown and their first lead of the game, 13-10. After a Bears' three-and-out, the Lions scored again as Orlovsky hit WR Shaun McDonald on a 14-yard touchdown pass with 6:55 remaining in the first half, giving Detroit a solid 10 point advantage. The Bears' responded on the following drive as Gould was able to nail a 41-yard field goal for the 20-13 score. Shortly after the two-minute warning, Hanson was able to redeem himself as he connected on a 52-yarder, his fifth 50-yarder of the season, putting the Lions ahead 23-13. Chicago attempted to score again before the end of the first half; but with 0:40 on the clock DT Cory Redding sacked Orton on third-and-two. Orton was injured on the play and would not return to the game. With 7:05 remaining in the third quarter Bears' QB Rex Grossman connected with WR Rashied Davis on a 6-yard touchdown for the 23-20 score. The start of the fourth quarter saw back-to-back interceptions as an Orlovsky pass intended for C. Johnson was picked off by S Craig Steltz; however, Lions' DE Dewayne White picked off a Grossman pass intended for TE Greg Olsen after DE Jared DeVries tipped the ball. The Bears were still able to get the last score as Grossman ran in a 1-yard touchdown with 5:44 remaining in the game and the Chicago defense held on for the 27-23 victory.

SUMMARY

The Detroit Lions lost a 38-14 decision at Ford Field to the Jacksonville Jaguars and dropped to 0-9 on the season. On the Lions' opening drive of the game veteran QB Daunte Culpepper, who made his Lions' debut, had a pass intended for WR Calvin Johnson intercepted by CB Rashean Mathis on third-and-eight at the Lions' 23-yard line. The Jaguars capitalized on the turnover on the ensuing drive as K Josh Scobee connected on a 34-yard field goal for the early 3-0 lead. After back-to-back three-and-outs from both teams, the Lions were able to put points on the board as Culpepper connected with Johnson on a 51-yard pass followed by a 27-yard pass to RB Kevin Smith to put the Lions on the Jacksonville 7-yard line. QB Drew Stanton entered the game with 4:18 remaining in the quarter at the Jacksonville 3-yard line and capped the 9-play, 81-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown pass to TE John Owens for the 7-3 lead. In the second quarter Jaguars' RB Maurice Jones-Drew ran in the first of three scores on a 6-yard run with 14:20 remaining in the first half. After a Lions' three-and-out, QB David Garrard connected on 3-of-4 passes for 42 yards and RB Fred Taylor carried the ball five times for 39 yards to set up a Jones-Drew 1-yard touchdown for the 17-7 score. The Lions attempted to score on the following drive with a K Jason Hanson 33-yard field goal attempt; however, the kick was blocked by S Gerald Sensabaugh and recovered at the Jacksonville 8-yard line by S Reggie Nelson. Jones-Drew scored his third touchdown on the following drive on an 8-yard run to give the Jaguars a 24-7 advantage at the end of the first half. Jacksonville opened up the third quarter by orchestrating a 15-play, 83-yard drive to the Detroit 7-yard line. Garrard capped the play with a 7-yard touchdown pass to WR Jerry Porter with 5:48 remaining for the 31-7 lead. After a Lions three-and-out, the Jaguars held possession into the fourth quarter and scored with 14:56 left in the game as Garrard hit WR Troy Williamson with a 10-yard touchdown pass and the 38-7 score. With 11:56 remaining in the game Stanton orchestrated an 11-play, 88-yard drive, highlighted by a 41-yard pass to C. Johnson and capped by a Kevin Smith 1-yard run into the end zone for the 38-14 score. Neither team was able to score again in the final minutes of the game and the Jaguars took the 38-14 win.

SUMMARY

The Detroit Lions dropped to 0-10 on the season after a hard-fought loss to the Carolina Panthers, 31-22. The Lions started out on a high note as QB Daunte Culpepper completed 4-of-4 passes for 52 yards, including a 29-yard touchdown pass down the middle to WR Calvin Johnson for the early 7-0 score. After a Carolina three-and-out a Culpepper pass intended for TE John Owens was picked off by LB Na'il Diggs at the Carolina 40-yard line; however, the Panthers were unable to capitalize as they went three-and-out on the ensuing drive. With 4:45 remaining in the first quarter the Lions moved the ball into the second quarter as RB Kevin Smith carried the ball four times for 60 yards, helping to set up a K Jason Hanson 40-yard field goal and the 10-0 lead. The Panthers responded on the following drive as RB DeAngelo Williams carried the ball three times for 16 yards and RB Jonathan Stewart carried the ball twice for 22 yards to set up a QB Jake Delhomme 15-yard touchdown pass to TE Jeff King for the 10-7 score. On the following drive Hanson connected on a 56-yard field goal to keep the Lions up 13-7. Carolina took the lead on their ensuing drive as Williams ran the ball up the middle for a 56-yard touchdown and the 14-13 score. With 2:33 remaining in the first half Culpepper connected with TE Michael Gaines on a 9-yard pass. The play was challenged and it was determined Gaines fumbled the ball and S Charles Godfrey recovered the ball taking it 4 yards to the Detroit 38-yard line. The Panthers capitalized on the turnover as Stewart ran in 22 yards for the touchdown and the Carolina 21-13 lead. With 0:15 left in the half, Hanson nailed a 27-yard field goal to make the score 16-21. At the start of the third quarter Panthers' K John Kasay put another three points on the board with a 29-yard field goal and the 16-24 score. With 6:34 remaining in the quarter Lions' CB Leigh Bodden made two consecutive plays as he broke up a Delhomme pass intended for WR Steve Smith and then forced a fumble on Smith that was recovered by LB Paris Lenon at the Carolina 49-yard line. With 14:07 remaining in the game, Culpepper and Kevin Smith orchestrated a 15-play, 70-yard drive that was capped with a 1-yard Culpepper touchdown run for the 22-24 score. Culpepper attempted to tie the game with a two-point conversion run, but was stuffed at the goal line. After a Panthers three-and-out the Lions attempted to move ahead of Carolina, however, a Culpepper pass intended for Calvin Johnson was intercepted by Godfrey who returned the ball 16 yards to the Detroit 4-yard line and Williams ran the ball in for the 4-yard touchdown and the 31-22 final score.

SUMMARY

Despite an early 17-0 lead, the Detroit Lions dropped a 38-20 decision to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers at Ford Field. In the Lions' second drive of the first quarter they were able to score as QB Daunte Culpepper connected with WR Calvin Johnson on two pass plays of 41 yards and a 15-yard touchdown pass for the 7-0 lead. On the ensuing drive S Daniel Bullocks recovered a QB Jeff Garcia fumble and returned the ball 44 yards for the touchdown putting the Lions up 14-0. After a Buccaneers' three-and-out, the Lions finished out the first quarter with a K Jason Hanson 38-yard field goal with 0:15 seconds remaining for the 17-0 advantage. The Buccaneers responded on the following drive as RB Warrick Dunn ran in a 13-yard touchdown for the 17-7 score. After a Lions' three-and-out, the Buccaneers scored again as Garcia connected on a 19-yard pass to WR Ike Hilliard who took the ball in 36 yards for a touchdown for the 17-14 score. On the ensuing drive the Lions attempted to get something going; however, a Culpepper pass intended for WR Shaun McDonald was intercepted by CB Ronde Barber who took the ball 2 yards to the Detroit 24-yard line. The Buccaneers capitalized on the turnover with 3:05 remaining in the second quarter as Garcia connected with TE Jerramy Stevens on a 24-yard touchdown strike and the 21-17 lead at halftime. At the start of the third quarter the Buccaneers were able to find the end zone again as P Nick Harris punted the ball 41 yards and RB Clifton Smith returned the ball 70 yards for the touchdown and the 28-17 Tampa Bay lead. On the next Buccaneers' drive DE Cliff Avril forced a sack-fumble on Garcia for a loss five yards and DT Chuck Darby came up with the recovery at the Tampa Bay 40-yard line. The ruling on the fumble was challenged, however the play was upheld. On the ensuing Lions' drive a Culpepper pass intended for WR Shaun McDonald on first-and-15 was intercepted by Barber who returned the ball 65 yards for the touchdown and the Buccaneers 35-17 lead. On the following Lions' drive QB Drew Stanton entered the game, but was unable to lead the Lions into the red zone and left with an injury as Harris punted the ball with 3:50 left in the third quarter to Hilliard who muffed the catch and TE Casey FitzSimmons came up with the recovery to give the Lions possession at the Tampa Bay 26-yard line. The Lions were able to capitalize on the play as Hanson connected on a 40-yard field goal for the 35-20 score. The Buccaneers responded on their first drive of the fourth quarter as K Matt Bryant connected on a 48-yard field goal to put Tampa Bay up 38-20. Neither team scored again and the Buccaneers left Ford Field with the 38-20 victory.

SUMMARY

The Lions fell 47-10 in their 69th annual Thanksgiving match-up vs. the Tennessee Titans, falling to 0-12 on the season. The Lions struggled to get anything going early on in the game as the Titans were first to score early in the first quarter after Lions' QB Daunte Culpepper fumbled the ball within the first minute and LB Kyle Vanden Bosch came up with the recovery at the Detroit 31-yard line. The Titans capitalized on the turnover as WR Brandon Jones brought the ball to the Detroit 6-yard line and RB Chris Johnson ran in for the 6-yard score and the 7-0 Titans lead. On the following drive the Lions settled for a long field goal as K Jason Hanson connected on a 53-yarder for the 7-3 score. The Titans' Johnson was able to score again on the ensuing drive as he broke down the right side for a 58-yard touchdown run and the 14-3 score. Three drives later with 2:28 remaining in the first quarter the Lions attempted to score; however, a Culpepper pass intended for RB Kevin Smith was intercepted by DE Dave Ball and carried in 15 yards for the touchdown and the 21-3 Titans lead. Within the first 0:44 of the second quarter the Titans scored again as QB Kerry Collins connected with WR Justin McCareins on a 20-yard pass at the Detroit six-yard line and RB Lendale White ran in for the 6-yard touchdown for the 28-3 score. Two drives later White scored again as he capped the Titans' 15-play, 91-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown run and the 35-3 lead. After back-to-back three and outs from both teams, the Lions were able to find the end zone with 0:37 left in the first half as Culpepper connected with TE Michael Gaines on a 2-yard touchdown pass and the 35-10 score at the half. Titans' K Rob Bironas kicked the first of his four field goals with 12:08 left in the third quarter as he connected on a 49-yarder for the 38-10 score. Bironas scored again with 2:24 remaining in the quarter connecting on a 41-yard field goal giving the Titan's the 41-10 advantage. After a Titans' three-and-out at the start of the fourth quarter P Craig Hentrich punted the ball to Lions' WR Adam Jennings who muffed the catch and it was recovered by S Michael Griffin. The Titans capitalized on the recovery as Bironas connected on a 45-yard field goal and the 44-10 score. After a Lions three-and-out, Bironas connected on his final field goal as he nailed a 43-yarder with 4:29 remaining in the game. The Lions attempted to score one last time with QB Drew Henson in the game; however, the Titans remained the last to score and walked away with the 47-10 Thanksgiving Day victory.

SUMMARY

The Detroit Lions fell in a heartbreaker to the Minnesota Vikings at Ford Field, 20-16, and dropped to 0-13 on the season. The Lions were the first to score as they took up 7:52 of the clock in the first quarter on a 13-play, 76-yard drive. QB Daunte Culpepper connected on 3-of-5 passes for 46 yards while RB Kevin Smith carried the ball six times for 24 yards to set up a K Jason Hanson 25-yard field goal and the 3-0 score. The Vikings began their second drive of the quarter with 0:53 remaining in the first quarter; however, Lions' LB Ryan Nece picked off a QB Gus Frerotte pass intended for WR Bernard Berrian and returned the ball 18 yards to the Minnesota 48-yard line. The Lions attempted to capitalize on the turnover with a touchdown, but settled for Hanson 23-yard field goal for the 6-0 lead with 11:43 in the second quarter. The Vikings responded on the ensuing drive as Frerotte connected on 4-of-5 passes for 40 yards to help set up a K Ryan Longwell 35-yard field goal for the 6-3 score. After the Lions were unable to get anything going on the following drive, the Vikings regained possession; however on the first play of the drive with 3:00 remaining in the half, a Frerotte pass intended for RB Adrian Peterson was intercepted by DE Corey Smith at the Minnesota 26-yard line. Frerotte did not return to the game after the drive. The Lions attempted to score shortly after the two-minute warning, but were unable to capitalize and ended the first half with the 6-3 lead. The Vikings were the first to find the end zone in the third quarter as they began their drive at the Minnesota 39-yard line. The drive was highlighted by a Peterson 22-yard carry to the Detroit 17-yard line and was capped by RB Chester Taylor running in 17 yards for the touchdown and the 10-6 Vikings lead. The Lions quickly responded on the following drive as Culpepper connected with WR Calvin Johnson on a 70-yard touchdown bomb to regain the Lions' lead with the 13-10 score. The Vikings began their 11-play, 90-yard drive with 1:57 remaining in the third quarter as Peterson carried the ball five times for 21 yards and QB Tavaris Jackson completed 5-of-6 passes for 69 yards, including an 11-yard touchdown pass to WR Visanthe Shiancoe for the Vikings 17-13 lead. The Lions attempted to match the Vikings score; however, a Culpepper pass to Calvin Johnson on third-and-11 at the Minnesota 8-yard line was challenged and ruled incomplete forcing the Lions to settle for a Hanson 39-yard field goal and the 17-16 score. The Vikings were able to put the game away on the ensuing drive as Longwell connected on a 50-yard field goal with 0:27 remaining for the 20-16 victory.

SUMMARY

In a competitive match-up, the Detroit Lions came close to a victory, but ultimately fell in the final minutes to the Indianapolis Colts, 31-21, at Lucas Oil Stadium. In the game's opening drive, the Colts were first to score as RB Dominic Rhodes carried the ball seven times for 41 yards, including a 1-yard scamper into the end zone for the 7-0 score with 7:41 remaining in the first quarter. On the ensuing drive the Lions went three-and-out; however, on the P Nick Harris punt, Colts' CB Keiwan Ratliff muffed the catch and Lions' LB Anthony Cannon recovered the ball at the Indianapolis 35-yard line. The Lions capitalized on the turnover with a K Jason Hanson 51-yard field goal for the 7-3 score. With 2:29 left in the first quarter the Lions began their drive at the Detroit 19-yard line as RB Kevin Smith had two carries for 11 and 25 yards respectively to help get to the Indianapolis 24-yard line; however, on first-and-10 with on the first play of the second quarter, Smith fumbled the ball and S Antoine Bethea came up with the recovery. The Colts attempted to capitalize on the ensuing drive, but were unable to get anything going. Two drives later Colts' QB Peyton Manning led the offense down the field as he connected on 5-of-7 passes for 39 yards and RB Chad Simpson ran in for the two-yard touchdown to put Indianapolis up 14-3. The Lions quickly responded on the following drive as QB Dan Orlovsky connected with WR Calvin Johnson on an 8-yard pass, followed by a 33-yard strike to TE Michael Gaines and then another 33-yarder to Johnson for the touchdown to cap the 3-play, 69-yard drive and tighten the score, 10-14. Shortly after the two-minute warning the Colts scored again as Manning connected with TE Dallas Clark four times for 57 yards, including a 3-yard touchdown and the 21-10 lead at the end of the first half. After the Lions' first drive of the third quarter, Harris punted the ball to Ratliff who carried the ball 11 yards; however, TE Casey FitzSimmons forced a fumble and DE Corey Smith came up with the recovery at the Indianapolis 21-yard line. On the following drive the Lions were able to get three points out of the turnover as Hanson connected on a 30-yard field goal to make the score 13-21. The Lions began their final drive of the third quarter with 5:31 remaining as Orlovsky connected on 6-of-7 passes for 62 yards and Smith carried the ball six times for 26 yards, including the 1-yard touchdown run that capped the 13-play, 91-yard drive. Orlovsky connected with FitzSimmons on the following play for the two-point conversion to tie the game, 21-21 with 12:58 left in the game. On the following drive the Colts took the lead again as Rhodes scored on another 1-yard rush. The Colts scored again two drives later on a K Adam Vinatieri 31-yard field goal with 0:44 remaining in the game and sealed the Colts' 31-21 win.

SUMMARY

The Detroit Lions fell, 42-7, to the New Orleans Saints in their final home game of the season. The Saints were first to score in the games' opening drive as WR Skyler Green returned the kickoff for 60 yards to the Detroit 41-yard line and WR Robert Meachem capped the 5-play, 41-yard drive with a 20-yard touchdown run for the 7-0 score. The Lions attempted to respond on the ensuing drive as QB Dan Orlovsky connected with WR Calvin Johnson on a deep third-and-10 43-yard pass for a touchdown; however, the score was nullified due to an illegal procedure penalty and on the following play an Orlovsky pass intended for WR John Standeford was picked off at the New Orleans' 3-yard line by CB Jason David. The Saints capitalized on the interception on the following drive as they used up 8:23 of the first quarter on a 17-play, 97-yard drive orchestrated by QB Drew Brees who connected on 6-of-10 passes for 52 yards and RB Deuce McAllister carried the ball three times for 24 yards, including a 2-yard touchdown run for the 14-0 score at the end of the first quarter. The Lions' lone score of the game came in the first drive of the second quarter as RB Kevin Smith carried the ball seven times for 24 yards, including a 1-yard touchdown scamper up the middle with 9:49 left in the first half. The Saints responded on the next drive as they marched down the field and RB Mike Bell capped the drive with a 1-yard touchdown run for the 21-7 advantage. After a Lions' three-and-out the Saints scored again shortly after the two-minute warning as Brees connected on 4-of-5 passes for 49 yards and RB Pierre Thomas ran in from 2 yards out for the touchdown and the 28-7 lead as both teams headed off the field at halftime. The Saints scored quickly in the third quarter on a 3-play, 76-yard drive as Brees connected with WR Devery Henderson on a 64-yard pass to the Detroit 6-yard line to set up a 6-yard touchdown pass to WR Marques Colston for the 35-7 score. With 7:00 remaining in the third quarter the Saints Brees orchestrated the Saints' final scoring drive as he connected with 5-of-6 passes for 73 yards, including a 3-yard touchdown pass to Colston for the 42-7 score. Neither team scored again in the fourth quarter and the Saints left with the 42-7 win.

SUMMARY

In the final game of the season the Detroit Lions lost to the Green Bay Packers, 31-21. The Packers were the first to score with 9:02 remaining in the first quarter as RB Deshaun Wynn took off for a 73-yard touchdown and the 7-0 score. After back-to-back three-and-outs from both teams, the Lions attempted to get a drive moving; however, with 4:25 left in the quarter a QB Dan Orlovsky pass intended for WR Calvin Johnson was intercepted by CB Charles Woodson for a 23-yard gain to the Detroit 41-yard line. The Packers capitalized on the turnover on the following drive as QB Aaron Rodgers connected with TE Jermichael Finley on a 3-yard pass for a touchdown and the 14-0 lead. The Lions put their first points of the game on the board at the start of the second quarter as RB Kevin Smith carried the ball five times for 16 yards and Orlovsky connected with Calvin Johnson on third-and-nine for the 9-yard touchdown and the 14-7 score to end the first quarter. On first-and-10 with 11:42 left in the third quarter the Lions' defense came up with a big play as S Calvin Pearson forced a RB Ryan Grant fumble and recovered the ball at the Green Bay 11-yard line. On the following drive the Lions capitalized on the fumble recovery as Orlovsky connected with Johnson on a 14-yard touchdown strike to tie the game 14-14. After two back-to-back scoreless drives, the Packers took over at their own 20-yard line on first-and-10 with 4:22 remaining in the third quarter and Grant ran down the field 80 yards for a touchdown; however, Detroit challenged that Grant was down by contact and the play was reversed. At the start of the fourth quarter the Packers were able to score again as K Mason Crosby connected on a 36-yard field goal for the Packers' 17-14 lead. After a Lions' three-and-out the Packers scored again as Rodgers connected with FB John Kuhn on a 5-yard touchdown pass and the 24-14 lead. The Lions responded on the ensuing drive as Orlovsky connected with WR John Standeford for two deep passes of 35 and 36 yards respectively to the Green Bay 9-yard line and Kevin Smith ran in 9 yards for the touchdown and the 21-24 score. On the following drive the Packers scored on a one-play, 71-yard drive as Rodgers connected with WR Donald Driver on a 71-yard touchdown bomb and the 31-21 score. The Lions' attempted to score again with 7:16 remaining in the game; however, on fourth-and-27 an Orlovsky pass intended for Calvin Johnson was picked off by S Nick Collins for a 61-yard gain with 3:03 left to play. Neither team was able to score again and the Packers got away with the 31-21 victory.

Kicker Jason Hanson leads all current Lions' players with 1,747 points and is the franchise's all-time leading scorer. In 2008, he became only the 9th player in NFL history to surpass the 1,700 career points mark, and he moved into 7th place on the NFL's all-time scoring list. Among his career scoring tally are 41 field goals from 50 yards or more. Last season he set an NFL record for the most 50-yard field goals in a career and became the first player in league history to go 8-for-8 on 50-yard attempts in a season.

JOE SCHMIDT LEADERSHIP AWARD

Joe Schmidt Award is presented to the player who has displayed outstanding leadership, drive and achievement on the field and in the locker room. Schmidt was named All-Pro in eight of his 13 seasons (1953-65), earning 10 consecutive trips to the Pro Bowl. He served as captain of the Lions for nine seasons. Schmidt was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1973.

MIKE UTLEY SPIRIT AWARD

Mike Utley Award is presented to the player who exhibited tremendous spirit, desire, dedication and work ethic. Utley suffered a career-ending neck injury which left him paralyzed on Nov. 17, 1991; Minutes after the injury, Utley flashed his teammates a "thumbs up" sign as he was wheeled from the field, a gesture that galvanized a team that went on to win its next seven contests and advanced to the NFC Championship game.

CHUCK HUGHES MOST IMPROVED

Chuck Hughes Award is presented to the player who, because of hard work and determination, showed significant development and improvement during the past year. Chuck Hughes, a Lions' reserve wide receiver, played two seasons with the Lions (1970-71); Hughes is the only NFL player to have died during action on a football field, having suffered a fatal heart attack during Detroit's game against Chicago on October 24, 1971.

TEAM CAPTAINS

In 2007, the NFL launched a formalized initiative for teams to select season-long captain, up to six per team, with each player wearing the letter "C" on the upper right chest of their home and away jersey. The Lions have selected numerous captains over the years, both on a season and game basis. Below are captains selected by the team beginning with the 2007 NFL initiative.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit's series with the Cardinals is the oldest in the history of the Lions' franchise. The first game was played October 5, 1930 between the Portsmouth Spartans and the Chicago Cardinals, and it ended in a scoreless tie. That game is one of two scoreless ties (other was a 0-0 tie played September 15, 1940) played between the Lions and the Cardinals in their series. The Lions own a 31-23-5 advantage over the Cardinals.
- September 30, 1934 marked the first occasion that the Detroit Lions and the Chicago Cardinals matched up, and the Lions were victorious 6-0.
- In all, the Portsmouth Spartans were 2-2-2 vs. the Chicago Cardinals. Detroit has registered a 19-9-3 mark against the Chicago Cardinals, a 5-4 record over the St. Louis Cardinals and have a 5-6 mark since the Cardinals moved to Phoenix. Detroit currently has a three-game winning streak against the Cardinals.
- The Lions-Cardinals series is one of four series (Chicago, Green Bay and New York Giants) in franchise history that dates back to 1930, Portsmouth's inaugural season in the NFL.
- The teams met twice in 1993 with Detroit winning both contests, 26-20 at the Silverdome September 26 and 21-14 in Phoenix December 12.
- Behind the record-setting performance by QB Charlie Batch at Arizona November 18, 2001 (a franchise record 436 yards passing), the Lions' offense set several team records and collected some of the franchise's highest totals in other team offensive categories. The Lions' 62 pass attempts set the team's single-game record by surpassing the previous high of 57 attempts accomplished vs. Chicago 10/9/88. The team's 36 completions are better than the 33 completions tossed at Cleveland 9/28/86 and vs. Green Bay 10/25/87. The Lions' established a new record for net passing yards by airing out 429 yards, which is better than the previous high of 395 vs. Minnesota 11/23/95. And the 22 first downs gained on pass plays is a new team record, passing the old mark of 20 set vs. Minnesota 11/23/95.
- Detroit snapped a five-game losing streak in the series in the 2003 season opener with a 42-24 win over the Cardinals at Ford Field. The win was the first for former Lions Head Coach Steve Mariucci. QB Joey Harrington threw for a career high four touchdown passes in the game.
- In Detroit's 26-12 win over Arizona December 5, 2004, RB Kevin Jones ran for a career-high 196 yards on 26 carries, 105 of which came in the first half. It is the second highest rushing total by a Lions rookie in team history, just one yard shy of Mel Farr's record of 197 yards on 24 carries at Minnesota (11/12/67).
- In the same 2004 contest, K Jason Hanson became the 20th player in NFL history to reach the 1,300-point plateau.
- WR Roy Williams caught a career-high three touchdown passes in the Lions 29-21 win over Arizona November 13, 2005 at Ford Field.
- The Lions trip to Arizona November 19, 2006 marked Detroit's first visit to the Cardinals newly-opened University of Phoenix Stadium in Glendale, Ariz.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions have dominated the series against the Falcons, amassing a 23-10 record. The initial meeting took place at Tiger Stadium September 25, 1966, Atlanta's inaugural season, with the Lions running away with a 28-10 win. The Lions are 14-4 at home (5-0 in Tiger Stadium; 8-3 in the Silverdome, 1-1 at Ford Field). Detroit has won 10 of the last 15 games in the series.
- The Lions and Falcons met in the regular season opener or closer seven times between 1985-94. The two teams opened or closed the season every year from 1985-89, and met in the regular season opener again in 1997.
- Detroit was victorious 13-10 over the Falcons November 12, 2000 at the Pontiac Silverdome. The contest marked the first game and victory by Gary Moeller, who replaced Bobby Ross as head coach six days earlier.
- The Lions' 17-10 victory October 10, 2004, marked the first time the Lions won back-to-back road games since the 2000 season.
- With Detroit's 30-14 victory against Atlanta November 5, 2006, the Lions winning-percentage against the Falcons (.719) is their highest among all NFC opponents and their second highest among all NFL opponents (Cleveland, .765).

SERIES NOTES

- The inaugural game between Detroit and Baltimore occurred December 27, 1998 at PSINet Stadium in Baltimore, with the Lions losing to the Ravens 19-10 in the '98 season finale.
- Detroit's first game with Baltimore ended up being RB Barry Sanders final game in his 10-year career. He rushed 19 times for 41 yards, finishing nine yards (1,491) shy of collecting his fifth-straight 1,500-yard rushing season.

In the Lions 35-17 win over Baltimore at Ford Field October 9, 2005, Detroit's rushing attack was stellar as the offense registered four rushing touchdowns, the most ever yielded by the Ravens defense. Among the rushing touchdowns were two scores by RB Kevin Jones and a 77-yard dash by RB Shawn Bryson.

SERIES NOTES

- Aside from the NFL's most recent expansion additions (Baltimore, Carolina, Houston and Jacksonville), the seven meetings between the Lions and Bills is the fewest number of games the Lions have played against any opponent.
- Two of the seven games have been played on Thanksgiving Day, with the Lions winning both outings. Detroit won the first Turkey Day game between the two clubs 27-14 November 25, 1976 and the second Thanksgiving Day affair 35-21 November 24, 1994.
- In the 1976 meeting, O.J. Simpson put on one of the greatest individual performances in pro football history as he rushed for a then-NFL record 273 yards. Simpson's historic

- Thanksgiving Day performance wasn't enough as the Lions prevailed 27-14. The Lions defeated the Bills 20-17 in their first regular season visit to Ford Field. The victory also was Rod Marinelli's first as a head coach.
- Bills' owner Ralph C. Wilson grew up in Detroit and at one time was a Lions' shareholder. He attended the University of Michigan law school, is the Chairman of Ralph C. Wilson Industries and resides in Grosse Pointe Shores, Mich.
- The Lions and Bills have met each other in the preseason each year since 2002, and the two teams will once again face each other in the preseason Thursday, September 3 at Ralph Wilson Stadium in Buffalo. Overall, the teams have played 28 times in the preseason, with Detroit holding a 16-11-1 edge in the preseason series.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions and Panthers faced off in their inaugural contest October 24, 1999. Detroit visited Carolina's Ericsson Stadium and handed the Panthers a 24-9 loss. The Panthers' made five trips inside the Lions' five-yard line, and the Detroit defense forced two turnovers and yielded only three field goals.
- The contest was also the first of two straight games in 1999 where Detroit's defense did not yield a touchdown. That accomplishment marked the first time since 1983 that the Lions have kept opponents out of the end zone in back-to-back games (45-3 win vs. Pittsburgh November 24, 1983 and 13-2 win vs. Minnesota December 5, 1983).
- The Panthers evened the series record at 1-1 with a 31-7 victory at Ericsson Stadium

- September 15, 2002.
- Despite having both a fumble return and a punt return go for touchdowns, the Lions fell short at the eventual NFC Champion Panthers, 21-14, on December 14, 2003.
- LB Boss Bailey (34 yards) and S Kenoy Kennedy (64 yards) each returned interceptions back for touchdowns in the Lions last-minute 21-20 loss against Carolina at Ford Field October 16, 2005. The last time the Lions had two interceptions for touchdowns in a game was at Seattle October 24, 1976 when Levi Johnson and Lem Barney both returned interceptions for touchdowns.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions hosted the Bears for the inaugural Thanksgiving Day game on November 29, 1934. The game, played in front of a then-record 26,000 fans at the University of Detroit Stadium, was won by the Bears, 19-16, giving the Bears the Western Division championship. NBC Radio Network broadcast the game coast-to-coast and a Thanksgiving tradition was born.
- On Thanksgiving Day (November 27) in 1997 the Lions downed the Bears 55-20 for their largest offensive output ever against Chicago. RB Barry Sanders rushed for 167 yards and three touchdowns in the win at the Silverdome. Earlier in the 1997 season, Sanders put up 161 yards on Chicago in a 32-7 victory over the Bears.
- WR Herman Moore set a franchise record with 14 catches for 183 yards in a 27-7 win December 4 at the Pontiac Silverdome.
- Detroit had its best stretch against the Bears when it won 11 of 12 games from September 22, 1968 to December 9, 1973.
- Five contests between the two teams have gone to overtime—including both in 2002—with the Bears winning three of them. The most recent in the series occurred when Bears S Charles Tillman picked off a Lions QB Jeff Garcia pass and returned it for a score to claim a 19-13 win in overtime October 30, 2005.
- In the 2004 season opener, Detroit topped Chicago 20-17 to end its 24-game road losing streak. S Bracy Walker returned a blocked FG an NFL-record 92 yards to give the Lions a 10-7 advantage, and QB Joey Harrington found WR Az-Zahir Hakim for a fourth-quarter touchdown to give the Lions a 20-14 lead they would not relinquish.
- With the Lions trailing 13-3 going into the fourth quarter vs. Chicago at Ford Field September 30, 2007, the Lions reeled off an NFL record 34 points in the fourth quarter to claim a 37-27 win. It marked just the fifth time in NFL history a team scored 30 or more points in a quarter. Detroit scored five touchdowns, including two passing, one rushing, one interception and one kickoff return. The teams also combined for 48 points, which is a record for combined fourth quarter points.
- On October 28, 2007, the Lions defeated the Bears 16-7 at Soldier Field. K Jason Hanson, connected on a 52-yarder which was his career longest against the Bears on the road, and marked the longest in franchise history by a Lions kicker on the road vs. Chicago. It also marked the first 50-yard field goal on the road vs. the Bears by a Lions kicker in the series that dates back to 1930. Almost one year to the exact date (November 2, 2008), Hanson repeated this feat when he hit another 52-yarder vs. the Bears.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions and Bengals met every year in preseason from 1970-2001 and the rivalry was renewed in 2003. The two teams have played a total of 33 preseason games, with the Bengals holding a slight 18-15 series edge.
- In the initial meeting of the series, the Lions jumped out to 31-0 halftime lead and never looked back as they trounced the Bengals 38-3 September 27, 1970. The Detroit defense limited Cincinnati to six first downs and 140 yards on offense. Mel Farr led the Lions with 70 yards rushing on 13 carries.

- An eight-yard touchdown toss from Greg Landry to Charlie Sanders (now Lions' Assistant Director of Pro Personnel) with 29 seconds remaining in the game gave the Lions a 23-19 victory at Cincinnati in the 1974 matchup.
- In the Lions' November 22, 1992 game at Cincinnati, RB Barry Sanders passed Billy Sims to become Detroit's all-time leading rusher. He rushed 29 times for 151 yards and scored a touchdown as the Lions won 19-13.
- Detroit will make its first regular season trip to Paul Browns Stadium when the Lions travel to face the Browns in Cincinnati December 6, 2009.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions hold a commanding 13-4 (.765) series lead over the Browns, dating back to the clubs' initial meeting in 1952. Detroit owns an 8-1 record in games played in Detroit, and the teams have yet to meet at Ford Field.
- Jason Hanson booted the longest field goal in franchise history against the Browns October 8, 1995. Hanson drilled a 56-yard effort on the last play of the first half.
- Detroit plays host to the Cleveland Browns for the first time at Ford Field when the two teams meet November 22, 2009.
- The Lions have played the Browns four times in postseason action, the most against any team (Lions own 3-1 edge). Also, Detroit has accumulated 35 preseason games against Cleveland, also the most against any team in that category. 2004 marked the 36th preseason meeting between the two teams. Detroit holds a 20-15-1 edge over Cleveland in preseason games. In 2002, the Lions and Browns kicked off the first Great Lakes Classic charity preseason game.

1950s POSTSEASON BATTLES: The following are brief recaps of each of the four postseason games between the Lions and Browns.

- December 28, 1952 (NFL Championship Game) - The Detroit Lions claimed their first NFL title in 17 years with a 17-7 win over the Browns. The Lions scored the first touchdown of the game on a two-yard run by Bobby Layne and extended the lead to 14-0 in the third quarter on a 67-yard scamper by Doak Walker. Detroit was outgained in total yardage by 151 yards and had 12 fewer first downs, but the Detroit defense stiffened at crucial times: The Lions came up with four important goal line stands. Layne attempted only nine passes, all coming in the fourth quarter. To pick up the slack, the Lions rushed for 199 yards with 97 yards coming from Walker. Detroit capped the title game win with a 36-yard field goal by Pat Harder.

- December 27, 1953 (NFL Championship Game) - The game evolved into a defensive struggle as 20 of the 33 points scored in the game were direct results of turnovers. The mistakes began when Otto Graham fumbled on his own 13-yard line, the Lions capitalized on a one-yard touchdown run by Doak Walker. Although Graham completed only two of his 15 attempts, the Browns managed to hold a 16-10 lead with less than five minutes to play. Then, Detroit quarterback Bobby Layne put together an impressive drive that culminated with a 33-yard touchdown toss to Jim Doran. The 17-16 victory provided the Lions with their second consecutive title.

- December 26, 1954 (NFL Championship Game) - The game began on a good note for Detroit as Cleveland quarterback Otto Graham turned the ball over on an interception. But the Lions could only manage a field goal after the turnover and the rest of the afternoon was all Cleveland. Graham bounced back from the early interception to pass for three touchdowns and run for another three touchdowns as the Browns captured the World's Championship with a 56-10 win. Lions' quarterback Bobby Layne had a horrible day, as he threw six interceptions.

- December 29, 1957 (NFL Championship Game) - Tobin Rote, playing for injured QB Bobby Layne, directed a relentless offensive attack as the Lions posted a 31-7 halftime lead and coasted to their fourth NFL title. The highlight of the day came on a 78-yard bomb from Rote to Jim Doran that gave the Lions a 38-14 lead. Detroit

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit's first regular season game, as well as its last, at the Pontiac Silverdome was played against Dallas. The Cowboys won the Monday Night contest 36-10 October 6, 1975 during the Silverdome's inaugural regular season game and the Lions won the finale 15-10 on January 6, 2002.
- The Lions have won seven of the last 12 regular season meetings with Dallas, in addition to Detroit's 38-6 win in the 1991 Divisional Playoff game.
- The Lions and Cowboys have squared off twice in postseason play, with each team claiming victory on its own turf. The first postseason contest occurred December 26,

- 1970 with the Dallas posting a 5-0 shutout against Detroit.
- The Lions captured the victory in the second playoff contest when they defeated the Cowboys 38-6 at the Silverdome January 5, 1992.
- Detroit and Dallas traditionally host Thanksgiving Day games each season. The Lions have played 66 games since the Thanksgiving Day tradition kicked off in 1934. The Cowboys have hosted 36 Thanksgiving Day games since 1966.
- Lions RB Barry Sanders set a Lions' record for most carries in a game (40) in a Monday Night contest in Dallas September 19, 1994. The Lions won the game 20-17 in overtime.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit posted a 24-20 win November 7, 1971 in the first meeting between the two teams. After a Detroit fumble and interception gave the Broncos a 10-0 halftime lead, the Lions roared back in the second half, scoring on their first two possessions, including a Greg Landry-to-Earl McCullough 76-yard bomb which gave the Lions the lead.
- Three of the seven regular season games between the Lions and Broncos have been played on Thanksgiving Day, and five of the seven games have been in November.
- Denver's 31-27 win in 1974 was the last Thanksgiving Day game played in Tiger Stadium, with the Lions moving into the Pontiac Silverdome the next season.
- In 1999, the Lions hosted the Broncos on another holiday, Christmas Day, with the - Broncos claiming a 17-7 victory at the Silverdome.

- The Lions fell 20-16 at Denver on September 28, 2003, their first trip to Denver since 1987, and the first game in the series played at Invesco Field.
- In Denver's first regular season trip to Ford Field November 4, 2007, the Lions crushed the Broncos 44-7, which marked the largest margin of victory, 37 points, by the Lions since they shutout the Jacksonville Jaguars 44-0 December 17, 1995. The 44 points were also the most by the team since they put up 55 points vs. Chicago November 27, 1997. The 37-point difference by Denver was the largest margin in a loss by the Broncos since the team fell to at New Orleans 42-0 November 20, 1988.

Notes: From 1930-33, the Lions wore the Portsmouth (POR) Spicians.

From 1933-94, the Green Bay Packers played select home games in Milwaukee (Mil).

SERIES NOTES

- The Packers and Lions have met on Thanksgiving Day 17 times, with the Lions holding an 11-5-1 advantage in those games. The Lions have played the Packers more times on Thanksgiving than any other team in the league.
- The Lions and Packers met 13 consecutive years on Thanksgiving Day from 1951-1963 with the Lions winning nine of those contests. 2003 was the Packers' first visit to Ford Field on Thanksgiving.
- Each team has recorded five shutouts of one another since the beginning of the series in 1934, but there has not been a shutout between the two teams since the Lions held the Packers to zero points in a 20-0 win on December 20, 1970.
- The 11 consecutive wins that the Lions posted against Green Bay from December 11, 1949 to November 25, 1954 are the most by the Lions against any franchise. The 11-game streak came after the Lions were 8-29-1 in the first 38 games of the series.
- Frank Sinkwich set a Lions' record by intercepting seven passes in a 27-6 loss to the Packers on October 24, 1943.
- These two franchises played in 127 regular season games in 60 years before meeting in the playoffs for the first time following the 1993 season and then again following the 1994 season.
- The Packers came to Ford Field for its regular season opener on September 22, 2002 and defeated the Lions 37-31.
- K Jason Hanson became the 16th player in NFL history to reach the 300-point mark when he kicked a 36-yard field goal against Green Bay December 12, 2004.
- On December 12, 2004 rookie RB Kevin Jones registered his second-straight 150-yard rushing game, the first Lions rookie RB to do so since Barry Sanders in 1997.
- The 17-3 Lions win in the 2005 season opener was the lowest point total in any game (including postseason) Packers QB Brett Favre has ever started.

SERIES NOTES

- Houston is the only team the Lions hold an undefeated record against. In the teams' only matchup September 19, 2004, Detroit topped the Texans 28-16 at Ford Field.
- In that series opener, WR Eddie Drummond returned a kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown, his longest career return and his first career kickoff return touchdown.
- The first and only matchup between Houston and Detroit featured two of the top three picks from the 2002 NFL Draft. Houston QB David Carr and former Detroit QB Joey Harrington were selected first and third overall, respectively.
- Drummond's kickoff return was the eighth longest in team history and the longest since Terry Fair returned a kickoff 105 yards vs. Tampa Bay 9/28/98.
- Harrington completed 18-of-25 passes for 176 yards and finished the game with the - third-highest quarterback rating of his career (114.3) and the third-highest completion percentage of his career (72%).

- In the Lions first trip to Houston on November 19, 2008, WR Calvin Johnson caught two passes for 154 yards, including a career long of 96 yards. With 154 yards on two receptions against the Texans, Johnson's receiving yards were the third most for a player with 2-or-fewer receptions in a single game in NFL history.
- In that same game, K Jason Hanson hit two field goals of 54-yards at Houston which were his 36th and 37th career field goals of 50+-yards. It was the third time in Hanson's career he hit two-or-more field goals of 50+-yards in a game.

SERIES NOTES

- The clubs have met just six times since the Colts moved to Indianapolis from Baltimore.
- A record-setting crowd of 63,107 witnessed the Lions take on the Colts November 25, 2004. The crowd was the Lions' largest at Ford Field, breaking the previous best of 62,938 set vs. Green Bay (10/17/04). The contest also marked the Colts' first visit to Ford Field and the first time the teams had met on Thanksgiving since 1965. The Lions and the then-Baltimore Colts tied 24-24.
- On October 20, 1957, Bobby Layne threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to Howard "Hopalong" Cassidy with 46 seconds remaining in the game as Detroit overcame a 27-10 fourth quarter deficit to defeat the Colts 31-27 in one of the greatest comebacks in team history.

- In their meeting November 23, 1997, a 32-10 Detroit win at the Silverdome, Jason Hanson became the only kicker in team history to convert two field goals of more than 50 yards in the same game. Hanson booted 52 and 55-yarders in the contest.
- In that same game, Barry Sanders rushed for 216 yards on 24 carries, including an 80-yarder for a touchdown. It was Sanders' fourth 200-yard outing of his career and the first against an AFC opponent.
- The 1997 game was the Colts' second trip ever to the Silverdome, and the first since the club moved from Baltimore.
- In Detroit's first visit to Indianapolis' Lucas Oil Stadium, December 14, 2008, K Jason Hanson connected on a 51-yard field goal. His 51-yarder set a new NFL record for most 50-yard field goals in a career (41) and it tied Morten Andersen's NFL record for most 50-yard field goals in a season (8). Hanson is the first player in NFL history to go 8-for-8 on 50-yard field goals in a single season.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit's 44-0 win over the Jaguars December 17, 1995 represents the largest victory margin in Lions' history and was the largest in the NFL in 1995. The game also marked the inaugural contest in the series between the Lions and the Jaguars.
- Lions KR Eddie Drummond had one of the finest performances by a returner in NFL history that ultimately forced the Lions' game at Jacksonville into overtime November 14, 2004. Drummond became the first player in NFL history to return two punts for touchdowns in the fourth quarter and the 11th (14th time) to return two punts for - a touchdowns in a single game.

- Drummond's six punt returns against the Jaguars (11/14/04) for 199 yards (33.2 avg) is the third-best single-game total in NFL history and set a new Lions' franchise record for most punt return yards in a game.
- His two punt returns for touchdowns (55 and 83 yards) at Jacksonville (11/14) marked the third time in Lions' history that a player recorded two punt return touchdowns in a game. Jack Christiansen accomplished the feat twice in 1951 (2 vs LA 10/14/51 and 2 vs GB 11/22/51).

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions and Chiefs have played four of their 10 games on Thanksgiving Day—two of them were played on November 26 (in 1981 and 1987).
- The Lions are 1-2 in home games (0-0 at Ford Field) against the Chiefs and 2-5 in games played in Kansas City.
- In the inaugural meeting—the 1971 Thanksgiving Day classic—Enrol Mann contributed three field goals while Greg Landry threw touchdown passes to Charlie Sanders and Earl McCullouch in a 32-21 Lions' win. RB Ed Podolak scored all three touchdowns for the Chiefs.
- In the teams' first regular season meeting at the Silverdome, Detroit dominated defensively and claimed a 27-10 Thanksgiving Day win in 1981. The Lions held the Chiefs' top-ranked rushing attack to just 116 yards, and registered five sacks.
- The Lions hold a 6-4 preseason edge in the series against the Chiefs, and have won five of the last six preseason matchups. The two teams met August 23, 1975 in an exhibition affair that kicked off the opening of the Pontiac Silverdome. Detroit won the contest 27-24.
- Kansas City made their first ever trip to Ford Field December 23, 2007, with the Lions claiming a 25-20 victory.

SERIES NOTES

➤ The first two head coaches in Dolphins' history both had ties to Detroit. George Wilson coached the Dolphins from 1966-69. He was an assistant with the Lions from 1949-56 and was the Lions' head coach from 1957-64. Wilson was at the helm when the Lions won their last championship in 1957. Don Shula was the Dolphins' head coach from 1970-95, and was an assistant under Wilson with the Lions from 1960-62.

➤ The first three of Miami's triumphs over the Lions clinched AFC Eastern Division titles for the Dolphins (in 1973, 1979 and 1994).

➤ Detroit's win over Miami in 1985 was a historic one for the Lions. The win marked the first time in NFL history that a club had beaten the Super Bowl participants from the previous year in back-to-back weeks (the Lions had edged the Super Bowl XIX champion San Francisco 49ers 23-21 only seven days earlier).

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions trail 30-63-2 in the series with the Vikings in a NFC North Division rivalry that dates back to a 37-10 Detroit victory November 19, 1961 at Minnesota.
- With his opening kickoff return for a touchdown at Minnesota November 21, 2004, Eddie Drummond became the first player in NFL history to score three consecutive touchdowns for his team via punt and kickoff returns. He became only the second player in NFL history to return two kickoffs and two punts for touchdowns in a single season, the other being Dante Hall (Kansas City) in 2003.
- The Lions won the first five outings and nine of the first 14 games in the series; however, Minnesota then won 13 straight contests and 19 of the next 21.
- On two occasions, the Lions have accumulated 45 points in a single game against the Vikings. Detroit defeated Minnesota 45-14 December 9, 1978 and 45-7 December 12, 1981, with both games taking place at the Silverdome.
- Barry Sanders scored four touchdowns in the Lions' 34-14 win at Minnesota November 24, 1991. His four touchdowns established a new Lions' record for most rushing touchdowns in a single game. His four touchdowns and 24-point performance also tied Lions' single-game marks.
- Scott Mitchell set a Lions' single-game record for passing yards, breaking Bobby Layne's previous mark of 375, when he accumulated 410 yards vs. Minnesota in a memorable Thanksgiving Day clash November 23, 1995. Mitchell completed 30-of-45 passes and tossed four touchdowns. The wide receiver trio of Herman Moore, Brett Perriman and Johnnie Morton each reached the 100-yard receiving mark in the contest. The Lions won the game 44-38.
- In their final road game and the second-to-last game of the 1997 season, the Lions claimed a 14-13 victory over the Vikings at the Metrodome when Scott Mitchell tossed a one-yard pass to Herman Moore in the endzone to claim the come-from-behind victory with two seconds remaining to play. Mitchell engineered the game-winning 72-yard drive that began with 1:56 remaining to play and with only one timeout.
- After losing 13 straight games to open the 2001 season, the Lions rallied against the Vikings and won their first game of the season at the Silverdome vs. the Vikings on December 16, 2001.

SERIES NOTES

- New England has made just four regular season visits to Detroit, with each team taking a pair of victories.
- Detroit opened their series vs. the Patriots with a 34-7 victory September 26, 1971 in Schaefer Stadium (renamed Foxboro Stadium). Steve Owens scored two touchdowns for the Lions, including a 74-yard touchdown catch from Greg Landry. The Lions also scored a defensive touchdown as Mike Lucci returned an interception 25 yards for a score.
- The fastest touchdown in Lions' history was scored against the Patriots. Willie Clay (who later joined the Patriots as a free agent) recovered a New England fumble on the opening kickoff and returned it 15 yards for a touchdown only 11 seconds into the game on September 12, 1993.

- In the 1993 matchup, the Lions edged New England 19-16 in overtime. The win gave Detroit its first 2-0 start since 1985, and was clinched on Jason Hanson's fourth field goal of the game, a 38-yarder.
- The Lions and Patriots met at Ford Field in 2002 in the 63rd Thanksgiving Day game and the first in the holiday tradition at Ford Field. The game marked the first Thanksgiving Day classic in downtown Detroit since 1974. The Patriots won, 20-12.
- Included in the Patriots three visits to the Silverdome was a Lions' 34-9 win November 23, 2000 in the 61st Thanksgiving Day classic.

* New Orleans split home games between San Antonio and Baton Rouge due to Hurricane Katrina.

SERIES NOTES

- In the second game ever played at Ford Field, the Lions claimed a 26-21 win over New Orleans for the first win at the team's new downtown Detroit home. Detroit also tied the series, 8-8-1.
- The first game played between the Lions and Saints was a 20-20 tie November 24, 1968 in Detroit.
- The home team has generally had the upper hand in the series with Detroit compiling a 6-2-1 mark at home (2-0-1 at Tiger Stadium; 3-2 in the Silverdome and 1-0 at Ford Field) while New Orleans has managed a 6-3 record at home (2-0 at Tulane Stadium; 4-2 in the Superdome; 0-1 at San Antonio).
- In one of the NFL's all-time amazing finishes, New Orleans kicker Tom Dempsey booted a 63-yard field goal as time expired to give the Saints a 19-17 victory in Tulane Stadium November 8, 1970. Dempsey's mighty boot stood alone as the longest field goal in NFL history until Denver's Jason Elam tied the record October 25, 1998 vs. Jacksonville.
- Despite a 310-yard passing game from Detroit's Greg Landry (27-of-38 with two touchdowns), the Saints nipped the Lions 17-16 in the Superdome in 1976. Detroit RB Dexter Bussey led all rushers in the contest with 82 yards on only eight carries.
- The Lions' Richard Johnson tallied 248 yards receiving (second-most in team history) on eight receptions and earned NFC Player of the Week honors in Detroit's 21-14 win over the Saints on December 3, 1989.
- The Lions kicked off the 2000 season by defeating the Saints 14-10 at the Superdome. The Lions' only touchdown of the game was courtesy of Desmond Howard's franchise record 95-yard punt return in the fourth quarter.
- K Jason Hanson nailed a 39-yard field goal as time expired in regulation that lifted the Lions to a 13-12 win over New Orleans in San Antonio. The final drive was set up by a Roy Williams 40-yard grab on 4th-and-17. Williams' four catches for 111 yards against the Saints, all in the fourth quarter.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions-Giants series is one of four series (Arz, Chi and GB) in franchise history that dates back to 1930, Portsmouth's inaugural season in the NFL.
- The Lions hold a 21-17-1 lead in the series which dates back to a 19-6 New York victory at Detroit November 5, 1930, when the Lions were known as the Portsmouth Spartans.
- Detroit dominated the series initially, claiming eight of the first 12 contests, but the Giants have won eight of the last 12 decisions.
- The Giants were the opposition in the Lions' first-ever game in Detroit. The Lions won the game 9-0 September 23, 1934 at University of Detroit Stadium.
- The Lions and the Giants played the NFL's last scoreless tie. The 0-0 game was played November 7, 1943 at New York.
- Detroit claimed its first NFL championship with a 26-7 win over the defending champion Giants December 15, 1935. The contest marked the only time the two teams have met in postseason action.
- In the Lions' 28-13 win over the Giants October 24, 2004, QB Joey Harrington had the most efficient outing of his career, completing 18-of-22 passes to set single-game career highs with an 81.8 completion percentage and a 140.5 quarterback rating. He finished the game with 230 yards passing, including four completions of at least 20 yards and seven completions of at least 18 yards to six different receivers.
- Rookie RB Kevin Jones scored his first career touchdown in Detroit's win over the Giants in 2004.
- Two of the last five outings between the two teams have gone to overtime, with the road team winning each. Detroit won a 28-15 decision on October 31, 1994 at Giants Stadium, while New York defeated the Lions 26-20 at the Silverdome October 19, 1997.
- In 2000, the Lions jumped out to a 21-0 halftime lead en route to a 31-21 win at Giants Stadium November 19. The first half was highlighted by two Charlie Batch touchdown passes and a blocked punt by WR Larry Foster, which was the first by the Lions since Bennie Blades blocked a punt December 13, 1992 vs. Cleveland.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit leads the all-time series 6-5, which dates back to a 37-20 Detroit victory November 23, 1972 at Tiger Stadium. Detroit has played seven of its 10 contests at home against the Jets with a record of 4-3 (1-0 at Tiger Stadium, 3-2 at the Silverdome and 0-1 at Ford Field).
- The Lions have won two of the three games played in New York/New Jersey. The Jets won 31-10 at Shea Stadium September 16, 1979 and Detroit defeated the Jets twice at Giants Stadium—18-7 December 10, 1994 and 10-7 December 17, 2000.
- The Lions completed their first undefeated home season since 1962 with a 34-20 win over the Jets December 8, 1991.
- Detroit claimed a memorable 13-10 decision over the Jets at the Silverdome December 21, 1997 in a game in which the winner qualified for the playoffs and the loser was eliminated. RB Barry Sanders' 184 yards rushing in the contest made him only the third player in NFL history to eclipse the 2,000-yard mark in a season. The noise was so boisterous at the sold-out Silverdome near the end of the game that players reported the turf actually vibrating beneath their feet. Unfortunately, Lions' LB Reggie Brown suffered a career-ending neck injury in the fourth quarter of the game.

➤ The Lions defeated the Jets 10-7 at the Meadowlands December 17, 2000 in the Lions' final road game of the season. Detroit's lone touchdown was a fumble recovery in the endzone by G. Jeff Hartings.

Note: The Raiders were located in Oakland from 1960-81 and Los Angeles from 1982-94. The club returned to Oakland in 1995.

SERIES NOTES

- In the first meeting between the two teams, the Lions defeated the Raiders 28-14 on Thanksgiving Day November 26, 1970. The win was the second of five consecutive wins by the Lions that year, which propelled them to their first playoff berth since 1957. In that contest between the two clubs, the Lions scored 14 fourth quarter points on the way to knocking off the Raiders. Mel Farr rushed 21 times for 121 yards, rallying Detroit from a 14-0 deficit.
- The Lions shut out the defending Super Bowl champion Oakland Raiders 16-0 September 27, 1981. Detroit was the first team to shut out the Raiders in 15 years, as the Lions limited Oakland to only 131 yards in total offense. The Lions collected six sacks and Jimmy Allen intercepted his fourth pass in as many games. Billy Sims earned his second consecutive 100-yard rushing game (133 yards) while Dexter Bussey passed Altie Taylor as the club's all-time leading rusher. Also in the game, Detroit QB Gary Danielson fractured his left wrist—an injury that would sideline him for 10 weeks.
- In the Monday Night meeting December 10, 1990, there were five former Heisman Trophy winners on the field—Barry Sanders and Andre Ware for Detroit, and Marcus Allen, Tim Brown and Bo Jackson for the Raiders. Sanders finished the game with 176 yards rushing on 25 carries, while Jackson led the Raiders with 129 yards rushing on 18 carries.
- The Lions defeated the defending AFC Champion Oakland Raiders on November 2, 2003 at Ford Field, the Raiders' first trip to Detroit since 1990.
- Detroit opened the 2007 season on the road at Oakland and came away with 36-21 victory. DE Dewayne White was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his Week 1 performance at Oakland as the veteran defensive end was a force in the fourth quarter when Detroit scored 16 unanswered points in the final 10:45 to come away with the victory. After the Lions took a 26-21 lead in the fourth quarter, White intercepted a pass on the ensuing Raiders drive and returned it 28 yards to set up a field goal to increase Detroit's lead to eight. On the first play of the next Oakland possession, White sacked the Raiders quarterback and forced a fumble. Another Oakland player recovered the ball and White forced another fumble, which was recovered by teammate DE Kalimba Edwards. The play helped set up a touchdown that put the game out of reach.
- Kitna's 289 yards in the '07 opener at Oakland were the second-most passing yards by a Lions quarterback on opening day in franchise history, only behind Bobby Layne's 364 yards September 27, 1953 against Pittsburgh.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit claimed victories in the first four games of the series, with each being a shutout. The Lions also won seven of the first eight meetings.
- In 25 regular season meetings, the Lions have scored more than 30 points only twice (35 points in both 1935 and 1965). Philadelphia, however, has also been limited to only three 30-point outbursts (45 points in 1948, 44 points in 1979, and 30 points September 26, 2004).
- The Lions' last tie in a regular season game was against the Eagles (23-23) November 4, 1984 at the Silverdome, and was the only tie in Silverdome history.
- In 2004, Philadelphia visited the Motor City for the first time since November 4, 1984.
- With nine receptions for 135 yards vs. Philadelphia September 26, 2004, WR Roy Williams became the first Detroit rookie receiver to top 100 yards receiving since Larry Foster caught eight passes for 106 yards at Minnesota (11/30/00). It marked Williams' first 100-yard receiving game of his career.

➤ In Detroit's last win over Philadelphia, the Lions' defense sacked Eagles QB Randall Cunningham 11 times to tie a club record in a 13-11 win November 6, 1986. Seven Lions' defenders recorded sacks, including four by Keith Ferguson and 2.5 by William Gay. A 72-yard scoring strike from Joe Ferguson-to-Jeff Chadwick in the first quarter turned out to be the only touchdown of the game.

➤ In the Lions first visit to Lincoln Financial Field September 23, 2007 to take on the Eagles, QB Jon Kitna set a franchise record with 446 passing yards. Kitna connected with WR Roy Williams for a 91-yard touchdown for the longest pass play in the NFL for 2007. The 91-yard pass play were career highs for both Kitna and Williams. With 204 receiving yards, Williams' career high was the third-highest tally by a receiver in Lions history.

SERIES NOTES

- The Detroit Lions played in Heinz Field's first game during the preseason (August, 25, 2001). In 2002, the Lions returned the favor as the Steelers played in the first game at Ford Field (August 24, 2002), which the Steelers won 34-22.
- In the first meeting between the two teams, the Lions beat the Steelers 40-7 behind a then-NFL record 426 yards rushing. Ernie Caddell scored three touchdowns in one of the more memorable games of the Lions' first season in Detroit.
- The Lions won the first four meetings of the series and were 12-4-1 through the first 17 contests, although the Steelers have bounced back to claim eight of the last 10 meetings.
- In the 1952 meeting, Bob Hoernschemeyer ran for 107 yards and the Lions rolled up 321 yards rushing. The Detroit defense held Pittsburgh to minus-3 yards rushing in a 31-6 win in Pittsburgh.
- Detroit passed for a then-club-record 375 yards (364 by Bobby Layne) in a 38-21 Lions' victory September 27, 1953.
- Detroit's 45-3 win over the Steelers November 24, 1983 stands as the Lions' largest winning margin in the history of the team's Thanksgiving Day series (second-largest in team history).
- The Lions also defeated Pittsburgh 19-16 in overtime November 26, 1998 in the second Thanksgiving Day matchup between the two teams. Jason Hanson made his fourth field goal of the game (42-yarder) 2:52 into the extra period. The game marked the first Thanksgiving overtime contest since 1980, and also was highlighted by a gutsy performance by Pittsburgh native, Charlie Batch, who completed 16-of-23 passes for 236 yards and a touchdown despite leaving the game for a time with a strained neck. The game will be remembered by a strange coin toss to begin the overtime period.
- When Pittsburgh visits Detroit October 11, 2009, it will mark the Steelers first regular season game at Ford Field. The Steelers were the first-ever Lions' opponent in a preseason game, and the Steelers defeated the Seattle Seahawks in Super Bowl XL played at Ford Field.

SERIES NOTES

- The St. Louis Rams lead the Lions in the all-time series 41-37-1. In their series, the Rams have been located in three different cities, Cleveland (1937-45), Los Angeles (1946-94) and St. Louis (since 1995).
- Overall, Detroit was 8-7 vs. the Cleveland Rams, 27-32-1 vs. the Los Angeles Rams and are 2-1 vs. the St. Louis Rams.
- The inaugural game between the two teams was played September 10, 1937 when the Lions claimed a 28-0 shutout at Cleveland.
- After the Rams moved to Los Angeles, the clubs faced off twice each season from 1946-66. The Rams owned a slight edge, 21-20-1, in those games played.
- The Lions played the Rams November 7, 1999 in the first meeting between the teams since the Rams moved from Los Angeles to St. Louis. Detroit won the affair 31-27 at the Silverdome in the final minute of the game when QB Gus Frerotte hit WR Johnnie Morton on a 12-yard touchdown pass with 28 seconds remaining to play for the game winning score. On the final drive, Frerotte completed a 57-yard pass to WR Germane Crowell on a fourth-and-26 play to keep the drive alive.
- In the 2003 season finale, the Lions defeated the St. Louis Rams at Ford Field, 30-20, denying the Rams' bid for homefield advantage throughout the playoffs.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions won each of the first three meetings between the two teams (all home games), but have dropped the six most-recent contests.
- Detroit recorded a 34-20 victory over the Chargers in the first meeting of the series October 22, 1972. Mel Farr ran for two touchdowns and gained 96 yards on 22 carries, helping the Lions rack up 182 yards on the ground for the game. Greg Landry also rushed for a touchdown and added 151 yards passing with a touchdown strike going to Larry Walton, who finished with seven catches for 101 yards. Detroit fell to the Chargers 27-24 September 20, 1984 at Jack Murphy Stadium. Billy Sims ran for two touchdowns and 119 yards, including an 81-yard touchdown scamper. Detroit QB Gary Danielson matched Hall of Famer Dan Fouts every step of the way, completing 20-of-25 attempts for 269 yards, while Fouts was 22-of-35 for 268 yards. The Chargers forged to a 24-7 halftime lead, but Detroit scored two third quarter touchdowns to narrow the gap to 24-21.

SERIES NOTES

- The 49ers have won nine of the last 10 meetings in the series to gain a 33-26-1 lead all-time in the series.
- Detroit is 16-12 in home games vs. the 49ers, including a 5-3 mark at the Silverdome. The teams have yet to meet at Ford Field.
- The Lions' dramatic 31-27 come-from-behind playoff win at San Francisco December 22, 1957 set the stage for Detroit's last NFL Championship. The week after the "Comeback at Kezar," the Lions routed Cleveland 59-14 for its third league title in six years.
- In Detroit's regular season finale December 23, 1996 at San Francisco, Barry Sanders cruised for 175 yards in claiming his third-career NFL rushing title. Sanders entered the game needing 161 yards to surpass Denver's Terrell Davis.
- Three of the last eight meetings between the two teams have been held in San Francisco on December Monday nights (all 49ers wins). The contests in 1992 (December 28) and 1996 (December 23) were regular season finales, while the 1998 outing (December 14) was the 14th game each team played that year.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions are 2-1 in the Silverdome vs. the Seahawks and 2-3 in the Kingdome.
- In the 2006 regular season opener, the Lions played host to the Seahawks for the first time at Ford Field. It marked Seattle's return to Ford Field after losing to the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XL.
- The Lions opened up a 20-0 lead and rolled to a 41-14 victory over the Seahawks in the first-ever meeting between the two teams October 24, 1976. Greg Landry threw three touchdown passes for the Lions, and Jim Zorn was intercepted six times, including two that were returned for touchdowns (Levi Johnson and Lem Barney). Zorn was the Lions' quarterbacks coach from 1998-00.
- After winning the inaugural meeting between the two clubs, the Lions dropped four consecutive outings to the Seahawks before winning the last three games.
- The Seahawks defeated the Lions 37-14 in the third and final game during the 1987 players' strike. In a game played predominantly by replacement players, Seattle QB Jeff Kemp passed for 344 yards and four touchdowns, while Hall of Famer Steve Largent caught 15 passes for 261 yards (both individual Silverdome records) and three scores.

- In the 1990 regular season finale played December 30, Barry Sanders rushed for 23 yards on nine carries to claim the NFL rushing title with 1,304 yards.
- The Lions' game with the Seahawks played October 17, 1993, a 30-10 Lions' win, was Detroit's 800th contest (including regular and post-season games) since the Portsmouth Spartans moved to the Motor City in 1934.
- In the 1999 regular season opener, the Lions built a 25-7 halftime lead and held on for a 28-20 victory over Seattle for the club's first season opening road win since 1986.
- The Lions and Seahawks met outside for the first time in 2003, the Lions first trip to Seahawks Stadium. Seattle was victorious, 35-14.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions and Titans have hooked up 10 times in the regular season with Tennessee holding a 7-3 lead. The Lions were 2-3 in Houston and 1-1 in the Pontiac Silverdome.
- The teams first met October 17, 1971 in Houston, with the Lions coming away with a 31-7 win.
- The Titans have won six of the last eight contests.

- The Titans, then the Oilers, put a damper on Detroit's 1992 Thanksgiving Day festivities with a come-from-behind 24-21 win November 26 over the Lions in the Silverdome. Lorenzo White's 8-yard touchdown scamper with 1:17 remaining sealed the Titans' victory and ended Detroit's three-game Thanksgiving Day win streak.
- On December 10, 1995, QB Scott Mitchell set the Lions' all-time record for most touchdown passes in a season. Bobby Layne had previously owned the record (26 in 1951). Mitchell completed the '95 season with 32 touchdown passes.

NFC Championship Game
Note: The Lions were located in Portsmouth from 1930-33. The Redskins were located in Boston from 1932-36.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions have never won a game in the Washington D.C. area—record of 0-21 vs. the Redskins either at RFK Stadium (0-18) or at FedEx Field (0-3). Of those 20 games, three were postseason losses (0-2 at RFK Stadium and 0-1 at FedEx Field).
- The last time the Lions defeated the Redskins away from the Motor City was October 13 1935, a 17-7 victory at Boston.
- Including postseason games, 11 of the last 14 contests between the two teams have been played away from Detroit—either at RFK Stadium or FedEx Field. The 2004 season marked the Redskins' first ever visit to Ford Field and their first to Detroit since November 9, 1997.
- Lions K Jason Hanson played in his 200th career game as a Lion when the Redskins visited Ford Field in 2004. Hanson's 200th game tied him for first on the Lions' all-time games played list with Wayne Walker (1958-72).

- The Lions own a 3-0 mark against the Redskins when they played in Boston, including two victories in 1935 en route to the NFL Championship.
- Detroit's 33-17 victory over the Redskins December 5, 1999 at the Silverdome snapped a 16-game regular season losing streak against Washington that dated back to a 14-10 Lions' win at Tiger Stadium October 3, 1965. However, the Redskins however rebounded when they defeated the Lions 27-13 January 8, 2000 in a 1999 Wild Card contest at FedEx Field.
- Detroit's win over Washington, 15-10, on September 10, 2000 at the Silverdome, the first time since the 1935 season that the Lions won back-to-back regular games against the Redskins. Washington was located in Boston when Detroit won both games played during the '35 season (17-7 at Boston and 14-0 at Detroit).

2009 DETROIT LIONS

HISTORY BOOK

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE LIONS

Detroit welcomed the Lions in 1934, but it was not the area's first look at professional football. In 1920, the Detroit Heralds were a charter member of the American Professional Football Association, which was the original name of the present NFL, but the club folded after two years. The Detroit Panthers appeared in 1925, but also folded after two seasons. In 1928, the Detroit Wolverines were formed, but they failed after just one year.

In 1930, the then-10-year-old National Football League added a franchise from Portsmouth, Ohio, called the Spartans. After four seasons, the team was purchased for $7,952.08 by a group headed by Detroit radio executive George A. Richards and moved to the Motor City.

Playing in the University of Detroit Stadium before crowds that averaged 16,000, the new Detroit Lions won the NFL Championship in only their second year (1935). Under the leadership of Coach "Potsy" Clark and stars like Hall of Famer "Dutch" Clark, Ernie Caddel, George Christensen, "Ace" Gutowsky, Glenn Presnell and "Ox" Emerson, the early Lions established pro football in Detroit.

In 1940, Chicagoan Fred Mandel bought the club. Lions' stars of that era included Hall of Famers Bill Dudley and Alex Wojciechowicz, John Green, Byron "Whizzer" White, Frank Sinkwich and "Camp" Wilson. The team was sold eight years later to a group of local businessmen under the leadership of Edwin J. Anderson. The Detroit syndicate controlled the club until 1964, when William Clay Ford became the sole owner for a price of $4.5 million.

The Lions dominated the NFL in the 1950s with four division titles and three league championships. Under the direction of head coach Buddy Parker, the team won back-to-back world crowns in 1952-53, defeating Cleveland on both occasions. Stars of those powerful teams were Hall of Famers Bobby Layne, Jack Christiansen, Doak Walker and Lou Creekmur, as well as Les Bingaman, Cloyce Box, Leon Hart and Bob Hoernschemeyer. The Detroit-Cleveland battles of the era were classic confrontations between two giants of the blossoming NFL.

Since their last title in 1957 under the coaching of George Wilson, the Lions have continued searching for the league's top spot. Such performers as Joe Schmidt, Yale Lary, Dick "Night Train" Lane, John Henry Johnson and Lem Barney have been elected to the Hall of Fame. Outstanding players such as Wayne Walker, Mike Lucci, Nick Pietrosante, Roger Brown, Terry Barr, Mel Farr, Charlie Sanders, Dexter Bussey, Billy Sims and Doug English have also taken their places in the annals of pro football in Detroit.

In 1967, Schmidt began the first of six seasons as head coach of the Lions. His 1970 team made the playoffs, (first postseason trip since '57) but lost in the first round to Dallas by the baseball-like score of 5-0.

Prior to the 1975 season, the Lions moved into a new, domed stadium in Pontiac, Mich., a suburb located 30 miles north of Detroit. The Silverdome was at one time the world's largest air-supported domed structure and seated over 80,000 spectators under a fiberglass roof.

Monte Clark took control of all football operations as head coach in 1978. Under Clark's direction, the Lions narrowly missed playoff berths in 1980-81, before qualifying in 1982 — the Lions' first playoff appearance since 1970. Detroit captured the NFC Central Division crown in 1983, but stumbled in the first round of the playoffs with a 24-23 loss at San Francisco.

Darryl Rogers took over for Clark in 1985 but was replaced on an interim basis by his defensive coordinator Wayne Fontes in November 1988 after Rogers' teams had posted a combined 18-40 record. Fontes was officially named the franchise's 18th head coach on December 22, 1988.

The Lions "Restored the Roar" in 1991, winning a franchise-record 12 regular season games. Riding a tide of emotion after guard Mike Uteley's paralyzing neck injury, Detroit defeated Dallas, 38-6, in the Lions' first Silverdome playoff contest. The victory gave the Lions a berth in the NFC Championship Game, where Detroit fell to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Washington Redskins.

The Lions finished 10-6 in 1993 en route to capturing the NFC Central Division title, and earned a Wild Card playoff bid in 1994. The 1995 Lions featured the NFL's top-rated offense and won their final seven games to earn a third straight playoff berth. Herman Moore set an NFL record with 123 catches, and he and Brett Perriman became the first teammates to each total over 100 catches in the same season. The receiver tandem also set the NFL record for most receiving yards in a season. Quarterback Scott Mitchell set team passing records for yards (4,338), completions (346) and touchdowns (32).

In 1996, running back Barry Sanders captured his third NFL rushing title with a dramatic 175-yard outburst on the final Monday night of the season in San Francisco. The Lions, however, finished a disappointing 5-11 in '96 and following the season, Fontes was replaced as head coach by former San Diego Chargers' head coach, Bobby Ross. Fontes, who was the head coach for more than eight full seasons, finished his career as the team's all-time leader among head coaches in both wins (67) and games coached (138).

Ross was named the 19th head coach in team history January 13, 1997, and led the club back to the playoffs in his inaugural year at the helm with a 9-7 record. That season, Sanders, who was inducted into the Hall of Fame in August 2004, continued his storybook career by becoming only the third player in league history to record 2,000 yards rushing in a single-season (2,053) and he recored off an NFL record 14 consecutive 100-yard outings to finish the season.

The Lions closed out the 1990s reaching the playoffs for the sixth time in the 10-year span, which is a franchise record for playoff appearances during a decade. Detroit's playoff berth in 1999 marked the second time in Ross' first three years as head coach that he led the Lions into the postseason. The last Lions' head coach to accomplish that feat was Buddy Parker in 1952-53 during his second and third seasons at the helm.

After playing nine games into the 2000 season and compiling a 5-4 record, Ross abruptly resigned as head coach November 6 and was immediately replaced by Gary Moeller. Moeller guided the team to a 4-3 record over the last seven games, but narrowly missed the playoffs with a loss to the Chicago Bears in the season finale. Following the season, William Clay Ford named Matt Millen president and CEO, and he assumed control over team operations. On January 25, 2001 Gary Moeller was replaced as head coach by former San Francisco 49ers offensive coordinator Marty Mornhinweg.

On April 1, 2002, Detroit relocated the team's day-to-day operations into the new $36 million Headquarters and Training Facility in Allen Park. The new complex features outdoor and indoor practice fields, spacious training and meeting rooms and even the team's own broadcast studio.

A new era in Lions' history dawned as Ford Field, the team's $500 million downtown Detroit stadium, opened its doors in August 2002. The 65,000-seat stadium sparkled as its retro and innovative features glistened in the national spotlight as the premiere sports and entertainment complex. The Lions played the first game at Ford Field August 24, 2002 in a preseason tilt against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The inaugural regular season game was played between the Lions and the Green Bay Packers September 22, 2002.

In January 2003, Mornhinweg was fired after two seasons and former San Francisco 49ers Head Coach Steve Mariucci was tabbed the new Lions' head coach February 4.

For the first time since the Lions placed the Leaping Lion logo on the players' helmets in 1961, Detroit announced a major addition to the team's uniform on April 23, 2003. The Lions' classic uniform now features black trim on the logo, jerseys and pants, along with black shoes and black facemasks. In April 2005, the team introduced an alternate black jersey that would be worn through 2007.

On November 28, 2005, Steve Mariucci was relieved of his duties as head coach and defensive coordinator Dick Jauron was named interim head coach for the remaining five games.

In 2006, the Lions hired Rod Marinelli as the team's 24th head coach, a position he would hold through 2008.

In 2008, the Lions commemorated the franchise's 75th season in Detroit. Just a handful of NFL teams have been around as long as the Lions, a franchise that spans several generations of fans over the years. Detroit has called three different stadiums home with nearly 1,400 players seeing action on a given gameday and numerous coaches strolling the sideline. That history is rich with great players who have donned the uniform -- the Lions are one of only nine teams to have at least 17 Pro Football Hall of Fame players don their respective uniforms -- and with traditions like the "Honolulu Blue and Silver", the leaping Lion logo, the "Roaring 20's" and the team's annual Thanksgiving Tradition.

With 75 years now in the rear-view mirror, Detroit is embarking on a new era of Lions football. In 2009, the franchise is led by ownership determined to deliver a winning team to the fans of Detroit. The Lions begin this endeavor with strong leadership and a renewed resolve to build a winner. For the first time in team history, the team enters the new season with a new president, Tom Lewand, a new general manager, Martin Mayhew, and a new head coach, Jim Schwartz, hired January 16, 2009, who are the driving force for the team's success on and off the field.

LIONS THANKSGIVING DAY TRADITION

Four generations of Detroiters have been a proud part of the American celebration of Thanksgiving. The relationship between Detroit and Thanksgiving dates back to 1934 when owner G.A. Richards scheduled a holiday contest between his first-year Lions and the Chicago Bears. Some 75 years later, fans throughout Michigan have transformed an annual holiday event into the single greatest tradition in the history of American professional team sports. Indeed, if football is America's passion, Thanksgiving football is Detroit's passion.

It was, legend says, a typically colorful, probably chilly, November day in 1622 that Pilgrims and Native Americans celebrated the new world's bounty with a sumptuous feast.

They sat together at Plymouth Plantation (they spelled it Plimouth) in Massachusetts, gave thanks for the goodness set before them, then dined on pumpkin pie, sweet potatoes, maize, cranberry sauce, turkey and who knows what else.

Actually, fish was just as predominant a staple. And history books say pumpkin pie really debuted a year later. But regardless of the accuracy of the details, that's how Thanksgiving Day is seen by Americans -- except Detroiters.

They may have most of the same images as everyone else, but with a new twist that began in 1934.

That's when Detroiters and their outstate Michigan compatriots found themselves at the dawn of an unplanned behavior modification, courtesy of George A. "Dick" Richards, owner of the city's new entry in the National Football League: The Detroit Lions.

Larry Paladino, Lions Pride, 1993

Richards, the first owner of the Detroit Lions, was behind the Lions' inaugural Thanksgiving game in 1934. Richards had purchased the team in June of that year and moved the Lions from Portsmouth, Ohio, to the Motor City. The Lions were the new kids in town and had taken a backseat to the Tigers of baseball. Despite the fact that the Lions had lost just one game prior to the Thanksgiving Day game that season, the largest crowd that season had been just 15,000.

The opponent for the Lions' first Thanksgiving Day game

November 29, 1934 was the undefeated, defending World Champion Chicago Bears of George Halas and the rising star of that era, fullback Bronko Nagurski. The game would determine the champion of the Western Division. Richards had convinced the NBC Radio Network to carry the game coast-to-coast (94 stations), and additionally, an estimated 26,000 jammed into University of Detroit Stadium while thousands of disappointed fans were turned away.

In the inaugural game, the Bears won 19-16 and a classic was born. Since '34, the Lions have played 69 Thanksgiving Day games with Detroit leading the series 33-34-2. A total of 3,863,644 fans have witnessed Thanksgiving Day games in Detroit. The Lions Thanksgiving Day classic has been sold out in each of the last 14 seasons (since 1994).

The Detroit Lions 70th Thanksgiving Day Classic this year will feature the Lions hosting long-time rival Green Bay Thursday, November 26 at 12:30 p.m. This year's Lions-Packers Thanksgiving Day game will renew a holiday rivalry that dates back to 1951. It will mark the 19th time the Lions have battled the Packers on Thanksgiving, with Detroit holding an 11-6-1 (.647) advantage. The Lions have played Green Bay more than any other opponent in the Thanksgiving Day series.

For 13 consecutive years from 1951-63, the Lions and Packers met on Thanksgiving, with the Lions claiming a 9-3-1 record during that span. The Lions-Packers Turkey Day tilt marks the fourth time since 2001 that the two teams will play in Detroit on Thanksgiving and the third at Ford Field.

Note: Prior to 1972, a team's winning pct. was calculated using wins and losses, disregarding ties. (Ex: Detroit's record in the 1960s was 2-6-2 and their winning pct. was .250, two wins/two wins + six losses). Since 1972, ties have been calculated in winning pct. as a half-a-win.

DETROIT LIONS UNIFORM HISTORY

1948: Alvin 'Bo' McMillin joined the Lions after having success as a college coach at Indiana University. Soon after his arrival, McMillin changed the colors of the Lions' uniforms with the new colors resembling those of his Hoosier teams. The organization retained Honolulu blue and silver as their official colors

- The jersey was scarlet with white numbers and the pants were white with a thin black stripe between two thin scarlet stripes. The helmets were black. All the players wore leather helmets that season due to the league's ban on plastic helmets.
- The team had a second, all-black uniform, which would be worn only for certain important games that McMillin particularly wished to win. The jersey was black with white numbers and the pants were black with a thin scarlet stripe between two thin white stripes.
- The two uniform sets ended up being worn in four different combinations (scarlet/white; black/black; scarlet/black; black/white).

1949: The Lions returned to wearing their Honolulu blue and silver uniforms at home but continued to wear combinations of the scarlet and white uniforms and the all-black uniforms on the road. The team changed the color of their helmet to blue and some players went back to wearing plastic helmets after the NFL lifted the ban on plastic headgear from the previous season.

1950-55: After wearing five different combinations of scarlet, white, black, silver and Honolulu blue in the previous two seasons, the Lions went back to wearing the traditional Honolulu blue and silver uniforms at home and on the road. For most of the 1950 season the team wore blue helmets but went back to wearing silver helmets for the 1951 season. During the early 50's, the NFL did not allow the Lions to wear silver helmets for night games because of their resemblance to the white ball under the night lights. They spray-painted their helmets blue for night games. Also, in 1951, the Lions wore the Detroit 250th Anniversary patch on their left sleeve. The patch was also worn by the Red Wings and Tigers.

1956: This was the first season that the Lions added their uniform numbers to the arm sleeves. Some players, like Lions Hall of Fame LT Lou Creekmur, were unhappy with the change – claiming that it made it harder to get away with holding.

1957-60: The Lions began wearing separate colored uniforms on the road on a permanent basis in 1957. The jersey was white with three blue stripes, one thick between two thin stripes, on the sleeves. The numbers were blue and the helmet and pants remained silver.

- They wore a white jersey on at least one other occasion in a previous season. On October 24, 1954, the Lions wore a similar white uniform in a game at San Francisco which they lost, 37-31, to the 49ers.

1961-67: In 1961, William Clay Ford's first season as the team's president, there were some significant uniform changes. The helmet remained silver with a grey face-mask but now had the leaping-lion logo as well as two vertical blue stripes running from the back to the front. The pants also had two vertical blue stripes. Three silver stripes, one thick between two thin, were added to the arm sleeves of the home jersey. The away jersey remained the same.

- During the mid-60s, many players cut off part of the sleeves—giving appearance of only one or two stripes.

1968-69: 1968 was the first year the Lions had a white stripe between the two blue stripes on the helmet. The Lions and the rest of the league wore the NFL 50th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder in 1969.

1970-71: Last names were added to the back of the players' jerseys in silver lettering and white trim was added to the Leaping Lion logo on the helmet in 1970.

- For the second half of the 1971 season, the Lions wore a black band, which was sewn over the thick stripe on the left sleeve on their home and away jerseys, in honor of wide receiver Chuck Hughes. Hughes died of a heart attack with 62 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter against the Chicago Bears on October 24, 1971.

1972: The Honolulu blue home jersey had white trim on the silver numerals and the white jerseys had silver trim on blue numerals for the first time in 1972. It was also the first year that there was a white, vertical stripe between the two blue stripes on the pants.

- The Lions tweaked the striping on the arm-sleeves for that season as well. The home jerseys had the one thick silver stripe between two thin white stripes and the away jersey had the one thick blue stripe between two thin silver stripes.

1973-75: Detroit changed back to the three silver stripes, one thick between two thin, on the sleeves of the Honolulu blue home jersey except now they had white trim. The away white jersey had three blue stripes, one thick between two thin, and they had silver trim.

- For the 1974 season, the Lions wore a black band, which was sewn over the thick stripe on the left sleeve of their home and away jerseys, in honor of Head Coach Don McCafferty who died of a heart attack during training camp.
- 1974 was also the season that the Lions started wearing white shoes.

1976-79: In 1976, the players' numbers were added to the back of the helmet.

1980-81: The Lions changed the dull silver stripes and trimming on their uniforms to a shimmering silver glitter. This only lasted two seasons because of complaints by other teams about the glare.

1982-97:

- 1982: The Lions changed the color of the numbers on their home jerseys, making them white with silver trim.
- 1983: The Lions wore a 50th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder. The Lions changed their facemask from silver/grey to Honolulu blue.

- 1991: The team wore a patch honoring Russ Thomas, a former player and General Manager for the Lions, who had recently passed away. For their final seven games (five regular season, two postseason), each player had a white circle decal with a blue number '60,' on the back right side of the helmet, in honor of RG Mike Utley. Utley suffered a spinal cord injury in a game against the Los Angeles Rams on November 17, 1991. The small NFL shield was added to the 'V' of the neck.

- 1992: They wore a black circle decal with a white number '65,' on the back right side of the helmet, in honor of LG Eric Andolsek, who was killed a few months prior to the season.
- 1993: The Lions wore a 60th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder.
- 1994: The Lions wore throwback jerseys for the 1994 season while the NFL was celebrating their 75th anniversary. This version of the uniform was intended to replicate the jersey worn by the Lions in 1935, which was the season that the team won their first world championship. Several players wore a black circle decal with a white number '50,' on the back right side of the helmet in honor of former Lions' LB Toby Caston.

1999: The Lions returned to wearing silver pants (with white stripe between two blue stripes) on the road.

2000-02: In 2000, the Lions moved the numbers that were on the sleeves up to the shoulders.

- The Lions wore a patch commemorating the first game at Ford Field September 22, 2002 against the Green Bay Packers.

2003: The home jersey has a thick silver stripe between two thin blue stripes with white trim and two thin black stripes. The numbers are white with silver trim and outside black trim. The away jersey has a thick blue stripe between two thin silver stripes with white trim and two thin black stripes. The numbers on the away jersey are blue with silver trim and outside black trim.

The helmet has one vertical white stripe between two blue stripes and two thin black stripes on the outside. The Leaping Lion has white trim and outside black trim and the facemask is black.

The pants have one vertical thick white stripe between two blue stripes and two thin black stripes.

2005: The Lions introduced a new black alternate jersey featuring Honolulu Blue numbers with silver and white trim. The alternate jersey can be worn in as many as two regular season games and one preseason game.

2008: To commemorate the Detroit Lions 75th Season, the team wore a patch on the home and away jerseys. Additionally, the Lions wore the franchise's classic "throwback" uniform sans 75th Season patch for two games.

LIONS NEW COMPREHENSIVE BRAND

On April 20, 2009, the Detroit Lions unveiled a new comprehensive brand that includes a new logo and new uniforms. As part of the new comprehensive brand, the Lions also introduced a new logotype and a new proprietary font, "NFL Lions." The new logotype is additional imagery that presents the Lions brand and will be featured in such prominent places as the endzone marking at Ford Field. The classic Honolulu blue, white and black colors remain unchanged.

HOME/HONOLULU BLUE JERSEYS

- Numerals were customized specifically for the Lions uniform. They are Honolulu Blue, trimmed in silver and black.
- Above the new numerals is the new Lions logotype.
- On the collar, there are three trim lines of equal width, with two black trim lines outside a silver trim line.
- The sleeves are a new knit sleeve that features a wide silver trim, inside two smaller white trims and those all inside two black trims of equal width as the white trim. The new material is improved and more flexible for players. The trim is part of the knit-sleeve material, which was changed from the previous silk-screened sleeve.
- Numerals remain on the shoulders but are now in the customized Lions jersey numerals.
- Players' nameplates on the back of the uniform have slightly modified block letters from the previous block letter names on the back of the uniform.

ROAD/WHITE JERSEYS

- The road jerseys are the traditional "road whites," with blue numerals trimmed in silver and black.
- On the road jerseys, the collar is in the same black and silver trim pattern as the home uniforms.
- Sleeves are of the same new knit-sleeve material that are on the new home uniforms. The trim on the sleeves includes a wide Honolulu blue trim, inside two smaller silver trims and those are all inside two black trims of equal width as the white trim.

HELMET

- The helmet now features the new logo on each side. It is the most significant change since the Lions logo was first placed on the team's helmet in 1961.
- The facemasks will remain black, but the new Lions logotype will be included on the front and the back of the helmet.
- At the top middle of the helmet, the striping pattern has been modified. Instead of a thick white stripe, two Honolulu blue stripes and a very thin black accent stripe, the helmet striping pattern is now a 5/8-inch Honolulu blue stripe, two 3/16-inch white stripes and two 3/16-inch black stripes. The striping pattern is the same striping pattern as the team's game pants.

PANTS AND GAME SOCKS

- The game pants will remain in the team's traditional silver. Like the striping pattern on the helmet, the pants vertical trim on the side of the legs are now a thick Honolulu blue stripe inside smaller white stripes, which are all inside black stripes that are the same width as the white stripes.
- The game socks, which are the same for the home and road uniforms, now have a 5/8-inch black stripe on the calf midline. The top half is Honolulu blue and the bottom half is white.

DETROIT LIONS CHARITIES

DETROIT LIONS CHARITIES GRANTS GIVING TOPS $5 MILLION MARK

Detroit Lions Charities (DLC) awarded 87 grants totaling $392,788.34 to non-profit agencies in 2008-09. This year's awards bring DLC, the football organization's philanthropic foundation, to more than $5.2 million in total donations in its 19-year history.

DLC was established in 1990 to assist all age groups in a diverse range of needs and programs in Michigan. Particular emphasis is placed on programs that benefit the children and youth of Detroit.

"Detroit Lions Charities is pleased to once again assist a number of outstanding charitable organizations that are making an impact in our communities," said Lions' Vice Chairman William Clay Ford, Jr. "It is an honor to partner with these organizations that, especially in these difficult economic times, mean so much to so many."

For the 11th consecutive year, a $60,000 grant will sponsor the Think Detroit PAL Football League. The league involves 3,200 Detroit youngsters, ages eight through 14, playing in one of the nation's largest tackle football leagues. The Think Detroit PAL season will conclude with its annual championships to be held in November and hosted by the Lions at Ford Field.

Another major commitment to Detroit was made through a $50,000 grant to Communities in Schools (CIS) of Detroit for the Detroit Lions Academy. The Academy has a student body of 140 sixth, seventh and eighth grade Detroit children who have had difficulties in traditional school settings. The Academy, which opened in 2001, is a cooperative effort between the Lions, Detroit Public Schools and CIS in association with several corporate sponsors including Costco Wholesale, Ford Motor Company and The Dow Chemical Company.

A grant for $16,788 sponsored fitness equipment in the new "Lions' Den" at the Boys & Girls Club in Highland Park in partnership with United Way and the NFL's Play 60 initiative that encourages children to be active at least 60 minutes each day. Also, in partnership with American Heart Association, DLC awarded a $10,000 grant to support youth fitness and nutrition programs at the Downriver Family YMCA in Southgate.

"Detroit Lions Charities is pleased to once again assist a number of outstanding charitable organizations that are making an impact in our communities. It is an honor to partner with these organizations that, especially in these difficult economic times, mean so much to so many."

-- Vice Chairman William Clay Ford, Jr.

The Lions' High School Football Coach of the Week program awarded grants totaling more than $28,700 to 10 Michigan prep football programs from all over the state. East Grand Rapids' Peter Stuursma was named High School Coach of the Year.

A grant for $28,218 went to the Athletes with Disabilities Hall of Fame to promote programs for persons with disabilities. This grant among several others came from the proceeds from the annual Lions' Tony Filippis Memorial Bocce Tournament held at Palazzo di Bocce in Orion Township.

Among other DLC grants, commitments were made to support The Children's Center, City Year, Sky Foundation, Visiting Nurses Association, The Henry Ford, Maple Grove Community Education, Pop Warner Football, and the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network (PanCAN).

DLC raises funds from several sources. Major support comes from corporate sponsors as well as funds raised through instadium and NFL auctions of Lions' memorabilia and game-worn items. Lions' players, coaches and staff support the "CATS for Kids" program that provides free game tickets to youth groups and also raises funds for DLC. Donations also come the "Up in Lights" program on game days.

DLC fundraisers include the bocce tournament, the Detroit Lions Invitational (DLI), All Pro Dad and the Lions' Kickoff Luncheon. The Lions' Tony Filippis Memorial Bocce Tournament was held at Palazzo di Bocce in Orion Township on May 13 and raised approximately $60,000. This year's DLI, a golf tournament open to the public and featuring several current and former Lions' players was held at TPC Michigan in Dearborn on June 2 and raised approximately $50,000. All Pro Dad, founded by Family First, brought more than 1,000 fathers and their children together last year at Ford Field for a program where dads learned to be better fathers. The Lions' Kickoff Luncheon will be held September 2 at Ford Field.

For tax-exempt Michigan organizations interested in filing for future funding, grant requests will be accepted from October 1 through December 31. Further information on grant eligibility guidelines and application procedures is available by going to the Lions' web page www.detroitlions.com or by writing Detroit Lions Charities, 222 Republic Drive, Allen Park, MI, 48101.

LIONS IN THE COMMUNITY

DETROIT LIONS

MAKING A POSITIVE IMPACT

The Ford Family's commitment to community service and dedication to making an impact in the lives of the citizens of Michigan is evident by the contributions made all year long by the Detroit Lions players, coaches and staff. The Lions take great pride in supporting those in need and make every effort to lend a helping hand to the community that has always supported the Detroit Lions. The following is just a sample of some of the programs and events the Lions have been involved in during the past year.

DONATIONS & PLAYER APPEARANCES

DONATIONS

The Detroit Lions understand that even though not every DLC grant application can be fulfilled, they have other means of helping out charities throughout Michigan with donated memorabilia for school and community fundraisers, charity auctions and raffles. The Lions filled more than 2,000 donation requests in 2008 and strive to fill all donation requests in the state of Michigan. A written notice at least six weeks in advance for these requests is required. All requests should be on the organization's letterhead and must include the nature of the event, date of event, what the donated item will be used for (i.e. raffle, auction, door prize, etc.) and a return mailing address (no PO boxes). Requests should be sent to: Detroit Lions Community Affairs, 222 Republic Drive, Allen Park, MI 48101.

PLAYER APPEARANCES

Lions' players spend much of their time away from football getting to know their fans by volunteering at special community events, hospitals, schools and fundraisers throughout the year. During 2008, players and coaches filled more than 250 appearance requests. Organizations requesting a player appearance must send a written request including information about the organization and appearance, where it will be held, what the player would be expected to do and if there is an honorarium available for the player. A six-week advance notice for all appearances is required.

FUNDRAISING

COURAGE HOUSE DINNER

Many Lions' players, alumni and staff joined sponsors and supporters at Ford Field for the 15th annual Detroit Lions Courage House Dinner which recognized Lions' safety Daniel Bullocks as the recipient of the 2008 Ed Block Courage Award. The annual dinner benefits HAVEN, Oakland County's premier center for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse. Previous dinners have raised approximately $1.5 million for HAVEN.

DETROIT LIONS INVITATIONAL

Detroit Lions Charities raised approximately $50,000

at the Detroit Lions Invitational, the 19th annual golf tournament held at the prestigious TPC Michigan in Dearborn. Factoring in this year's substantial contribution, Detroit Lions Charities has now generated approximately $1.85 million in the 19 outings. Approximately 135 golfers enjoyed good golf and great fellowship at TPC Michigan's championship course – including the event chairman Lions' head coach Jim Schwartz and over 70 Lions' players.

KICKOFF LUNCHEON

Lions' fans were given the opportunity to meet the entire 2008 team and coaching staff at the 12th annual Detroit Lions Kickoff Luncheon. The annual kickoff to a new Lions' season was presented by Tribute Restaurant & The Wisne Family and hosted by the Detroit Economic Club at Cobo Center in Detroit. The primary recipient of Detroit Lions Charities' proceeds from the luncheon is the Think Detroit PAL youth football league. The league features approximately 3,200 youngsters playing in the nation's largest after-school tackle football program.

TONY FILIPPIS MEMORIAL BOCCIE TOURNAMENT

The 2009 Detroit Lions' Tony Filippis Memorial Bocce Tournament raised approximately $60,000 for Detroit Lions Charities to benefit the Athletes with Disabilities Hall of Fame and various other charities in Michigan. The tournament was named in honor of the late Tony Filippis, long-time advocate for the disabled community. This year's tournament was led by honorary chairmen Tony Battaglia, AJ Filippis, Lions' head coach Jim Schwartz and former Lions' lineman Mike Utley. The tournament has raised more than $785,000 since it first originated in 2004 by former Lions head coach Steve Mariucci.

EDUCATION

DETROIT LIONS ACADEMY

The Detroit Lions Academy is the Lions' alternative school in Detroit for students who have not been successful in traditional middle school settings. The school first opened its doors in Fall 2001 with around 60 middle school students and expanded to 140 students by the Fall of 2008. The Academy is made possible through a collaborative effort between Detroit Public Schools, Communities in Schools of Detroit, the Detroit Lions and corporate sponsors including Costco Wholesale, Dow Chemical Company and Ford Motor Company. The Lions continue their involvement with the Academy throughout the year with player and staff appearances.

NFL TAKE A PLAYER TO SCHOOL

Lions' quarterback Dan Orlovsky made a special appearance to Notre Dame Marist Academy in 2008 as a part of the "NFL Take a Player to School" sweepstakes. Orlovsky spent the day with second-grade student Sydney Newby and her classmates, thanks to the sweepstakes sponsored by the JC Penney Afterschool Fund and the National Football League. The program is part of the NFL's Play 60 campaign, which encourages youth to get at least 60 minutes of exercise a day.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

HIGH SCHOOL COACH OF THE WEEK PROGRAM

For the 12th consecutive season, the Detroit Lions and Detroit Lions Charities, in association with the NFL, and presenting sponsor Motorola presented the Detroit Lions High School Coach of the Week Program. Each week throughout the regular season, one Michigan high school coach that best developed his players' character, discipline, and football skills was recognized for his commitment to the team, school and community. The winners were selected by a panel of three sportswriters – Hugh Bernreuter of the Saginaw News, Jane Bos of the Grand Rapids Press and Mick McCabe of the Detroit Free Press. Each winning coach throughout the regular season received a $2,000 donation to his school's football program and the Coach of the Year, Peter Stuursma from East Grand Rapids received $4,000. Coaches were also honored at a Lions' home game during the season. The Detroit Lions High School Coach of the Week program has awarded $234,000 to high school football programs throughout the state of Michigan.

PUNT, PASS & KICK

For the 22nd consecutive year the Detroit Lions in partnership with the Michigan Recreation and Park Association (MRPA) hosted the Michigan NFL-Pepsi Punt, Pass & Kick Championships at Ford Field. Forty (40) youngsters age 8-15 competed for state titles in four age divisions for both boys and girls. For the second consecutive year, the Lions and the MRPA worked together to increase disabled youth football participation in the state of Michigan by hosting an adaptive division of PP&K at the Lions Team Headquarters in Allen Park.

THINK DETROIT PAL YOUTH FOOTBALL

The Detroit Lions were once again a major sponsor for Think Detroit PAL (TDP) youth football and host to the TDP football championships at Ford Field in 2008. The league features 80 teams and more than 3,200 youngsters, ages 8-14, making it among the largest leagues for tackle football in the nation. The Lions have sponsored the TDP Football League since 1999. Each year, the Lions host the league's championships at Ford Field and designate the proceeds from their annual kickoff luncheon to support the TDP football program.

COMMUNITY ENHANCEMENT

AMERICAN HEART ASSOCIATION

"Be Sharp, Eat Smart" was the message the American Heart Association (AHA) and the Lions were promoting during a 2008 healthy eating event for children at the Downriver Family YMCA in Southgate. The purpose of the event was to fight childhood obesity, which is one of the nation's leading health threats, according to the AHA. To further support health education, the Lions and the AHA awarded a $10,000 grant to support the YMCA's youth fitness programs. The event also helped promote the NFL-wide What Moves U campaign which encourages kids to get active.

HOMETOWN HUDDLE

The Detroit Lions teamed up with the United Way for Southeastern Michigan and the Boys & Girls Club of Southeastern Michigan for the 10th Annual Hometown Huddle in 2008. The Lions' long-standing association with HometownHuddle is one of the longest-running and most visible charitable collaborations of its kind. Lions' players participated with local area youth in several exercise activities and helped create a new fitness room at the Club in Highland Park. The Hometown Huddle helped promote the NFL Play 60 campaign.

BOYS & GIRLS CLUBS OF SOUTHEASTERN MICHIGAN

HOSPITAL VISITS

The Detroit Lions commitment to the community is no more rewarding than when it touches the lives of youngsters, and one way in which players and staff are able to do just that is by making visits to Detroit-area children's hospitals. Children typically receive personal visits with the players, who help with homework, play games, share stories and provide the children encouragement. They also take time to sign autographs and take photos for the children and their families.

LIFT UP AMERICA

The Detroit Lions teamed up with Gleaners of Detroit, Here's Life Inner City and Tyson Foods, Inc. to host "Lift Up America" at Ford Field. Lift Up America was founded in 2005 with a mission to give back to communities across the country. Fueled by caring corporations and individuals and powered by a humanitarian heart, Lift Up America aims to feed the nation's hungry. During the event, volunteers and players worked together and loaded 34,000 pounds of Tyson Brand chicken into the vehicles of several different agencies from the Detroit area.

LIONS LADIES

Lions' players are not the only ones who try to help make an impact in the lives of others in the community. Their wives and girlfriends are always looking for ways to help, as well. Over the years the Lions Ladies have given their time, energy and support by reaching out to make a positive impact on the lives of others. For several years, the Lions Ladies have donated and delivered Thanksgiving food baskets to the Coalition on Temporary Shelter (COTS) in Detroit to help people in need.

NFL YET CENTER

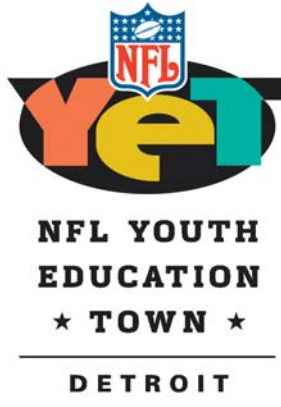

The Detroit Super Bowl XL Host Committee (DSBXLHC), National Football League (NFL), Detroit Lions, and leading Detroit community sponsors teamed to build the Detroit NFL Youth Education Town (YET), managed by Boys & Girls Clubs of Southeastern Michigan. The $6 million facility has received many donations including a major donation from Richard and Sandra Dauch and the grounds encompassing YET is named the Dick & Sandy Dauch Campus. The YET, which opened its doors in May 2007 is a 30,000 square-foot facility which features a gymnasium, game room, teen center, technology center, fitness trail, and an outdoor athletic field sponsored by Buffalo Bills' owner and Detroit native Ralph Wilson. Lions' players and staff make special visits to the YET throughout the year.

PAINTFEST

The Lions and the John D. Dingell VA Medical Center of Detroit took part in a 15-city nationwide PaintFest supported by the Foundation for Hospital Art (Atlanta, GA) in 2008. The PaintFest is a form of art therapy that bring patients, staff, families, community and volunteers together in a unique, interactive way; working together on paint-by-color, multiple canvas murals and ceiling tiles to add color and warmth to an often sterile hospital environment.

PANCAN

The Lions once again teamed up with the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network (PanCAN) in 2008 to help increase awareness of pancreatic cancer. Pancreatic cancer is the fourth leading cause of cancer death in the U.S. and each year more than 37,000 Americans are diagnosed with the cancer. The Lions were touched by pancreatic cancer when the organization's director of security, the late Ricky Sandoval, was diagnosed in May 2006.

PANCREATIC CANCER ACTION NETWORK
ADVANCE RESEARCH. SUPPORT PATIENTS. CREATE HOPE.

PET CALENDAR

Lions' players and their pets were photographed for the sixth annual Detroit Lions Pet Calendar in 2008 to help support the Dearborn Animal Shelter. Proceeds from sales of the calendar will help the Friends for the Dearborn Animal Shelter to build a new Dearborn animal shelter facility. The facility is planned to be the first animal shelter facility of its kind in Michigan, utilizing state-of-the-art innovation and design that will positively enhance the experience of both people and animals.

GAME DAY ACTIVITIES

CATS FOR KIDS

The Detroit Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program provides an opportunity for players and coaches of the Detroit Lions to give back to the community by purchasing tickets through Detroit Lions Charities for youth organizations. The mission of the program is to distribute tickets to youth organizations that would not otherwise have a chance to attend a Lions' game based on financial reasons.

CHARITY DRIVES

The Lions, with the assistance of many sponsors and fans, were able to help out many people in need through its annual game-day collection drives. Fans donated tons of coats and blankets to the 18th annual Thanksgiving Day Coat Drive that benefits the Salvation Army. The 14th annual Toys for Tots Toy Drive collected thousands of toys that were distributed to less fortunate children in the metro Detroit area by the United States Marine Corps in Detroit through their Toys for Tots program.

HOMETOWN HEROES

The Detroit Lions continued to honor Michigan military personnel at Lions' home games in 2008 with their "Hometown Heroes" program. The Lions honored Michigan National Guard members of the Air Force, Army, Coast Guard, Marines and Navy in-person during the third quarter of Lions' home games at Ford Field. The "Hometown Heroes" were selected by their highest ranking officers in the state and were honored for having served their country overseas. As part of the program, honored soldiers received four premium club tickets to the game and a personalized letter from the Lions' head coach.

ALUMNI

ALL-75TH TEAM

The Lions announced their 75th Season All-Time Team presented by Belle Tire during the 2008 season. The 36-member squad represents the greatest players in franchise history. Players on the all-time team span the entire 75 seasons the team has played in Detroit from QB Earl "Dutch" Clark (1934-38) to K Jason Hanson (1992-present). During halftime of the Lions' home game vs. Jacksonville November 9, the 75th Season All-Time Team was introduced. The Lions 75th Season All-Time Team was compiled by a 16-week online fan voting process on Detroitlions.com and a selection committee that consisted of five members of the media and four long-time employees of the Lions.

HONORARY ALUMNI CAPTAINS

2008 marked the eighth consecutive season that the Lions have honored former players at home games. The alumni captains are introduced to the Ford Field crowd and participate in the coin-toss ceremonies. Lions' alumni are also frequent visitors at many of Detroit Lions events throughout the season including the annual Lions' Bocce Tournament, Lions' Invitational Golf Tournament and the Lions' Courage House Dinner.

DETROIT LIONS YOUTH FOOTBALL

The Detroit Lions Youth Football Initiative has been created for the sole purpose of making a positive impact on children's lives both on and off the field through football. Many life lessons can be learned by playing the game, and the Lions would like to play its part in the positive development of Michigan's youth. The implementation of the following state-wide programs will help increase interest in children playing organized football as well as aid in the development of those coaching the game.

For more information on any of the Detroit Lions Youth Football Programs or to join the mailing list, please call (313) 262-2248, e-mail cfritzsching@detroitlions.com or visit www.detroitlions.com/youthfootball.

SUMMER YOUTH FOOTBALL CAMPS & ACADEMIES

Camps will be conducted 9 weeks during the summer. Non-contact, fundamental football camps, designed to improve child's beginning, intermediate and advanced skill levels, are either 2 or 4 days for children ages 6-14. Participation from former or current Lions' players adds to the quality of the experience. Fundamentals of all positions on offense, defense and special teams are taught during the instruction.

Lions Youth Football Camp includes: Non-contact fundamental football instruction; Lions Camp T-shirt; Guest appearance from a current or former Lions player; Chalk talk & video sessions; Skills contests & scrimmages; Opportunity to earn week-long awards such as the Leadership Award, Attitude Award, Extra Effort Award, Future Star Award, Consistency Award, Teammate Award, Most Improved Award and the Hustle Award.

Camp schedule is available in February of each year.

SKILL DEVELOPMENT SESSIONS

Take your game to the next level! Sign up for Detroit Lions Skill Development Sessions! Members of the Detroit Lions Youth Football Camp Coaching Staff conduct one hour sessions that include detailed, one-on-one, position-specific instruction, video analysis, and a written evaluation. Video analysis and comparison to other football players helps in the overall development of the participant. Participants receive a DVD of their Skill Development Session. Sessions can be conducted year-round.

LIONS "LEADERS FOR LIFE" EDUCATIONAL SCHOOL ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

Exciting, interactive 45-minute assemblies are conducted September-April at elementary schools throughout Michigan. This interactive, high-energy character education program discusses six qualities it takes to become a successful leader.

First Half: "Lions Leaders for Life" assembly is designed to discuss the development of character, academic and athletic values through goal-setting. Interactive vignettes will help explain the Lions Leadership List (Listen & Learn, Educated, Ambitious, Disciplined, Encouraging, and Responsible), a list to help youth become a leader today, tomorrow, the rest of the school year and for the rest of their lives.

Second Half: During after-school football clinics, beginning in November, Lions youth football coaching staff members teach participants the fundamentals of football during this 90-minute clinic. Clinic includes fundamental football instruction, a Detroit Lions Clinic T-shirt, a Lions Pride game program and a certificate of participation!

FUNDAMENTAL YOUTH FOOTBALL CLINICS

Clinics are conducted at elementary schools, Recreation Departments, YMCA's, Boys and Girls Clubs and local parks or for youth football organizations. These one-and-a-half hour clinics can be held indoor or outdoor, September-May, and teach the fundamentals of quarterback, running back or wide receiver play in a safe, fun and educational manner.

HALFTIME YOUTH FOOTBALL GAMES

Be part of the halftime entertainment! Experience the thrill of playing at Ford Field in front of 65,000 people during halftime at a Detroit Lions game. Youth football teams ages 8-10 have the opportunity to suit up like the pros, play at Ford Field, and feel what it is like to walk out of the players' tunnel! Three to six games are conducted every football season. This experience will provide great team building opportunities and ultimately great memories for youth football organizations!

FOOTBALL 401

Football 401 was created to help the novice adult football fan learn more about the game of football, both on and off the field. Currently conducted prior to a Lions regular season home game, participants will take part in an on-field fundamental football clinic, followed by classroom sessions designed to provide football knowledge from a coach's, official's and football player perspective. Following the classroom session, you'll be able to apply your new-found football knowledge with your classmates and cheer on the Lions to victory!

HIGH SCHOOL 7-ON-7 TOURNAMENT

The Detroit Lions High School Football 7-on-7 Passing Tournament is open to 12 varsity high school football teams. The double-elimination passing tournament is held in June or July at Ford Field, home of the Detroit Lions.

YOUTH FOOTBALL FORUM

The Detroit Lions have created an exciting program entitled the "Detroit Lions Youth Football Forum", designed to discuss issues critical to the day-to-day operation of youth football conferences, organizations and teams.

The purpose of the Youth Football Forum is to allow for discussion of key topics, meet new league representatives and share innovative ideas with the hope of gathering new programs, concepts and rules for the betterment of the youth football experience. Topics include age and weight restrictions, coaching education, background checks, equipment, insurance, fundraising and much more.

The Youth Football Forum consists of two to four meetings per year with members being selected by the Detroit Lions organization. The current Forum consists of 38 members from 26 different Youth Football Organizations around the state of Michigan, representing over 62,000 youth football players.

DETROIT LIONS COACHING ACADEMY

The Detroit Lions have developed a football education program designed to elevate the quality of coaching at the youth, middle and high school levels across the State of Michigan.

Topics covered include Coaching Philosophy; Football Skills, Strategy & Drills; Health, Fitness, Nutrition & Strength Training; and On-Field Demonstrations, along with several specialty sessions.

In addition to the valuable coaching segments, participants receive a Coaching Academy t-shirt and a completion certificate.

The Coaching Academy is typically conducted in June at the Detroit Lions Headquarters and Training Facility in Allen Park.

DETROIT LIONS/MEIJER KIDS CLUB

Join the 2009-10 Detroit Lions/Meijer Kids Club. Membership includes a Kids Club t-shirt and goodies, welcome letter from Roary, the Lions' mascot, video birthday greeting from a Detroit Lions player, Detroit Lions yearbook, quarterly newsletters, an invitation to Kids Club Day during a 2009 Lions preseason game and more!

FORD FIELD

Ford Field, home of the Detroit Lions, is one of the premiere sports and entertainment stadiums in the world, and that fact has been proven over and over again the past few years with such high-profile international events like Super Bowl XL.

Every event at Ford Field impacts the city of Detroit beyond the event itself inside the stadium. For example, by hosting the Super Bowl in Detroit, Ford Field stood as the centerpiece to an over $260 million economic impact on Metro Detroit.

And none of that would have been made possible without the vision and investment made by Lions Owner and Chairman William Clay Ford and the Ford family to not only construct a fine football stadium but an unrivaled sports and entertainment venue.

HOME FOR FOOTBALL

More than just a home for the Lions, few stadiums in the country hold a football schedule as aggressive as Ford Field. Football championships have been held at virtually every level ranging from youth football to the Super Bowl. Ford Field is busy during the summer time as well when the Detroit Lions Youth Football Programs host both summer camps and a high school 7-on-7 tournament at the stadium.

2008 FALL FOOTBALL EVENTS

- 10 Lions home games, including the Lions 69th Thanksgiving Day Classic
- 12th annual Motor City Bowl: Purdue vs. Central Michigan
- MAC Football Championship: Buffalo vs. Ball State
- MHSAA High School State Championships
- Illinois vs. Western Michigan
- High School Catholic League Championship
- Detroit Public Schools Football Championships
- Annual Detroit PAL Football Championships

SUPER BOWL XL RECAP

In 2006, Ford Field and Metro Detroit sparkled as the international sports community converged for the NFL's championship game.

"Much changed for the city of Detroit in 25 years since the Super Bowl was played there last," said former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue. "The energy of the city and the revival of downtown Detroit are evident. Detroit was a wonderful host and the hospitality exceeded expectations."

"From the media center and NFL headquarters at GM World Headquarters and the Renaissance Center, to the NFL Experience at Cobo Center, to the events at some of downtown's historic theatres, to the game at Ford Field, our fans, teams, business partners and media enjoyed their Super Bowl experience in Detroit."

THE ROAD AHEAD

Football events are not the only major events on the docket at Ford Field. The future is gearing up for several spectacular events, including the return of Kenny Chesney's "Sun City Carnival" 2009 Tour in August and the NCAA Men's Hockey Frozen Four in April 2010. These events are anchors in an impressive entertainment schedule that continues serving as a centerpiece to growth in Detroit's downtown business district. The following is the Ford Field upcoming events calendar (tentative).

2009

- Aug. 22: Kenny Chesney's "Poets & Pirates" Super Show
- Sept. 20: 2009: Lions regular season home opener vs. Minnesota Vikings

- Nov. 5: Michigan Tech Youth Engineering & Science Expo
- Nov. 7: Michigan Competing Band Association Championships
- Nov. 26: Lions 70th Thanksgiving Day game vs. Green Bay Packers
- Nov. 27-28: MHSAA Football Championships
- Dec. 4: Marathon MAC Football Championship
- Dec. 26: Motor City Bowl

2010

- Jan. 16: Monster Jam
- Apr. 8 and 10: NCAA Men's Hockey Frozen Four

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

The 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four reached new heights this past year as Ford Field served as the host site for one of the year's biggest sporting events. It capped off two years of setting new standards for the men's basketball championships, which included attendance records for the Final Four, National Championship and preliminary rounds.

With the Final Four and Midwest Regionals now a success, Ford Field and the Detroit Metro area is gearing up to have that same impact on the 2010 NCAA Men's Hockey Frozen Four.

2009 MEN'S NCAA FINAL FOUR

This year's Final Four finalized a process that included six years of planning with the ultimate goal of delivering a Final Four like no other, and the NCAA, Ford Field and the city of Detroit did just that. The cornerstone to this year's championship was the center stadium court and seating configuration that included customized risers and, for the first time, designated student sections. On the court, the Final Four featured Michigan State defeating Connecticut, 82-73, and North Carolina defeating Villanova, 83-69 in the National Semifinals. In the National Championship, North Carolina ousted Michigan State, 89-72, to claim the NCAA title.

The weekend kicked off on a record note as Final Four Friday drew a record crowd with nearly 30,000 in attendance. The games were expected to establish new records, and they delivered as well. The National Semifinals set an all-time record with 72,456 fans attending both games, and the National Championship upped that amount when it drew 72,992. Overall, 145,378 fans attended the Final Four, which also set a new record.

Festivities surrounding the Final Four livened up downtown Detroit. The ancillary events, like Hoops City, also drew record crowds over the five-day period. The NCAA and the Detroit Local Organizing Committee worked together on several community outreaches, which include a new legacy program. In the Detroit community, new early learning and literacy centers were opened. All of this was made possible by the vision of Ford Field and the NCAA to take this event to new levels. In the end, the Final Four generated an estimated $30-50 million impact on the city of Detroit.

MIDWEST REGIONALS

Midwest Regionals, which included the Sweet Sixteen and Elite Eight rounds, were held March 28 and 30 in downtown Detroit for the first time as well, and both sessions set new preliminary rounds attendance records with 57,028 and 57,563 respectively for each session. A record of 114,591 was also established for both sessions. The excitement for the Midwest Regional was evident when 50,000 tickets were sold prior to the announcement of the 65-team tournament. Teams in the regional included Kansas (1 seed), Wisconsin (3), Davidson (10 seed) and Villanova (12 seed). Davidson upset Wisconsin, 73-56, in the first game and Kansas defeated Villanova, 72-57, in the second game. The regional title was claimed by Kansas with a win over Davidson, 59-57, in a game that came down to the final seconds. The previous attendance record for a single Regional game was 42,519. That mark was set at the Michigan State vs. Kentucky game in St. Louis' Trans World Dome in 1999.

NCAA HOCKEY

Beyond 2009, Ford Field will elevate collegiate hockey to an all-time level when it hosts the NCAA Men's 2010 Frozen Four. In an area that shows great support annually for college hockey and several Division I programs in the state of Michigan, Ford Field, which will be the largest stadium ever to host the Frozen Four, is the ideal venue to provide access to more fans of college hockey's version of the Final Four than ever before. In the state alone, there are eight Division I men's hockey programs, and in the 60 years of crowning an NCAA champion, five schools from Michigan have won the title a combined 19 times.

A LOOK AT THE PAST

On November 16, 1999, a new era in Detroit Lions' history began when the team officially launched the construction of its new downtown Detroit stadium. In 2002, the Lions and the city of Detroit unveiled one of the most impressive sports and entertainment venues ever built.

The Lions' downtown home is an incomparable 65,000-seat facility that includes a giant glass wall, revealing the picturesque Detroit skyline, and the old Hudson's Warehouse, originally built in 1920. The massive project encompasses a total of 1.85 million square feet of development.

The old Hudson's Warehouse, a major cornerstone of Ford Field, houses most of the stadium luxury seats, pressbox, restaurants, food courts, lounge areas, banquet facilities, entertainment venues and commercial space. The inclusion of the warehouse into the stadium project allows the sightlines at Ford Field to be among the very best in the NFL. In fact, even the locker room facilities have been built in the basement of the seven-story historic Detroit structure.

Detroit played its first home preseason game at Ford Field Saturday, August 24, 2003 against the Pittsburgh Steelers. Almost one month later, the Lions celebrated the inaugural regular season game at Ford Field Sunday, September 22 when they played host to their long-time divisional rival, the Green Bay Packers. The 2002 home opener marked the return of the Lions to downtown Detroit for the first time since 1974.

Following the grand opening event and the Lions' first regular season game, Ford Field's first concert was headlined by the rock-and-roll legends, the Rolling Stones. At Super Bowl XL, the Rolling Stones returned to headline the NFL's halftime show.

Not only has Ford Field impressed the NFL owners, but it has also made an impact on the NCAA to name the stadium the site of the 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four. Ford Field warmed-up for that championship event by hosting one of the four Men's Basketball Regional Finals in 2008. In addition to the men's basketball championship, the NCAA will return in 2010 as Ford Field hosts the Men's Hockey Frozen Four.

In April 2007, Ford Field expanded its portfolio when it hosted one of the biggest sports entertainment events of the year when the WWE's Wrestlemania extravaganza rolled into town. The event set a Ford Field record with 80,103 in attendance and it was the second-highest tally in the 23-year history of the event behind Wrestlemania III (93,173) held at the Pontiac Silverdome. Wrestlemania 23 at Ford Field included fans from 23 different countries, including all 50 states and nine Canadian provinces. Wrestlemania was the highest grossing one-day live event in WWE history, and holding the event at Ford Field helped pump an estimated $25 million into the local economy.

Ford Field has also hosted prominent motorsports events, including the United States Hot Rod Association's Monster Jam monster truck series for the past two years and the AMA Amp'd Mobile Supercross series.

Ford Field began as a construction phenomenon on multiple fronts, and is now a crown jewel of stadiums in the NFL and Detroit's downtown entertainment district. The stadium's impact continues to grow as Ford Field plays host to football games, sports and entertainment events, tradeshows and concerts.

FEATURES

Ford Field is nestled at the intersection of I-75 and I-375 in downtown Detroit. The 40-foot glass wall entrance is located at the corner of Adams and Brush Street. Brush Street runs between Ford Field and Comerica Park, home of the Detroit Tigers. St. Antoine Street runs on the east side of the stadium and Beacon St. borders Ford Field on the south side.

LUXURY SUITES

The luxury suite options are like no other in the sports industry. Ford Field incorporates 132 luxury suites, including 115 in the warehouse and 17 on the north side of the stadium. The 115 suites in the warehouse are located on four different levels.

The inspired design that integrates luxury suites into the historic Hudson's warehouse affords each suite holder significant opportunities, including optimum views, easy access and customized floor plans. By eliminating end zone suites, Ford Field luxury suites offer goal-line-to-goal-line, corner-to-corner views of every play. Since suites are centrally located, access is simple and direct, and creative use of warehouse space provides flexibility to create a wide selection of suite shapes and sizes.

Suites can accommodate from eight to 30 people, which allows for a wider variety of suites than most football stadium.

Suite holders receive amenity packages consisting of tickets for all Lions' home games, tickets for most non-Lions events, first option on additional tickets to non-Lions events, VIP parking, private entrance, private concourse, private bathroom access, premium catering, in-suite televisions to view additional NFL action, full concierge service and day use of suite (during normal business hours).

CLUB SEATS

There are 8,700 club seats at Ford Field. 4,300 club seats are located on the north side, and 4,400 are located on the club level that is adjoined to the warehouse. Club seats at Ford Field represent the ultimate in club experience with an unrivaled game day opportunity.

Club seat ticket holders have access to four exclusive clubs in the stadium with expanded food selection of upscale cuisine.

Amenities include: wide, leather padded seats (manufactured by Visteon) with cupholders, elevator and escalator services from main entrances, two private entrances, climate controlled atmosphere, televisions and video walls in club lounges, club level concierge service, exclusive Lions merchandise store, opportunities to purchase tickets to other Ford Field events and opportunities for year-round use of club lounges for business meetings and social functions.

LIONS PRO SHOP

The Detroit Lions' official merchandise store, Lions Pro Shop, is located inside Ford Field on the Adams St. Concourse. The team store is open for business Monday-Friday from 10:30 a.m.-3 p.m. and during select events.

HEADQUARTERS & TRAINING FACILITY

The Ford family not only made a commitment to bring the pride of the Detroit Lions back into downtown Detroit with the construction of Ford Field, but they also decided that the new training and practice facility would be rivaled by no other team in the National Football League.

The Lions' $36 million Headquarters and Training Facility is built on a 22.7-acre parcel and is located just west of Detroit on the border of Allen Park and Dearborn. In fact, the facility is just down the street from Ford Motor Company's World Headquarters.

The franchise broke ground on the new world-class facility in August 2000 and moved into its new digs in April 2002. The 460,000 square foot complex includes a full indoor practice field, 2.5 outdoor practice fields, a state-of-the-art weight and training room, a massive locker room, a hydrotherapy room, a spacious equipment room, a cafeteria, meeting rooms for each position, a player lounge, a 106-person auditorium for full team meetings and large press conferences, a broadcast studio, a library and archive room, a media room along with offices for all personnel.

When entering the building from the main entrance, one is immediately hit with flashbacks of Lions' football. A 23-by-26 foot mural is covered with the likenesses of nine Hall-of-Fame Lions players.

In an effort to keep the environment clean, William Clay Ford, Jr. also made sure the building was built with renewable and recyclable products. The bamboo floors in the lobby, latex paint and rubber flooring have all contributed to this cause.

DETROIT LIONS RADIO NETWORK

The Detroit Lions enter their 14th year with CBS Radio and their sixth season on flagship station 97.1 The Ticket (WXYZ-FM). In February 2005, the Lions and CBS Radio renewed their broadcast partnership by inking a new five-year deal.

In 2009, all Lions games will be carried live on flagship station 97.1 The Ticket. The Detroit Lions Radio Network will comprise of 32 stations throughout Michigan, Ohio and into Canada.

The Lions' broadcasting team features Dan Miller, who is in his fifth season as the Lions Radio Network's play-by-play announcer. Alongside Miller in the booth will be Detroit radio and television sports personality Jim Brandstatter, a former star lineman for the University of Michigan, who will provide the color commentary. Brandstatter is now in his 23rd season on the Lions Radio Network after joining the team in 1987. In his ninth year as the Detroit Lions Radio Network sideline reporter is Tony Ortiz. Rounding out the team and working behind the scenes is Al Rosenberg, who enters his 16th season serving as the engineer and on-site producer.
